A Voice in the Wilderness

God tells His servants in His Word, “Cry aloud, spare not. Lift up your voice like a trumpet and declare to My people their transgression and to the house of Jacob their sins!” (Isa.58:1, Parallel Amplified Bible).

God also declares: “Comfort, comfort My people, says your God. Speak tenderly to the heart of Jerusalem, and cry to her that her time of service and her warfare are ended, that [her punishment is accepted and] her iniquity is pardoned, that she has received [punishment] from the Lord’s hand double for all her sins.”

We are living in a world gone berserk with anger and rage. “Why do the nations rage?” (Psalm 2:1). Answer – because they don’t know the true God, and are in rebellion against His laws and teachings and the true way of life and peace!

Isaiah wrote: “A voice of one who cries: Prepare in the wilderness the way of the Lord [clear away the obstacles]; make straight and smooth a highway for our God. . . . And the glory (majesty and splendor) of the Lord shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together; for the mouth of the Lord has spoken it” (Isaiah 40:3-5).

The Messiah is coming very SOON! Its time to prepare to MEET Him! “Surely the Lord will do nothing without revealing His secret to His servants the prophets” (Amos 3:7). The purpose of this magazine is to warn the world of what lies ahead, and to help prepare people to get ready to meet the Messiah, when He returns to restore all things (Acts 3:19-21), put an end to wars, and usher in the Kingdom of God! The prophet Amos declared, “Prepare to meet your God, O Israel” (Amos 4:12). No matter is more urgent, today!

Signs of the Antichrist – Here, Now?

In the last days, or time of the “end,” a figure was prophesied to arise who would rule the world and wage war on Christians and Jews, who would exalt himself above every god or deity, who would claim to be the Messiah and who would demand public worship! Is he on the scene, today? Is he just about to make his appearance? How would we recognize him? What are his unmistakable attributes?

Daniel was inspired to write, “Many shall be made white and refined, but the wicked shall do wickedly, and none of the wicked shall understand, but the wise shall understand” (Daniel 12:10). Will you be caught up in the worship of this end-time deceiver and imposter? To be fore-warned is to be fore-armed.

What Are the Signs of the Antichrist?

What are the signs and characteristics of the “Antichrist” who is prophesied to rise up in the End of Days? How will we be able to recognize him? What are his tell-tale “marks” and identifying qualities? According to the Scriptures, the whole world will be deceived and led astray by him, even to where they will unite under him to fight the Messiah when He returns from heaven, claiming He is an “alien” from other worlds! How can you keep from being taken in by this great deception?

William F. Dankenbring

In I John 2:18 we read: “Dear children, it is the last hour; and as you have heard that the Antichrist is coming, even now many antichrists have come. This is how we know it is the last hour. They went out from us, but they did not really belong to us. For if they had belonged to us, they would have remained with us; but their going showed that none of them belonged to us.”

The word antichrist is capitalized (A) here meaning that it is a specific individual prophesied to come in the last days who will lead the world astray, who is anti God and Christian religion even though he appears to be a Christian. John says “went out from us” but went out into error of wickedness and lawlessness.

What are the characteristics of this Antichrist who is coming? How will you and I recognize him? The world will not recognize him. The world does not believe the word of God and will not know what God says, prophetically speaking. Remember, the Antichrist is going to be a ruler of the world. God specifically states attributes that the Antichrist will have. The world stage is set for the appearance of the Antichrist and the world is ready for a super leader to bring all the nations together as one to get the world out of its super mess.

The apostle John goes on to tell us, “Dear friends, do not believe every spirit, but try the spirits to see whether they are from God, because many false prophets have gone out into the world. This is how you can recognize the Spirit of God. Every spirit that confesses (acknowledges) that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is from God, but every spirit that does not acknowledge Jesus, is not of God.” (I John 4:1-2).

Notice also verses 7-8, where we read: “Everyone who loves has the Spirit of God in him (has no fear). Whoever does not love, does not know God. This is the spirit of the Antichrist and is now already in the world.” And verse 15 declares, “Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God’s Spirit dwells in him.”

Part of the understanding of this verse is the belief and understanding that the Christ comes into our flesh through the Holy Spirit and dwells in us.

What are the signs that help to identify the Antichrist? One of the signs of the Antichrist is that he will show by his life and his teachings a calloused disregard for the things of God and Christ. He will not acknowledge that Christ is the Son of God and has come in the flesh and through his Holy Spirit dwells in us. The Antichrist will be one who disregards the Christian religion and disregards the Bible and mocks the Old and New Testaments. You can apply that carefully to world figures today and see who is the most outspoken against God; who once claimed to be a Christian, but has spoken derisively about God in public. Consider who fits that sign and description. If you have eyes to perceive and the mind to comprehend, the Antichrist is here today—well on his way, but not yet fully made manifest.

The Profane Prince

The prophet Ezekiel declares of the Antichrist, the end-time prince who leads the world in rebellion against God, “O profane (corrupt) and wicked prince of Israel, whose day has come, whose time of punishment has reached its climax, This is what the Sovereign Lord says, ‘Remove the diadem, take off the crown. It will not be as it was: exalt the humble (lowly) and abase him that is high. Overturn, overturn, I will overturn it: and it shall be no more, until he comes to whom it rightfully belongs; and I will give it to him’” (Ezek.21:25-26).

Ezekiel is talking about the end-time “Antichrist” who is wicked and corrupt – a lying master, a ruthless politician in high political office.

This is talking about an end-time prince of “Israel” who is wicked and corrupt and who God is going to remove from office and have the scepter taken away from him. The term “Israel” applies not only to the Jewish people, but to the “lost ten tribes,” which includes the birthright tribes of Ephraim and Manasseh, the sons of Joseph. Today, they are the United States and British nations of the world, and the democracies of Northwestern Europe as some of the other “lost” tribes.

This end-time wicked and profane prince ties in with Revelation 13 and the beast kingdom coming out of the sea. The Antichrist is going to be the ruler-king of the end-time world kingdom being set up today in our midst – a world empire that the Bible calls “Babylon the Great.”

The “Beast”

The apostle John says, “I saw a beast coming out of the sea having ten horns and seven heads (divisions), with ten crowns on his horns, and on each head a blasphemous name. The beast I saw resembled a leopard, but had feet like those of a bear and a mouth like that of a lion. The dragon gave the beast his power and his throne and great authority. I saw one of the heads of the beast as if it had been wounded to death, and his deadly wound was healed. The whole world marveled (at this miracle) and followed the beast.” (Revelation 13:1-4).

Men worshipped the dragon because he had given authority to the beast, and they also worshipped the beast, saying, “Who is like the beast? Who can make war against him?” This beast is the Antichrist, the one who is going to lead the world in war against Christ and his angels at Christ’s return.

Notice what God’s Word says about this end-time world leader: “He was given a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies, and to exercise his authority for forty-two months. He opened his mouth to blaspheme God, and to slander his name and his dwelling place and those who live in heaven. He was given power to make war against the saints and to conquer them. And he was given authority over every tribe, people, language and nation. All inhabitants of the earth will worship the beast—all whose names have not been written in the book of life belonging to the Lamb that was slain from the creation (foundation) of the world” (Revelation 13:5-8). He will continue in office for forty-two months (3 ½ years) ruling the world.

Notice: (1) He is going to have some type of fatal encounter. In Ezekiel 21:25 the word used for profane is an interesting word in the Hebrew that has several meanings and can mean fatally wounded unto death. So this end-time prince of Israel (the beast of Rev.13) is going to have something happen to him that appears to be “fatal” to his success and power in rising to the forefront of the leadership of the world. This could be a physical wound, as in an assassination attempt, or a moral wound or political wound, as in a great moral weakness or problem, or a tremendous political difficulty.

It appears that this Antichrist has slavish devotion from many people on the one-hand and bitter opposition from others on the other hand, jeopardizing his rise to supreme power. As a world ruler he will be very security conscious for his own safety and have continuously twenty-four hour security guard protection. In WW II, Adolph Hitler’s own generals tried to kill him and he barely escaped with his life so Hitler was extremely careful and hired personal guards to protect him. This same thing applies to this coming Antichrist world ruler.

Notice also:

(2) “His mouth speaks great pompous words and blasphemies against God, his name, his tabernacle and those who dwell in heaven.”

(3) “It was granted to him to make war with the saints and overcome them.”

(4) “Authority was given him over every tribe, tongue and nation.”

(5) “All who dwell on the earth will worship him and give him honor whose names have not been written in the Book of Life of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the earth.”

The world is going to love Antichrist because he promises them everything telling millions of people that they are “entitled” — telling them they haven’t been getting a fair deal. In a case like this, people look to the government to be the “great giver and supporter”. The government taxes the people, even reaching into the future generations in order to continue to supply its “free” services.

The Roman Empire gave its people free bread and circuses in order to keep the population under control. Today, America has spectator sports of football, basketball, and softball that fill huge stadiums with people while vendors sell peanuts, hotdogs, popcorn and drinks. The religious freedom we still have is slowly being eroded and legislated away by increased governmental laws and Supreme Court decisions.

Notice that the “Antichrist” will be hostile toward Christianity. Those who really have repented of their sins, accepted Christ as their Savior and strive to live by His word daily and keep His commandments, are the ones Antichrist is going to hate and make war against, forbidding the free practice of their religious faith. He will pass laws and enact legislation that takes away free will and forces people to comply with things contrary to their faith – like subsidizing abortion, performing services of various kinds for homosexual couples, and hire homosexuals and deviants to work for churches and their social projects, even though they condemn such activities and immorality.

The “Mark” of the Beast

“Then I saw another beast coming up out of the earth, and he had two horns like a lamb, and spoke like a dragon. And he exercises all the authority of the first beast in his presence, and causes the earth and those who dwell in it to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed. . . He causes all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and slave, to receive a MARK on their right hand or on their foreheads, and that no one may buy or sell except one who has the mark or the name of the beast, or the number of his name. Here is wisdom: Let him who has understanding calculate the number of the beast, for it is the number of a man: His number is 666” (Rev.13:11-12, 16-18, NKJV).

The Greek word translated “mark” in the expression “mark of the beast,” used throughout the book of Revelation, is charagma and means “a scratch or etching, i.e. stamp (as a badge of servitude), or sculptured figure (statue)” – graven, mark” (see Strong’s Exhaustive Concordance, number #5480). Thayer’s Greek-English Lexicon of the New Testament defines this word as follows: “to engrave; a. a stamp, an imprinted mark: of the mark stamped on the forehead or the right hand as the badge of the followers of Antichrist, Rev.13:16; 14:9, 11; 15:2; 16:2; 19:20; 20:4) . . . b. thing carved, sculpture, graven work: of idolatrous images, Acts 17:29.”

What is this strange-sounding prophecy all about? One thing is for certain – possession of this “mark” will no doubt be looked upon by the masses of people as a GOOD thing, when it is announced, for no one will be able to buy or sell without it! Yet, God says plainly, it is really the “badge of DEATH”!

Possession of this “mark” will certify one as a “member” of the religious and political system of the great Worldwide Empire which will rule all nations in the very “time of the end” – the fast-rising “Babylon the Great,” as the Scriptures call it (Revelation 17-18). Modern world leaders refer to it as the “New World Order,” and claim it will be a wonderful new world system of enlightenment and religious freedom and UNITY! But beware – the truth is not so sanguine or innocent!

What is this strange “mark,” then? What is it that we need to beware of? Is it already beginning to be developed?

It's All About “Control”

In all totalitarian countries in the past, such as Stalinist Russia, or Hitler’s Nazi Germany, the citizens were compelled to carry identification papers on their person at all times. They had to be ready to present their identity documents to the proper authorities at any time. Such papers were often checked at borders, train stations, bus depots, when doing banking, airports, at road blocks, and various check points. The words, “Show me your papers,” would send an ominous chill up the spine of the enslaved people.

This was, however, a rather cumbersome procedure, and papers could easily be forged by a good engraver or printer. But today we live in the age of incredible advances in computer technology. Today, the United States and the western world are very close to achieving and implementing a NATIONAL IDENTITY CARD – a computerized “smart card” that can carry hundreds of pages of data on each citizen!

Implementation of such a card will give the Government, Big TOTAL CONTROL over the lives of individual citizens. You would not be able to buy or sell or conduct any business, without your own “ID chip”!

The RFID Chip

It has been discovered that the labyrinth of the pages (1000+) of the Obama Affordable Healthcare Bill is now law in the U.S. Nancy Pelosi said, “Don’t worry about what is in it, we will find out what is in it after we pass it”, so Congress passed it without knowing what it contained. There is a provision in it that thirty-six months (3 years) after it becomes law that people might have an RFID chip implanted. Congress has delayed the RFID until the Secretary of Health and Human Services is fully ready to implement the Chip or Patient Identifier, but not later than December 31, 2017. The Affordable Healthcare is a plot that is going to destroy America, and is not affordable. John Adams (1826) said “there are two ways to conquer and enslave a nation. One is by sword and the other by debt.”

Dr. Benjamin Carson's View

Dr. Benjamin Carson, Sr., is a retired American neurosurgeon who was awarded the Presidential Medal of Freedom by President George W. Bush. In 2008, the White House awarded Carson the Presidential Medal of Freedom, the nation's highest civilian honor. After delivering a widely publicized speech at the 2013 National Prayer Breakfast, he became a popular figure in conservative media for his views on social issues and the federal government. Carson was a professor of neurosurgery, oncology, plastic surgery and pediatrics, and the director of pediatric neurosurgery at John Hopkins University. He has authored four bestselling books two of which are about his personal philosophies of success that incorporate hard work and a faith in God.

On February 7, 2013, Carson was the keynote speaker at the 2013 National Prayer Breakfast. During his speech, Carson commented on several social and fiscal issues including political correctness, education, the national debt, health care and taxation. Carson stated his solution to healthcare and spoke favorably of the flat tax system, which he prefers to call the "Proportional Tax" based on the Biblical principle of the tithe. The speech was magnified because Carson's views were generally interpreted to be politically conservative and President Barack Obama was sitting ten feet away.

Shortly after this, the IRS has audited him. The encounter came just four months after his speech in February at the National Prayer Breakfast, an address that brought him into the national spotlight and one in which he decried the "moral decay and fiscal irresponsibility" of the U.S. in recent years.

Conservative commentators from Rush Limbaugh to Sean Hannity and Neil Cavuto of Fox New praised the speech as speaking "truth to power." The Wall Street Journal had an op-ed titled "Ben Carson for President," which stated that Carson "may not be politically correct, but he's closer to correct than we've heard in years." Columnist Star Parker wrote in a column that 'Ben Carson owes no apology for honest talk.' Carson in an interview with Neil Cavuto, said, 'Somebody has to be courageous enough to stand up to the bullies'." Writing in the National Review Jonah Goldberg compared Carson to legendary African-American leader Booker T. Washington.

The Washington Times (Thursday, October 3, 2013) declared in an article by John Solomon and Ben Wolfgang. "The long line of conservatives targeted by the IRS— Franklin Graham, Christine O'Donnell, a pro-marriage group, and now Dr. Ben Carson. The list of conservatives targeted by the Internal Revenue Service for audits, tax-exempt reviews or tax privacy breaches keeps growing, raising fresh questions in Washington about whether a scandal the Obama administration has blamed on bureaucratic incompetence and coincidence may in fact involve something more nefarious. The latest revelation came Thursday from Dr. Carson, the renowned neurosurgeon who told The Washington Times that he was targeted for an audit just months after he gave a speech in front of President Obama that challenged America's leadership. The agency requested to review his real estate holdings and then conducted a full audit. In the end, the IRS found no wrongdoing, Dr. Carson said, but it raised his suspicions about being singled out for his speech.”

The Affordable Healthcare Act has been cited as a tool for wiping out middle class America and causing a government dependent nation where the rich get richer and the poor get poorer. In that case, there will be only two tiers in the country, the rich elite and the plebian masses of the poor all beholden to the government.

The RFID chip will give access to every individual’s personal records, business accounts and medical records and no one can buy or sell or get medical care unless they have the mark of the beast, his name or number of 666.

Today we are living in the latter days, the time of “Babylon the Great,” the end-time “New World Order” or revived “Roman Empire.” In the end-time New World Order, the RFID chip is part of the medical health legislation which is going to be imposed on people everywhere, or they won’t qualify for healthcare or other government benefits. If you want healthcare, it will be mandatory. If you want to interact with the government, it will be mandatory. If you want to “buy or sell,” it will be obligatory.

Most of the world is looking for some special ID-code, tattoo or barcode that is required for all persons to buy or sell in the system. Now we see that within three years the healthcare service has mandated that every American must be covered with healthcare insurance by the end of 2013 and requires an RFID implant by 2017 to get healthcare.

Tracking of animals and cars has now become “help” for human beings who have Alzheimers, lost children, runaways, and “persons of interest” to the government.

The “Man of Sin”

The apostle Paul writes, “Let no one deceive you by any means for that day will not come unless the falling away comes first, and the man of sin is revealed, the son of perdition, who opposes and exalts himself above all that is called God or that is worshipped, so that he sits as God in the temple of God, showing himself that he is God” (II Thessalonians 2:3-4).

The Great Apostasy has to occur first and the man of sin revealed. The Greek word for falling away is “apostasia” which means departure from the truth. This is talking about the Antichrist who is going to be revealed. He is going to be a lawless man.

The Antichrist is called “the man of sin.” Paul also speaks of him saying, “And then the lawless one will be revealed” (II Thess.2:8). In verse 9 he says, “The coming of the lawless one is according to the working of Satan, with all power, signs and lying wonders.”

What does that mean? “Sin,” by definition, means “lawlessness.” The apostle John wrote, “Sin is LAWLESSNESS” (I John 3:4). So the Antichrist will be a man of extreme lawlessness – an imperial dictator who despises law, the Constitution, and especially the laws of Almighty God!

His administration is going to be the most lawless administration in human history. He will bend the law, circumvent it, go around it, and change the law. The prophet Daniel declares, “He shall speak pompous words against the Most High, shall persecute the saints of the Most High, and shall intend to change times and laws” (Daniel 7:25).

What politician today has the motto “change that you can believe in!”?

God warns us, “My son, do not fret because of evildoers, nor be envious of the wicked; for there will be no prospect for the evil man; the lamp of the wicked will be put out. Fear the Lord and the king. Do not meddle (associate) with those given to change, for their calamity shall rise suddenly; and who knows the ruin those two can bring?” (Proverbs 24:19-22).

Notice, now, the characteristics of the “Antichrist.”

- The man of sin means he is a sinner, a lawless individual. The Bible defines “sin” as “the transgression of the law” (I John 3:4). He flaunts his sin in the face of God. He is a lawless man—the epitome of lawlessness.

In other words, he will be an immoral person of despicable character – in God’s sight! Who could this be?

The Truth about Barack Obama aka Barry Soetoro

Consider for a moment: It has been revealed that Barack Obama has been such a person all his life. African-American talk-show host Dr. David Manning interviewed Mia Maria Pope, one of Obama’s classmates at Punahoe High School in Hawaii. Pope, a devout Christian, levels some scathing charges at the youthful Obama, describing him as a compulsive liar and a young man who would prostitute himself for gay sex in order to feed his cocaine habit.

At 50, Pope would have been one to two years behind Obama in school, but she still remembers him well. She did not socialize with him because she could not stand his compulsive lying: This accusation is certainly easier to believe now that we’ve seen Obama’s years’ long series of fraudulent lies aimed at getting the American people to buy into Obamacare, not to mention his current series of lies about his Obamacare lies in an effort to have people stop calling him a liar.

Pope has worse to say about Obama, though. In his autobiography, Obama admitted to using pot and cocaine as a young man. Biographies have also identified him as a committed member of the “Choom Gang,” a high school group dedicated to smoking as much pot as possible. Pope says that pot wasn't Obama's only drug in high school. He was already using cocaine then.)

Because coke was a very expensive drug back in the late 1970s, and Obama didn't come from a moneyed family, Pope says he prostituted himself to older, richer, white gay men to fund his habit:

If you were going to do cocaine it was in powder form, and it was very expensive...He would get with these older, white, gay men, and this is how we pretty much had this impression that that's how he was procuring this cocaine. In other words he was having sex with these older, white guys and that's how he was getting his cocaine to be able to freebase.

Although the prostitution allegation may come as a surprise to some, the fact is that allegations about Obama's homosexual orientation – and his sleazy fulfillment of that orientation – have been around for a long time. Kevin DuJan, who is a part of Chicago's gay community, has long claimed that Obama was a well-known face in the bar and bathhouse scene.

Obama was personally involved in the gay bar scene. If you just hang out at these bars, the older guys who have been frequenting these gay bars for 25 years will tell you these stories. Obama used to go to the gay bars during the week, most often on Wednesday, and they said he was very much into older white guys.

Obama, according to DuJan, is “not heterosexual and he's not bisexual. He's homosexual.”

DuJan's not the only one to claim this. Wayne Madsen, a former NSA employee and current investigative journalist seconds DuJan's assertions. In an interview with WND, Madsen said “It is common knowledge in the Chicago gay community that Obama actively visited the gay bars and bathhouses in Chicago while he was an Illinois state senator.”

A reasonable question to ask is, if Obama was so well-known in the gay scene, how is it possible that so many people kept his secret? The answer is threefold. First, many have aired his secret, with Pope being only the most recent. The media ignores these people so assiduously, though, it's as if they haven't spoken. Second, if the people Obama was mixing with were white men at the upscale East Bank Club in Chicago, they may have their own secrets to keep about their homosexuality. And third, there might have been a deal struck. After all, there's something very peculiar when a man who opposed gay marriage in 2008 announces in 2013 that he's “overjoyed” that gay marriage is now legal in Illinois. (See The Manning Report, “High School Classmate Says Obama Lied Compulsively & Had Sex With Rich White Gays In Exchange For Drugs”).

But there is much more to the story.

The Most Lawless, Corrupt Administration in History

Just how lawless and corrupt is the Obama administration?

Every day brings a new shocking headline:

- The Obama administration states it can launch a strike on Syria without congressional approval.
- The Obama administration provided U.S. firearms to the drug cartels in Mexico, resulting in the deaths of two U.S. law enforcement agents and countless American and Mexican citizens, apparently in an effort to make a political case for gun control.
- The Obama administration covered up a debacle in Benghazi that cost the lives of Ambassador Christopher Stevens and other Americans.
- The Obama administration used the Internal Revenue Service as an attack dog against its political adversaries, including, but not limited to, the tea party movement.
- The Obama administration even targeted its friends in the media by spying on journalists at the largest news-gathering operation in the world, the Associated Press, along with a reporter from Fox News.

Could this be just the tip of the iceberg? Have the media begun to turn?

Why are even some of Barack Obama's most loyal supporters beginning to have their doubts? Why did the first post-scandal poll show some 50 percent of Americans supporting impeachment of Obama?

What would happen, in this climate, if Obama's biggest secret ever were blown wide open for the public to see? What is that biggest secret? It's that Obama's Hawaii "birth certificate" is, beyond any shadow of a doubt, a forgery – a fraud.

That scandal, too, is about to break wide open, according to investigators working within Maricopa County Sheriff Joe Arpaio's Cold Case Posse. They say some new earth-shattering developments will soon be announced.

Scandals Galore

Wayne Allen Root of Personal Liberty declares, “Forget impeachment; it’s time for criminal prosecution. Obamacare isn’t about incompetence, and it isn’t about political disagreement. It’s about a trillion-dollar fraud carried out by the President of the United States.

“Let’s say a TV pitchman (you know, like the Ginsu knife guy) promised free health insurance. Let’s say he promised: “If you don’t like mine, you can keep your current health insurance. Period.” Then millions of Americans, thinking they had nothing to lose, took him up on it. And then, because of this con man’s lies, fraud and misrepresentations, they found the policies they liked and their families depended on canceled. When they went to his website for help to try to save themselves, they found it not only defective, but deceptive as well.

“The few who could get on found they had to enter their personal information, even if all they wanted to do was compare plans and prices. And once they did this, they were trapped. Their personal information would be used to extort them. They were warned that if they didn’t buy, they’d be fined.

“Can you imagine the outrage and criminal accusations coming from consumer protection advocates? Can you imagine how quickly the Federal government would shut down the business? Can you imagine how quickly a grand jury would be convened to indict the CEO? Can you imagine how quickly FBI agents, accompanied by SWAT teams with assault weapons, would swoop down on this CEO’s offices with guns drawn and remove cabinets and computers with the media watching, with cameras rolling, with flashbulbs popping? Can you picture the CEO and his top executives being “perp walked” in handcuffs in front of the waiting TV news cameras?”

Says Root, “The government would throw the book at these executives. For ripping off millions of consumers, including the elderly and innocent young children, the CEO would get life in prison.

“Think of the personal stories, the tragedies caused by this purposeful lie, by this fraud. The small businesses forced to close. The middle-class taxpayers hit with dramatic price increases, left with a choice of paying the mortgage or the health insurance. How about the people whose policies were canceled and, because they couldn’t afford this con man’s “better plan” or because of a defective website, went without insurance for a time — and during that time, had a car accident, leaving them unable to work and bankrupt with medical bills.

“All of these tragedies were set in motion because a CEO lied and misrepresented. If this happened to one single American family, that CEO would go to prison.

“Well it’s happening to millions of Americans. And that CEO con man is Barack Obama.

“A grand jury should be convened right now to indict the President of the United States for fraud on a massive scale. The FBI and SWAT teams should be surrounding the White House this week. Obama should be “perp walked” out of the people’s house in handcuffs, with cameras rolling, with flashbulbs popping. He lied to us all. His fraud will cost each of us dearly.”

Says Wayne Allen Root, “This wasn’t the usual politician’s ‘little white lie.’ This was a gigantic, purposeful lie that might cost 16 million (or more) Americans our health insurance. This lie will cost a typical family $5,000, $10,000, even $15,000 more per year for a new expensive policy none of us can afford or want.

Worst of all, this lie will strip millions of proud middle-class families of their independence, self-reliance and self-esteem, by forcing them into government dependence for the first time in their lives.

“But then, that was the real point of Obamacare from Day 1: government dependence and income redistribution on a massive Marxist scale.

“We’ve been conned. A gigantic fraud has been sold to the American people. Our lives, finances, jobs and healthcare system are being destroyed. Our income is being stolen (Obama calls it “redistributed”) based on a fraud. Who benefits? Obama’s voters, Obama’s donors and, of course, the biggest health insurance companies in the country. That was the bribe to get them to go along with this fraudulent, Marxist scheme.”

It is a sickening, tragic reality – and it has stormed upon us suddenly, like a whirlwind!

What we know is that we know very little about the man who leads our nation. We also know that the Obama mania media, as Rush Limbaugh calls it, has placed a cone of silence over any negative stories about the president. They swirl amongst those who dislike Obama already, but the media ensures that they never reach the greater American public.

Wayne Allen Root continues, “Let’s sum up the crimes:

- We were promised no one would lose their health insurance. Lie.
- We were promised you could keep your present policy, if you liked it. Lie.
- We were promised costs were going down. Lie.
- We were promised this would be easy. Lie.
- We were promised that the middle class would not pay higher taxes. Lie.

“But as the Ginsu knife pitchman might say: ‘Wait; there’s more!’

“What if a private-sector CEO spent more than $600 million to build a website and happened to give the no-bid contract to his college classmate? What if after overspending hundreds of millions of dollars, the site didn’t work? That CEO would be in handcuffs in a New York minute. And if his wife arranged the deal, she’d be behind bars, too.

“Well don’t look now, but it happened. The most expensive website in history does not work. Obama spent $600 million of taxpayer money. The “fix” will bring the cost to more than $1 billion of your money. It was a no-bid contract. The top exec at the company that built the site is the Princeton classmate of Michelle Obama. They are members of the Princeton Black Alumni Association. She just happened to get a no-bid contract.

“How could someone spend that much money... and fail? It’s just a website. Did millions of dollars go to Cayman Island bank accounts? Were bribes paid for Michelle’s favor?”

“Obama knew millions of Americans would lose their insurance. He knew rates would skyrocket. And someone stole hundreds of millions of dollars building a defective website. It’s past time for impeachment; it’s time for the CEO to pay for the fraud he’s perpetrated.

Barack Obama has been called “The Liar King.” He lied about the attack on the U.S. consulate at Benghazi where Ambassador Chris Stevens and three other Americans were brutally murdered by terrorists, blaming it all on a video and denying help and intervention on behalf of the Americans under attack. Horrible, outright, despicable, abominable lies.

He lied about Obamacare – flat out deception. He lied about his birth certificate. He lied about his nationality, birthplace, sequestered his educational records and hid them from view. He lied about his administration’s role in the “fast and furious” gun operation where the U.S. Justice Department sold guns to Mexican drug cartels. He lied about NSA wiretapping, and about using drones to kill American citizens overseas. He is the “King of Lies.”

When hasn’t he lied, prevaricated, and bent and distorted the truth? According to Bob Woodward, the greatest reporter of his generation, who helped bring down the Nixon administration, the White House under Obama is a nest of lies and the apex of the Obama administration’s “secret world” operates with impunity and outside the rule of law. Woodward concludes that Obama has created a cabal whose authority comes from “concealment and lies.”

King of Pride

The Antichrist is also known in Bible prophecy as being the “king of Tyre,” and “king of Babylon,” and is a man of fierce pride. Ezekiel says of him, “Because your heart is lifted up, and you say ‘I am a god, I sit in the seat of gods, in the midst of the seas,’ yet you are a man, and not a god, though you set your heart as the heart of a god (Behold, you are wiser than Daniel! There is no secret that can be hidden from you!” (Ezek.28:2-3).

Isaiah the prophet calls him the “king of Assyria,” and says God declares to him, “I will punish the fruit of the arrogant heart of the king of Assyria, and the glory of his haughty looks.’ For he says: ‘By the strength of my hand I have done it, and by my wisdom, for I am prudent; also I have removed the boundaries of the people, and have robbed their treasuries; so I have put down the inhabitants like a valiant man. My hand has found like a nest the riches of the people, and as one who gathers eggs that are left, I have gathered all the earth; and there was no one who moved his wing, nor opened his mouth with even a peep’” (Isaiah 10:12-14).

He is a man of insolent pride. The apostle Paul says of him, he “opposes and exalts himself above all that is called God or that is worshipped” (II Thess.2:4). He is proud and arrogant, and thinks he is superior to others. His megalomania will become so serious that he will even invade the temple of God, claiming himself to be God – that is, he will claim to be the promised divine “Messiah.”

A “Messiah-Complex”

It is interesting to take notice of the fact that a Hollywood actor, Jamie Foxx, called President Barack Obama “our lord and savior” during his appearance on the Soul Train Awards in 2012 in Las Vegas, Nevada. He said, “It’s like church over here. It’s like church in here. First of all, give an honor to God and our lord and savior Barack Obama,” Foxx joked. Actor and musician Foxx has been a longtime supporter of President Obama’s and publically advocated for his re-election during the 2012 campaign season.

Some supporters have posted billboards and put out posters picturing Obama riding a white horse, like the promised Messiah, and he has even been referred to as such. Young children have written poems to him, and a pledge of allegiance to him. Songs of worship and praise to Barack Obama were sung in school classrooms during his 2008 presidential campaign (Washingtontimes.com). This is the same thing that school children in Iraq were doing for dictator Saddam Hussein when he was dictator.

“Son of Perdition” and Destruction

As the end-time “king” of the world’s New World Order, and “Babylon the Great,” he will be a military-minded man and leader – a man who wages war and causes great destruction. God Himself allows him to come to power because of the sins of His people who have turned their backs on Him and His laws.

John says of him in the book of Revelation, the world will worship or highly esteem the “Beast,” saying, “Who is like the beast? Who is able to make war with him?” (Rev.13:4).

His armies are compared to “locusts” which devour the earth. “Then out of the smoke locusts came upon the earth. And to them was given power, as the scorpions of the earth have power” (Rev.9:3). “And they had as king over them the angel [or “messenger”] of the bottomless pit, whose name in Hebrew is Abaddon, but in Greek his name is Apollyon” (Rev.9:11). The name identifies the person or king. Abaddon means “Destruction,” and Apollyon means “Destroyer.”

The prophet Daniel says of this time, “And in the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressors have reached their fullness, a king shall arise, having fierce features, who understands sinister schemes. His power shall be mighty, but not by his own power; he shall destroy fearfully, and shall prosper and thrive; he shall destroy the mighty, and also the holy people. Through cunning he shall cause deceit to prosper under his rule; and he shall exalt himself in his heart. He shall destroy many in their prosperity [i.e transfer their wealth to others, his supporters]” (Dan.8:23-25).

Daniel says of him, “So he shall return and have regard for those who forsake the holy covenant. And forces shall be mustered by him, and they shall defile the sanctuary fortress [the Temple Mount]; then they shall take away the daily sacrifice, and place there the abomination of desolation. Those who do wickedly against the covenant he shall corrupt with flattery; but the people who know their God shall be strong and carry out great exploits” (Dan.11:30-32).

Daniel declares, “Then the king shall do according to his own will: he shall exalt and magnify himself above every god, shall speak blasphemies against the God of gods, and shall prosper until the wrath has been accomplished; for what has been determined shall be done” (Dan.11:36).

Military Leaders Being Purged

Today, Barack Hussein Obama is consolidating his reign in the West. He has been purging generals and admirals from the U.S. military right and left, leaving a military which will follow his orders.

The Obama administration is currently purging the military by giving officers tests to identify which ones are more likely to defend the Constitution rather than support the president’s policies.

The United States Constitution, which is ignored by the Obama administration.

For at least two years, top military brass have been giving litmus tests to officers, from generals down to sergeants, asking them if they will disarm or even fire on U.S. citizens.

“Going back to the beginning of this administration, I’ve had friends within the community talking about how they were brought in and questioned with people from more towards the top side,” Benjamin Smith, a retired U.S. Navy SEAL, said on the Oct. 23 edition of the Alex Jones Show. “The questioning resulted in ... do you feel comfortable disarming American citizens?”

“You can see that now with the shoving of a lot of the officers and stuff like that. We don’t have 100% track on it, but there’s a lot of funny things happening within the military.”

This likely explains the unprecedented removal of at least 197 military officers by the Obama administration in the past five years.

Retired Army Maj. Gen. Patrick Brady told WMD last week that generals and colonels are being relieved of duty if they do not follow Obama’s agenda.

Even non-commissioned officers in the military police are being conditioned to assist the Federal Emergency Management Agency with its unconstitutional demands. (Kit Daniels, Infowars.com, November 7, 2013).

The following is a list of US military generals and admirals fired by Obama as of October 15, 2013.

1) General Carter Hamm, United States Army; 2) Major General Ralph Baker, United States Army; 3) Brigadier General Bryan Roberts, United States Army...4) Lieutenant General David Holmes Huntoon Jr, United States Army; 5) Rear Admiral Charles Gaouette/United States Navy; 6) Vice Admiral Tim Giardina, United States Navy – Deputy Commander of the United States Strategic Command. Commander of the Submarine Group Trident, Submarine Group 9 and Submarine Group 10, where every single one of the 18 Nuclear Submarines with Nuclear Trident Missiles of those three groups were in his command. He was removed from service and fired from the military for the charge of using counterfeit poker chips (not making that up; 7) Major General Gregg A. Sturdevant, United States Marine Corps; 8) Major General Charles M.M. Gurganus, United States Marine Corps; 9) Major General Michael Carry, United States Air Force – Commander 20th Air Force in charge of 9,600 people and 450 Intercontinental Ballistic Missiles (ICBM) at three operational wings and served in both Operation Iraqi Freedom and Operation Enduring Freedom. He was fired October 11, 2013, for “Personal Misbehavior” is what was told to ABC News. He and Giardina were both the two top Commanders over the United States Nuclear Arsenal before their dismissal within 48 hours of each other.

It looks like Obama is getting rid of the people who had anything to do with Benghazi, or had control over America's nuclear weapons. The military purge could also be the result of Obama's new litmus test: “Will you fire on American citizens?” (see <http://freepatriot.org/2013/10/13/watch-obama-preparing-mili.>).

Anti-Christian Persecution

The Antichrist will institute a “reign of terror” and persecute all Christians who strive to remain faithful to God and His Word. He will have the attitude of a Muslim Jihadist and violently assail Christians wherever he can find them.

The Word of God warns us, “And those of the people who understand [the truth] shall instruct many; yet for many days they shall fall by sword and flame, by captivity and plundering. Now when they fall, they shall be aided with a little help; but many shall join with them by intrigue [margin, slipperiness, flattery]. And some of those of understanding shall fall, to refine them, purify them, and make them white, until the time of the end; because it is still for the appointed time” (Dan.11:33-35).

John in Revelation says, “It was granted to him to make war with the saints and to overcome them. And authority was given him over every tribe, tongue, and nation” (Rev.13:7). Daniel declares, likewise, “He shall speak pompous words against the Most High, shall persecute the saints of the Most High, and shall intend to change times and laws. Then the saints shall be given into his hand for a time, and times, and half a time” (Dan.7:25). This is a period of 42 months or three and one half years (Rev.13:5).

Could Barack Hussein Obama, who was born a Muslim, had a Muslim step-father, and a Communist mother, who wears a Muslim ring on his finger which carries the Muslim prayer in worship of Allah, who plots against Israel and who threatens any who “slander the prophet of Islam,” and who ridicules the Old and New Testaments of the Bible, and who speaks of the “Holy Koran,” be the prophesied coming Antichrist?

What is Obama’s record concerning Christianity and Christians? He is an advocate of the Muslim brotherhood, which says a lot. In Egypt they hack, beat, kill, murder, torture, and mutilate Christians, and burn down their churches. And in Syria. And throughout the Middle East.

Obama himself has said:

“The future must not belong to those who slander the Prophet of Islam.”

“The sweetest sound I know is the Muslim call to prayer.”

“The holy Koran tells us”

“Islam has always been a part of America.”

“Whatever we once were, we are no longer a Christian nation.”

“Rules for Radicals”

What has happened to America? We have been subverted, taken over from within. Communism/Socialism/Fascism has reared its ugly face, and we do not perceive it or pay any attention, for we have been duped.

Let’s make some sense out of the confusion and chaos with Obamacare. There are so many scandals with this era and president it’s hard to find a starting point. Benghazi was bad enough, the mis-truth’s and propaganda associated with that are in itself mind boggling. Mind boggling in that so many people believe every piece of propaganda they are fed. We have already discovered that the Media is in the pocket of the government. If you haven't discovered this than you need to seriously look at what you are swallowing.

Obamacare is not some great humanitarian plan that will save America from it's disastrous healthcare system. We forget one basic thing. America has been on the cutting edge for decades for health care. We have some of the top medical facilities in the World! We have some of the top teaching facilities in the World! So why are we trying to fix a system that is the top??

This is not about a broken system, it never was. This is all about bringing about a New Order to things. This is all about community organizing to bring about a socialist system. The strategy being used to usher in a new dictatorship in America is revealed in Rules for Radicals by Saul Alinsky. I know, by now your eyes are glazing over and you're rolling your eyes, but at least read about these people, and tell me you don't see parallels. Alinsky dedicated his book to non other than Lucifer, the very first radical!

How To Take Over a Nation

Saul Alinsky was an out-and-out Communist. His tactics were based, not on Stalin's revolutionary violence, but on the Neo-Marxist strategies of Antonio Gramsci, an Italian Communist. Relying on gradualism, infiltration and the dialectic process rather than a bloody revolution, Gramsci's transformational Marxism was so subtle that few even noticed the deliberate changes.

Like Alinsky, Mikhail Gorbachev followed Gramsci, not Lenin. In fact, Gramsci aroused Stalin's wrath by suggesting that Lenin's revolutionary plan wouldn't work in the West. Instead the primary assault would be on Biblical absolutes and Christian values, which must be crushed as a social force before the new face of Communism could rise and flourish. Malachi Martin gave us a progress report:

“By 1985, the influence of traditional Christian philosophy in the West was weak and negligible. Gramsci's master strategy was now feasible. Humanly speaking, it was no longer too tall an order to strip large majorities of men and women in the West of those last vestiges that remained to them of Christianity's transcendent God. (see <http://www.crossroad.to/Quotes/communism/alinsky.htm>)

Are you beginning to see? You can read the whole article by clicking on the above link. Every one of Obama's followers and administration has quoted some part of this rule book at some point in the last years.

Rule 6 deals with Obama's job in this plan for New Order. It states: “The first step in community organizing is community disorganization.” All “change” means disorganization of the old and organization of the new. The mission of the organizer is to stir up so much dissention, dissatisfaction, and discontent, that people actually feel guilty for accepting the previous norm.

Gradually, incrementally, Obama has begun the fundamental transformation of America. Like it or not, it is here. We have a president who has blessed murder, sodomy and hosts celebrations to other gods in our nation's capitol. We have a president who is "Liar in Chief" and "Commander of Lies" in the White House.

Obama has adroitly followed the Cloward-Piven strategy. His strategy has been working. We are in the grip of a Shakespearian tragedy – a sheer Halloweenish nightmare. A grotesque horror beckons, tantalizing, evilly smiling, luring, seducing, captivating, hypnotizing our people.

Will we wake up in time to do anything about it? Not likely. Not until the punishment has been inflicted, and the suffering becomes unendurable, and the heart cries out to God in abject humility and desperation to God for deliverance and healing and restoration and mercy.

The Description of the Antichrist

The prophet Habakkuk describes the leader of end-time Babylon – the Antichrist! Notice! He writes, "Behold the proud. His soul is not upright (desires not right) in him; but the just shall live by faith. Indeed, because he transgresses by wine, he is a proud (arrogant) man. He does not stay at home" (Hab.2:4-5).

Wine here is also a type of drugs (mind intoxicating chemicals, like alcohol, marijuana, cocaine, etc.). "He enlarges his desire as hell, and he is like death, and cannot be satisfied. He gathers to himself all nations, and heaps up for himself all peoples" (v.5, latter part).

"Woe to him who increases what is not his—how long? And to him who loads himself with many pledges [vast indebtedness and borrowing from other nations]? Will not your creditors [among the nations] rise up suddenly? Will they not awaken who oppress you? And YOU will become their booty, because you have plundered many nations, all the remnant of the people shall plunder you" (Hab.2:6-8).

"Woe to him who covets evil gain for his houses that he may set his nest on high that he may be delivered from the power of disaster! You give shameful counsel to your house, cutting off many peoples, and sin against your soul. For the stone will cry out from the wall, and the beam from the timbers will answer it" (vs.9-11).

What is this "shameful counsel"? What kind of sin is "against your own soul" or body? Homosexuality! Is it any wonder that President Obama has made June the month of "Gay Pride"?

“Cutting off many peoples” means going to war at the drop of a hat, and invading nations where there is no real justification, nations which have not endangered us or attacked us. America never used to do this. Throughout our history, we never struck the first blow. But we fought back when we were attacked – the Revolutionary War, the War of 1812, the Mexican War, the Spanish American War, the First World War, the Second World War, Korea, Vietnam . . .

That is, up until the Iraq War, and the Afghanistan War, and the War in Libya, and supporting the Al Qaeda linked rebels in Syria. Where will it all end?

God says, “Woe to him that builds a town with bloodshed, who establishes a city by iniquity (crime)! Behold, it is not of the Lord of Hosts that the people labor to feed (fuel) the fire, and the nations weary themselves for vanity (pride/ uselessness; exhaust themselves for nothing).” (Hab.2:12-13).

Obama has plunged the U.S. into unbelievable national debt, now soaring over $17 TRILLION dollars. We owe over a trillion dollars to both China and Japan. Our foreign creditors will come knocking at the door, demanding repayment! Obama has broken the back of the U.S. economy, plunged millions into joblessness, put 47 million on food stamps, and decimated the work force.

“The borrower is servant to the lender,” God says (Prov.22:7). America has become a borrower nation, in debt to all. God says to His people, today, “Those who hate you shall reign over you” (Leviticus 26:17). He declares, “The alien who is among you shall rise higher and higher above you and you shall come down lower and lower. He shall lend to you, but you shall not lend to him; he shall be the head, and you shall be the tail. Moreover all these curses shall come upon you and pursue and overtake you, until you are destroyed, because you did not obey the voice of the LORD your God, to keep His commandments and His statutes which He commanded you” (Deut.28:43-45).

Is the Antichrist Here, Today?

Could Barack Hussein Obama be the long-awaited, anticipated “Antichrist”?

There is no doubt that the Antichrist is alive today. Six thousand years are ended since Creation of Adam. This is the time of the end. This is the generation that Christ said would see his coming and Israel was reborn as a nation (symbolized by the fig tree) in 1948.

Jesus Christ the Messiah said, “Now learn this lesson from the fig tree: As soon as its twigs get tender and its leaves come out, you know that summer is near. Even so, when you see all these things, you know that it is near, right at the door. I tell you the truth, THIS GENERATION shall certainly not pass away until all these things have happened” (Matt.24:32-34, NIV).

What did He mean by “this generation” He is talking about the “fig tree.” The fig tree is a symbol of Israel! God says of Israel, When I found Israel, it was like finding grapes in the desert; when I saw your fathers, it was like seeing the early fruit on the fig tree” (Hosea 9:10).

Biblically speaking, “The days of our lives are seventy years” (Psalm 90:10). Thus a Biblical “generation” would be 70 years, from birth to death. Israel, God’s nation, was voted into existence by the United Nations in November 1947, and was “born” on May 14, 1948. A “generation” would be 70 years. Thus Israel’s first generation would end in 2017-2018 – just a few short years from now! This may well mean we are entering the final seven years of this age, before the soon coming of Christ the Messiah!

This is year 2013. During the Feast of Tabernacles in 2014 there will be a total lunar eclipse and the moon will appear blood red. That same year in April, there will also be a total lunar eclipse and a blood red moon occurring on the day of Passover. This has not happened since 1967 and the Six Day War, which was a great prophetic event. The time before that when this happened was in 1948 when Israel became independent as a nation. There are no more anticipated blood red moons anticipated during the holy days of Passover and Tabernacles for a hundred years or more.

Is this significant? Is this a harbinger that we are living in the End of Days, and the coming of the Antichrist is on the horizon?

Jeremiah’s Warning

God looks upon our generation with great alarm and concern. He inspired Jeremiah the prophet to write, “This is what the LORD says: ‘When men fall down, do they not get up?’ When a man turns away, does he not return? Why then have these people turned away? They cling to deceit; they refuse to return. I have listened attentively but they do not say what is right. No one repents of his wickedness, saying, ‘What have I done?’ Each pursues his own course, like a horse charging into battle” (Jeremiah 8:4-6).

God declares, “From the least to the greatest, all are greedy for gain; prophets and priests alike, all practice deceit. They dress the wound of my people as though it were not serious. ‘Peace, peace’, they say, when there is no peace. Are they ashamed of their loathsome conduct? No, they have no shame at all; they do not even know how to blush. So they will fall among the fallen; they will be brought down when they are punished, says the LORD” (Jer.8:10-12).

God says of his people today, will they fall and not rise again? End-time Israel, including the “lost ten tribes,” Ephraim-America and Great Britain-Manasseh, have backslidden and remain in a perpetual backsliding holding fast to deceit, refusing to return. Deception abounds everywhere, especially in monetary matters.

“I listen and heard that they do not speak right. No man repents of his wickedness—saying “WHAT HAVE I DONE?” (Jer.8:6).

Antichrist Revealed

The Antichrist is being revealed, and the restraints are being removed. You will soon see the strength, power and authority of this government magnified.

The police departments throughout this nation of America have been supplied with military hardware and armored vehicles militarizing the police. Why? Obama fears the people who carry guns. He wants to pass gun control laws and get rid of citizens' guns.

The stage is being set. The preparations are being made. Suddenly martial law could be declared and we could find ourselves in a national “prison” and the doors slammed shut, and the world's last tyrannical dictator assumes power, just as the Scriptures have foretold.

Are you ready?

We need not fear. If we have faith in God, and His promises, and obey His commandments, then we can escape these hellish events or be protected through them. King David wrote, “The Lord is my light and my salvation. Whom shall I fear? The Lord YHVH is the strength of my life. Of whom shall I be afraid? When foes advance against me to eat up my flesh, they will stumble and fall. Though an army besiege me, my heart shall not fear. Though war rise against me, even then I will be confident” (Psalm 27:1-3).

David declared, “I would have lost heart, unless I believed that I would see the goodness of the Lord in the land of the living. Wait for the Lord. Be of good courage, and He shall strengthen your heart. Wait, I say, for the Lord.” (verses 13-14).

God is now calling His people to repentance from sin. He is calling us to “come out of this world,” and its Babylonish system.

Jesus Christ said, “Do you suppose that these Galileans were worse than those other Galileans who suffered death from the Roman governor Pilate. I tell you, no. But unless you repent, you will all likewise perish. Do you think that the eighteen that died when the Tower of Siloam fell were worse than other sinners who dwell in Jerusalem? I tell you, no. Unless you repent, you will all perish likewise” (Luke 13:1-5).

We must learn to fear God, not man. The Messiah declared, “I will show you whom you should fear, or be in awe of. Fear him who, after he has killed has power to cast into hell (Gehenna Fire). Yes, I say unto you, fear Him [God]” (Luke 12: 5). Christ went on, to comfort and encourage us: “Are there not five sparrows sold for two copper coins? Not one of them is forgotten before God. The very hairs of our head are numbered by God. Therefore, do not fear men. You are of more value than many sparrows” (v.6-7).

Here are the signs of the Antichrist:

1. He is Lawless, a man of “sin.”
2. He is the son of destruction. He uses drones to kill innocent people.
3. He is a liar and a deceiver. He and his administration are full of deception.
4. He is insolent, proud, arrogant and a blasphemer.
5. He is a Thief; robs to give to his friends; redistributes a nation’s wealth.
6. He is pompous, proud, conceited, and thinks he is “God.”
7. He is wise politically – “wiser than Daniel.”
8. He is ambitious, power mad, seeks absolute and total power.
9. He claims to be God, divine, a messianic figure – but worships Satan in reality.
10. He is aggressive, militaristic, a war-maker.
11. He is a murderer. Human life is unimportant to him.
12. He is vehemently Antichristian—he does not acknowledge Christ, nor His living within us through the Holy Spirit, or that He is the only name under heaven whereby we may be saved.
13. He is a persecutor of the church, and Christians in general, and hostile toward their views and sacred beliefs.
14. He is ruthless, cruel, despotic, and a “son of perdition” (doom). At some point he will become Satan-possessed, even as Judas Iscariot was, and Satanically inspired to lead the nations to fight against Christ when He returns from heaven in glory.

God says of him and those like him, “They profess to know God, but in works deny Him, being abominable [margin, “detestable”], disobedient, and disqualified [“reprobate”] for every good work” (Titus 1:16). Even their mind and conscience are defiled (verse 15). They are sons of blasphemy and children of Satan – impervious to good and imperious in their blatant wickedness and iniquity.

It is not surprising that Obama’s code name with the CIA, FBI and Secret Service is “Renegade.” A “renegade” is, by definition, “an outlaw, rebel, a traitor.”

Do You Recognize the Antichrist?

Do we have eyes to see and a mind to comprehend? Has the Antichrist already appeared on the scene? Is he among us, today, beginning his strategic ascendancy to the top, the pinnacle of world power?

Is the Antichrist now among us? Do you see him for who and what he is? Or are you one of the great majority who will follow him, and bear his mark? Those who do follow him will suffer the wrath of God poured out without dilution and be tormented with fire and brimstone before all the holy angels of God (Rev.14:9-11).

Where will you stand in that day? Only you can decide.

The Snowden Revelations

According to reports by the European Union Times, the NSA data from whistleblower Edward Snowden is very disturbing and provides a shocking companion insight to the harrowing future facing the world.

William F. Dankenbring

According to the European Union Times, “A grim Ministry of Health (MoH) report on information obtained from former CIA/NSA whistleblower, and “global hero to the masses,” Edward Snowden reveals the Obama regime’s fears of a raging pandemic due to upcoming solar storms that, according to the Americans, “may very well alter life on this planet as we know it.”

Is a horrendous global pandemic about to engulf the world – a devastating scourge like that of the Black Death plagues of the Middle Ages?

Global Pandemics

Says the EU Times, “According to the MoH, one of the computer devices (USB flash drive) provided to Russian intelligence by Snowden contains over 20,000 pages of top-secret US Defense Department (DOD) documents related to that military institutions shocking 2004 report to then President George W. Bush that stated ‘climate change over the next 20 years could result in a global catastrophe costing millions of lives in wars and natural disasters,’ that “disruption and conflict will be endemic features of life,” and concluding that “Once again, warfare would define human life.’

This sounds like the stuff of Bible prophecy for the End of Days!

The EU Times goes on to report, “Also important to note is that Glenn Greenwald, the US journalist based in Brazil, who published information about Snowden’s leaked NSA files in The Guardian, testified yesterday to Brazilian lawmakers that he too was still in possession of these 20,000 top-secret documents, but was still in fear of releasing them knowing the Obama regime’s ‘open kill order’ on anyone making this dire information public.”

Says the EU Times, “As to the information being kept from the world’s public by the Obama regime, this MoH report continues, is that sometime this coming fall and/or winter, a massive reversal of our Sun’s magnetic field may not only ‘severely affect’ our planet’s weather and disrupt radio transmissions, its ability to genetically mutate a number of deadly viruses is now occurring and with this coming ‘solar flip’ will accelerate to ‘Armageddon-type proportions’.

“This MoH report further states that these DOD documents contain heretofore never released scientific documents related to the Hoyle–Wickramasinghe Model of Panspermia, which British scientists Sir Fred Hoyle and Nalin Chandra Wickramasinghe revealed in 1990 were directly tied to solar activity (sunspots) to nearly every incidence of viral influenza epidemics and pandemics in human history.”

Prophesied to Come

“For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom, and there will be famines, pestilences, and earthquakes in various places. All these are the beginning of sorrows [birth-pangs]” (Matt.24:7-8).

Disease epidemics and pestilences are mentioned in Christ’s prophecy for the End Times.

Of particular concern to DOD officials, however, is that Snowden’s leaked documents reveal are the Influenza A virus subtype H7N9 (Bird Flu) which Chinese scientists are now reporting is able to pass from human-to-human, and the Porcine Epidemic Diarrhea (PED) virus which has killed millions of pigs in the United States this year and shows no sign of stopping.

Even violent revolution and civil uprisings are anticipated in the future – even in America! Says the EU Times, “The MoH further says in their report on Snowden’s leaked documents that they reveal the massive ammunition purchases being made by the US Department of Homeland Security (DHS) [1.5 billion rounds in 2012 and more than 1.6 billion rounds of ammunition over the next four or five years] are in direct response to Obama regime fears of ‘social anarchy’ developing as tens-of-millions of Americans begin to die and their economy collapses in the face of what they warn could be the worst pandemic in human history.”

“And there will be great earthquakes in various places, and famines and pestilences; and there will be fearful sights and great signs from heaven” (Luke 21:11).

“And there will be signs in the sun, in the moon, and in the stars; and on the earth distress of nations, with perplexity, the sea and the waves roaring; men’s hearts failing them from fear and the expectation of those things which are coming on the earth, for the powers of the heavens will be shaken” (Luke 21:25-26).

Domestic and Foreign Spying

According to the EU Times, “Even more startling, MoH experts in this report say, is that the massive domestic spying operation currently being conducted by the Obama regime and revealed by Snowden, and in cooperation with all other Western nations, under the guise of ‘preventing terrorism’ is, in fact, being coordinated by the US National Security Agency-Central Security Service (NSA-CSS) and Centers for Disease Control (CDC) in order to enable them to nearly immediately spot outbreaks, establish containment zones, and blacklist information from becoming public. [Note: The NSA-CSS is under the command of the DOD]

“The most similar type example of what the NSA-CSS/CDC is attempting, this report says, can be found by viewing the Health Map which uses global internet data to document disease outbreaks.

“However, this report says, what the NSA-CSS/CDC spying project is attempting to do is nothing short of putting a ‘surveillance blanket’ over the entire American population that will continuously monitor these people (and those of other Western nations too) on a 24 hour basis.

“Specifically to be tracked by NSA-CSS/CDC computer monitoring algorithms, this MoH report says Snowden’s documents reveal, are internet searches relating to all illnesses, medical/medicine purchases (both over the counter and prescription), phone and email communications relating to illness, all medical records including private doctor-patient communications, GPS tracking of people (by cell phone and onboard vehicle systems) leaving infected/blockaded areas, all US Postal mailings, and too many other surveillance measures to mention in just one article.” (See the European Union Times, Aug.8, 2013).

“Perilous Times”

As this report reveals, the dangers to our world revealed by the Snowden revelations show the grave danger that our world is truly in, today. The apostle Paul wrote, “But know this, that in the last days perilous times will come” (II Tim.3:1). He told the Thessalonians, “For when they say, ‘Peace and safety!’ then sudden destruction comes upon them, as labor pains upon a pregnant woman. And they shall not escape” (I Thess.5:3).

Few people really know or understand or appreciate the real danger we are facing. Many are in denial. And there are those who are avidly seeking to keep the truth from being known, lest the people panic.

However, to be forewarned is to be forearmed. Preparation is the key to survival.

Wise king Solomon declared, “A prudent man foresees evil and hides himself, but the simple pass on and are punished” (Proverbs 22:3).

This principle is so important that God repeated it twice. “A prudent man foresees evil and hides himself; the simple pass on and are punished” (Proverbs 27:12).

Only those who prepare will survive.

Jack Wheeler Speaks Out on Obama

Jack Wheeler is a brilliant man who was the author of Reagan's strategy to break the back of the Soviet Union with the star wars race and expose their inner weakness. For years he wrote a weekly intelligence update that was extremely interesting and well structured and informative. He consults(Ed) with several mega corporations on global trends and the future, etc. He is in semi-retirement now. He is a true patriot with a no-nonsense approach to everything. He is also a somewhat well-known mountain climber and adventurer.

Written by Dr. Jack Wheeler

The O-man, Barack Hussein Obama, is an eloquently tailored empty suit. No resume, no accomplishments, no experience, no original ideas, no understanding of how the economy works, no understanding of how the world works, no balls, nothing but abstract, empty rhetoric devoid of real substance.

He has no real identity. He is half-white, which he rejects. The rest of him is mostly Arab, which he hides but is disclosed by his non-African Arabic surname and his Arabic first and middle names as a way to triply proclaim his Arabic parentage to people in Kenya . Only a small part of him is African Black from his Luo grandmother, which he pretends he is exclusively.

What he isn't, not a genetic drop of, is 'African-American,' the descendants of enslaved Africans brought to America chained in slave ships. He hasn't a single ancestor who was a slave. Instead, his Arab ancestors were slave owners. Slave-trading was the main Arab business in East Africa for centuries until the British ended it.

Let that sink in: Obama is not the descendant of slaves, he is the descendant of slave owners. Thus he makes the perfect Liberal Messiah.

It's something Hillary doesn't understand - how some complete neophyte came out of the blue and stole the Dem nomination from her. Obamamania is beyond politics and reason. It is a true religious cult, whose adherents reject Christianity yet still believe in Original Sin, transferring it from the evil of being human to the evil of being white.

Thus Obama has become the white liberals' Christ, offering absolution from the Sin of Being White. There is no reason or logic behind it, no faults or flaws of his can diminish it, no arguments Hillary could make of any kind can be effective against it. The absurdity of Hypocrisy Clothed In Human Flesh being their Savior is all the more cause for liberals to worship him: Credo quia absurdum, I believe it because it is absurd.

Thank heavens that the voting majority of Americans remain Christian and are in no desperate need of a phony savior. He is ridiculous and should not be taken seriously by any thinking American.

“This Is What Betrayal Looks Like”

Reciting a litany of horror stories on the negative effects of Obamacare in the nation's heartland, Republican Indiana Rep. Todd Young declared: "This is what betrayal looks like."

"Here you have hardworking people who were repeatedly told not to worry, that their coverage would stay the same and—if anything—their costs would go down," Young said in Saturday's Weekly Republican Address. "Just the opposite is happening."

Illustrating the "heartbreaking" impact of the Affordable Healthcare Act on constituents, Young pointed to a Bloomington, Ind., man who'll be cancelled from the insurance plan he likes and pay $900 month more for a new plan -- and a Jeffersonville, Ind., family that faces the wrenching choice of ending a wife and mother's cancer treatment or "go broke."

"Adding insult to injury, the White House – the president – isn't leveling with us," Young said. "He's trying to cover his tracks, claiming he never really made these promises. If the president is truly sorry about all this, he'll take steps to right this wrong."

Young said he's authored a bill in the House -- as has Republican Sen. Dan Coats in the Senate -- to delay the Affordable Healthcare Act's individual mandate tax.

"After all, how can you tax people for not buying a product from a website that doesn't work?" he asked.

He said in addition, the House next week will take up the Keep Your Health Care Act, "which will ensure plans available today in the individual market can continue to exist." "No one should have to go to their inbox or mailbox in fear of finding out they're losing a plan they like — or worse, a plan they need," he said.

Young vowed "to keep asking hard questions and having hearings so we can get to the bottom of this," insisting, "The problem isn't just a website – it's the whole law." (Newsmax.com, Nov.9, 2013).

Obama Eased Sanctions on Iran BEFORE Nuke Talks!

The White House began easing economic sanctions that have crippled Iran for five years not long after its new president was elected in June — and months before Hassan Rouhani and President Barack Obama talked by telephone in September, State Department documents show.

The United States has done everything but stopped blacklisting individuals and companies that Iran evade international sanctions since Rouhani's election on June 14, The Daily Beast reports.

And the Obama administration has been doing less of that since the election, despite claims to the contrary, the website reports.

"In the months since the Iranian election we have continued to pursue our unwavering goal of preventing Iran from obtaining a nuclear weapon," a spokesman for the Treasury Department told the Daily Beast. "We have not let up on vigorous sanctions enforcement one iota.

"This includes new designations of sanctions evaders as well as other steps to address potential sanctions evasion," the spokesman said.

Designating such violators has been crucial to the Obama administration's strategy to force Iran into abandoning its nuclear program — and they have been a factor in the current negotiations between Tehran, the U.S., and other world powers in Geneva this week.

Negotiations to curb Iran's nuclear efforts are in their third day on Saturday. Officials are optimistic, but said there still is no certainty of a deal.

"The negotiations taking place are about how Iran begins to meet its international obligations and provide assurances not just to us but to the entire world," President Obama told NBC News on Thursday. They are "not about easing sanctions."

But the administration on several occasions has indicated they are ready to lift sanctions. And Vice President Joe Biden last month urged that no new sanctions be imposed on Iran.

By isolating Iran's banks from global financial markets, for instance, the White House has forced Tehran to directly recruit companies or seek underground deals — or "cutouts" — to sell its crude oil or execute other financial dealings, the Daily Beast reports.

But in recent years, the Treasury Department has designated such entities as violators of the international sanctions.

More than 100 such news violators — individuals, companies, aircraft firms, among them — were cited by the U.S. in the six weeks before the June election, the Daily Beast reports.

Since then, however, Treasury has only issued two designation notices, identifying only six people and four companies for violating sanctions.

Further, experts told the Daily Beast that enforcing sanctions was far different from simply making new designations, with enforcement bringing fines and other legal action against violators .

In addition, the White House has been giving Iran sanctions relief in another way, Mark Dubowitz, the executive director of the Foundation for the Defense of Democracies, told the Daily Beast.

The group has worked with Congress and the White House to develop the current Tehran sanctions.

“For five months, since Rouhani’s election, the United States has offered Iran two major forms of sanctions relief,” Dubowitz said. “First, there’s been a significant slowdown in the pace of designations, while the Iranians are proliferating the number of front companies and cutouts to bust sanctions.”

The other way is through the Obama administration's opposition to new sanctions that have strong support on Capitol Hill. Sen. Tim Johnson of South Dakota, the Democratic chairman of the Senate Banking Committee, told The Wall Street Journal on Thursday that no decision would be made on further sanctions until after the Geneva talks ended.

Dubowitz estimated to the Daily Beast that Iran was selling as many as 200,000 barrels of oil every day on the underground market. The profiting of the illegal sale of more than 35 million barrels of oil since Rouhani's election comes with little obvious opposition from the United States, he said.

“Sounds like Obama decided to enter the Persian nuclear bazaar to haggle with the masters of negotiation and has had his head handed to him,” Dubowitz told the Daily Beast. (Newsmax.com, Nov.9, 2013, Todd Beamon).

Obama Betrays Israel at Geneva

Israel’s most painful lesson from the two-day Geneva conference on Iran’s nuclear program is that the man who guaranteed to defend Israel’s security, President Barack Obama, is now marching hand in hand with Tehran towards a nuclear-armed Iran .

This is the reality behind the fuss and excitement surrounding the signing ceremony in Geneva Friday, Nov. 8, and the slick words gushing forth to put a convincing face on the interim deal put together between Iran and the Six Powers Thursday and Friday.

President Obama broke the news to NBC Thursday night: “There is a possibility of a phased agreement, the first part of which would stop Iran from further expanding its nuclear program.

We are offering modest relief from the sanctions, but keeping the core sanctions in place, so that if it turned out during the course of the six months when we're trying to resolve some bigger issues that they're backing out of the deal or... not giving us assurances that they're not developing a nuclear weapon, we can crank that dial back up," the US president said.

Friday morning, when US Secretary of State John Kerry was heading for Geneva to join Iran’s Foreign Minister Javad Zarif for the final signing stage, it was still unclear what Iran is willing to concede.

This is because no one was ready to admit exactly what the agreed “freeze” applied to and how far it is from “dismantlement.”

Iran had in fact already achieved all the makings of a nuclear bomb and was holding them in place ready for assembly. Uranium enrichment will furthermore continue although at a low grade.

At any moment, Tehran may decide to assemble those components and produce a bomb and has the capacity to do so before the US or Israel catch on to what is happening.

The accord to be signed Friday elevates Iran automatically to the rank of a nuclear power, which already holds Syria, Iraq and Lebanon under its sway. The radical alliance binding Iran’s Ayatollah Ali Khamenei, Syria’s Bashar Assad and Hizballah’s Hassan Nasrallah has triumphed. Israel fell down badly by trusting the Obama administration to break this axis up before it spreads more violence and havoc across the region.

Before setting off for Geneva, Secretary Kerry warned Israel that the breakdown of talks with the Palestinians would result in a third “intifada.”

But he made no reference to the Iranian nuclear intifada now looming over Israel and the entire Middle East.

Before coming to Jerusalem, the US Secretary visited Riyadh. But there was nothing much for him to discuss with King Abdullah and Foreign Minister Saud Al-Faisal, because both had accepted that there is no chance of turning the Obama administration from its chosen track which results in Iran enjoying the freedom to pursue a nuclear weapon amid progressively enhanced sanctions relief.

Some time ago, the Saudis took what they saw as appropriate preemptive action.

On Jan. 1, 2013, Crown Prince Salman, deputy premier and defense minister, traveled to Islamabad and commissioned Pakistan to build nuclear weapons for a multibillion fee. Those weapons were assembled in Pakistan and held ready for transfer to Saudi Arabia at a moment’s notice.

Last week, former Israeli Military Intelligence (AMAN) chief Amos Yadlin told a conference in Sweden that if Iran got the bomb, “the Saudis will not wait one month. They have already paid for the bomb and will go to Pakistan and bring back what they need.”

So the countdown to a nuclear Saudi Arabia begins with the signing of the “interim” Iranian nuclear deal in Geneva. Its first result will be the deployment of a Sunni Muslim Arab nuke versus a Shiite Iranian bomb. Israel’s reputed nuclear program remains in its decades-old holding position.

The burgeoning nuclear standoff will inject a further unstable element in the volatile Middle East.

Washington has not chosen that road out of stupidity or blindness as some dismayed Israeli officials are saying. The plan appears to be not only to present Israel with a nuclear challenge, but to put a damper on Russia’s strategic and military momentum in the region.

Even if this calculus proves correct it will take years for it to unfold.

Prime Minister Binyamin Netanyahu admitted he was stunned by the terms of the accord negotiated with Iran, calling it a “monumental, historic mistake” and “Iran’s deal of the century.”

Tehran has conceded nothing and receives limited sanctions relief, he said.

The interim agreement, said Netanyahu, buries the possibility of a peaceful final accord for dismantling Iran’s nuclear program once and for all. “Israel is not obliged by this agreement and will do everything it needs to do to defend itself and defend the security of its people,” he said.

His words carried two messages:

1. Israel has abandoned its trust in Barack Obama ever complying with his pledge to its security and will henceforth act on its own.
2. Israel’s only remaining course now is to exercise its military option against Iran’s nuclear capability – whether openly or covertly.

For five years, Binyamin Netanyahu has repeatedly warned the world that Israel was ready for military action to preempt a nuclear-armed Iran. Each successive repetition was received on a diminishing scale of credibility. His response to the Geneva accord is therefore anyone’s guess. US Plans to “FORCE” Israel to Accept Palestinian State

If Israel and the Palestinians do not agree on a “two state solution” by the end of this year, the Obama administration plans to propose its own solution and force it on the two sides in early 2014.

For Obama, the goal is to have this agreement in place in time to influence the November 2014 mid-term elections. Unfortunately for Israel, the Palestinians have absolutely no incentive to move off of their current demands because Obama has been promising them a Palestinian state based on the pre-1967 borders with East Jerusalem as the capital since very early in his presidency.

So the Palestinians have no motivation to negotiate in good faith since they already know that they are going to get what they want in the end anyway. Ultimately, Obama plans to force Israel to give up the West Bank, East Jerusalem and control over the Temple Mount in exchange for a “promise of peace” that is not even worth the paper that it will be printed on.

Obama made the following statement about Israel earlier this year...

“Israel doesn’t know what its own best interests are.”

Not only does Obama believe that he knows what is best for Israel, he also plans to force them to do it.

According to IDF Radio, the U.S. government plans to submit “its own solution” and force the two sides to agree to it if negotiations do not produce an agreement by the end of this year...

The United States intends to try and force a peace agreement on Israel and the Palestinian Authority (PA), IDF Radio reported Monday.

The radio station says the US has informed Israel and the Palestinian Authority that if negotiations between them do not advance, Washington will propose its own solution, that will include a US position on every point that is in contention. In effect, according to the report, this will be an attempt to force the sides to agree on a solution formulated by the US.

It is important to note that IDF radio is actually run by the Israeli military. This would not have been broadcast if the Israeli government had not approved the story.

And the source for the story is actually the head of the left-wing Meretz party...

MK Zehava Galon (Meretz) was quoted as saying Monday that senior US officials told her the US offer would be presented in January of 2014. PA sources also cited January as the month in which the US intends to propose, or impose, its plan.

The US moves comes after three months of talks between the sides which have reportedly made very little headway .

The US plan reportedly is similar to the Clinton outline, offered by President Bill Clinton in late 2000, which is based on an Israeli retreat to 1949 Armistice lines, and some swaps of territory.

This report by IDF radio was also echoed by a report in the Jerusalem Post...

The head of the left-wing Meretz party, Zehava Gal-On, said Monday that the Obama administration is determined to achieve a major diplomatic breakthrough next year in the negotiations between Israel and the Palestinians, including arrangements for a final status agreement.

“There will be a new diplomatic program, based on the pre-1967 lines with agreed land swaps,” Gal-On said in a statement after meeting with Palestinian and American officials on Monday morning.

So why should the Palestinians negotiate?

All they have to do is wait until early next year and they are going to get what they want anyway.

Of course U.S. officials are issuing their typical denials. According to Reuters, U.S. Secretary of State John Kerry says that the U.S. does not plan to implement this kind of a plan “at this point in time”...

At a news conference in Riyadh on Monday, Kerry said there was no such plan “at this point in time”. He has spoken publicly of possible U.S. bridging proposals if no major progress is made.

But of course Kerry’s statement does not rule out that such a plan will be implemented early next year. And at this point it seems very clear that the current negotiations are going nowhere fast. The following is also from the Reuters report mentioned above...

Israeli and Palestinian officials said on Tuesday the three-month-old peace talks pressed on them by Washington are going nowhere, painting a grim picture for a visit this week by U.S. Secretary of State John Kerry.

For a long time, the Palestinians have been relying on the fact that the U.S. government has promised them that they will get a state based on pre-1967 borders. In fact, according to a Yahoo news article posted in July, a letter from Kerry guaranteeing this was what got the Palestinians back to the negotiating table in the first place...

Israel's pre-1967 borders will be the basis of renewed peace talks between Palestine and Israel, according to a letter U.S. Secretary of State John Kerry gave to Palestinian President Mahmoud Abbas which guaranteed the stipulation.

After Abbas received the Kerry letter, he agreed to resume peace talks with Israel, two senior Palestinian officials said Saturday.

And the biggest stumbling block in the negotiations is the status of Jerusalem. The Palestinians are absolutely determined not to agree to any solution that does not give them control over East Jerusalem. Unfortunately, the Israelis are not nearly as united in their determination not to give it up. In fact, according to the Times of Israel, there is a tremendous amount of discord inside the Israeli negotiating team over what to do about Jerusalem...

Israel's negotiating team in peace talks with the Palestinians is reportedly facing an internal disagreement on the issue of Jerusalem, with chief negotiator MK Tzipi Livni demonstrating a more flexible approach than that of lawyer Yitzhak Molcho, the special envoy appointed by Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu.

In the end, Obama plans to give control over East Jerusalem and the Temple Mount to the Palestinians. The following is from a WND article from earlier this year...

The Obama administration has quietly presented a plan in which the Palestinian Authority and Jordan will receive sovereignty over the Temple Mount while Israel will retain the land below the Western Wall, according to a senior PA negotiator speaking to WND.

And this is not something that Obama came up with recently. The truth is that Obama has been planning this since early on in his presidency. The following is from a WND article all the way back in 2009...

President Obama and his administration told Palestinian Authority President Mahmoud Abbas during a meeting last week the U.S. foresees the creation of a Palestinian state with Jerusalem as its capital, according to a top PA official speaking to WND.

"The American administration was very friendly to the position of the PA," said Nimer Hamad, Abbas' senior political adviser.

"Abu Mazen (Abbas) heard from Obama and his administration in a very categorical way that a Palestinian state with Jerusalem as its capital is in the American national and security interest," Hamad said.

What Obama is trying to do is crystal clear, and Israel should immediately walk away from the negotiating table.

Ultimately, nothing good is going to come out of these negotiations anyway. Any "peace guarantee" that Israel receives will only be temporary.

Palestinian Authority Minister of Religious Affairs Mahmoud Al-Habbash made that abundantly clear during a recent sermon...

At the Friday Ramadan services, which were attended by Palestinian Authority President Mahmoud Abbas and broadcast on Palestinian television, Habbash explained to Muslim worshipers that Palestinian Authority officials "only through the wisdom of the leadership, conscious action, consideration, and walking the right path" are headed toward "achievement, exactly like the Prophet [Mohammad] did in the Treaty of Hudaibiyyah, even though some opposed it."

Palestinian Media Watch – an Israeli research institution that translates anti-Israel broadcasts in the Palestinian media – explains that the Hudaibiyyah peace treaty of 628 A.D. refers to "a 10-year truce that Mohammad, Islam's Prophet, made with the Quraish Tribe of Mecca. However, two years into the truce, Mohammad attacked and conquered Mecca."

Are you starting to get the picture?

The Palestinians don't plan to establish a real, lasting peace with Israel. In fact, according to one survey two-thirds of all Palestinians believe that the eventual goal of the Palestinians must be "to get back all the land for a Palestinian state."

There is not going to be any solution to the “Jerusalem issue” any time soon even if a peace agreement is forced on Israel and the Palestinians. And this is precisely what the Bible said would happen in the last days. In Zechariah 12:3, we are warned that the city of Jerusalem will one day become a huge stumbling stone for the nations...

“And in that day will I make Jerusalem a burdensome stone for all people: all that burden themselves with it shall be cut in pieces, though all the people of the earth be gathered together against it.”

Is that not exactly what has happened?

The entire world is trying to figure out what to do with Jerusalem. It truly is a “burdensome stone”.

And the U.S. government should be very careful. That passage of Scripture also says that “all that burden themselves with it shall be cut in pieces”.

If the United States ends up forcing Israel to divide her land, will the U.S. also find itself divided and “cut in pieces”?

That is a very sobering question.

And it is also interesting to note that all of this is happening just as we are entering the blood red moon tetrad of 2014-2015.

Other blood red moon tetrads throughout history have signaled times of great distress for the Jewish people.

Will it be the same this time around?

The Most Lying President

There have been so many lies flooding out of Washington lately that it's hard to keep up with them all, much less rebut them. But let's tackle as many as we can today.

And let's start with a lulu that took place last week, when Barack Obama was interviewed on CNBC. John Harwood asked him about the appropriateness of some of the recent Presidential rhetoric. In his reply, Obama said, “I think it's fair to say that during the course of my Presidency I have bent over backwards to work with the Republican Party, and have purposely kept my rhetoric down.”

Can you believe it? The most divisive, vitriolic, partisan President we've had in years, claims that he has “bent over backwards” to work with Republicans and that he's actually “kept my rhetoric down.” Calling your opponents extortionists, arsonists, extremists and other choice epithets is apparently Obama's idea of keeping his rhetoric down.

After hearing his ludicrous claim, I looked very closely at my TV screen. To my amazement, Obama's nose didn't grow a bit. It should have shot out so far that it knocked his interviewer off his chair.

Another whopper the President has repeated numerous times is that before today, raising the debt limit has never been a subject of negotiation between the White House and Congress. Or as Obama likes to put it, the debt limit has never been used “to extort a president or a government party.”

His Treasury Secretary, Jack Lew, has repeated the same nonsense, saying “until very recently, Congress typically raised the debt ceiling on a routine basis... the threat of default was not a bargaining chip in the negotiations.”

The truth is exactly opposite of Obama's claims. Time and time again, Congress has demanded — and gotten — compromises from whoever was sitting in the White House (whether Republican or Democrat) before agreeing to raise the debt ceiling. According to the Congressional Research Service, Congress raised the debt ceiling 53 times between 1978 and today. Of those, in only 26 cases, or less than half of the time, were no conditions attached.

Even in cases where other stipulations were included in the debt increase, some members of Congress refused to go along with the deal. Such was the case in 2006, when then-Senator Obama voted against raising the debt limit. Listen to what the two-faced dissembler said back then: The fact that we are here today to debate raising America's debt limit is a sign of leadership failure. It is a sign that the U.S. government cannot pay its own bills. It is a sign that we now depend on ongoing financial assistance from foreign countries to finance our government's reckless fiscal policies. Increasing America's debt weakens us domestically and internationally. Leadership means that "the buck stops here." Instead, Washington is shifting the burden of bad choices today onto the backs of our children and grandchildren. America has a debt problem and a failure of leadership. Americans deserve better.

I couldn't have said it better myself. We do deserve better. By the way, when the hypocritical Obama delivered those remarks, the debt ceiling was being raised to $8.965 trillion. Today, after five years of his trillion-dollar annual deficits, the debt ceiling stands at $16.7 trillion. And that's not high enough for the big spenders in his administration. Talk about putting more burdens "onto the backs of our children and grandchildren." (Personalliberty, "More of Obama's Massive Lies, Oct.11, 2013).

Obama Is a DICTATOR – Here's the PROOF!

These are just a few of the Executive orders that have been passed and some of the works that will bypass Congress and the House. There are others that are as bad or worse. As the man below said, you may google any of these orders and there are more that affect every man, woman and child in America -- especially when they begin moving whole areas of a city/state, develop work crews against people's will, etc. What will happen to families will be devastating. You are watching it unfold. We need to pray He will cut the time short. He promises to!

THESE ARE THINGS THAT WILL DIRECTLY AFFECT US ALL IN THE NEXT 4 YEARS and beyond. FOR THE SHOCK OF YOUR LIFE, READ BELOW, and take a minute to comprehend what you are reading especially the last few paragraphs.

EXECUTIVE ORDERS ISSUED by U.S. Presidents in the last 100 years.

Teddy Roosevelt - 3

All Others until FDR - 0

FDR - 11 in 16 years

Truman - 5 in 7 years

Ike - 2 in 8 years

Kennedy - 4 in 3 years

LBJ - 4 in 5 years

Nixon - 1 in 6 years

Ford - 3 in 2 years

Carter - 3 in 4 years

Reagan - 5 in 8 years

Bush - 3 in 4 years

Clinton - 15 in 8 years

George W. Bush - 62 in 8 years

Obama - 923 in 4 1/2 years!

If you don't get the implications you're not paying attention.

During my lifetime, all Presidents have issued Executive Orders. For various reasons, some have issued more than others.

YES, THERE IS A REASON THAT THIS PRESIDENT IS DETERMINED TO TAKE CONTROL AWAY FROM THE HOUSE AND THE SENATE.

Even some Democrats in the House have turned on him, plus a very small number of Democrat Senators have questioned him. Rightfully so – WHAT IS OBAMA REALLY TRYING TO ACCOMPLISH????

Remember what he told Russia 's Putin: "I'll be more flexible after I'm re-elected"

What did Congress do in those 40 months?

(The House - considerable. The Senate – almost nothing, not even a budget nor allow any House Bill to be considered.)

Now look at these:

EXECUTIVE ORDER 10990 allows the government to take over all modes of transportation and control of highways and seaports

EXECUTIVE ORDER 10995 allows the government to seize and control the communication media.

EXECUTIVE ORDER 10997 allows the government to take over all electrical power, gas, petroleum, fuels and minerals.

EXECUTIVE ORDER 10998 allows the government to take over all food resources and farms.

EXECUTIVE ORDER 11000 allows the government to mobilize civilians into work brigades under government supervision.

EXECUTIVE ORDER 11001 allows the government to take over all health, education and welfare functions.

EXECUTIVE ORDER 11002 designates the registration of all persons. Postmaster General to operate a national registration.

EXECUTIVE ORDER 11003 allows the government to take over all airports and aircraft, including commercial aircraft.

EXECUTIVE ORDER 11004 allows the Housing and Finance Authority to relocate communities, build new housing with public funds, designate areas to be abandoned, and establish new locations for populations.

EXECUTIVE ORDER 11005 allows the government to take over railroads, inland waterways and public storage facilities.

EXECUTIVE ORDER 11049 assigns emergency preparedness function to federal departments and agencies, consolidating 21 operative Executive Orders issued over a fifteen year period.

EXECUTIVE ORDER 11051 specifies the responsibility of the Office of Emergency Planning and gives authorization to put all Executive Orders into effect in times of increased international tensions and economic or financial crisis.

EXECUTIVE ORDER 11310 grants authority to the Department of Justice to enforce the plans set out in Executive Orders, to institute industrial support, to establish judicial and legislative liaison, to control all aliens, to operate penal and correctional institutions, and to advise and assist the President.

EXECUTIVE ORDER 11921 allows the Federal Emergency Preparedness Agency to develop plans to establish control over the mechanisms of production and distribution, of energy sources, wages, salaries, credit and the flow of money in U.S. financial institutions in any undefined national emergency. It also provides that when a state of emergency is declared by the President, Congress cannot review the action for six months.

Feel free to verify the "executive orders" at will....and these are just the major ones. I'm sure you've all heard the tale of the "Frog in the Pot"... Watch Obama's actions, not his words! By his actions he will show you where America is headed.

Obama has issued executive orders that seek to "harmonize" U.S. economic regulations with the rest of the world. These executive orders are yet another incremental step that is pushing us closer to a North American Union and a one world economic system.

Obama used the stage at the 50th anniversary of Martin Luther Kings I have a dream speech to announce two new executive orders infringing on your second amendment rights. The first bans the importation of antique military firearms for sale to sportsman and collectors.. He intentionally mislabels them military grade weapons to deceive the sheeple, but make no mistake the order was written specifically to ban the importation of surplus M1 carbines, M1 Garands, 1903 Springfields and other antiques coveted by collectors and sport shooters. This order is the death knell for the civilian marksmanship program.

Congress had previously passed the sportsman protection act in 1986 which among other things guaranteed that the importation of the historic relics for collectors and the CMP would not be impeded by unreasonable regulations.. But Emperor Obama does not bend to the will of the people or the rule of law. He will impose on his subjects what he wishes when he wishes. Kind of like Papa Joe Stalin or the short Austrian with the funky mustache!

Unfortunately, most Americans have absolutely no idea what is happening.

The American people need to understand that Barack Obama is constantly looking for ways to integrate the United States more deeply with the rest of the world.

The globalization of the world economy has accelerated under Obama, and this latest executive order represents a fundamental change in U.S. economic policy. Now federal regulators will be required to "harmonize" their work with the international community.

IF THIS IS DIFFICULT TO BELIEVE, THEN PROVE TO YOURSELF IT'S WRONG - Google it!

COMMENT: And so it goes. Wickedness proceeds from the wicked and none of the wicked will understand (I Sam.24:13; Dan. 12:10).

Bible Questions and Answers

QUESTION: Can you help me? I have received the PF for years, and know you have an article on the 144,000 of Revelation. I do not know if it answers all of my questions, which I will ask. Can you show from scripture that there is such a thing as the place of safety, and that the 144,000 in Rev.7 go there? I know the scriptures of Rev.12 and Rev.3:10. Also I believe Isa.26:20,21 is speaking of the place of safety. I have been to every Messianic assembly in the OKC area, and not a single one of them believes in the place of safety. Their people give me a bad time about it and treat it like it is a substitute for the secret rapture. They all believe they are going thru the tribulation. Also where it says the 144,000 are sealed, what exactly does that mean? People tend to think the word sealed means "saved", that they can't lose their salvation after that. Strong's concordance says it means to stamp with a mark for security or preservation. Also where does Ezekiel 9:4-9 fit in all this? Where does the marking of those in Jerusalem take place? Can you show me from scripture?

With the Messianic assemblies and there are a lot of them in the OKC area, inc 3 large assemblies in this area, they out number the church of Gods in the same area, both in the number of people and the number of assemblies. The 3 large assemblies stick with the Jewish calendar with all the Jewish traditions, including Purim parties with costume dances. they won't use the name Yahweh, but insist we must use the name Yahshua and not use Jesus. They cannot offend the large number of Jews there who won't say the name Yahweh. I get a little tired of all the importance people put on being a physical Jew. Rom.2:28,29 tells us that he is a Jew who is one inwardly and he is not a Jew who is one outwardly. Also speaking of those who are kept from the hour of trial, verse 9 says "I will make those of the synagogue of Satan who say they are Jews and are not but lie indeed, I will make them come and worship before your feet and to know that I have loved you."

Some say the 144,000 are Jews and are protected from the tribulation. That would be partiality, and YHWH shows no partiality, and says if we do, we commit sin. Those who don't believe in the place of safety, from what I can see, see no reason to be in a hurry to get their garments white. I guess they think they can start doing that when the tribulation gets here. I really have to say all the assemblies, including the churches of God from what I see, are materialistic, see nothing wrong with it. Well money in itself is not wrong but the love of it and what it buys takes people's focus away from their relationship with Yahweh. It seems it is just too important to people and what you focus on is what is most real to you.

ANSWER: I see no evidence that there will be anywhere near 144,000 in a place of safety. Rather, that is the number of specially called Israelites during this final generation, 12,000 from each tribe (except Dan), who will be protected from the wrath of God during the time of God's judgments. They go through the tribulation, which brings them to repentance, so that they are protected from God's plagues that follow the tribulation.

First, there will be tribulation (Matt.24:21-22). Then heavenly signs (v.29). Then the "day of the Lord" (Joel 2:31).

Notice: 1) tribulation; 2) heavenly signs; 3) day of the Lord. That is when God Himself begins to punish mankind with plagues (Rev.8-9), leading up to the coming of Christ when the final seven vials of wrath are poured out on the wicked (Rev.15-16). The 144,000 from Israel will be spared the wrath of God, having come through great tribulation and coming to repentance.

As to the place of safety, there may be a number of such places, wherever God gathers His people in a safe refuge. Rev.12:14-17 speaks of one where the church flees to, as the woman is a symbol of the church (Eph.5:25-26; Rev.19:5; II Cor.11:1-2, etc.). We should pray to be counted worthy to escape the tribulation (Luke 21:36).

God is able to protect His own (Psalm 91). As David said, “You are my hiding place; You shall preserve me from trouble” (Psalm 32:7). Also, “For in the time of trouble He shall hide me in His pavilion; in the SECRET PLACE of His tabernacle [booth, sukkah] He shall HIDE me; He shall set me high upon a rock” (Psalm 27:5).

David adds, “You shall hide them in the secret place of Your presence from the plots of man; you shall keep them secretly in a pavilion [shelter] from the strife of tongues” (Psalm 31:20). Also, “Blessed is he who considers the poor; the LORD will deliver him in time of trouble, the LORD will preserve him and keep him alive, and he will be blessed in the earth; you will not deliver him to the will of his enemies” (Psalm 41:1-2).

Read Psalm 91 – it holds the key. God’s protection is offered to those who love Him, fear Him, obey Him, seek Him in truth – “Because he set his love upon Me, therefore I will deliver him” (verse 14), “I will set him on high because he has known My name. He shall call upon Me, and I will answer him; I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him and honor him” (verses 14-15).

Most Messianic believers do not understand this. They focus too much on “Jewishness,” seeking Jewish traditions, and not really submissive to the Word of God itself, the Torah, and seeking to OBEY Him. They do not understand how the ten tribes of northern Israel went into captivity in 718-721 B.C. and most of them migrated to Europe and never returned to Judaism but lost their identity and became “Gentiles” and many of them later became Christians.

Nevertheless, God knows who they are, what tribe they belong to, and He will bring to conversion 12,000 from each tribe, as He says. The Jew are only one tribe – Judah – as a whole. America is largely Ephraim, but with a large mixture of the other tribes, including Manasseh, Dan (Irish), Naphtali (Sweden), and even descendants of Esau, the brother of Jacob. Great Britain is largely Manasseh, France is largely Reuben, Ireland and the Irish stock are largely Danite. Our article “Quest for the Lost Ten Tribes” gives more explanation and insight. QUESTION: What do you know about Malcolm Heap and his so-called “Midnight Ministries”? He has been persecuting us and you vehemently here in Kenya and claims to have great spiritual power, healings, and to have cursed people who then died. He accuses you of being a false minister.

ANSWER: I am sorry to hear of your troubles with Malcolm Heap. His name is what he is – a “heap of mal” – Latin for what is “bad” or “evil.” I had some correspondence with him many years ago, when he first left the Worldwide Church of God. But soon he began to go far astray, endorsing such ministries as Benny Hinn, the TV faith healer, and other frauds and “faith healers” who have perverted the gospel message and gone far astray (compare Galatians 1:1-10).

Malcolm Heap is truly a heap of trouble but will answer to God for his divination, sorcery and wickedness. Christ said, “You will know them by their fruits” (Matt.7:20). His ministry is aptly named – “Midnight Ministries” – that is, “Ministries of Darkness.”

I am glad to see you are standing up to him (Eph.6:10-14; I Peter 5:7-8).

How can we know who is teaching the truth of God, and who is guilty of having a “lying spirit”? Christ says we must “test” or “examine” the spirits (I John 4:1-2), and prove all things (I Thess.5:21), and search the Scriptures in order to discern the clean from the unclean and truth from error (Acts 17:11; II Tim.2:15). Christ will give you the strength and inspiration to stand up to the forces of darkness and the powers of evil (Phi.4:13; I Tim.6:12; Phil.2:12-13). Those who persecute God’s people and who attempt to mislead them will be severely judged when God’s time comes (Psalm 37:9, 20, 38). God will certainly redeem those who are truly His and save them from the hands of predators and the fangs and claws of spiritual wolves! (Psalm 50:16-22; I Cor.15:57-58).

QUESTION: Will those who have the mark of the beast be cast into the lake of fire?

ANSWER: Those who have the mark of the beast in the end time will suffer greatly from the plagues which God will pour out upon the beast and the beast system – the trumpet plagues and the seven last plagues. This is explained in Revelation 14:9-11. The third angel says, “If anyone worships the beast and his image, and receives his mark on his forehead or on his hand, he himself shall also drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out full strength into the cup of His indignation, and he shall be tormented [burned up] with fire and brimstone [fiery judgment and death] in the presence of the holy angels and in the presence of the Lamb” – when they return from heaven and battle the beast and his armies.

This is talking about the same thing as in II Thessalonians 1: “When the Lord Jesus is revealed from heaven with His mighty angels, in flaming fire taking vengeance on those who do not know God, and on those who do not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ. These shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord and from the glory of His power, when He comes in that Day, to be glorified in His saints . . .” (II Thess.1:7-10).

The smoke from their burned up, destroyed bodies will ascend into the atmosphere, as a great plume of smoke and ashes, continuing up out of sight, to the vanishing point. They will be tormented and suffer excruciating pain and have no rest day nor night, so long as the plagues of God continue to be poured out, the seven last plagues, until they are consumed away into nothingness.

However, this is not speaking of the “lake of fire” or Gehenna which will be the fate of all the wicked who are judged in the Great White Throne Judgment, after the Millennium. These people, if they worshipped the beast in ignorance, or followed him through deception, will come up in the resurrection later, and will be given a chance to repent and learn the truth and obey God and qualify for salvation (Rev.20:11-15).

Many of those who receive the mark of the beast will be judged and condemned to die when Christ returns, in a fiery holocaust, suffering the wrath of God. But that is not the fire of Gehenna, or “hell.” Rather, they will be judged and perish at the coming of Christ, and die the first death in a fiery holocaust. But they will be resurrected to mortal life after the Millennial reign of Christ, and given their first real chance for eternal life and salvation at that time, called the “Great White Throne” Judgment (see Rev.20:11-15). At that time, they will come up in the resurrection after the Millennium, when all who have ever lived will come up for the judgment of all mankind, including those who never even heard of Christ or salvation and knew nothing about the truth of God, during this present life – all those who were “blinded,” during this age, by the god of this world, Satan the devil. They will have their eyes opened at that time and learn the truth about how they were deceived and deluded during this life (their former life). At that time, the vast majority will repent, and learn God’s ways, and qualify for eternal life and salvation in the Kingdom of God. QUESTION: In Exodus 4 we read, “And it came to pass on the way, at the encampment, that the LORD met him and sought to kill him. Then Zipporah took a sharp stone and cut off the foreskin of her son and cast it at Moses’ feet, and said, ‘Surely you are a husband of blood to me!’ So He let him go. Then she said, ‘You are a husband of blood!’—because of the circumcision” (Exo.4:24-26). This seems very confusing. Why did God want to kill Moses?

ANSWER: Why did God want to kill Moses, whom He had just called to be His messenger and deliverer, at this time? Very confusing, indeed! But it is not really so difficult. God is making a sharp point here. His servant, His messenger, must be obedient to the Law, setting a righteous example for the people. He must not be negligent, lest the enemies of the Lord have cause to gainsay and blaspheme God and His way. Hypocrisy and carelessness are very unbecoming for a servant of God!

God had installed the law of circumcision beginning with Abraham (Gen.17). The children of Israel were to circumcise their male children on the eighth day after birth. The Jewish Chumash points out that after God had called him, Moses immediately set out for Egypt, to obey God's command. He took his family with him, including his newborn son who had not yet been circumcised. Because Moses was seemingly unconcerned about performing the circumcision in time, an angel was dispatched to threaten to kill him.

Moses was in a quandary. He was caught in the midst of a difficult decision, facing a dilemma. On the one hand, God said to circumcise the male children on the eighth day, but God also impressed upon him the urgency of going to Egypt to fulfill the divine command to confront Pharaoh. Which command took precedence? What was Moses to do? He was conflicted, and set out for Egypt, thereby delaying circumcising his son. As the Chumash says, "He was faced with a dilemma. Should he perform the circumcision before he went, and then take the child with him?—but the infant would be in danger for the first three days after the circumcision! Should he perform the circumcision and delay the trip for three days?—but God had commanded him to go! He decided to travel immediately [since God knew about the baby when He commanded him to go]; nevertheless, he was held culpable because, when they arrived at an inn, he began making arrangements for his lodging instead of performing the circumcision without delay. . . . Even though he would have had to resume his trip to Egypt after the circumcision—thus putting the infant into new danger and justifying further delay—the inn was close enough to Egypt that the short trip would not endanger the child's health."

The Chumash continues, "An angel grasped Moses in such a way as to make Zipporah understand that the danger had been caused by Moses' failure to circumcise the baby. Seeing that her husband was about to die, because of his sin of omission, Zipporah circumcised the child, saving Moses' life." The Chumash concludes, "Although failure to perform a circumcision does not incur the death penalty, the most righteous people, such as Moses, are held to a higher standard of Divine accountability" (page 312).

Zipporah touched the foreskin to Moses' feet in the hope that the merit of the circumcision would save Moses from the Angel of Death. Her literal comment was directed to the child, as she said (in the Hebrew), "You caused my bridegroom's bloodshed!" The Hebrew goes on: "So he released him; then she said, 'A bridegroom's bloodshed was because of circumcision.'" As the Chumash explains, "Previously she thought that Moses was about to die because he had sinned by delaying the circumcision—a sin he had already committed. Now she realized that his threatened death was but a means of prompting her to circumcise the baby immediately. Thus it showed here the importance of the commandment."

The Jamieson, Faucett and Brown Commentary adds that the inn was a halting place for the night. Moses was either overwhelmed with mental distress or overtaken by a sudden and dangerous malady. "The narrative is obscure; but the meaning seems to be, that, led during his illness to a strict self-examination, Moses was deeply pained and grieved at the thought of having, to please his wife, postponed or neglected the circumcision of one of his sons, probably the younger. To dishonor that sign and seal of the covenant was criminal in any Hebrew, peculiarly so in one destined to be the leader and deliverer of the Hebrews; and he seems to have felt his sickness as a merited chastisement for the sinful omission. Concerned for her husband's safety, Zipporah overcomes her maternal feelings of aversion to the painful rite, performs herself, by means of one of the sharp flints with which that part of the desert abounds, an operation which her husband, on whom the duty devolved, was unable to do; and having brought the bloody evidence, exclaimed in the painful excitement of her feelings, that from love to him she had risked the life of her child Moses recovered; but the remembrance of this critical period in his life would stimulate the Hebrew legislator to enforce a faithful attention to the rite of circumcision, when it was established as a Divine ordinance in Israel, and made their peculiar distinction as a people."

All the commandments of God are sacred, and must be obeyed, in their fullness, exactly, and never put off, or delayed unnecessarily. Moses got the cart before the horse. No servant of God is justified in breaking God's express commandment in order to "do the Work," or to cover up sin instead of fully repenting of it, publicly and wholeheartedly. Even that which is done in secret will be shouted from the housetops (Matt.10:26-27). God's ministers are held to a higher standard and must not equivocate, compromise, or be slack in their obedience to God's laws.

Which Is the True Calendar?

Does it really matter when we observe God's annual Holy Days? Does it matter if we are just a few days off? There is an old saying, "Close only counts in horseshoes and hand grenades". But does it really matter if we get God's days right?

The Word of God does tell us that we should observe His annual Feast Days as "holy days to the Lord" (see Leviticus 23). But how do we know when they occur? What calendar should we use? The Biblical holy days are obviously based on the Biblical calendar – the original calendar God gave to Moses and Israel. The Roman calendar is totally pagan. But what about the Jewish calendar?

Fact: The Jews replaced the original calendar Biblical calendar in 357-358 A.D. due to Roman persecution, and substituted a mathematical-astronomical one in its place – based on the periodic movements of the earth, moon and sun over the course of the 19-year time cycle. This ignored the exact occurrence of New Moons, on which months were based and annual holy days determined!

Along with the "new" mathematical calendar, the Jewish leaders deliberately ADDED "postponements" to the calendar months to prevent Yom Kippur from falling on a Friday or a Sunday, and they added another postponement to prevent the seventh day of the Feast of Tabernacles from falling on a weekly Sabbath. These changes were made because of TRADITION which had accumulated over the centuries after the time of Christ. They even changed the beginning of the YEAR itself to safeguard their "traditions"! One tradition said Yom Kippur could not occur next to the weekly Sabbath. Another said the last day of Sukkot could not occur on a weekly Sabbath day. These "traditions" were not a part of the calendar from Moses to Christ, but the Jewish rabbis added them during the fourth century after Christ!

God's Word says, plainly, "The wages of sin is DEATH" (Rom.6:23). God says, "The soul that sins, it shall DIE" (Ezek18:4, 20). So which is going to be? Are we going to obey GOD and keep His holy days correctly, on the right day? Or follow human devised "TRADITIONS" instead?

Yes, please send me your book on A New Look at God's True Calendar. I want to know the TRUTH. I want to "prove" the truth (I Thess.5:21). I understand it is FREE of charge.

What Was the Day of the Wave Sheaf Offering?

Many are confused and assume that Pentecost should be always observed on Sunday, because they assume the day must be counted from the Sunday that falls in the week of Unleavened Bread in the spring. Have they made an erroneous assumption? Are they therefore celebrating the wrong day for Pentecost?

William F. Dankenbring

QUESTION: If the first day of Passover, Nisan 14, fell on a Friday, as in the year of the crucifixion, when Christ was crucified on Thursday, could the omer or wave sheaf offering still be offered on Nisan 16, which would then be a weekly Sabbath? Would doing that kind of “work” violate the commandment not to work on the Sabbath?

When should the wave sheaf or omer offering be done? What is its importance?

The Word of God declares, “When you enter the land I am going to give you and you reap its harvest, bring to the priest a sheaf of the first grain you harvest. He is to wave the sheaf before the LORD so it will be accepted on your behalf; the priest is to wave it on the day after the Sabbath” (Lev.23:9-11). God then says, “From the day after the Sabbath, the day you brought the sheaf of the wave offering, count off seven full weeks” (Lev.23:15). At the end of the seven weeks, on the fiftieth day, is the Feast of Pentecost.

In Deuteronomy, God adds, “Count off seven WEEKS from the time you begin to put the sickle to the standing grain. Then celebrate the Feast of Weeks to the LORD your God . . .” (Deut.16:9-10).

Which Sabbath?

But what Sabbath do we count from? Many today teach that it was the weekly Sabbath day during the Feast of Unleavened Bread. The modern Karaites do this, and several various Church groups, most of which came out of the old Worldwide Church of God.

Orthodox Jews, however, say it was the first annual Sabbath of Passover, that is, Nisan 15. What is the truth? Who is right?

God’s annual Holy Days are also called Sabbaths. The Feast of Trumpets is called a “Sabbath” (Lev.23:24). The Day of Atonement is also called a “Sabbath,” even a “Sabbath of Sabbaths” Lev.23:32). And the first day of the Feast of Tabernacles is called a “Sabbath” and so is “Shemini Atzaret,” “the eighth day” (Lev.23:39).

So which “Sabbath” are we to count from to determine the day of Pentecost?

Alfred Edersheim in The Temple: Its Ministry and Services, discusses this issue. He points out that the original controversy was due to the false teaching of the Sadducees. They were a Jewish sect which did not believe in angels, spirit beings, or even the resurrection (see Matt.22:23). Luke tells us, “The Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, and that there are neither angels nor spirits” (Acts 23:8).

Christ rebuked the Sadducees, illustrating their supreme ignorance, by saying to them, “You are in ERROR because you do NOT KNOW THE SCRIPTURES or the power of God” (Matt.22:29). This being the case, should we follow their reasoning and their thinking and their opinion on counting Pentecost, today?

The Proof of the Pudding

Says Edersheim, “The expression, ‘the morrow after the Sabbath’ (Lev.23:11), has sometimes been misunderstood as implying that the presentation of the so-called ‘first sheaf’ was to be always made on the day following the weekly Sabbath of the Passover-week. This view, adopted by the ‘Boethusians’ and the Sadducees in the time of Christ, and by the Karaite Jews and certain modern interpreters, rests on a misinterpretation of the work ‘Sabbath’ (Lev.23:24, 32, 39). As in analogous allusions to other feasts in the same chapter, it means not the weekly Sabbath, but the day of the festival. The testimony of Josephus (Ant.3.248-249), of Philo (Op. 2, 294), and of Jewish tradition, leaves no room to doubt that in this instance we are to understand by the word ‘Sabbath’ the 15th of Nisan, on whatever day of the week it might fall” (Edersheim, page 203-204).

Therefore, the wave sheaf offering, or omer, was offered on Nisan 16. The command was to do it on “the morrow of the Sabbath,” That is the day after the Passover annual Sabbath which was Nisan 15. So the wave sheaf was always waved on Nisan 16. Edersheim is plain on this point. He states plainly that to perform the wave sheaf ceremony, on the evening of the first Passover day, “a noisy throng followed delegates from the Sanhedrin outside the city and across the brook Kidron.” They were there to reap the sheaf the evening before it was to be offered, in the Temple, the next morning. Says Edersheim, “it was to witness this ceremony that the crowd gathered around ‘the elders,’ who took care that all was done according to traditional ordinance.”

Notice the account of the ceremony itself. Edersheim says that when the crowd arrived at the spot selected, “on the evening of the 15th of Nisan (even though it were a Sabbath), just as the sun went down, three men, each with a sickle and basket, formally set to work. But in order clearly to bring out all that was distinctive in the ceremony, they first asked the bystanders three times each of these questions: ‘Has the sun gone down?’ ‘With this sickle?’ ‘Into this basket?’ ‘On this Sabbath (or the first Passover day)?' --And lastly, 'Shall I reap?' Having each time been answered in the affirmative, they cut down barley . . ." (p.204).

Notice that this was done on the evening of the 15th of Nisan, right after the first Holy Day of Passover. Therefore it was done at the beginning of Nisan 16, on the second day of Passover week. They did not wait until after the weekly Sabbath day. How clear!

The barley was cut down, and then brought into the court of the Temple and thrashed out with canes, and then parched on a pan perforated with holes, so that each grain might be touched by the fire, and finally exposed to the wind. The barley corn thus prepared was then ground in a barley mill and then sifted till the flour was very fine. Though ten omers were cut down, only one omer (5.1 pints) was offered in the Temple on the second day of Passover (Nisan 16, daylight part). The omer was mixed with very nearly three fourths of a pint of oil, and a handful of frankincense was on it, and then it was waved before the Lord.

Edersheim sums up, "This was what is popularly, though not very correctly, called 'the presentation of the first or wave-sheaf' on the second day of the Passover-feast, or the 16th of Nisan." It was always the 16th. It was never delayed for any reason. It was the Law – the Torah. It was even done on the weekly Sabbath, if that day happened to be Nisan 16.

What the Wave Sheaf Represented

In the past, many have ASSUMED – and many STILL assume – that the "wave sheaf" offering referred to Jesus Christ, who was the offering for our sins upon the stake (II Cor.5:20). But does this make any sense, when we stop to think about it? It was accompanied by the offering of a male lamb without blemish – which itself typified Christ! It was waved by the high priest before God, to be accepted of the Father – and the high priest typified Christ, our "high priest" in heaven (Heb.7:24-28; 9:24; 10:10). Furthermore, this "wave sheaf" was offered AFTER the sacrifice of Christ our Passover Lamb (I Cor.5:7-8). The Passover lambs were slain in the afternoon of Nisan 14 – the precise time when Christ the Messiah was slain for us!

Clearly, then, the wave sheaf does NOT refer to Christ at all – but rather is made possible BY the Sacrifice of Christ, which precedes it in time sequence! We have the following sequence of events:

- 1) the sacrifice of Christ on Nisan 14, late afternoon;
- 2) the holy day of Passover – Nisan 15;
- 3) the next evening, as Nisan 16 began, a sheaf (bundle) of grain is selected from the field across the Kidron valley, east of Jerusalem, and cut and bundled;
- 4) the next morning, Nisan 16, it is prepared and waved before the Lord and accepted of Him as "THE FIRSTFRUITS" of the harvest.

Let's take a careful look at the wave sheaf offering. It is an offering which is a BUNDLE OF SEPARATE BARLEY GRAINS, FROM A NUMBER OF PLANTS, AMOUNTING TO AN "OMER" – about five pints, or two and one half quarts. This offering followed the offering of Christ, as our Passover lamb, who paid for our sins. It was accompanied by the burnt offering of a lamb – Christ – who was without blemish (Lev.23:12). The wave sheaf itself, then, is NOT CHRIST Himself!

What then is it?

The Wave Sheaf Offering, composed of MANY individual grains, offered together, made possible by the sacrifice of Christ, represents US -- God's Firstfruits – TRUE CHRISTIANS -- those called of God during this age, as His "FIRSTFRUITS"!

It was offered to the Father AFTER the sacrifice of Christ, because there is NO WAY the Father could accept us BEFORE our sins were pardoned, and atoned for, and wiped away and washed away by the blood of Christ! But since Christ became our Saviour, and qualified by living a perfect life, and DIED for us on the stake, this made possible OUR acceptance before the throne of God in Heaven!

THAT WAVE SHEAF OFFERING REPRESENTS US, THE FIRSTFRUITS OF THE KINGDOM!

Even as the omer is baked, "parched," cooked and sifted, we too must go through trials and tests, and be prepared to qualify to be accepted of our Maker and Creator, our Father and Master. Even as the omer must also be exposed to the "wind," we also must be "tested" to see if we will remain faithful to the truth, or follow after "various winds," "tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive" (Eph.4:14).

If you are called now, then YOU are typified by the "wave sheaf" as one of the "grains" which compose it. The "wave sheaf" itself typifies the entire true spiritual body of Christ, the "Church of God," those who have the Spirit of God during this dispensation or age!

God says, "For, lo, I will command, and I will sift the house of Israel among all nations, like as corn is sifted in a sieve, yet shall not the least GRAIN fall upon the earth" (Amos 9:9).

The grain represents ISRAEL! This "omer" represented the firstfruits of ISRAEL -- that is, the "Israel of God" (Gal.6:16) – the Church of God!

In the book of James we read, "that we should be a KIND OF FIRSTFRUITS of his creatures" (James 1:18). We in God's Church are those who have "the firstfruits of the Spirit" (Rom.8:23).

In the book of Revelation, the apostle John declares: “And I looked, and, lo, a Lamb stood on the mount Sion, and with him an hundred forty and four thousand, having his Father's name written in their foreheads. . . These are they which follow the Lamb, whithersoever he goeth. These were redeemed from among men, being the FIRSTFRUITS unto GOD and to the Lamb” (Rev.14:1-4).

Who are those who “follow the Lamb” of God, wherever He goes?

Who are the “REDEEMED from among men”?

Those who are truly converted, dedicated, begotten children of God, who have the “firstfruits of the Spirit” of God! How plain!

Counting Pentecost

Why is all this important? Because this tells us from what day we must count fifty days in order to arrive at the correct day for Pentecost! If we begin counting on the wrong day, then we will end up on the wrong day!

God’s commandment is simple. The wave sheaf is always offered on Nisan 16, the day after the high holy day of Passover, which represented Christ our Passover and His sacrifice (I Cor.5:7). This was true, even if Nisan 16 itself fell on a weekly Sabbath day. This was a special commanded ceremony. It represented OUR being accepted as God’s firstfruits in His Kingdom. Therefore it did not violate the Sabbath command not to do work on the Sabbath.

Similarly, in ancient Israel, if a new moon fell on a weekly Sabbath day, the injunction against “work” was lifted for the new moon observers so they could ride their horse, or donkey, and travel from the place of sighting, to report to the Sanhedrin in Jerusalem.

Edersheim also discusses this point. He says: “For the new moon was reckoned by personal observation . . . So important was it deemed to have faithful witnesses, that they were even allowed, in order to reach Jerusalem in time, to travel on the Sabbath, and, if necessary, to make use of horse or mule (Mish. Rosh ha Sh. i. 9; iii.2)” (page 230, under “Determination of the New Moon”).

Letters from Our Readers

"I have no dissent or doubts about the Thursday crucifixion and Friday annual Holy Day. The Emmaus "third day" supports this Passover date. Nor any doubts about the count from Abib 16. And Ex. 19 nails this one for me.

"But could the wave sheaf really be offered on the day after the Holy day? Friday was a Holy Day, an annual Sabbath and Saturday was the weekly Sabbath. Both days when no work should or could have been done. So how could there be any sheaves harvested? Edersheim and others say this was cut after the Holy day ended. How does Judaism handle this?

"What happens when the annual Holy day, Abib 15 is the day before a weekly Sabbath? (As in 30AD). I can't find any analysis of this situation. Would they postpone the sheaf offering until Sunday? Would the count then push Pentecost a day later on the 51st day, which then violates Deut. 16?

"This anomaly makes the Thursday crucifixion questionable. Because any analysis to be correct has to fit ALL of the laws and commands and this one violates the requirements of Deut. 16/9 as it would on every Thursday Passover or it violates the requirement of no work on these resultant double sabbaths. Would the harvest be postponed until Saturday night with a Sunday wave sheaf offering? Then the 50 days from PO is violated.

"This is not academic as this wave sheaf offering will be done again in the temple under JC's rule during the millennium.

"Do you have any data or research or explanation which solves this problem of possible conflict? I don't have your depth of research and resources to see the solution and would greatly appreciate your help and response. My 90 year old mind can't see the solution.

"Hard to believe that it was 20 years ago that you proved to me and Miriam which is the correct Passover and Pentecost; and more, the calendar, etc. In Miriam's last 2 years it was she and I alone for PO and for the last 3 years it was me alone. But we kept the weekly Sabbaths by ourselves since about 1997.

"With your site and many resources on the web, there is no end of info for study but also filled with error. I still find value in your old website but it loads double and is hard to decipher. You need a good index of all the old articles on your new site. Or maybe it is there and I haven't found it.

"It is a good mental exercise to discern and separate the wheat from the chaff. I have to go over the doctrines and re-prove them or the proofs fade and then you get like the offshoots where they act as automatons, never change, never question, never re-prove but become simply Armstrong idolaters.

"I have found a good site with some excellent analyses; Tim McHyde.

<http://www.escapeallthesethings.com/>

His book is a good read and I think gives a good end time scenario. I can agree with much he says but he is a Sunday PCer. Hard to find any Sabbath keepers who keep the Sivan 5, 6, or 7 Pentecost; or the major positions you and I follow. I thank you for that revelation.

"Now most of my best friends in this area have died and I stay in touch via e-mail with some real old friends of 20-30 years back, spread around the states. Most are in off-shoots, the ABCOGs, Armstrong Based Churches of God and a few in Messianic Jewish groups. There are still many I know in local UCG and COGWA groups but I can't really meet with them as one can't really stand the wrong doctrine which gets delivered. They have made it known I would be welcomed but it would be deceit and cover-up on my part. I don't belong there. It would be like attending SDA groups. Besides my backside can't take 2 hours of those usual metal seats listening many times to boring sermons and the puerile preaching in most sermonettes.

"Did you ever read George Barna's book called 'Pagan Christianity'? He shows the pagan origin of church buildings, of sermon and service practices, of the elitist ministry as a profession and only teachers. The whole Christian religion structure and culture has pagan sources. 'Christianity did not defeat paganism; it adopted it' – Will Durant.

"HWA gave us a good base but he got only 80% there and he adopted RCC government and Protestant/Catholic services format and activities. WCG and RCC PO services. Not dissimilar.

"It seems the closer to the truth you get, the more isolated you get. But we and they all operate with trust and faith in those beliefs that God has allowed us to obtain. Most ABCOG beliefs are frozen back to 1986 when HWA died. I don't fault nor condemn them. I have been wrong quite enough on my own over 35 years now. God will get us all thru this and I believe all those offshoot folks are believers and brothers; just in different churches cited in Rev. I don't argue debatable issues with anyone. Even Sabbath or Sunday is debatable to most 'Christians'. I don't have anyone as a good friend who comes close to agreeing with me. A few closest friends are still Protestants. Tolerance and love comes along with older age. One of my kindest neighbors is a Muslim family. An ex-US Marine and good neighbor.

"Need to close this off as I am getting gabby.

"Hope all is well with you and Cappy. Omak is looking more and more like a good place to be. But I will stay here and trust in PS. 91."

"I wanted to write you after hearing some of the things the Pope said recently. Because I know that Jesus said loving God was greater than loving man (Matthew 22:36-38). And the first four of the ten commandments teach us how to love God. And any church that teaches against those commandments does not love God. If they....

1) Teach the Trinity, that the Father is not the only true God (John 17:3), that the Holy Spirit is a person, and a long haired Jesus that did away with His Father's law

2) Are filled with idols---crosses, statues, steeples, X-mas trees, etc.

3) Call their priests father (Matthew 23:9) and the pope "the most holy father", and their pagan festivals by Christ's name.

4) Worship on Sunday and keep pagan holidays.

Those that do these things don't love or obey God. God gives His Holy Spirit to those who obey Him (Acts 5:32). Even true Christian ministers are partial in the law today (Mal 2:9). By not wearing holy garments, understanding the true origin of Christ, keeping the Holy Days on the right days, in the right ways, having a Passover seder, counting the omer, blowing the shofar, and worshipping with a sukkah, and the lulav which help us to obey and love God more.

The pope has awed the world with his rejection of anything lavish and his humanistic love of the poor. In these things he appears to the world as a lamb. But, recently he said that atheists can go to heaven. And that the church should stop worrying about abortion and gay marriage. In these things he is speaking like the Dragon (Rev. 13:11). So, the pope is teaching you can receive salvation without believing in God at all, which includes faith in Christ's sacrifice, as long as you help the poor. We are entering the time of the great deception. He wants to fool the world into thinking all that's needed for salvation is a humanistic brotherly love, and tolerance for sin.

Paul said we could give everything we have and give our bodies to be burned, but if we didn't have true Godly love it would be for nothing (I Cor.13:3). That love comes through worshipping God by His Commandments. And I thank you for NOT being partial in teaching them to me."

"I do hope that all is going well and good after the eye operation. God knows how much you are in need of your eye sight to finish the work which He has raised you up to prepare the way for Christ's return. I did finish the article on ‘Elijah Truly Shall Come First and Restore All Things.’ I do totally agree with all of it. And for quite some time believed Malachi 3:1 was referring to you. God has called a faithful and loyal church to stand with you during this perilous time. I thank God often for the awesome calling He has granted me.”

“Thank you for all your work in the Lord. I came across PF while I was incarcerated. I must admit that I have become more aware of the true plan of God since I have been with your ministry. I have been out since 2010 and have created a web site: www.theovercomers.org The Holy Spirit gave me that insight while I was incarcerated. The Overcomer name was my 3rd search and I was surprised to find it available. I seem to receive a calling from the Holy Spirit after I have a long session with your material. Thanks again”

“You mentioned the character that is the president of the U.S. If you think about it there was another character that was so much like the Mack Daddy. That character was Jim Jones who was the leader of the mass suicide down in Guyana.

“The similarities are:

1. Both captured the Media
2. Both have similar family backgrounds
3. Both were community organizers
4. Both connected with terrorists
5. People fainted or acted that way around them.
6. Both of them are liars
7. It seems like the same evil spirit possessed them
8. Both are cult leaders

The only difference is that Jones is dead and Mack Daddy has yet to meet his Maker.

As each day goes by it seems like things are getting worse by the day. This storm in the Philippines could be a foretaste of what this world is going to see in the future. What I have seen of the storm damage in the Philippines shows how total the destruction is of this planet Earth when we pay for our disobedience to God.

“There is something up that the government and NASA is hiding from the masses about the comets that are in the vicinity of the Earth. . . It is interesting that ISON was shown green and seems to be turning blue in color. Also it has increased in brilliance, so is it one of the signs that will be in the sky?

The way things are happening it looks like things are being set up so that when things begin to happen, they will happen in rapid succession.

“When you look at true history no wonder God says His people are destroyed for lack of knowledge.”

“After reading the September-October issue of Prophecy Flash, it’s becoming more evident that what’s stated is instilled with a deep sense of urgency not seen in other publications. Each issue is a must read, and after witnessing the total absurdity of the so-called government shut-down and default debacle, reading this issue has made sense out of what can only be described as demonic insanity.

“The level of frustration and anger in society is now one step above animal behavior. We are quickly disintegrating morally, politically, socially, economically and militarily. We arrived at our point of no return when Obama was elected and re-elected. We crossed the line God set before us that determined whether or not this nation can be salvaged.

“Its frustrating to witness so much insanity. This is no longer America, but the beginning stage of a larger version of Zimbabwe. We are witnessing the moral rot of our individual and national souls.

“Where is the urgency? Complacency has overtaken and consumed it. Individuals who recognize what is wrong are going to realize there’s a high price to pay for speaking out. How many people will be willing to take the risks required in order to fulfill the responsibility of watchmen as commanded in Ezekiel 33? The deeper people sink into the muck and mire of godless behavior, the more difficult it’s going to be for people to change. The messenger will be attacked, and the message rejected. Lives will be taken as the beast system of Revelation 13 and 17 is fully entrenched and Obama becomes a full-fledged dictator. Every individual considered an enemy of the state will be eliminated and silenced. The Bible will be banned and America’s guillotines will claim many political and religious victims. The blood of those who are willing to stand up to the beast system will be on Obama's hands and those pushing his Satanic agenda.

"We are on a runaway train without breaks. If ever we've seen proof of our derailment in the making, the political charade during the government shutdown was equivalent to watching a play called 'A Comedy of Errors, Act One' has just concluded, but not without a chorus of boos as political actors claiming to be leaders bowed (out) as the curtain closed. In a few months we will see 'Act Two' on a stage located in what is now Sodom, D.C. As the plot thickens we are edging closer to our political and economic collapse.

"We are now led by an American pharaoh who is determined to push his socialist agenda at all costs. We are ruled by a president who is cunning, shrewd, sinister, brutal, incapable of telling the truth because he's a man without a conscience and a soul, obstinate, narcissistic, and will do whatever it takes to create an America in his image. His true agenda is about to become very personal. Transparency is what the American people were told would be the outstanding attribute of this president, but it has become one huge lie, as has been everything about the Obama administration.

"Obamacare is a health plan straight from the pages of Satan's handbook. It has nothing to do with providing affordable health care, but a way in which each and every person can be controlled. Obamacare will be the health care system forced upon the American people under the direction of the beast system. No one will be able to buy or sell without it. Requirements for coverage will be whatever the government dictates. Obesity will come under attack and weight loss will be required. Overweight children will be removed from homes if not within guidelines set. Overseers such as Michele Obama and Michael Bloomberg have already set the pace by pressuring schools, restaurants and companies to offer healthier food selections. Carbonated drinks and food considered contributing to obesity will be on the government hit list once Obamacare is enforced. Happy Meals will become sad sacks as the government rules every facet of our eating habits. This is just the tip of the iceberg of what's coming.

"No one will be spared from the absolute iron fisted rule to come. As the National Security Agency grows into a Big Brother one-eyed Cyclops, and every possible way granted to it to watch every move we make is achieved, we will become slaves of the state. Anyone who remotely disagrees will be placed in FEMA operated internment camps or eliminated. National enslavement is on the horizon, followed by foreign occupation by our enemies from abroad as described in Leviticus 26 and Deuteronomy 28.

"What you state is needed more than ever. Don't stop warning in the way you are. While few people are going to make the necessary changes by repenting, people will remember what's been written or said when they experience the very events they've scoffed at.

"My prayers continue for you, Cappy and everyone involved in the work you are doing."

"It has been a while since you have heard from me and I am sorry for that. I hope all is well and I really want to thank you for the very , very inspiring Bible studies during the feast and after that. The studies on Babylon have been a comfort in which it is becoming very clear that the end is coming very soon.

"The world around us is so evil that we have to be in constant prayer to be able to cope with what our eyes see and our ears hear. I pray all day long for strength and courage and ask God to prepare me spiritually for the hard times ahead. People are going on about preparing physically in the sense of keeping stocks etc, but in my case, I do not have the room to stock up lots. Just enough for a few weeks. I am sure that, God will provide for me like He did the Israelites with manna if needed.

"Here in Holland like the rest of the Israelite countries, things are getting very tough. Taxes are over our heads and the government is really making the pensioners poor. Pensions have been cut 5%. The cost of living has raised enormously and for many people it is hard to make ends meet. We are dictated by the European 'government' in Brussels and are totally losing our own identity. And the Union is still expanding. Romania, and Bulgaria are joining the EU which is not making us happy .to say the least.

“Besides this we embrace homosexuality and we as believing Christians better not open our mouths against it. Like you said in one of the Bible studies we are becoming very anti Israel and are boycotting their products.

“And people just keep on not wanting to know and go on like zombies. They say ‘it has always been this way and everything comes and goes. Don’t worry.’ .It makes it difficult to keep friendships going with people outside the flock, because people think one is strange and not of this world, as they keep on telling me that I am.

“From me personally life is a bit hard at the moment. My mother has a beginning dementia and my sister has fled to Spain for good. My sister and I have been very close for years. We talk daily of the things happening in the world in light of prophecy. She has gone through a very nasty divorce and cannot cope with the situation with my mother and our other sister. I am going to miss her very much. My mother is a big burden physically and emotional. She is very manipulative and not very loving toward me. I do my best to deal with the situation as a good child of God, but it is difficult to handle with love.

“After Terry and Peter died I knew that I had to learn to deal with all life brings me with God only, and His strength to help me through the moments of loneliness and all the other emotions I have to cope with. It has been a very important learning process to growth in godly character. I am not there yet, far from that, but I am certain it has a purpose which I shall one day see.

“I was studying Daniel 7 and reading the commentary on verse 25 in Adam Clarke’s commentary .I was very surprised to see his comment on this: ‘If we knew precisely when the papal power began to exert itself in the antichristian way, then we could at once fix the time of its destruction. The end is probably not very distant; it has already been grievously shaken by the French. In 1798 the French republican army under General Berthier took possession of the city of Rome, and entirely superseded the whole papal power. This was a deadly wound, though at present it appears to be healed; but it is but skipped over, and a dreadful cicatrice remains. The Jesuits, not Jesus, are now the Church’s doctors. If the papal power, as a horn or temporal power, be intended here, which is most likely, (and we know that that power was given in 755) to Pope Stephen II. by Pepin, king of France) counting one thousand two hundred and sixty years from that, we are brought to A.D. 2015.’

“What is your opinion on this?”

“There is one thing I am very much looking forward to and gives me something to look forward to during the long winter months: Barbara and Nick will be coming over to Holland for the Passover. And God willing I will be going over to Britain for the Feast.

“I am enclosing a cheque with an offering. I pray God will keep you in good health, give you extra strength to do the work, protect you, inspire you to teach His truth and give you insight in the prophecies in these last days! May our Great God bless the both of you, and you are in my prayers daily.”

-- Holland

COMMENT: Wow! Adam Clarke is my favorite Commentary. He was a devout Christian who lived about 1825, when he wrote his Commentary – a most excellent work. Thank you for bringing my attention to his riveting words about Daniel 7:25 and the length of the papal reign. I will be discussing this in Bible Studies and in an article, but his depth of understanding on these issues was inspired and very insightful. From the beginning of the papal rule in the days of king Pepin of France, the three and one half times (1260 years) ends in 2015 – a very significant date indeed. Does that give us the date when the historic Catholic church is taken over completely by the new Jesuit pope who aligns himself with the Antichrist and who like him “thinks to change times and laws” – endorsing abortion, homosexuality, and things which have been considered anathema and taboo in the Catholic Church, even though secretly tolerated and permitted? 2015 is also the next “shemitta year” or year of “release,” which could see the final economic collapse in the West, and the replacement of the dollar as the world currency backup. The final nails in the coffin are being driven home. Indeed we are living in “interesting times,” as the old Chinese curse declares.
