A Voice in the Wilderness

God tells His servants in His Word, “Cry aloud, spare not. Lift up your voice like a trumpet and declare to My people their transgression and to the house of Jacob their sins!” (Isa.58:1, Parallel Amplified Bible).

God also declares: “Comfort, comfort My people, says your God. Speak tenderly to the heart of Jerusalem, and cry to her that her time of service and her warfare are ended, that [her punishment is accepted and] her iniquity is pardoned, that she has received [punishment] from the Lord’s hand double for all her sins.”

We are living in a world gone berserk with anger and rage. “Why do the nations rage?” (Psalm 2:1). Answer – because they don’t know the true God, and are in rebellion against His laws and teachings and the true way of life and peace!

Isaiah wrote: “A voice of one who cries: Prepare in the wilderness the way of the Lord [clear away the obstacles]; make straight and smooth a highway for our God. . . . And the glory (majesty and splendor) of the Lord shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together; for the mouth of the Lord has spoken it” (Isaiah 40:3-5).

The Messiah is coming very SOON! Its time to prepare to MEET Him! “Surely the Lord will do nothing without revealing His secret to His servants the prophets” (Amos 3:7). The purpose of this magazine is to warn the world of what lies ahead, and to help prepare people to get ready to meet the Messiah, when He returns to restore all things (Acts 3:19-21), put an end to wars, and usher in the Kingdom of God! The prophet Amos declared, “Prepare to meet your God, O Israel” (Amos 4:12). No matter is more urgent, today!

Into the Darkness

The world is poised on the brink of terrifying times and great upheaval and distress of nations. Jesus Christ and all the Bible prophets foretold it. “Perilous times” would come upon the world in the “last days,” as the apostle Paul put it. A time like no other in history for the absolute horror, terror, and fear-crazed panic. Our nation has been weighed in the balance, like ancient Babylon, its predecessor, and has been found “wanting.” Judgment is about to fall. The call for repentance has gone unheeded by the multitudes and masses, and God’s warnings have been ignored and treated with contempt.

Read the harrowing facts and how close we are to “doomsday” and final judgment in this month’s provocative articles – and take steps to save your own life and that of your family, before it is everlastingly too late!

Past the Point of No Return

America – into the Stygian Darkness

Has America gone past the point of no return? Have we gone so far down the road to collapse and ruin that there is no hope left? Is the future bright and shiny, or does our doom and utter destruction, cataclysm and oblivion, beckon us onward down our present path? Is it too late to avert and forestall calamity and a chamber of horrors such as the world has never known?

William F. Dankenbring

Is it already too late?

To change the course of a mammoth ocean liner, a small helm change can do the trick, but it takes time to alter the direction of a massive vessel on the high seas. By the time the helmsman on the Titanic woke up to his plight and the iceberg in his path, it was too late to change the course of the vessel, and she struck the iceberg with all her weight, and sank to the bottom of the sea.

How about U.S.S. America? Where is our ship of state heading?

State of the Nation

In 62-63 the Supreme Court voted to remove prayer and Bible reading from the public schools. In 1973 the Supreme Court legalized abortion on demand in the Roe vs. Wade decision. Since then nearly 60 million unborn babies have been slaughtered. In 2001 Congress passed the Patriot Act, which has shredded the Bill of Rights and propelled our country toward a police state. What has happened?

How did we get to this place?

America still considers itself as the “land of the free and the home of the brave”. But things have changed. Every one knows it. Things have really changed, and not for the better. Since 2008 when we had the financial meltdown, things have gotten worse – much worse. -- as gas is high, wages are low, the debt is high, sentiment is low, the future looks bleak, Washington are not suffering, but the rest of the people are, with unemployment at record levels. Corruption is out in the open, new laws and executive orders are a weekly event, all of which take away more liberties and freedoms from the people. Governments don't serve the people any more, they only serve the banksters and big business.

Corruption is everywhere. The judgments of the Great Tribulation could be triggered at anytime, now. The world has reached the saturation point of evil. Jesus Christ said of the time just before His second coming, "And as it was in the days of Noah, so it will be also in the days of the Son of Man. They ate, they drank, they married wives, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noah entered the ark, and the flood came and destroyed them all" (Luke 17:26-27).

In the days of Noah, "The earth was corrupt before God, and the earth was filled with violence" (Gen.6:11). "Then the LORD saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every intent of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually [all the day]" (Gen.6:5).

We are living in the period before the storm.

Christ also said, "Likewise as it was also in the days of Lot: They ate, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they built; but on the day that Lot went out of Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven and destroyed them all. Even so will it be in the day when the Son of Man is revealed" (Luke 17:28-30).

Sodom was infamous for its homosexuality. The world today once again endorses homosexuality, and the Obama government pushes for its universal acceptance. It is even being taught in the schools, from grade school on up! Your tax dollars are being spent to study the private parts of homosexual males and the reason why lesbians are fatter and drink more than other women! The state push for recognition and legalization of "homosexual marriage" continues unabated.

Moral standards have sunk to the gutter. God thunders, "How shall I pardon you for this? Your children have forsaken Me and sworn by those that are not gods. When I fed them to the full, then they committed adultery and assembled themselves by troops in the harlots' houses. They were like well-fed lusty stallions; every one neighed after his neighbor's wife. Shall I not punish them for these things? Says the LORD. And shall I not avenge Myself on such a nation as this?" (Jer.5:7-9).

Most thinking Americans know that the system of government and big business is totally corrupt. Wall Street, Washington, the FBI, the CIA, DHS, and the Supreme Court just to mention a few are all puppets of the shadow government, led by Obama and his cabal of secret and not-so-secret backers – the "puppet-masters." With nary a protest, our liberties are being taken away, one by one.

What chance does an American have when the vast majority of the people themselves look to the government for support, food stamps, hand-outs, and sustenance?

Look at what happened to Joe Arpaio. His Cold Case Posse has proven that Obama's birth certificate is a fraud. But now he is not able to get any government department or official to take it to the next step. They shut him down.

Our government is in love with the Muslim Brotherhood, sponsors of violence in the Middle East, fanatical devotees of Sharia Law, who also seek to overthrow the governments of Europe and the United States. Spouting "freedom of religion," Obama brings Muslims into his government big time and places Muslim devotees in high office, including Homeland Security. Bizarre, since Muslims pose the greatest threat to the American way of life!

Terrorist Training Camp Near You?

One of the investigators who worked on a report about terror training camps operating inside the United States describes the network as no more or less than an infrastructure for attack.

It has been reported in a documentary called "Homegrown Jihad: Terrorist Training Camps Around the U.S." that "Muslims of America" operates a series of training camps in the U.S.

Jason Campbell is project manager for the Christian Action Network, which was behind the training camps investigation. He describes some of his visits to the camps, which have been located in New York, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia, Tennessee, South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Texas, Oklahoma, Michigan, Colorado, California and Washington.

Says Campbell, "The one that really gets you concerned is in Georgia. You go down a road and all of a sudden it's just woods, and there are two roads that go straight down to the camp. It's dark because of the trees. And one of the roads is named Mecca and the other Medina. If there ever was an infrastructure for terrorism, this is it," he told World Net Daily.

Campbell also said the camps he's visited have a mosque and frequently the living conditions are "miserable." The locations are run by Muslims of the Americas Inc., a tax-exempt organization, and it has been directly linked by court documents to Jamaat ul-Fuqra. The organization operates communes of primarily black, American-born Muslims throughout the U.S. The investigation confirmed members commonly use aliases and intentional spelling variations of their names and routinely deny the existence of Jamaat ul-Fuqra.

The group openly recruits through various social service organizations in the U.S., including the prison system. Members live in compounds where they agree to abide by the laws of Jamaat ul-Fuqra, which are considered to be above local, state and federal authority.

U.S. authorities have probed the group for charges ranging from links to al-Qaida to laundering and funneling money into Pakistan for terrorist activities. The organization supports various terrorist groups operating in Pakistan and Kashmir, and follows Sheikh Mubarak Gilani. He boasts of conducting “the most advanced training courses in Islamic military warfare.”

The jihadist organization is thought to be responsible for nearly 50 attacks on American soil, but the U.S. government refuses to list it among foreign terrorists. Yet they are still thriving in the “land of the free” – as they plot to bring Americans into subjection to Islam.

But this is only one peril facing America and the western world.

The Obama Government

Wayne Allyn Root declares in a blistering indictment of the Obama government:

“Obama desperately needs your money, and he’ll stop at nothing to confiscate it. Whether it’s raising income taxes, payroll taxes, Obamacare taxes, online sales taxes or taking away exemptions and deductions, he’ll find a new and creative way to claim your money as his money.

“How does Obama steal your money? Let me share a few highlights of Don Obama’s larceny in action.

“First: through massive taxation and redistribution of wealth. Don Obama targets, hunts, demonizes, intimidates and punishes his best customers (business owners and high-income taxpayers). Even the Gambinos treated their best customers better than this.

“But taxation is only the tip of the iceberg for the Obama crime family. They can rob widows and orphans blind without ever touching their income or bank accounts. The Obama crime family’s weapon of choice is the Federal Reserve. If Don Obama can’t get his hands on your money, he merely orders the Fed to print trillions in new dollars. That makes your life savings worthless. It threatens your retirement. It even threatens the financial future of your children and grandchildren.

“All of those trillions of fake dollars printed by the Fed need to be repaid by future generations. That “Obama money” that props up the stock market — and pays for “free” Obama phones and “free” healthcare — isn’t actually “free.” It’s debt, and it all must be repaid by your kids.

“Don Obama is a genius. He has enslaved your heirs to a life of misery, unimaginable debt and excessive taxation — even though some aren’t even born yet. That qualifies Don Obama as the meanest, most dastardly gangster who ever lived. No wonder babies cry upon taking their first breath. At the moment of birth, they owe more than $300,000.”

Says Root, “This Don Obama is one bad-ass killer. Just last month, 660,000 Americans left the workforce. In one month! There are now 90 million able-bodied, working-age Americans no longer working. That’s almost one-third of the country’s population. The workforce participation rate is the lowest since 1979. For men, it’s the lowest since 1948. Don Obama has killed so many jobs that he should be on top of the FBI’s Most Wanted list.”

Obama’s Biggest Lie of All – the Benghazi Cover Up

Benghazi – a name that will go down in history. A “crime of the century.”

Will we ever get all of the truth about the false explanations and misdirection from the Obama Administration after the terrorist assaults on our consulate in Benghazi, Libya, on Sept. 11, 2012? The cover up was fantastic. Lies, lies and more lies.

Most Americans may be too jaded and worn out looking for work to pay attention to what happens overseas – or what transpired in Benghazi, during the U.S. presidential election campaigning last fall. The stone-walling still continues. However, we’ve gotten a lot closer to the true story in recent weeks. Kudos to three courageous State Department whistleblowers who refused to be part of a shameful cover-up and to a House committee that dug long and hard to get down to more of the truth.

It is now indisputably clear that the murder of Ambassador Chris Stephens and three other Americans was planned by an al-Qaida affiliate in Libya. The CIA knew it — and told Washington. Our staff in Libya knew it — and told their superiors. Top Libyan officials knew it — and repeatedly said so. But the Obama Administration blamed it all on a wacky video which had nothing to do with it!

It was deeply moving to listen to Gregory Hicks, the former deputy chief of mission/charge d’affaires in Libya. He was in Tripoli, a two-hour flight from Benghazi, when Stevens called to tell him, “Greg, we’re under attack.”

Hicks told the committee that none of his efforts to get military assistance for the beleaguered Americans in Benghazi was successful. He revealed that a Special Operations team in Tripoli was ordered to “stand down” and not fly to Benghazi. The officer in charge of the team told Hicks, “I have never been so embarrassed in my life that a State Department officer has bigger balls than somebody in the military.”

Hicks said he was absolutely “dumbfounded” when he heard that an obscure anti-Islamic video was being blamed for turning a group of demonstrators into a murderous mob. “I was stunned. My jaw dropped, and I was embarrassed,” Hicks told the committee. He knew it wasn’t true. But that was the Administration’s story; and, by golly, they were going to stick with it.

Representative Darrell Issa (R-Calif.), the chairman of the House Oversight and Government Reform Committee, no doubt engaged in a bit of hyperbole when he told

Sean Hannity before the hearings began that his committee would force the Administration to come clean about “the biggest lie of all.” Issa said:

But despite the revelatory hearings, Benghazi-Gate does not now come up to the standards of “Watergate,” during the Nixon presidency, even though that was merely an attempted break-in and political burglary and hi-jinks. At Benghazi, four brave and loyal Americans died, including an Ambassador – and help was never sent, despite having armed special forces on the ground at Tripoli, and despite the fact that hours of siege went on, while the Obama Administration twiddled its fingers and did nothing.

Says the Word of God, “Righteousness exalts a nation, but sin is a reproach to any people” (Prov.14:34). The Libyan scandal and cover-up should embarrass the American people, and bring outrage to their hearts and an iron will to punish the perpetrators and politicians involved, from top to bottom.

But most people today have a blasé, ho-hum, “What’s for dinner?” attitude, and could not care less. For shame!

Obama’s Great Depression

Says Wayne Allyn Root, “At this moment, despite the lies and distortions you hear from the Barack Obama-adoring mainstream media, we are experiencing an Obama Great Depression to rival anything we experienced in 1929. But the truth is being covered up by an ever-rising stock market (that is completely disconnected from the economy) and a country awash in ‘Obama money.’”

Says Root, “The Kool-Aid-drinking media is shocked by hundreds of hard facts I’ve put together proving we are in a Great Depression. They ask me: ‘Well then, why is the stock market doing so well? Why are there no bread lines or tent cities like 1929?’

“The answer is simple: Big-government spending on an unimaginable scale masks the true picture of our economy. What you’re seeing is a fraud: the biggest Ponzi scheme in world history. There would certainly be bread lines and tent cities, if government wasn’t handing out billions of dollars in checks, paid for by the Federal Reserve printing trillions in fake dollars.

“You’ve seen the numbers. Obama is the biggest spender in world history, adding $6 trillion to the debt in only four years. Where do you think that money is going? To all-time record numbers of Americans on food stamps, disability, welfare and unemployment benefits. Now, of course, we’re embarking on free healthcare for 40 million new patients, with money we don’t have (and no new doctors to treat them).

“And just to be certain that the U.S. economy is completely destroyed, now for good measure we want to legalize 12 million illegal aliens, giving them access to more than $9 trillion in entitlements. Makes sense, doesn’t it?

“The government is borrowing 46 cents for every dollar it spends. It’s all crazy... literally. We have borrowed from China to pay entitlement checks to Americans who no longer feel it pays to go to work, and to hand out billions of dollars in foreign aid to countries that hate us and support terrorism.

“All of this while the Fed is running the printing presses day and night to fund its weapon of mass distraction: Wall Street. As long as the stock market is up, the lapdog media can report the economy is “in recovery.”

“The plan is brilliant. You’d almost think Obama is relying on Bernie Madoff as his chief economic consultant — except even Madoff wouldn’t have the cajónes to pull off this scam. Obama has succeeded in turning Wall Street into a rigged craps game. The government is guaranteeing the results. Obama demands the Fed hands out $85 billion of fake money each and every month and drops it onto the plates of the richest publicly traded companies. This guarantees the stock market goes up while their CEOs get filthy rich with rising stock options, which guarantees banks, Wall Street and billionaires like Warren Buffett continue to support Obama.

“Meanwhile, on Main Street the real economy is dying. There are no jobs. There is no recovery. Ninety million able-bodied, working-age Americans are not working. The workforce participation rate is setting all-time records for futility. U.S. worker hours are down and U.S. worker salaries are stagnating, while our cost of living is skyrocketing. Recent college grads are drowning in debt, with record levels of student loan default and post-college-graduation unemployment. Older Americans are dipping into their retirement savings in record numbers; 16.4 million Americans live in poverty in the suburbs; and almost 50 percent of Americans have less than $500 in savings.

“The middle class is being systematically destroyed. Wiped out. Left with the short end of the stick. The real economy on Main Street is dying. And worst of all, our children and grandchildren will get the bill. This $85 billion per month being used to fraudulently prop up the stock market is all debt being piled onto future generations.

“Then there’s Part II of this Obama Ponzi scheme. Separate from the Fed’s $85 billion per month of fake money is the government spending scheme. Obama has handed out billions of dollars in stimulus, bailouts, green energy investments and government contracts to the biggest publicly traded companies, the most corrupt unions and the most connected Democratic contributors. But none of the benefit goes to small business or the middle class that is stuck paying the bill.

“Government deficit spending with money we don’t have is now paying for everything, at every level. It’s all to hide the reality that we are living in an Obama Great Depression. There are no bread lines or tent cities because we’re all living on the government dole, paid for with debt. Fraud on a massive scale. The greatest Ponzi scheme in world history.

“Housing allowances and food stamps prevent bread lines and tent cities.

“Free breakfasts and lunches at school make it seem like children aren’t going hungry.

“Earned income tax credits are handed out to millions of lower-income Americans (including illegal aliens) who pay no taxes in the first place.

“At the same time, government keeps interest rates artificially low to pump up home and car sales — and to keep the interest on the national debt from eating up the entire budget.

“And if record low interest rates aren’t enough, government purchases of GM cars are up 79 percent. The government is artificially propping up GM with your tax dollars. It’s all a scam.

“Take away all this spending and printing by government, and it would look exactly like 1929.

“We are in an Obama Great Depression masked by government spending and debt that didn’t exist during the first Great Depression. The true extent of this economic Armageddon is being hidden, disguised and propped up with government spending, programs and Fed printing never imagined in the 1930s.”

What’s the End Game?

Root asks the question, “What’s the end game?” He declares, “First, all this spending and printing is to prevent economic collapse and total panic. Second, it’s to achieve the Marxist dream: redistribution of wealth to Obama’s voters and contributors. Third (and this is the big one), it’s to create a two-class society.

“Karl Marx hated the middle class. He felt they needed to be eliminated to create equality, fairness and social justice (i.e., shared misery). Will people be hurt? Sure, they’ll lose their jobs and homes. But to Marxists, the end justifies the means. Obama needs a two-class society to make his plan work; the two classes are the super rich and the poor. The key is both are dependent on government to survive.

“The super rich love crony capitalism — with Obama handing out stimulus, Fed printing and government contracts like candy. That’s how the super rich and politically connected stay rich and get richer. The rest of us will be poor, which makes us dependent on Obama for government checks to survive. Government will pay for our lives from cradle to grave, while confiscating most of our income.

“This is a Ponzi scheme that even Madoff could never have imagined. (Wayne Allyn Root, personalliberty.com, May 9, 2013).

Shocking? Disturbing? Why have we been saddled with such a corrupt, wicked government? But, as Wayne Allyn Root asks, “What is the End Game?”

Where is it all leading? What will the outcome be?

A Letter from Israel

A man in Israel wrote to me the following letter, saying:

As you know, from the time that the land of Israel was re-united to the Jewish people in the year of 1948 to the year of 2013 has been 65 years – Isaiah 7:8.

Now according to my K J V the new Scofield reference Bible, in the commentary section, it says in the book of first kings: that the house of Israel lasted for 210 years, before being evicted from the land of Israel, so if the 210 years is correct that means that the 210 years represents (3 generations of 70 years) in the land of Israel as the house of Israel.

So here is the kicker!

So When Ephraim and Manasseh began to become two very important and blessed nations in the year of 1803 after 2520 years of judgment, can you tell where all this new info is leading to? So therefore, if you were to add 210 years (3 generations of 70 years) to the year of 1803, can imagine what year we come to?

$1803+210=2013$

Does history repeat itself? What do you think, good, bad, ugly, etc. or is this info already well known or is in your book about America & Great Britain?"

The letter of course is very interesting. I've never seen that remarkable timeline put forward before. Fascinating, to say the least! It is an incredible parallel, and once again leads us to see and believe that the year 2013 – this very year – will be a humdinger, a blockbuster, a singular phenomenon, a horizon epochal event.

We must “stay tuned,” and “stay in the breach,” and keep on the spiritual firing lines, and stay prepared, waiting for the soon return of our Lord and Master, Saviour and Redeemer, Jesus Christ, Yeshua the Messiah! Amen, Amen!

In a follow-up email, the man from Israel declared:

“I forgot to mention in my last e-mail to you a few hours ago and what I forgot to say was, as you know Jerusalem was destroyed in the year 70 A D and once again in the year of 135 A D when the Jewish people were evicted from the land of Israel.

“So here is what I forgot to say: From 135 minus 70 equals 65 years 65 years seems to happen at least three times that I know of in the Bible at this time.”

The Mysterious 65 Years

The original prophecy, in Isaiah, says, “Within 65 years Ephraim will be broken, so that it will not be a people” (Isa.7:8). This same prophecy speaks of Syria and Damascus, its capital.

Syria is in Civil War at this moment, with the United States – modern Ephraim – supporting the rebels, even though they include the Muslim Brotherhood and members of Al Qaeda. Syria, and the Muslims, have always hated the Jews, and the state of Israel, despising its very existence, and agitating for another Holocaust. The U.S. has become very anti-Semitic, in reality, as it plays its cards close to the vest, but allying with the Muslim nations of the Middle East, including Saudi Arabia, from whence Wahabism, fundamentalism and terrorism were spawned and are supported.

It has been 65 years, now, since the founding of the state of Israel in May, 1948! Will modern day Ephraim now become “broken,” as this prophecy suggests? So much so, that it will not be a “united people”?

Already, the disunity is obvious, and disturbing. Our country appears to be threatened by revolution, and seems to be “coming apart at the seams.” Republicans hate Democrats, modern Socialists hate Conservatives, the “race card” is being played daily, and Obama has become the most divisive president in U.S. history.

The U.S. economy teeters on the brink of disaster, the country is $16 trillion dollars in debt, and the slightest hiccup could send the economy over the cliff and into a fatal crash-and-burn scenario. We are living on the “edge.” As the apostle Paul wrote, “In the last days perilous times will come. For men will be lovers of themselves, lovers of money, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, unloving, unforgiving, slanderers, without self-control, brutal, despisers of good, traitors, headstrong, haughty, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God” (II Tim.3:1-4).

Our government and people in general are becoming increasingly hostile toward the Bible, and Christianity – especially those who take the Bible seriously. It is almost as if we are tempting God, or thumbing our nose in His face.

And the consequences will be awesome – and catastrophic. God’s Word warns, “Do not be deceived, God is not mocked; for whatever a man sows, that he will also reap” (Gal.6:7)

What is the root cause of all our growing ills, today?

We Have Forgotten God

The modern generation has forgotten God. So God declares, “Because you have forgotten the God of your salvation, and have not been mindful of the Rock of your stronghold, therefore you will plant pleasant plants and set out foreign seedlings . . . but the harvest will be a heap of ruins in the day of grief and desperate sorrow” (Isaiah 17:10-11).

God says of our peoples, “I have nourished and brought up children, and they have rebelled against Me. The ox knows its owner and the donkey its master’s crib; but Israel does not know, My people do not consider. Alas, sinful nation, a people laden with iniquity, a brood of evildoers, children who are corrupters! They have forsaken the LORD, they have provoked to anger the Holy One of Israel, they have turned away backward” (Isaiah 1:2-4).

God declares, “I will give children to be their princes, and babes [margin, “capricious ones”] shall rule over them. The people will be oppressed, every one by another and every one by his neighbor; the child will be insolent toward the elder, and the base toward the honorable” (Isa.3:4-5).

God thunders, “My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge. Because you have rejected knowledge [of God], I also will reject you from being priest for Me; because you have forgotten the law of your God, I also will forget your children” (Hosea 4:6).

People today don’t want to hear about God or His judgments. They don’t take Him seriously. In fact, as God told Isaiah, “Now go write it before them on a tablet and note it on a scroll, that for time to come, forever and ever: That this is a REBELLIOUS people, lying children, children who will not hear the law of the LORD; who say to the seers, ‘Do not see,’ and to the prophets, ‘Do not prophesy to us right things; speak to us SMOOTH THINGS, prophesy deceits. Get out of the way, turn aside from the path, cause the Holy One of Israel to cease from before us’” (Isaiah 30:8-11).

Because of this attitude, “Because you despise this word, and trust in oppression and perversity, and rely on them, therefore this iniquity shall be to you like a breach ready to fall, a bulge in a high wall, whose breaking comes SUDDENLY, IN AN INSTANT. And He shall break it like the breaking of the potter’s vessel, which is broken in pieces” (Isaiah 30:12-14).

God looks down on this wayward, intransigent, stubborn generation of lawless rebels, and declares, “Because I have called and you refused, I have stretched out My hand and no one regarded, because you disdained all My counsel, and would have none of My rebuke, I also will laugh at your calamity; I will mock when your terror comes like a storm, and your destruction comes like a whirlwind, when distress and anguish come upon you” (Proverbs 1:24-27).

Our nation and our leaders and people, from top to bottom, have forgotten God, turned their backs on Him, and rejected His laws and counsel. They forget that He rules over all. They think they can carry on, oblivious to Him and His Word – and so a trap has been set for their feet. God declares, “Because they hated knowledge and did not choose the fear of the LORD . . . They would have none of My counsel and despised My every rebuke. Therefore they shall eat the fruit of their own way, and be filled to the full with their own fancies, for the turning away of the simple will slay them, and the complacency of fools will destroy them” (Prov.1:29-32).

God rules in the kingdoms of men. We have a responsibility to seek His way, His face, and His truth, for self-preservation as much as anything else. Woe be to those who continue to defy the living God and ignore His commandments. Governments steal from their citizens, and their citizens steal from each other, and judgment is surely coming!

2013 in Bible Prophecy

Isaiah declares, “Behold, Damascus will cease from being a city, and it will be a ruinous heap . . . The fortress will also cease from Ephraim, the kingdom from Damascus, and the remnant of Syria. . . . In that day it shall come to pass that the glory of Jacob will wane, and the fatness of his flesh grow lean [economic misery, great depression]. It shall be as when the harvester gathers the grain, and reaps the heads with his arm. Yet gleanings of grapes will be left in it. Like the shaking of an olive tree, two or three olives at the top of the uppermost bough, four or five in its most fruitful branches” (Isaiah 17:1-6).

When will this happen? When will modern Ephraim-America be punished? When will Syria fall? The two prophecies are intertwined, interlinked, woven together. God says, “Within sixty-five years Ephraim will be broken.”

Israel became a nation after about 2,000 years of wandering and exile. Israel was given a land by the United Nations, part of their ancient homeland, in November 1947, and became a nation-state May 14, 1948.

Sixty-five literal years brings us to May 14, 2013, according to the Roman calendar we use today!

It would appear that our demise and diminishment are coming upon us at break-neck speed. We will face the consequences of our actions very soon. Our time for repentance is almost up.

The Word of God shows us that the fate of America has been determined – by her own people. Our refusal to repent and turn to God will be our undoing. With almost 50 million people on food stamps, millions more on the government dole, unemployment benefits, disability benefits, and government sanctioned housing benefits, and burgeoning national debt, the whole edifice is teetering, swaying, and threatening to topple to the ground – with no safety net left. It will lead to mayhem, gang violence, starvation, panic, and civil war. The tree of American liberty will topple and crash to the ground.

The prophet Zechariah says, “There is the sound of wailing shepherds! For their glory is in ruins. There is the sound of roaring lions!” (Zech.11:3).

The prophet continues, “Thus says the LORD my God, Feed the flock for slaughter, whose owners slaughter them and feel no guilt; those who sell them say, ‘Blessed be the LORD, for I am rich’; and their shepherds do not pity them. For I will no longer pity the inhabitants of the land, says the LORD, but indeed I will give everyone into his neighbor’s hand and into the hand of his king. They shall attack the land, and I will not deliver them from their hand” (Zech.11:4-6).

God says to His people, “Therefore I will judge you, O house of Israel, everyone according to his ways, says the Lord GOD. Repent, and turn from all your transgressions, so that iniquity will not be your ruin. Cast away from you all the transgressions which you have committed, and get yourselves a new heart and a new spirit. For why should you die, O house of Israel?” (Ezek.18:30-31).

God says again, “As I live, says the Lord GOD, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked, but that the wicked turn from his way and live. Turn, turn from your evil ways. For why should you die, O house of Israel?” (Ezek.33:11).

The hour of judgment is rapidly approaching. God thunders, “They do not direct their deeds toward turning to their God, for the spirit of harlotry is in their midst. And they do not know the LORD. The pride of Israel testifies to his face; therefore Israel and Ephraim stumble in their iniquity; Judah also stumbles with them” (Hosea 5:4-5).

God’s warning goes forth, “Blow the ram’s horn in Gibeah, the trumpet in Ramah! Cry aloud at Beth Aven, Look behind you, O Benjamin! Ephraim shall be desolate in the day of rebuke; among the tribes of Israel I make known what is sure” (Hos.5:8-9).

Jeremiah cries out, “The harvest is past, the summer is ended, and we are not saved! For the hurt of the daughter of my people I am hurt. I am mourning; astonishment has taken hold of me. Is there no balm in Gilead, is there no physician there? Why then is there no recovery for the health of the daughter of my people?” (Jere.8:20-22).

The hourglass is almost empty. The sands of time are running out. It appears too late for the nation to repent, and fall on its knees before God. Its course is set. But it is not too late for you. Individuals still have some time. They can take it upon themselves to repent, and to turn to God, now, before judgment strikes like a heavy blow!

As Paul wrote, “Behold, NOW IS THE ACCEPTED TIME; behold, NOW IS THE DAY OF SALVATION” (II Cor.6:2). As Paul told the men at Athens, Greece, “Truly these times of ignorance God overlooked, but NOW COMMANDS ALL MEN EVERYWHERE TO REPENT” (Acts 17:30), “because He has appointed a day on which He will judge the world in righteousness by the Man whom He has ordained” (v.31).

The hour is very, very late. Are you going to “redeem the time, because the days are evil”? (Eph.5:16).

Blacks' Obsession with Sports, Hollywood and Acceptance

Eden Alice Washington is my 11-year-old daughter. The other day I asked her if she listens to pop singer Beyonce. She answered, "No! I don't listen to that kind of music." She doesn't like Obama, she already considers herself a conservative, and she's curious about Christianity. Eden's generation – and that of her elder brother, Stone – will have their hands full turning back Obama's Progressive Revolution.

While I love America the Beautiful, one thing that vexes me to no end about this country is the excessive notoriety black people get for trivial vocations like sports and entertainment while we ignore, even despise, philosophers, intellectuals, critical thinkers – people who throughout history have changed society for good while all sports and entertainers have contributed is contained in this wise aphorism by the Roman poet Juvenal: Two things only the people anxiously desire – bread and circuses.

For example, America throws away hundreds of billions annually to people who are functionally illiterate, people who can't put two sentences together without saying, "uuuhhh," "aaahhh," "you know" or excessive stuttering. For bouncing a basketball, throwing a football, hitting a baseball or kicking a soccer ball, America, with Nazi-like efficiency, will search out the worst ghettos and barrios, traverse the deepest, darkest jungles of Africa, South America, Cuba, Haiti, the Caribbean Islands, and promise the world to a black mother while sitting in her living room trying to convince her and her fatherless son that playing basketball for the University of X will guarantee a life of fame and riches.

Come on, America! Without the NBA, Shaquille O'Neill would just be a 7-foot-1, 376-lb buffoon, a janitor who thinks he is a rapper.

Yet these same good white folks, progressives, who are unfortunately the gatekeepers of society, won't lift a finger to encourage little black boys and girls to go to the library, go to the bookstore, read books, write essays outside the required reading lists of your Progressive Concentration Camps most people call "public schools."

Dare to think different thoughts, to covet higher ideals, to refuse to be numbered with the 96 percent of blacks who voted for Obama in 2008 and the 93 percent who voted for him in 2012. Blacks for 100 years, dating back to that racist President Woodrow Wilson (1913-21), have voted for the genocide of their own race led by Dr. W.E.B. Dubois and the NAACP. But why? The Cult Acceptance – blacks have a crippling fear of ostracism by whites, provoking an obsession of acceptance of whites that prevents blacks from escaping their self-imposed hell of ghetto life and tribal Groupthink our forefathers fought against to be free from slavery .

Remember the songs slaves sang in the cotton fields? Songs of liberty, songs of freedom, songs of truth and deliverance like "Steal Away":

Refrain: Steal away, steal away, steal away to Jesus! Steal away, steal away home, I ain't got long to stay here.

. . . I wonder how many of the tens of millions of little black boys and little black girls are blessed enough to be raised by two parents in America? And, if so, are their parents brave enough, enlightened enough, disciplined enough to teach their children to put down the damn basketball, football, baseball, to unplug the little Xbox, iPad, iPod that enslaves your mind with Siren songs of anti-beauty, gangsta lifestyle, glorification of death, destruction and sexual immorality? Turn off the TV sometimes, and make your kids read a book and write you a summary of that book.

With all the "education" black people are said to possess in modern times, how many blacks dare to emulate the intellectual skills, the beautiful life of a Harriet Tubman, a Republican who once famously said, "I freed a thousand slaves. I could have freed a thousand more, if they only knew they were slaves." How many blacks pattern their children's lives after a Frederick Douglass, a Booker T. Washington, a George S. Schuyler, the unsung black conservative intellectual/writer from the 1920s-60s, or in modern times: a Dr. Ben Carson, a Dr. Thomas Sowell, a Dr. Walter E. Williams, a Pastor Levon Yuille, or my direct intellectual descendant, Justice Clarence Thomas?

And you wonder why for 40-50 years more black young men languish inside the brutal hellhole of prison or are entangled in some element of the penal system (i.e., probation, parole, half-way houses, juvenile, sexual deviant lists, etc.) than are presently in college. While I am not a conspiracist, this modern American tragedy is not by accident. I believe it's part of a grand, diabolical plot by the Liberal/Progressive Revolution to purposely deconstruct America and all of her sacred institutions, including God, culture, law, politics, economics and the family.

For over 100 years, for 30 pieces of silver to join the Cult of Acceptance by the left, black leadership has sold out the black masses by the tens of millions to abortion genocide, voluntary ghettos, public school concentration camps, welfare dependency and the slave chains of the Democratic Party plantation. This is the New Jim Crow. (Ellis Washington, April 28, 2013). . . .

Frankenfish

The FDA is using the holidays to hide its final steps in approving GM frankenfish salmon. Once approved, there will be no stopping frankenfish or any other monstrosity Agribusiness wants to cram down our throats.

The FDA realized awhile back that the public doesn't want genetically engineered salmon. Therefore, they slowed down their approval process—but they certainly didn't end it. As Gaia Health noted at the time, their decision to ban labeling of genetically modified (GM) salmon had already been made over two years ago. That signaled their intention to do precisely what it's clear they're hoping you won't notice: pushing the approval of GM salmon over the holidays, or advancing the process so far that it can't be stopped.

So, the FDA chose the Friday before Christmas to announce that it's completed the final steps for approval of frankenfish. Worse, it's doing this in the face of a recent discovery of a new strain of salmon anemia virus, indicating that AquaBounty, the creator of AquaAdvantage, the GM salmon, is unable to raise these fish in a healthy environment. That alone should stop the approval process—but not when the FDA is controlled by the companies it supposedly regulates.

AquaBounty was on the verge of bankruptcy and would not have been able to stay in business, thus voiding their frankenfish application. As reported by Gaia Health, they were rescued by another faux regulatory agency, the USDA, which funded pseudo research on how to make the GM fish sterile. The question is, why would such a gift grant be given when the company had already claimed the GM fish were sterile? It's fairly obvious it was a gift of taxpayer money to keep them afloat until they get an approval that had already been decided. The Real Reason Behind Sandy Hook Massacre

Amid national soul searching in the wake of one of the worst mass shootings in American history, faith leaders say the removal of God from the nation's schools and communities is at the root of this monstrous tragedy.

Marshall Foster, a Christian historian, founder of the World History Institute and author of the introduction to the newly-republished 1599 Geneva Bible, says he's sick of the media's attempt to make excuses for Adam Lanza's mass murder of school children at Sandy Hook Elementary School in Newtown, Conn.

In the face of all the "politically correct mumbo jumbo," Foster says the culprit is "not an imbalance of chemical enzymes in Lanza's brain; the culprit is Lanza's sin nature."

For years, public schools have been teaching children that evil does not reside in their souls and is therefore, by default, circumstantial, Foster says, and according to this misguided worldview, there must have been something circumstantially that caused Lanza to shoot innocent children.

“So when we look at the tragedy that just took place and we start blaming ... we immediately go to guns and other purported causes,” Foster told WND. “We go to some external cause: It’s his psychology, it’s his mother, it’s the divorce. It’s something outside, instead of looking at the real cause, which for thousands of years since the time of Christ, people have understood to be good and evil.”

Mankind, Foster says, always looks for excuses “outside himself,” but he never wants to face the “demons in his own soul.”

NBA Player Says He is Homosexual and a Christian

On Monday morning, NBA player Jason Collins came out in a Sports Illustrated piece, becoming the first active male athlete in a major sport to declare he was gay. ESPN handled the breaking news by bringing in sportswriter Chris Broussard. Broussard came out saying he did not believe that Collins was a Christian, not simply because he was gay, but because he is “walking in open rebellion to Jesus Christ.”

In Sports Illustrated, Collins wrote:

I’m from a close-knit family. My parents instilled Christian values in me. They taught Sunday school, and I enjoyed lending a hand. I take the teachings of Jesus seriously, particularly the ones that touch on tolerance and understanding. On family trips, my parents made a point to expose us to new things, religious and cultural. In Utah, we visited the Mormon Salt Lake Temple. In Atlanta, the house of Martin Luther King Jr. That early exposure to otherness made me the guy who accepts everyone unconditionally.”

While everybody is “coming out” Chris Broussard is “going in”! This is how we engage culture, we speak the TRUTH. Please pray for Broussard and his family! (Ex Times, April 29, 2013).

COMMENT: Proverbs 6:16-19 tells us, “There are six things the LORD hates, seven that are detestable to him: haughty eyes, a lying tongue, hands that shed innocent blood, a heart that devises wicked schemes, feet that are quick to rush into evil, a false witness who pours out lies and a man who stirs up dissension among brothers.” Notice that homosexuality does not make this list. It would be more biblical to promote phrases such as “God hates liars” and “God hates murderers.” In fact, the Bible nowhere directly states that God hates homosexuals.

However, that does not mean that the Bible approves of homosexuality.

The Bible, the Word of the living God and our Creator, consistently tells us that homosexuality is a sin. Sodom and Gomorrah were punished with a fiery destruction because of this rampant sin (see Genesis 19:1-13). God’s Law, the Torah, states: “You shall not lie with a male as with a woman; it is an ABOMINATION” (Leviticus 18:22). The apostle Paul was inspired by God to write in Romans 1:26-27: “For this reason God gave them over to vile passions. For even their women exchanged the natural use for what is against nature. Likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust for one another, men with men committing what is shameful and receiving in themselves the penalty of their error [disease such as AIDS] which was due.”

In 1 Corinthians 6:9-10, the apostle Paul declares unequivocally, “Do you not know that the unrighteous will not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived. Neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor homosexuals [Greek, catamites, those submitting to homosexuals], nor sodomites [male homo-sexuals], nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners will inherit the kingdom of God.”

Homosexuality is described as an abomination. Romans 1:26-27 teaches explicitly that homosexuality is a result of a continual rebellion against God. When people continue in disbelief, the Bible tells us that God “gives them over,” allowing them to experience their sinful desires and the resulting consequences. First Corinthians 6:9 proclaims that homosexuals will not inherit the kingdom of God. Homosexuality is immoral and unnatural. It is a perversion of the “natural order” and, more importantly, of God’s view of sex and God’s laws concerning human sexuality. This is serious. God means what He says. A rebellious world ought to take note, and careful heed, of these divine warnings.

As the apostle Jude wrote, “As Sodom and Gomorrah, and the cities around them in a similar manner to these [the rebellious angels], having given themselves over to sexual immorality and gone after strange flesh, are set forth as an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire” (Jude 7). The fire was “eternal” in the sense that it eternally obliterated and totally consumed to ashes those wretched cities noted and infamous for their vile behavior.

With all that said, the Bible does not describe homosexuality as a greater sin than any other. All sin is offensive to God. Homosexuality is just one of the many things listed in 1 Corinthians 6:9-10 that will keep a person from the kingdom of God.

According to the Bible, God’s forgiveness is just as available to a homosexual as it is to an adulterer, idol worshipper, murderer, thief, etc. God also promises the strength for victory over sin, including the sin of homosexuality, to all those who will believe in Jesus Christ for their salvation and call upon God for spiritual help to be overcomers (1 Corinthians 6:11; 2 Corinthians 5:17; Phil.2:12-13; 4:13).

While the Bible declares that God hates sin, and all workers of iniquity (Psalm 5:5), the Bible nowhere singles out homosexuals as special objects of God’s hatred. He desires that all mankind repent of their sinful ways and shameful deeds and disobedient actions, and turn to Him with thoroughly humbled and repentant hearts and minds, like Job (Job 42:6) and David (Psalm 51:1-2, 10-11).

God does not hate the sinner who is willing to repent and change his evil ways. God declares: “But if a wicked man turns from all his sins which he has committed, keeps all My statutes, and does what is lawful and right, he shall surely live; he shall not die. None of the transgressions which he has committed shall be remembered against him; because of the righteousness which he has done, he shall live. Do I have any pleasure at all that the wicked should die? Says the Lord GOD, and not that he should turn from his ways and live?” (Ezek.18:21-23).

God’s Word thunders, “Repent, and turn from all your transgressions, so that iniquity shall not be your ruin. Cast away from you all the transgressions which you have committed, and get yourselves a new heart and a new spirit. For why should you die, O house of Israel? For I have no pleasure in the death of one who dies, says the Lord GOD. Therefore turn and live!” (Ezek.18:30-32).

The simple truth is that God hates wickedness. Homosexuality is a form of wickedness, deviancy, and perversion. It is contrary to nature and God’s laws ordained for our well-being and success in life. Homosexuals, and all sinners, would do well to learn this valuable lesson, before it is too late, for the day of judgment is truly drawing close..

The bottom line is, as we are told in the book of Revelation, “But the cowardly, unbelieving, abominable, murderers, sexually immoral, sorcerers, idolaters, and all liars shall have their part in the lake which burns with fire and brimstone, which is the second death” (Rev.21:8).

Seek God and His way NOW, and live the true way of the abundant life!

Wounded Knee Remembered

December 29, 2012 marked the 122nd Anniversary of the murder of 297 Sioux Indians at Wounded Knee Creek on the Pine Ridge Indian Reservation in South Dakota. These 297 people, in their winter camp, were murdered by federal agents and members of the 7th Cavalry who had come to confiscate their firearms “for their own safety and protection”. The slaughter began after the majority of the Sioux had peacefully turned in their firearms. The Cavalry began shooting, and managed to wipe out the entire camp. Two hundred of the 297 victims were women and children. About 40 members of the 7th Cavalry were killed, but over half of them were victims of fratricide from the Hotchkiss guns of their overzealous comrades-in-arms. Twenty members of the 7th Cavalry’s death squad were deemed “National Heroes” and were awarded the Medal of Honor for their acts of ‘heroism’.

We hear very little of Wounded Knee today. It is usually not mentioned in our history classes or books. What little that does exist about Wounded Knee is normally a sanitized “Official Government Explanation”. And there are several historically inaccurate depictions of the events leading up to the massacre which appear in movie scripts and are not the least bit representative of the actual events that took place that day.

Wounded Knee was among the first federally backed gun confiscation attempts in United States history. It ended in the senseless murder of 297 people.

Before you jump on the emotionally charged bandwagon for gun-control, take a moment to reflect on the real purpose of the Second Amendment, the right of the people to take up arms in defense of themselves, their families, and property in the face of an invading army or an oppressive government. The argument that the Second Amendment only applies to hunting and target shooting is asinine. When the United States Constitution was drafted, hunting was an everyday chore carried out by men and women to put meat on the table each night and target shooting was an unheard of concept. Musket balls were a precious commodity and were certainly not wasted on target shooting. The Second Amendment was written by people who fled oppressive and tyrannical regimes in Europe and it refers to the right of American citizens to be armed, should such tyranny arise in the United States.

As time goes forward, the average citizen in the United States continually loses little chunks of personal freedom or “liberty”. Far too many times, unjust gun control bills were passed and signed into law under the guise of “for your safety or protection”. The Patriot Act signed into law by G.W. Bush, was expanded and continues under Barack Obama. It is just one of many examples of American citizens being stripped of their rights and privacy. Now, the Right to Keep and Bear Arms is on the table and will most likely be attacked to facilitate the path for the removal of our firearms, all in the name of safety.

Before we blindly accept whatever new firearms legislation that is about to be doled out, we should stop and think about something for just one minute.. Evil does exist in our world. It always has and always will. Throughout history evil people have committed evil acts. In the Bible one of the first stories is that of Cain killing Abel. We cannot legislate evil into extinction. Good people will abide by the law and the criminal element will not.

Evil exists all around us, but looking back at the historical record of the past 200 years, across the globe, evil and malevolence is most often found in the hands of those with the power, the governments. That greatest human tragedies on record and the largest loss of innocent human life can be attributed to governments. Who do the governments always target? Scapegoats and enemies within their own border, but only after they have been disarmed to the point where they are no longer a threat. Ask any Native American, and they will tell you it was inferior technology and lack of arms that contributed to their demise. Ask any Armenian why it was so easy for the Turks to exterminate millions of them and they will answer “We were disarmed before it happened”. Ask any Jew what Hitler’s first step prior to the mass murders of the Holocaust was. The confiscation of firearms from the people.

Wounded Knee is the prime example of why the Second Amendment exists and why we should vehemently resist any attempts to infringe on our Rights to Bear Arms. Without the Second Amendment we will be stripped of any ability to defend ourselves.

According to the left wing zealots we have in politics..... We're not supposed to judge all Muslims by the acts of a few "crazies". But the acts of a few American crazies is enough to judge all Americans who own guns! (

Shocking Report on Benghazi

The U.S. government had the ability to “react and respond” to the Benghazi terrorist attack and could have had forces on the ground before the second wave of the assault began, a special operator with knowledge of the response told Fox News in an exclusive interview. Due to the explosive nature of his allegations, the special ops member asked to remain anonymous.

“I know for a fact that C 110, the EUCOM CIF, was doing a training exercise, not in the region of northern Africa, but in Europe. And they had the ability to react and respond,” he told Fox News.

The C 110 is a 40-man Special Ops force capable of rapid response and deployment, a group trained specifically for an event like the Benghazi attack, Fox News reports. The unit was training in Croatia on Sept. 11, 2012, just 3.5 hours away from Benghazi.

“They would have been there before the second attack,” the anonymous special operator said. “They would have been there at a minimum to provide a quick reaction force that could facilitate their exfil out of the problem situation.”

He continued: “Nobody knew how it was going to develop, and you hear a whole bunch of people and a whole bunch of advisors say, ‘Hey, we wouldn’t have sent them there because the security was unknown situation.’ If it’s an unknown situation, at a minimum you send forces there to facilitate the exfil or medical injuries. We could have sent a C 130 to Benghazi to provide medical evacuation for the injured.”

The special operator said there are members of special ops and other officials who are still active and involved in the situation. “They would be decapitated if they came forward with information that could affect high-level commanders,” he added.

While he says he doesn’t “blame them for not coming forward,” the special operator said members of the community feel betrayed and believe the betrayal goes all the way to the top. Further, the Special Ops community feels like the Americans in Benghazi were left to fend for themselves.

The White House has said from the beginning that there were no forces available to assist Americans in Benghazi on Sept. 11. Four Americans were killed in the attack on the U.S. compound, including U.S. Ambassador Chris Stevens, State Department worker Sean Smith and former U.S. Navy SEALs Tyrone Woods and Glen Doherty.

Boston Bombing and Government Lies and Cover-Up

The Saudi Arabian “person of interest” who was hospitalized with serious injuries and then held under guard at a hospital because he was suspected of playing a part in the Boston Marathon bombing is just a college student who happened to be enjoying the annual spectacle.

Two Chechnyan brothers — one a naturalized U.S. citizen — who heretofore were unknown to the U.S. security apparatus, became radicalized for unknown reasons. Using instructions found online, they fabricated bombs using kitchen utensils, hardware junk and fireworks, concealed them in a backpack and duffle bag and detonated them near the finish line of the race.

Days later, after the FBI solicited the help of the public in identifying two men in grainy video images, the two Chechnyan brothers came out of hiding, killed an MIT police officer in cold blood in an effort to steal his sidearm, car jacked an Asian man, drove to a convenience store and robbed it, then engaged in a firefight with police. The two men were armed with a small arsenal of five pipe bombs, an M-4 carbine, two handguns and a BB gun. They planned to kill as many people as they could and then, depending on who is talking, blow up New York or party there, authorities said.

During the early morning hours of Friday, April 19, the two men battled with police, exchanging gunfire and exploding at least one of their bombs. At least 200 rounds were fired by the cops. The suspects fired back 80 or more at police. The older brother, identified as Tamerlan Tsarnaev, was apprehended when he ran toward police while firing his weapon. Tamerlan was on the ground being handcuffed by police when younger brother Dzhokhar — by all accounts of friends a nice and friendly guy who had never expressed jihadist opinions — drove over him in a stolen SUV, dragging the body at least 30 feet before it became disentangled from the vehicle’s undercarriage.

This violent exchange, in which police believe they wounded Dzhokhar, led to a voluntary lockdown of the town of Watertown, part of greater Boston. Residents and business owners were encouraged but not forced to stay inside all of Friday while police, FBI and National Guard troops and equipment scoured the neighborhood for the criminal terrorist. Police tactical units, armed in full SWAT or military gear conducted house-to-house searches, asking people to exit their homes at gunpoint, strongly encouraging them (with threats) to raise their hands (even if they were of different sex, race and age of the known suspect) and be frisked.

The suspect was finally located hiding in a boat in a Watertown backyard by the boat's owner, who had noticed the tarp covering the boat was loose. Peering beneath the tarp, the homeowner saw the suspect, bleeding and asleep or unconscious, and called police.

Well-armed and fitted with an explosive vest, the suspect posed grave risk to law enforcement. So they surrounded the area, engaged in another firefight with him and finally apprehended him. Having been injured in the throat, the suspect is unable to talk, but he did manage to confess to the plot before being read his Miranda rights by a Boston judge.

As best I can tell, this is the official narrative of the Boston Marathon bombing. It is the story the FBI and the rest of government wants you to believe. Because it's coming from the FBI and being parroted by the government propaganda machine mainstream media, it must be the truth. The masses have accepted it as such and have now moved on to more important interests like the NBA playoffs, the NFL draft, "American Idol" or some other mindless, inconsequential pursuit.

However, now we — at least those of us who pay attention — know, thanks to Glenn Beck, the Saudi person of interest is not just some innocent bystander after all.

Just hours after the April 15 bombing, Abdul Rahman Ali Alharbi was put on a terror watch list and had an event file created that indicated he was armed and dangerous; and actions began that would lead to his deportation. Alharbi, who is related to a number of terrorists now residing in Gitmo and/or listed as part of al-Qaida, was admitted to the United States under a "special advisory opinion," indicating someone pulled some strings for him. His strings go a long way — all the way to the White House, where Alharbi was a frequent visitor (seven times since 2009). His file contained one prior event, indicating he was already in the terrorism watch list system. Yet even though he's marked as a terrorist, he was allowed in. Perhaps that explains Michelle Obama's hospital visit. Alharbi and the Obamas are friends.

After news of his possible deportation leaked, government officials backtracked. Homeland Security Secretary Janet Napolitano refused to answer questions from a Congressman about Alharbi. An Immigration and Customs Enforcement official told Beck a different Saudi was in custody but not connected to the bombing.

Someone altered Alharbi's file on April 17 in a way that disassociated him from the bombing, according to Beck, but an original had been printed out and saved. The change happened around the time that first Secretary of State John Kerry and then President Barack Obama met with the Saudi foreign minister — a meeting that wasn't on Obama's schedule.

There are photographs on the Internet that purport to show Alharbi with two other Saudis near the bomb site.

If the government will lie about who Alharbi is and whether he is a suspect, what else about the official narrative is a lie?

Despite initial claims by the FBI that included a request to help identify the two men in the video, the Tsarnaev brothers have been known to that agency and the CIA for some time. According to their mother, the FBI interviewed them five years ago. The CIA was warned about Tamerlan by Russian authorities almost two years ago. He was on at least two terrorist watch lists. He was flagged so that his travel outside the U.S. would create an alert. They may have been so well-known to the government security apparatus that they were, in fact, double agents.

If the FBI will lie about knowing who the suspects were, what other portions of the story are false?

Police begin to look pretty incompetent if they are having a shootout involving dozens of police officers and just two suspects if the suspects escape, even if the suspects are armed with several weapons. But now we know that the pair did not have an arsenal, as first reported, but only one Ruger 9 mm handgun.

If police will lie about the weapons the pair had and what happened during the shootout, what else are they lying about?

The doctor who first examined Tamerlan said the suspect was in cardiac arrest when he was brought to the emergency room. The doctor described him as suffering from gunshot wounds and a possible blast injury to the trunk that included thermal burns. No mention was made of injuries sustained from being run over by a car. A witness to the shootout who took photographs out his window said Dzhokhar drove through the police barricade, striking two police cars as he did. He did not mention Tamerlan being run over.

If the police will lie about Tamerlan's cause of death, what else are they lying about?

Police fired dozens of rounds at the boat in which Dzhokhar was hiding. He came out of the boat with a wound to the throat. The MSM reports it was a wound so serious it may leave him unable to speak. It may have been a suicide attempt, police say. Except, he wasn't armed. He didn't have a suicide vest. USA Today says this "undercuts initial accounts that the 19-year-old university student was heavily armed, had shot at police and possibly had an explosive device." And the wound was small and more like a knife cut or a shrapnel wound, according to one of the SWAT team members who arrested Dzhokhar. And as Robert Wenzel notes, notice the reaction of other SWAT members at about 4:50 on the video as the man speaking describes the cut. Did he deviate from the official narrative?

If police will lie about the weapons Dzhokhar had and the extent of his injuries, how much of the rest of the narrative is a lie?

As Jon Rappoport points out, the government's bomb narrative is fishy. The piece of metal that was purported to be remains of a pressure cooker bomb shows no evidence of having contained shrapnel. The bomb blast was designed to stay low, indicating a level of sophistication far above reading a how-to article on an al-Qaida website.

Official information about Craft operatives who were seen before the explosions, some of them walking around with radiation detectors, is likewise questionable, not that the MSM and their mindless watchers are questioning it. Runners report seeing bomb-sniffing dogs being used before the event and being told a drill was being conducted. Boston police claim there was no drill. More lies!

The FBI claims it's looking for other members of the Tsarnaev's terror cell. Massachusetts Governor Deval Patrick insists they acted alone. It can't be both, but no one outside of alternative media is asking which it is.

The FBI, the CIA and other non-government organizations (NGOs) use patsies to stage terror events. Even Obama mouthpiece The New York Times has outed the FBI for staging terror attacks so it could swoop in at the last minute and "save" Americans from attacks that would not have happened without FBI help. They have long been known to lie to advance their agendas: Aurora, Colo.; Newtown; Waco; Ruby Ridge; Oklahoma City; 9/11; Gulf of Tonkin; USS Liberty — the "official" stories on all these are lies.

Yet the people take what government says as gospel and move on. Normalcy bias, or perhaps psychosis, keeps them asleep and happy and thinking there is a government intending to keep them safe. That way, they're not distracted from their television shows, their iPads or their sporting events. ("Boston and More Government Lies," Personalliberty.com, Bob Livingston, April 29, 2013).

The Obama Crime "Family"

Can you guess who is the deadliest crime family in our country's history? If you guessed the Gambinos, you're wrong. It's the Obama crime family. The Obama gang is killing jobs, strangling business, intimidating opponents, making the energy industry "sleep with the fishes" and wiping out the middle class.

Don Obama and his cronies are very much like the Gambino crime family — except the Gambinos were nicer. You see, the mafia almost never goes after "civilians." They only intimidate, extort and kill other mobsters or “associates” active in the insular criminal world. If only Obama was that discriminating!

The Obama crime family goes after every taxpayer in America. Obama desperately needs your money, and he'll stop at nothing to confiscate it. Whether it's raising income taxes, payroll taxes, Obamacare taxes, online sales taxes or taking away exemptions and deductions, he'll find a new and creative way to claim your money as his money.

How does Obama steal your money? Let me share a few highlights of Don Obama's larceny in action.

First: through massive taxation and redistribution of wealth. Don Obama targets, hunts, demonizes, intimidates and punishes his best customers (business owners and high-income taxpayers). Even the Gambinos treated their best customers better than this.

But taxation is only the tip of the iceberg for the Obama crime family. They can rob widows and orphans blind without ever touching their income or bank accounts. The Obama crime family's weapon of choice is the Federal Reserve. If Don Obama can't get his hands on your money, he merely orders the Fed to print trillions in new dollars. That makes your life savings worthless. It threatens your retirement. It even threatens the financial future of your children and grandchildren.

All of those trillions of fake dollars printed by the Fed need to be repaid by future generations. That “Obama money” that props up the stock market — and pays for “free” Obama phones and “free” healthcare — isn't actually “free.” It's debt, and it all must be repaid by your kids.

Don Obama is a genius. He has enslaved your heirs to a life of misery, unimaginable debt and excessive taxation — even though some aren't even born yet. That qualifies Don Obama as the meanest, most dastardly gangster who ever lived. No wonder babies cry upon taking their first breath. At the moment of birth, they owe more than $300,000.

This Don Obama is one bad-ass killer. Just last month, 660,000 Americans left the workforce. In one month! There are now 90 million able-bodied, working-age Americans no longer working. That's almost one-third of the country's population. The workforce participation rate is the lowest since 1979. For men, it's the lowest since 1948. Don Obama has killed so many jobs that he should be on top of the FBI's Most Wanted list.

But Don Obama also kills spirit. He overwhelms business owners with so many taxes and regulations that they live in despair and depression. Don Obama is a ruthless enforcer. He created 6,118 new government regulations in just the first 90 days of 2013. He is snuffing out the economy like a hit man.

Even worse, he is like a Gambino drug dealer. Except Don Obama's drug of choice is entitlements. He has addicted the whole country to welfare, food stamps, disability, unemployment, free meals at school, housing allowances and free healthcare. He's turned almost the whole population into addicts with their hands out, waiting for their “Obama money.” Even the Gambinos could never destroy the moral fabric of the whole country. Take notes, Mr. Gambino; this Don Obama is good. □

But intimidation is Don Obama's real calling card. Internal Revenue Service audits are up dramatically — specifically on small-business owners. Why? As bank robber extraordinaire Dillinger said, “That's where the money is.” Obama smells money, and he must grab every last nickel. Even the Gambinos left a taste on the table. Not Obama. What's yours is his.

As a bonus, since business owners write most of the checks for Republican candidates and conservative causes, Don Obama is slowly bankrupting his political opposition.

Then there's the intimidation against “ratings agencies.” Standard & Poor's downgraded the debt of America under Obama — for the first time in history. So guess what happened to poor Standard & Poo's? A government indictment. Next, Egan-Jones downgraded America's debt- twice. Can you guess what soon followed? A government indictment. Egan-Jones was recently sentenced with a big fine and banned from telling the truth about America's finances for 18 months.

Were these indictments a coincidence? No more than if a business owner stops paying kickbacks to the mafia and suddenly winds up firebombed. These were messages — messages you can't ignore (like a dead fish at your front door).

Then there's Obamacare. The IRS predicts the typical family will soon pay $20,000 per year for healthcare. Since no one in this Obamageddon economy has $20,000 to spare, Don Obama will turn us all into wards of the state, dependent on government to pay for our healthcare.

But Don Obama saves his real mafia tactics for the energy industry. He despises oil, coal, nuclear and fracking. A true Marxist, Obama wants energy bills to go through the roof, so that we all need government handouts to survive. So he uses every trick in his book to destroy the energy producers — from Environmental Protection Agency regulations to executive orders. A Federal court recently threw out an Obama biofuel tax on the energy industry. It was quite simply unconstitutional. How did Obama respond? He doubled the tax. Don Obama takes killing to a whole new level.

Looking for the villain in America today? Look no further than the man ruining our economy and killing our country. The Obama crime family is in a league of its own.

My apologies for insulting the Gambinos by comparison. (Wayne Allyn Root, Personal Liberty, Personalliberty.com, "What Barack Obama has in Common with the Gambino Crime Family," May 2, 2013).

Obama's Biggest Lie of All

Benghazi, Libya, may be Hillary Clinton's undoing.

Will we ever get all of the truth about the false explanations and misdirection from the Administration of President Barack Obama after the terrorist assaults on our consulate in Benghazi, Libya, on Sept. 11?

Probably not. But we've gotten a lot closer in the past few days, thanks to three courageous State Department employees who refused to be part of a cover-up and a House committee that dug long and hard to get more of the truth.

It's too soon to know what all of the consequences of Wednesday's hearings by the House Oversight and Government Reform committee will be. One popular White House critic was probably way too optimistic when he predicted that the revelations could bring down Obama's Presidency.

But on the bright side, I don't think it's a stretch to say that this story could end any hopes Hillary Clinton had of being elected President in 2016. More on this in a moment.

Whatever happens next, it is now indisputably clear that the murder of Ambassador Chris Stephens and three other Americans was planned by an al-Qaida affiliate in Libya. The CIA knew it — and told Washington. Our staff in Libya knew it — and told their superiors. Top Libyan officials knew it — and repeatedly said so.

So why was any reference to terrorism or al-Qaida carefully and deliberately removed from the "talking points" handed to our U.N. Ambassador, Susan Rice, before she made the rounds of the TV talk shows the Sunday following the attacks?

About that, we can only speculate. Because no one in authority in Obama's White House and what was Clinton's State Department will fess up.

Are you really surprised?

It was deeply moving to listen to the three State Department veterans who had the guts to come forward and testify on Wednesday. I was especially impressed by Gregory Hicks, the former deputy chief of mission/charge d'affaires in Libya. He was in Tripoli, a two-hour flight from Benghazi, when Stevens called to tell him, "Greg, we're under attack."

Hicks told the committee that none of his efforts to get military assistance for the beleaguered Americans in Benghazi was successful. He revealed that a Special Operations team in Tripoli was ordered to "stand down" and not fly to Benghazi. The officer in charge of the team told Hicks, "I have never been so embarrassed in my life that a State Department officer has bigger balls than somebody in the military."

Hicks said he was absolutely “dumbfounded” when he heard that an obscure anti-Islamic video was being blamed for turning a group of demonstrators into a murderous mob. “I was stunned. My jaw dropped, and I was embarrassed,” Hicks told the committee. He knew it wasn’t true. But that was the Administration’s story; and, by golly, they were going to stick with it.

Representative Darrell Issa (R-Calif.), the chairman of the House Oversight and Government Reform Committee, no doubt engaged in a bit of hyperbole when he told Sean Hannity before the hearings began that his committee would force the Administration to come clean about “the biggest lie of all.” Issa said:

The Administration has made a claim that for classified reasons they changed the story. We believe right now that may be the biggest lie of all, and we intend on making the president come clean as to, quote, ‘what the classified reasons are that would justify lying to the American people.’

Gripping as the day-long hearings were, of course they didn’t force Obama or anyone in his Administration to “come clean” about the attempted cover-up. That was too much to hope for.

Still, at least one prominent critic believes that the Administration’s deceit about Benghazi could spell the end of Obama’s Presidency.

Former Arkansas Governor Mike Huckabee didn’t mince words on his radio show earlier this week. “When a president lies to the American people and is part of a cover-up,” the one-time Republican Presidential candidate declared, “he cannot continue to govern.”

Did Huckabee really mean to suggest that Obama could be impeached over the attacks that led to the deaths of Stephens and three other Americans? It sure sounded like it. How else could you interpret comments like these: “As the facts come out, I think we’re going to see something startling. And before it’s over, I don’t think this president will finish his term unless somehow they can delay it in Congress past the next 3 ½ years.”

Huckabee is probably overstating the case. It’s certainly true that seemingly minor incidents can have enormous consequences. Who could have imagined at the time that an amateurish burglary of a Democratic Party office in the Watergate complex in Washington would ultimately force Richard Nixon to resign his Presidency? Or that a sexual escapade with an intern would lead to Bill Clinton’s impeachment?

Huckabee is not alone in warning how serious the consequences of Benghazi could be. John Bolton, our ambassador to the United Nations under George W. Bush, said that the growing scandal could lead to the “unraveling” of the Obama Administration. “This could be a hinge point for the Obama Administration,” Bolton declared. “It’s that serious for them.”

We’ll see.

While it’s too soon to declare that our lame-duck President is a dead duck politically, I think it’s very likely that the hearings and the attendant publicity may have had a major unintended consequence. They may have saved us from a Clinton Presidency in 2016.

Remember when Clinton was finally well enough to testify about the assault this past January? She lost her cool (or at least pretended to do so) during her interrogation by a Senate committee. She was almost yelling when she lashed out at Senator Roy Johnson (R-Wis.), saying, “With all due respect, the fact is we had four dead Americans. Was it because of a protest or was it because of guys out for a walk one night decided to go kill some Americans? What difference at this point does it make?”

Actually, Madame Secretary, you knew very well that the murders occurred, not because of a protest that got out of hand or because some “guys out for a walk one night decided to go kill some Americans.” The assault on our consulate was planned by an al-Qaida affiliate to coincide with the anniversary of 9/11 — and there were plenty of people who knew it.

We still don’t have “the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth” about the events in Benghazi on Sept. 11, or about the lies and obfuscations that that started in Washington, D.C., almost immediately thereafter.

But we do know that Clinton was part of the effort to stonewall us. And I think enough voters will remember this in 2016 to deny her what she wants more than anything else: the keys to the White House. (Chip Wood, personalliberty.com, June 10, 2013).

COMMENT: Personally, I believe the American people have become so jaded, so obsessed with sports and amusements, that events in Benghazi take a distinct “back seat” to ordinary living, and few want to be “bothered” with the truth. The truth is too unpleasant, too indigestible, too horrendous to even consider the consequences of how we have been duped, deceived, and scornfully left in the dark by imperious and high-handed political gamesters and criminals.

It will all be forgotten in the stream of events rapidly spilling over into our lives and other more “immediate” concerns. Benghazi, no matter how revealing and how horrible a travesty it was, was a mere blip on the radar screen and will be lost in the shuffle of cascading world events soon to overpower mankind. Hillary Clinton could very well be the next U.S. President, while Obama becomes the New World President of a rebellious, fractious, dumbed-down mankind. The “Beast” prophesied in the book of Revelation and the “King of the North” prophesied in Daniel and “the Assyrian” prophesied by Isaiah. We will soon – very soon – see it all with our own eyes!

Obama’s Ponzi Scheme Masked Great Depression – What a Trick!

At this moment, despite the lies and distortions you hear from the Barack Obama-adoring mainstream media, we are experiencing an Obama Great Depression to rival anything we experienced in 1929. But the truth is being covered up by an ever-rising stock market (that is completely disconnected from the economy) and a country awash in “Obama money.”

The Kool-Aid-drinking media is shocked by hundreds of hard facts I’ve put together proving we are in a Great Depression. They ask me: “Well then, why is the stock market doing so well? Why are there no bread lines or tent cities like 1929?”

The answer is simple: Big-government spending on an unimaginable scale masks the true picture of our economy. What you’re seeing is a fraud: the biggest Ponzi scheme in world history. There would certainly be bread lines and tent cities, if government wasn’t handing out billions of dollars in checks, paid for by the Federal Reserve printing trillions in fake dollars.

You’ve seen the numbers. Obama is the biggest spender in world history, adding $6 trillion to the debt in only four years. Where do you think that money is going? To all-time record numbers of Americans on food stamps, disability, welfare and unemployment benefits. Now, of course, we’re embarking on free healthcare for 40 million new patients, with money we don’t have (and no new doctors to treat them).

And just to be certain that the U.S. economy is completely destroyed, now for good measure we want to legalize 12 million illegal aliens, giving them access to more than $9 trillion in entitlements. Makes sense, doesn’t it?

The government is borrowing 46 cents for every dollar it spends. It’s all crazy... literally. We have borrowed from China to pay entitlement checks to Americans who no longer feel it pays to go to work, and to hand out billions of dollars in foreign aid to countries that hate us and support terrorism.

All of this while the Fed is running the printing presses day and night to fund its weapon of mass distraction: Wall Street. As long as the stock market is up, the lapdog media can report the economy is “in recovery.”

The plan is brilliant. You’d almost think Obama is relying on Bernie Madoff as his chief economic consultant — except even Madoff wouldn’t have the cajones to pull off this scam. Obama has succeeded in turning Wall Street into a rigged craps game. The government is guaranteeing the results. Obama demands the Fed hands out $85 billion of fake money each and every month and drops it onto the plates of the richest publicly traded companies. This guarantees the stock market goes up while their CEOs get filthy rich with rising stock options, which guarantees banks, Wall Street and billionaires like Warren Buffett continue to support Obama.

Meanwhile, on Main Street the real economy is dying. There are no jobs. There is no recovery. Ninety million able-bodied, working-age Americans are not working. The workforce participation rate is setting all-time records for futility. U.S. worker hours are down and U.S. worker salaries are stagnating, while our cost of living is skyrocketing. Recent college grads are drowning in debt, with record levels of student loan default and post-college-graduation unemployment. Older Americans are dipping into their retirement savings in record numbers; 16.4 million Americans live in poverty in the suburbs; and almost 50 percent of Americans have less than $500 in savings.

The middle class is being systematically destroyed. Wiped out. Left with the short end of the stick. The real economy on Main Street is dying. And worst of all, our children and grandchildren will get the bill. This $85 billion per month being used to fraudulently prop up the stock market is all debt being piled onto future generations.

Then there's Part II of this Obama Ponzi scheme. Separate from the Fed's $85 billion per month of fake money is the government spending scheme. Obama has handed out billions of dollars in stimulus, bailouts, green energy investments and government contracts to the biggest publicly traded companies, the most corrupt unions and the most connected Democratic contributors. But none of the benefit goes to small business or the middle class that is stuck paying the bill.

Government deficit spending with money we don't have is now paying for everything, at every level. It's all to hide the reality that we are living in an Obama Great Depression. There are no bread lines or tent cities because we're all living on the government dole, paid for with debt. Fraud on a massive scale. The greatest Ponzi scheme in world history.

Housing allowances and food stamps prevent bread lines and tent cities.

Free breakfasts and lunches at school make it seem like children aren't going hungry.

Earned income tax credits are handed out to millions of lower-income Americans (including illegal aliens) who pay no taxes in the first place.

At the same time, government keeps interest rates artificially low to pump up home and car sales — and to keep the interest on the national debt from eating up the entire budget.

And if record low interest rates aren't enough, government purchases of GM cars are up 79 percent. The government is artificially propping up GM with your tax dollars. It's all a scam.

Take away all this spending and printing by government, and it would look exactly like 1929.

We are in an Obama Great Depression masked by government spending and debt that didn't exist during the first Great Depression. The true extent of this economic Armageddon is being hidden, disguised and propped up with government spending, programs and Fed printing never imagined in the 1930s.

What's the end game? First, all this spending and printing is to prevent economic collapse and total panic. Second, it's to achieve the Marxist dream: redistribution of wealth to Obama's voters and contributors. Third (and this is the big one), it's to create a two-class society.

Karl Marx hated the middle class. He felt they needed to be eliminated to create equality, fairness and social justice (i.e., shared misery). Will people be hurt? Sure, they'll lose their jobs and homes. But to Marxists, the end justifies the means. Obama needs a two-class society to make his plan work; the two classes are the super rich and the poor. The key is both are dependent on government to survive.

The super rich love crony capitalism — with Obama handing out stimulus, Fed printing and government contracts like candy. That's how the super rich and politically connected stay rich and get richer. The rest of us will be poor, which makes us dependent on Obama for government checks to survive. Government will pay for our lives from cradle to grave, while confiscating most of our income.

This is a Ponzi scheme that even Madoff could never have imagined. (Wayne Allyn Root, personalliberty.com, May 9, 2013).

The “fixed” Jewish calendar does not sight the new moons, but goes by an ancient mathematical-astronomical formula to determine new moon sighting accuracy. It was used by the ancient Jewish authorities to prove the reliability of new moon witnesses who said they saw the new moon. If their testimony was contrary to the math, then their witness was thrown out. The math was a back-up system to validate the likelihood of a witness being in the ball park or reliable,, to avoid fraud, disinformation, and error.

For more information, write for our book God’s True Calendar Revealed. It is free of charge and proves conclusively which calendar is God’s inspired calendar.

The Perilous State of the Nation

Benghazi Gate, IRS Gate, Media-Gate –the Obama Big Brother is watching you, and surveillance of your every phone call, email, and form of communication. The scandal plagued Obama White House has no shame and the Mafia “code of silence” is in effect to silence would-be whistleblowers. How far have we sunk as a nation? What does the future hold?

William F. Dankenbring

“Mene, mene, tekel upharsin,” the mysterious handwriting said on the wall of the palace, inscribed by an unhuman hand. It baffled the king, and stymied all his advisors and confidants and all the political experts. But Daniel, a Hebrew prophet, could read it. He interpreted it, saying, “This is what these words mean:

“Menes: God has numbered the days of your reign and brought it to an end.

“Tekel: You have been weighed on the scales and found wanting.

“Peres: Your kingdom is divided and given to the Medes and Persians” (Dan.5:26-28).

This was the divine message given to king Belshazzar of ancient Babylon. That very night the armies of his enemies attacked, overran Babylon, and his kingdom ended in a maelstrom of violence and catastrophe.

The parallels between ancient Babylon and the United States of America, today, are staggering – mind-blowing. Like ancient Babylon, our nation is filled with idols, idolatry, and wickedness. Like Babylon, America is the “master of the world,” the dominant kingdom in the earth. Obama, like Belshazzar, worships the gods of gold and silver, pretends to be a Christian, but in his heart worships alien gods, including Allah, the god of the Muslims, the ancient Saudi moon god. At heart he is a pagan – one who denies and decries Christianity and persecutes evangelical Christian churches. At heart, he is anti-Jewish and an anti-Semite and plots against Israel while pretending to befriend them and be their “ally.”

What are the facts?

Modern Ephraim

Bible prophecy indicates that America – the modern nation of Ephraim, the youngest son of the patriarch Joseph, is due to face a reckoning. Isaiah the prophet declares 800 years before Christ, speaking prophetically of Ephraim in the “last days,” that “Aram (Syria) has allied itself with Ephraim” (Isa.7:2). Presently, the U.S. is supporting the Muslims fighting against Assad, President of Syria, Obama has allied himself with them. Prophecy indicates together they will turn against the Jews, the state of Israel. God warns Israel, “Aram, Ephraim . . . have plotted your ruin, saying, ‘Let us invade Judah; let us tear it apart and divide it among ourselves’” (v.5). Syria seeks to regain the Golan heights from Israel.

But what will come from this future plot? “It will not take place, it will not happen . . . Within 65 years Ephraim will be too shattered to be a people . . . If you do not stand firm in your faith, you will not stand at all” (Isa.7:7-9, NIV).

The modern state of Israel was born in 1948, May 14, precisely 65 years ago!

Does this prophecy mean that America is nearing the END of its tenure as the head of the nations? Has America fallen, been betrayed by its enemies, taken over by “strangers,” and socialist politicians “sold us out”?

What has happened to our once beloved country, the fairest of them all, the golden crown of the nations, the citadel of liberty and the pursuit of happiness?

According to the prophecy, America is in its final year before ruin and shattering of its power come upon her!

Continuing in the same vein, Isaiah continues, “See, Damascus will no longer be a city but will become a heap of ruins . . . The fortified city will disappear from Ephraim, and royal power from Damascus” (Isa.17:1-3). God continues, “In that day the glory of Jacob will fade; the fat of his body will waste away” (v.4).

How bad will it become? “In that day their strong cities . . . will be like places abandoned to thickets and undergrowth. And all will be desolation” (v.9).

Will destruction and devastation strike America, and her allies, including Great Britain, this very year? The pot is boiling in the Middle East. Syria is torn with Civil War, China is in upheaval. Russia is frothing at the mouth. Iran is bellicose as usual. North Korea threatens the U.S. with a nuclear attack. The world is in a state of instability, crisis, and foment, and agitation, such as the world has never before seen or experienced. Everyone is waiting for the hammer to fall, for the Damocles sword to strike. It is only a matter of time.

Why are these things coming upon us, soon to overwhelm and submerge us in crisis after crisis?

The “Sin” Crisis

Our mounting national sins, is the answer. They have reached the tipping point. They have filled up the cup of our pollution. Our iniquity, like that of the ancient Amorites, “is full.” When that happens, God punishes His people when they turn their backs on Him.

The story of the book of Judges in the Old Testament is the story of what happens when a people or a nation forsake the way of God. It is the story of those who did what seemed right in their own eyes. “In those days Israel had no king; everyone did as he saw fit” (Judges 21:25).

Time after time, the Israelites turn from God, and were delivered up to their enemies and captured and enslaved. They repented, time after time, and God relented and restored them, only for them to rebel again, and suffer the same penalty again and again. God changes not (Mal.3:6). He is the same today and forever. He will always punish the wicked. Wicked nations will always be turned into “hell,” until they repent of all their iniquities and transgressions.

God looks upon us, as a nation, and says, “These are rebellious people, deceitful children, children unwilling to listen to the Lord’s instruction. They say to the seers, ‘See no more visions!’ and to the prophets, ‘Give us no more visions of what is right! Tell us pleasant things, prophesy illusions. Leave this way, get us off this path, and stop confronting us with the Holy One of Israel!’” (Isa.30:9-11, NIV)

How have we gone astray?

The Escalating Crisis

The body of a nation dies when it gets so congested that it can’t live. It seems that a full measure of corruption must implode a nation before it can begin anew.

Most Americans today are still living in dreamland. They are totally oblivious to what is happening around them. Most people cannot imagine that the United States is in a state of economic and social collapse, even though the signs and indicators are everywhere. Red flags are flying violently in the wind everywhere. Indeed, the handwriting is on the wall for our once great nation which has lost its way!

Where and what is the rot in America? One of the signs of demise is the consistent ongoing devaluation of the U.S. dollar by the U.S. government. Says Bob Livingston of Personal Liberty, “This is economic warfare against the American middle class and all producers of wealth and savings. If this were the work of a foreign enemy, all-out military mobilization would be a full national effort.

“Devaluation of the currency is a concept of subtle theft. It is stealth transfer of wealth without violent conflict.

“The elite moneychangers can take money (purchasing power) right out of your pocket simply by printing new money. New money dilutes old money toward worthlessness. New money in circulation, either digital or printed, is evidence of government theft.

“Can anyone imagine how much theft and impoverishment is going on with the trillions of dollars’ worth of new money created under the aegis of quantitative easing? The bank robbers of old were at high risk. Now, it’s the banks and the government that are robbing the people with no risk at all. All the robbing is done with the printing press.

“Thanks to Ben Bernanke’s shenanigans, stocks are up and housing prices are up, but so is the price of food and energy. But rising stock and housing prices are good, right? Not in the current climate, because it’s a false hope built on piles of newly printed “dollars.” It’s cheap money, but it is an expensive proposition. It’s a bubble of titanic proportions, and its collapse will make the bubbles of the past pale in comparison.

“There is a flood of money that is being pushed downstream. As ZeroHedge writes, we are in uncharted territory that cannot go on forever.

“The creation of money by the Fed, the ECB (European Central Bank) and Japan’s central bank keeps raising the tide but like all tides when it reverses course it will flow back out from the high water mark which has been created and with an equal force.

“The reversal will come from an event or from the moment that the central banks reverse position or from the fall in the demand for goods and services as consumers/investors have less money to buy things.

“The elite behind the scenes count on the ignorance of the American people, who have been dumbed down with drugs, tobacco, alcohol, debauchery, national sports craze, instant gratification, debt and no rule of law. There is no hope for them unless something wakes them up!” So writes Bob Livingston, of Personal Liberty (June 3, 2013).

But even worse than that, American has forsaken her Christian heritage.

The Sinister Truth about Obama and Islam

Barack Obama declared, “Whatever we once were, we are no longer a Christian nation.”

Who is President Barack Obama and what does he want? That he is an enigma is indisputable.

The ultra-Left continues to see him as a transformative figure that will remake America. His critics agree that Obama wants to change America, but not for the better. I decided to find out by reading half a dozen books and taking notes over the past few months.

The three books that are most compelling in their explanations of Obama are:

- Richard Minter, Leading From Behind: The Reluctant President and the Advisors Who Decide For Him.
- Edward Klein, The Amateur: Barack Obama in the White House.
- Bob Woodward, Obama Wars.

Minter's credits include writing for The Wall Street Journal, Forbes and even the left-leaning Newsweek. Klein was a former editor for Newsweek. And the venerable Woodward was a key player that revealed Watergate when he was famously reporting for The Washington Post and has been considered to be the political assassin of President Richard Nixon.

These books contend Obama is a loner with few or no friends, has a messiah complex and an unequalled ego. They state that beyond his troika – wife and First Lady Michelle Obama, Senior Advisor to the President Valarie Jarrett and Attorney General Eric H. Holder – Obama listens to nobody. More damning is both Minter and Klein contend that the President and his gang of three are sympatico; that their African-American heritage has made them and all blacks victims of the white establishment and that they must change the United States with the redistribution of wealth, the Constitution be damned.

In Leading From Behind, Minter writes:

(In college Obama had) a passion for civil rights, social justice, and radical politics... (He) was developing a radical resume. He audited a class at Columbia University taught by famed writer and Palestinian activist Edward Said, spoke at protests at Harvard Law School, attended a church where the radical Israel sermons of Rev. Jeremiah Wright echoed off the walls.

Is Obama a Muslim in Christian Clothing?

No one can forget the Reverend Wright and his “Goddamn the United States!” outburst from the pulpit. But according to Klein, it wasn't Wright who corrupted young Obama. It was Obama who used Wright by cultivating a relationship for his own political gain, namely to cover his Islamic beliefs.

Klein interviewed almost 200 people that have personally known the President, including Rev. Wright. On page 40 of The Amateur is Klein's interview with Wright, the man Obama once said was, “like my father”:

“After Barack and I got to know each other, it got to the point where we would just drop by my church to talk,” Wright said. “And the talk gradually moved away from his community-organizing concerns — street cleaning, housing, child care, and those kinds of needs — to larger things, more personal things. Like trying to make sense of the world. Like trying to make sense out of the diverse racial and religious background from which he came. He was confused. He wanted to know who he was.

“And I told him, ‘Well, you already know the Muslim piece of your background.’” Wright continued. “You studied Islam, didn’t you? And Barack said, ‘Yeah, Rev, I studied Islam. But it helped me understand Christianity, because I already know Islam.’ And I said, ‘Well, let’s start from the beginning. Who do you say Jesus is? Let’s boil it down to the basics.’”

“Did you convert Obama from Islam to Christianity?” I asked Wright. “That’s hard to tell,” Wright replied. “I think I convinced him that it is okay for him to make a choice in terms of who he believed Jesus is. And I told him it was really okay and not a putdown of the Muslim part of his family or his Muslim friends.”

This interview was not conducted by a conservative. These are not the words from a book by Rush Limbaugh, Sarah Palin or the soon-to-be-a-retired-Congresswoman Michele Bachmann. Klein is a seasoned newsman who freely admits that, like most of his colleagues in the media, he was first blinded by the celebrity aura that is the substance of Barack Obama. Nevertheless, linking the President to Islam is a serious charge. Yet others see some truth in it.

It was reported last week that Virginia Republican nominee for Lieutenant Governor E.W. Jackson wrote in a 2010 blog that Obama has “Muslim sensibilities” and a “Muslim perspective” to view the world. He added that Obama has taken an anti-Semitic approach to the White House that he “picked up from the black community.”

Obama refuses to use the words “extremist Muslims” or “Muslim Jihadists.” In 2009, Obama said it was “workplace violence” (I thought that was when you kicked over the water-cooler at the office) when Nidal Hasan, the Fort Hood shooter and follower of al-Qaida, shot and killed 13 military personnel while screaming “allahu akbar” (god is great).

It is ridiculous, Washington Post columnist Charles Krauthammer told Fox News in April, that the President refuses to use the words “jihadist” and “Islamist” to describe the threat.

Krauthammer added: “I say I don’t know what he’s thinking, but I sure know what he’s saying and doing. The lengths to which he will go to avoid telling us the truth about the enemy is becoming comical and certainly embarrassing... (Obama) refuses to use any words that might imply a connection between radical Islam and terrorism, which anybody who is over the age of 9 knows is the single greatest cause of terror in the world today.” (John Myers, Personal Liberty, June 8, 2013).

The Sinister Truth about Obama’s War on Christians

“Scandal.” That one word pretty much summarizes the Obama administration’s second term – from Benghazi-gate, to the IRS’s all-out war on hundreds of conservative organizations, to the Justice Department’s “criminalization of journalism” through targeting, harassing and seizing the records of news reporters and editors.

And that's in addition to the many other Obama scandals, from his illegally waged war against Libya and his policy of targeted assassinations of Americans (both designated by a bipartisan panel of constitutional experts as "clearly impeachable offenses") to the Justice Department's disastrous "Fast and Furious" gun-running operation which resulted in at least 100 deaths – and countless other outrages.

Yet, the mother of all Obama scandals – indeed, the root of all the rest – receives little attention from the press. In fact, most Americans have never even heard an explicit reference to the primary scandal of the Obama administration.

As Whistleblower Editor David Kupelian says in the issue, headlined "OBAMA'S WAR ON CHRISTIANS": "Just scratch a little below the surface of all the current scandals, and the mother-lode comes fully into view."

"Take the IRS scandal. Who exactly are all these 500-plus 'tea party,' 'patriot,' 'conservative' and 'prolife' groups being targeted by the revenue agency?" asks Kupelian. "Who populates these organizations? What beliefs and values animate them? By and large, they are Christians and Jews who strongly hold to a traditional, biblical, Judeo-Christian worldview."

Continues Kupelian: "Haven't you wondered why the Obama Department of Homeland Security warns law enforcement departments that the real 'extremist' threats to America are from pro-lifers, patriots, constitutionalists, amnesty opponents, gun enthusiasts and military veterans? Haven't you scratched your head trying to figure out why the U.S. military recently threatened to court-martial Christian service personnel just for sharing their faith with others?"

"The hard truth is: Barack Obama considers traditional, freedom-loving, center-right Christian America – not Marxism, not Islamism, not a toxic culture nor a stagnant economy – to be his biggest enemy, his greatest obstacle to fundamentally transforming America."

Highlights of "OBAMA'S WAR ON CHRISTIANS" include:

- "The biggest Obama scandal of all" by David Kupelian.
- "Banning Christianity from the armed forces" by Joseph Farah, who reports that the U.S. military was recently advised that Christian believers are "monsters" who "terrorize" others with their faith.
- "Under Obama, Christians and conservatives are 'extremists'" by Bob Unruh, on the current administration's relentless demonization of opponents of abortion, same-sex marriage and illegal immigration.
- "IRS targeting of conservatives continues" by Jerome R. Corsi, on the public interest law firm that has now sued the revenue agency in federal court on behalf of 25 different organizations.

- “IRS demands Christian pro-lifers reveal ‘the content of their prayers’” – one of the most outrageous abuses in an era of outrages.
- “Why Obama wars against Judeo-Christian America” by David Kupelian, an in-depth and thought-provoking exploration of what’s really behind the never-ending attacks on everything “decent” and “normal”.
- “Obamacare forcing Christian companies to provide abortion pill” by Bob Unruh, showing how some of the Obama administration’s abuses are so egregious that the judiciary is siding against them.
- “New class of people identified as IRS enemies” by Gina Loudon, on the bizarre fact that families that adopt children are far more likely to be audited by the IRS than “millionaires and billionaires.”
- “Warning from Canada: Orwellian future awaits U.S.” by Art Moore, who documents how the lessons of 10 years of same-sex marriage in our neighbor to the north totally shatter the arguments of “gay marriage” supporters.
- “Lesbian journalist: 'Gay marriage is a lie’” – in a candid moment, journalist-activist confirms everything most opponents of same-sex marriage have long believed.
- “Feds require employees to give open LGBT approval” by Matt Barber, who explains the latest – and astonishingly Orwellian – decree from the Obama Justice Department: No longer is it OK for Christians just to be intimidated and “shut up” regarding “lesbians, gays, bisexuals and transgenders” in the federal workplace – they must verbally support it! As one internal DOJ memo to employees puts it: “Silence will be interpreted as disapproval”.
- “How a revered Christian institution was brought down” by Peter LaBarbera, a poignant, insider look at what really caused the downfall of the Boy Scouts of America
- “Dobson: Feds must stop silencing and intimidating Christians” by Bob Unruh, in which the evangelical leader confirms that the IRS has been directly targeting traditional-values religious groups – including his own.
- “Assaulting Christians but coddling terrorists” by David Limbaugh, on the U.S. military’s disturbing track record of targeting religious liberty
- “Reflections by a former Muslim on Obama's love of Islam” by Nonie Darwish, on how Obama became the “savior of both Islam and socialists”.

- “The world's most dynamic religion is ...” by Dennis Prager, who surprisingly reveals that today’s most influential belief system – and the one increasingly dominating America – is neither Christianity nor Islam.
- “Beware of liberals in evangelicals’ clothing” by Ann Coulter, who exposes the totally irrational “new Christian ethic of compassion-by-personal-encounter”.
- “Christian civil disobedience may be imminent” by Patrick J. Buchanan, who asks: What happens when millions of believers refuse to obey new same-sex marriage laws?

Another Obamanism

Said Barack Obama, “This is the most transparent administration in history, and I can document how that is the case — everything from every visitor who comes into the White House is now part of the public record. That is something we changed. Every law that we pass, every rule that we implement we put online for everyone to see.”

“I am not somebody who believes that the President has the authority to do whatever he wants, or whatever she wants whenever they want just under the guise of counterterrorism.” – President Barack Obama.

Is that really the truth?

The Associated Press wiretapping scandal and resultant revelations of Federal spying on American journalists has revealed the true contempt and fear that the Administration of Barack Obama — an Administration that has prosecuted twice as many Americans under the 1917 Espionage Act than all other Administrations combined — has for a well-informed populace.

The people attacked by the Obama Administration through the Espionage Act are not, as one might expect, double agents caught in the act of leaking state secrets to America’s most dangerous geopolitical foes. More often than not, they are viewed as patriots in the eyes of the greater American public, exposing Federal wrongdoing and acting in the best interest of the American people.

An Investigative reporter in Cincinnati, the epicenter (so far as we know) of the Internal Revenue Service discrimination conspiracy against conservatives, has all but demolished President Barack Obama’s claim that the two-year hit job was the work of self-willed, autonomously acting “rogue” employees far down the chain of command.

Common sense would naturally tell anyone the same thing; and the known facts in this case do nothing but corroborate the suspicions of both liberals and conservatives convinced that the President was involved in the scandal, which obviously benefitted his re-election campaign, from the beginning.

The smoking gun is smoking – many smoking guns. The Obama administration is up to its eye brows in sludge, deceit, corruption, filth, and odious putrefaction. It embraces that which Almighty God condemns, and condemns that which God embraces and approves.

Judgment day is coming. We are being weighed in the balances, and we are found deeply wanting, spiritually destitute and morally bankrupt!

Would Obama go so far as to imprison, or even “kill” his enemies, or place his critics in “re-education camps” or prisons, as Soviet Russia did during the Cold War days?

Gun Control and Civil War?

I know it is not a pleasant thought to consider that the American government would have American soldiers to kill you if you didn't give up your firearms, but the evidence of that happening seems to be increasing. I don't like it either, however take a look at the real evidence and make up your own mind.

Dr. Jim Garrow is a renowned author and whistleblower who has been nominated for a Nobel peace prize for his humanitarian work. He is the author of “The Pink Pagoda: One Man’s Quest to End Gendercide in China”.

Dr. Garrow was recently contacted by a high ranking military official who implored him to reveal the truth about a “litmus test” that is being proposed by the Obama administration to the military asking the question “will you shoot Americans if they won’t give you their guns?”

Dr. Garrow has spent over $25 million over the past sixteen years rescuing an estimated 40,000 baby Chinese girls from near-certain death under China’s one-child-per-couple policy by facilitating international adoptions. He is the founder and executive director of the Bethune Institute’s Pink Pagoda schools, private English-immersion schools for Chinese children. Today he runs 168 schools with nearly 6,300 employees.

Dr. Garrow was recently contacted by a high ranking military official who implored him to reveal the truth about a “litmus test” that is being proposed by the Obama administration to the military asking the question “will you shoot Americans if they won’t give you their guns?”

Law enforcement drones, which have proved so effective in combating terrorism and killing terrorists abroad, are now being brought to America, to patrol our skies, cities, and countryside. Will the American people be next?

Could civil war be coming to America? The prophet Zechariah declares, of the end time, and God’s people, “This is what the LORD my God says: Prepare the flock marked for slaughter. Their buyers slaughter them and go on unpunished. Those who sell them say, 'Praise the LORD, I am rich!' Their own shepherds do not spare them. For I will no longer have pity on the people of the land, declares the LORD. I will hand everyone over to his neighbor and his king. They will oppress the land, and I will not rescue them from their hands" (Zech11:4-6).

A few months ago, I saw people gathered outside the post office, carrying placards and signs saying, "IMPEACH OBAMA!" But will it work?

God says our SINS have brought these conditions upon us!

Precarious Days

We are in precarious days. We have a mega-criminal in the White House, a full-blown Tyrannosaurus Rex, aka Antichrist aka budding Dictator/Marxist/Hitler/Tyrant who will stop at nothing to rule the world and is well on his way to accomplish his agenda, which will leave the world breathless, trembling, and nauseous.

The Department of Homeland Security is preparing for war on American citizens. Obama has declared that U.S. troops returning from Iraq and Afghanistan are to be deemed potential "terrorists" because of their military training, and possibly because of their patriotism, loyalty to the American heritage, history, constitution, and traditional values and way of life. His new generation of soldiers will be composed of young, pliable minds who have no loyalty to the constitution, traditional values, but who are loyal to Obama and his standards, concepts, and authority. The military is being overhauled, and those whose loyalty to him is doubtful or questionable are being weeded out, retired, and put out to pasture, so the new leadership, faithful to Obama, can take over.

The Mark of the Beast

Does this not remind you of "the mark of the Beast"? In the book of Revelation, the apostle John describes the future of this world, during the end times. He writes, speaking of a future government/religious entity, ". . . he deceived the inhabitants of the earth. He ordered them to set up an image in honor of the beast who was wounded by the sword and yet lived. . . . He also forced everyone, small and great, rich and poor, free and slave, to receive a mark on his right hand or on his forehead, so that no one could buy or sell unless he had the mark, which is the name of the beast or the number of his name" (Rev.13:14-17).

Those who ultimately identify with the Beast will die with the Beast. Those who follow the Beast will perish with the Beast. Those who bear the "mark" of the Beast will suffer the wrath of Almighty God poured out without mixture. As John writes, "If anyone worships the beast and his image and receives his mark on the forehead or on the hand, he, too, will drink of the wine of God's fury, which has been poured full strength into the cup of his wrath. He will be tormented by burning sulphur in the presence of the holy angels and of the Lamb. And the smoke of their torment rises forever and ever.

There is no rest day or night for those who worship the beast and his image, or for anyone who receives the mark of his name. This calls for patient endurance on the part of the saints who obey God's commandments and remain faithful to Jesus" (Rev.14:9-12, NIV).

The "Fatal Wound"

With all the recent scandals rising up in the Obama administration, many people are becoming livid. Some in Congress are once again crying out for "impeachment." They see the sorry path our nation has taken, and the massive corruption, Mafia-style politics, called "Chicago politics," and are incensed and cry out for a special prosecutor to investigate these ripe and burgeoning scandals and the stench of corruption. But Eric Holder, the Attorney General, is in Obama's pocket, and loyalist, and is very likely guilty of cover ups, lying to Congress, and a host of malfeasance activities involving the Justice Department. Can you have the "fox" appoint an investigator to check out the hen house? Should the fox investigate the fox?

There is an old saying, "Be careful what you ask for. You just might get it."

If Obama is a President worthy of impeachment, if he is forced from office, there will be hell to pay for the Nation. His supporters by the millions will say he was politically lynched because of his color. Think back to the widespread rioting after the assassination of Martin Luther King Jr. in 1968. Take the number of those events and multiply that by a much bigger number, and you will have an inkling posed by possible "impeachment." Civil war could well be in the offing.

Impeachment! Can it be done? Is the nation angry enough to "bite the bullet" and face this issue head on?

Speaking of the Beast power, the Antichrist, at the end time, the apostle John says, "And I saw a beast coming up out of the sea [of nations]. He had ten horns and seven heads [the governments he controlled] The dragon [Satan the devil – Rev.12:9] gave the beast his power and his throne and great authority. One of the heads of the beast seemed to have had a fatal wound, but the fatal wound had been healed. The whole world was astonished and followed the beast" (Rev.13:1-3).

Could this "fatal wound" be impeachment? The Greek word used here means "death stroke," "mortally wounded," "deadly wound." But notice – it does not say he was killed, but it was "AS IF" he suffered a mortal wound or death stroke – some great adverse circumstance which normally would have been fatal, but in his case, he survived, and the fatal wound was HEALED!

Could this be a reference to impeachment? But afterward, he rises up to even greater power and authority? As major scandals continue to wash over the White House and the Obama administration, impeachment talk is engulfing American conservatives and many Republicans.

The scandals perpetrated upon the Tea Party members and groups, and conservatives, and rich Americans who voted for Obama, including IRS harassment and tax audits, have been outrageous and utterly bipartisan and wicked. But a wounded Obama could bounce back stronger and worse than ever!

Bob Unruh, of World Net Daily, says, “Half of America Wants Obama Impeached” (May 19, 2013).

Writes Unruh, “The faux stone columns from his Denver acceptance speech are crumbling, the fireworks have fizzled and the unadulterated adulation of Barack Obama is a sour feeling of disillusion, as a new poll reveals half of America wants him impeached, including a stunning one in four Democrats. Half or nearly half of those surveyed said they believed Obama should be impeached for the trifecta of scandals now consuming Washington” (ibid.).

The three major earth-shaking scandals are Benghazi, where four Americans were killed because of Obama indifference, neglect, or malfeasance, including Ambassador Stevens; Internal Revenue Service targeted investigations of conservatives and Christians; and the government’s illegal seizure of AP phone records.

Representative Michelle Bauchman (Republican, Minnesota) raised the issue of impeachment in the House of Representatives, but Republicans are divided on the issue. Some warn if you only “wound” the president instead of impeaching him, he could come back stronger than ever and with a vengeance.

Is this what prophecy says? Is this the “mortal wound” Obama – if he becomes the final “Beast” and “World Dictator” – would survive, and come back to fulfill his role as “King” of the New World Order, and lead the world to fight against Christ when He returns?

Whoever the Beast is, or will be, we read, “The beast, which you saw, once was, now is not, and will come up out of the Abyss and go to his destruction” Rev.17:8). John is told, “The ten horns you saw are ten kings who have not yet received a kingdom, but who for one hour will receive authority as kings along with the beast. They have one purpose and will give their power and authority to the beast. They will make war against the Lamb, but the Lamb will overcome them because he is Lord of lords and King of kings—and with him will be his called, chosen and faithful followers” (Rev.17:12-14).

“Then I saw the beast and the kings of the earth and their armies gathered together to make war against the rider on the horse and his army. But the beast was captured, and with him the false prophet who had performed the miraculous signs on his behalf. . . The two of them were thrown alive into the fiery lake of burning sulphur” (Rev.19:19-20). That spectacular day of explosive fireworks and the consummation of the age is coming quickly! Even so, Come, Lord Jesus – Yeshuah Ha Moshiach!

Why All the Confusion over the Calendar?

Does it really matter when we observe God's annual Holy Days? Does it matter if we are just a few days off? There is an old saying, "Close only counts in horseshoes and hand grenades" – or perhaps in a nuclear explosion. But does it really matter if we get God's days right? Or if we "inadvertently" observe them on the wrong day?

The Word of God does tell us that we should observe His annual Feast Days as "holy days to the Lord" (see Leviticus 23). But how do we know when they occur? What calendar should we use? The Biblical holy days are obviously based on the Biblical calendar – the original calendar God gave to Moses and Israel.

Only a few really understand the Jews replaced the original calendar in 357-358 A.D. due to Roman persecution, and substituted a mathematical construction in its place – based on the periodic movements of the earth, moon and sun over the course of the 19-year time cycle. This was an astounding feat – but only accurate up to a point, and cannot replace true observation of the new moons, upon which the months are based, and therefore upon which the annual holy day dates depend.

Along with the mathematical theory, the Jewish leaders deliberately ADDED "postponements" to the calendar months to prevent Yom Kippur from falling on a Friday or a Sunday, and they added another postponement to prevent the seventh day of the Feast of Tabernacles from falling on a weekly Sabbath. These changes were made because of their TRADITION which had accumulated over the centuries after the time of Christ which said Yom Kippur could not abut up against the weekly Sabbath as it would prevent proper observance of the Sabbath, a "Feast" day. Likewise, waving the lulav branches on the last day of the Feast of Tabernacles, they decreed, would cause "work" to be done on the weekly Sabbath, if it fell on that day – another "no no." These newfound "traditions" were not extant or a part of the calendar from Moses to Christ, but the Jewish rabbis added them anyway during the fourth century after Christ!

The Jewish calendar as we have it today is a marvel of mathematical and astronomical workmanship – but alas, the new moon dates are most often OFF by a day or two, almost every month! Close, as they say – but no cigar! "Close" is not accurate enough when it comes to OBEYING GOD!

Is it all right to tell God, “Well, I only sinned a little bit!”? God’s Word says, plainly, “The wages of sin is DEATH” (Rom.6:23). God says, “The soul that sins, it shall DIE” (Ezek18:4, 20). So which is going to be? Are we going to obey GOD? Or go the route that “seems right” to a man, but ends in DEATH (Prov.14:12, 16:25)?

How can we know the TRUE days to observe God’s annual Feast days, on the right day, so there is no mistake? How can we be sure that we are REALLY obeying God’s Word correctly? To observe the wrong day as “HOLY” would be an affront to God – an offense – a plain mistake! If you had an appointment to see a king on a particular date, sat a particular time, and you went on the wrong day – you got the dates mixed up – would it be all right? Would the king allow you to interrupt his schedule, and take up his time, which he had NOT set aside for you? Would he allow you to CHANGE THE DATE ON YOUR OWN AUTHORITY?

To observe an ‘unholy’ day as if it were “holy” is an affront to God. He wants us to be PERFECT (Matt.5:48). He desires that we live by His “every word” (Matt.4:4; Luke 4:4; Deut.89:3). He demands obedience, not guessing games and human foolishness! God is punctual. He has a “set time” for His Feast days. You cannot keep them arbitrarily, whenever you want. It is not for you to decide what day is holy and what day is not. If you fear God and respect Him, you will obey His Law – and keep His divine appointments at the appointed time!

Obeying God is not “Looney tunes” and funny business. God set aside certain days as HOLY, and He meets with us on THOSE days. If we are not present, then TOO BAD –for us! We miss Him to our own sorrow and hurt. The way that seems right to men may “seem” right, or “okay,” but it leads to SIN and sin leads to and ends up in death—the death penalty! (Prov.14:12).

If it is serious business to keep an appointment with a BOSS or human employer or a KING “on time,” and to be punctual, HOW MUCH MORE IS IT IMPORTANT TO KEEP GOD’S APPOINTMENTS ON TIME? God does not want us to worship Him carelessly, or in a haphazard, inconsistent manner. Jesus Christ declared, “The time is coming, IT HAS COME ALREADY, when the real worshippers will worship the Father in Spirit and in REALITY; for these are the worshippers that the Father desires. God is Spirit, and his worshippers must worship him in Spirit and in reality” (John 4:24, Moffatt).

Letters from Our Readers

"I do pray that all is well with you and enjoying the spring weather. We here in Wichita are still considered in severe drought and they're concerned about our water supply worsening.

"I received 'The Last Trumpet Newsletter' which I have been taking for several years. On the second page I quote: 'As a consequence of the infectious nature of sin in the world, truth is no longer highly regarded and has become unrecognizable to many people.'"

"Thank you so much for the Passover material and the Holy Day Calendar for this year 2013. I received it in time to observe the Passover—it was the next best thing to being there present with you and the Church. The last three years I've kept the Passover and Days of Unleavened Bread alone – physically, I was alone, but God's Holy Spirit was with me. My good friends, Irez Barlow and Clara Evelyn Horne have both passed away. We kept it at each other's home. ICG, UCG and ALCG (Global) kept Passover Sunday night, March 24th, ate leavened bread all day the 25th, observed the Night to be Much Remembered. Tuesday 26th was their Holy Day beginning their first day of Unleavened Bread through to April 1st.

"Inez was getting David Smith's calendar from Texas, and his information was from a Rabbi in Jerusalem. She asked the ICG pastor three times to 'let's discuss and have a Bible Study on the Passover. He refused, saying he 'didn't want to get into that.' Her thoughts were—if we can't do it right, we're not going to do it wrong. So we quit observing the Holy Days with them.

"Never ever was the Passover observed in the manner as your Church does it. I thought, how different! Their meeting lasted about one and a half hours. I thank you so much for opening my eyes, mind and heart to the right and spiritual way God is pleased with your services. I know—for I went along with them for a while too long. I often wondered how you and your church group observed the Passover—now I know. Thank you again and again. I will treasure this information and use it from now on. I will have the unleavened bread and wine with a small meal. And thank the good Lord for leading me back to you, family, and the True Church of God and His messengers.

"May God richly bless and grant you good health till He returns."

"I was very grateful for the booklets and articles that you sent me. I wish I could express in words how much I appreciate them. This might sound odd but I love your outlook on not just Bible but the world and life in general. I'm only 23 years old but I've been studying the Bible for about thirteen years (since I was 10) and believe it or not I've never really agreed with the way most Christians and other denominations interpret it. I guess its because I know it is a book that was meant to be applied to reality and most denominations choose to believe that what it says is supposed to be thought of like some kind of mysterious fantasy or mythological meanings. I on the other hand believe in a God that has a purpose for us but wants us to find out what that purpose is, but I don't believe that He would request something like that of us but make it impossible for us to accomplish, and I for sure don't believe that He wants us to believe something that can't be proven because that would mean trusting in superstition which can be created by lies and deception which is Satan's expertise. . . ."

""As you know, the new (schmuck) pope (pope Francis) is the very first pope to be a Jesuit. The Jesuits are the secret police of the new world order and are the C I A of the catholic church.

Lets look at the following oath that every Jesuit takes when he enters into this secret society. The following is part of the jesuit oath:

" 'I furthermore promise and declare that I will, when opportunity presents, make and wage relentless war, secretly or openly, against all heretics, protestants and liberals, as I am directed to do, to extirpate and exterminate them from the face of the whole world; and that I will spare neither age, sex, or condition; and that I will hang, waste, boil, flay, strangle and bury alive these infamous heretics, rip up the stomachs and wombs of their women and crush their infants heads against the walls, in order to annihilate forever their execrable race.

“That is when the same cannot be done openly, I will secretly use the poisoned cup, the strangulation cord, the steel of the poniard or the leaden bullet, regardless of the honor, rank, dignity, or authority of the person/s whatever may be their condition in life, either public or private, as I at anytime may be directed so to do by any agent of the (schmuck) pope or superior of the brotherhood of the (un)holy faith, of the society of Jesus.’ (Jesuits)

“John 16:2. ‘An hour is coming for everyone who kills you to think that he is offering service to God.’ John 15:18: ‘If the world hates you, you know that it has hated Me before it hated you.’ John 15:17: ‘This I command you, that you LOVE one another.’ Amen

“We are now into the LAST DAYS beginning when the new (schmuck) pope is inducted into the hall of shame, I believe this coming March 20, 2013. The famous first SEAL of Revelation. So therefore we have the last pope and the last U S A president at the same time.

“Speaking about the U S A presidents, once again I had mention this once before George W Bush was the 43rd president, however, he was only 42 second man to sit into the oval office because president Cleveland was counted twice. In ancient Israel and Judah plus Kings Saul, David and Solomon there was a total of 42 men sitting as kings, so does history repeat?

“So therefore president obamanation is ILLEGAL and I have heard some members of congress are trying to impeach Obama, however, I don't think it will happen because Satan has got his man in the office doing his dirty work for him and that is destroying the once mighty nation. But the destruction began in 1912/13 when president Woodrow Wilson created the FEDERAL RESERVE central banking system instead of letting congress control the printing of money.”

“As I read your march 2013 issue I am reminded what the Holy Spirit said to me on the first inauguration of President Obama. He said, ‘You can not serve two masters’ and ‘Habakkuk.’ What is so disturbing is that no one will listen to the warnings ... the Lord spoke last week ... ‘they won’t hear sound doctrine.’ We have to love the truth ... even if it doesn’t fit in the box we have been taught ... even if it is not consistent to what we have always believed ... even if our reputations are destroyed and our loved ones think we are heretics because of departing from ‘religious beliefs’ .

“The early church ‘turned the world upside down’ ... most in the present day church are silent. The delusion is that this is ‘America’ and it won’t happen here. Most did not believe in Germany ... then came the pogroms. I am thankful for safety under the shield of the Lord. This I know whether He saves me alive or not I will not bow before the king that is to be soon revealed ... there is a greater reward for those that endure to the end. Glory to God.”

“Thank you for the copy of the March-April PF! As always, it is most informative and I am especially pleased with your article ‘What Will the Millennium Be Like?’ As a former SDA minister, I am happy to see the truth of the earth’s condition during the thousand year reign of the saints here on earth with our Lord Christ Jesus, NOT in heaven as taught by the SDA. . . .

“There is much to be said about the role of the many antichrists working in the world today as they prepare for the ushering in of ‘The Antichrist’ described in Revelation 13. As Christians, we are living today on the edge of eternity with our Lord!

“May our heavenly Father give you the strength and wisdom to continue in His work.”

“As you know, from the time that the land of Israel was re-united to the Jewish people in the year of 1948 to the year of 2013 has been 65 years, Isaiah 7:8.

Now according to my K J V the new Scofield reference Bible, in the commentary section, it says in the book of first Kings:that the house of Israel lasted for 210 years, before being evicted from the land of Israel, so if the 210 years is correct that means that the 210 years represents(3 generations of 70 years) in the land of Israel as the house of Israel.

So here is the kicker!

So When Ephraim and Manasseh began to become two very important and bless nations in the year of 1803 after 2520 years of judgment, can you tell where all this new info is leading to? So therefore, if you were to add 210 years (3 generations of 70 years) to the year of 1803, can imagine what year we come to?

1803+210=2013

Does history repeat itself? What do you think, good,bad, ugly, etc. or is this info already well known or is in your book about America & Great Britain?"

-- William Norman, Israel

COMMENT: Very interesting. No, I've never seen that put forward before. Fascinating, to say the least! It is an incredible parallel, and once again leads us to see and believe that the year 2013 – this very year – will be a humdinger, a blockbuster, a singular phenomenon, a horizon epochal event. We must “stay tuned,” and “stay in the breach,” and keep on the spiritual firing lines, and stay prepared, waiting for the soon return of our Lord and Master, Saviour and Redeemer, Jesus Christ, Yeshua the Messiah! Amen, Amen!

“I forgot to mention in my last e-mail to you a few hours ago and what I forgot to say was, as you know Jerusalem was destroyed in the year 70 A D and once again in the year of 135 A D when the Jewish people were evicted from the land of Israel.

“So here is what I forgot to say: From 135 minus 70 equals 65 years 65 years seems to happen at least three times that I know of in the Bible at this time.”

-- William Norman, Israel

COMMENT: The original prophecy, in Isaiah, says, “Within 65 years Ephraim will be broken, so that it will not be a people” (Isa.7:8). This same prophecy speaks of Syria and Damascus, its capital. Syria is in Civil War at this moment, with the United States – modern Ephraim – supporting the rebels, even though they include the Muslim Brotherhood and members of Al

Quaeda. Syria, and the Muslims, have always hated the Jews, and the state of Israel, despising its very existence, and agitating for another Holocaust. The U.S. has become very anti-Semitic, in reality, as it plays its cards close to the vest, but allying with the Muslim nations of the Middle East, including Saudi Arabia, from whence Wahabism, fundamentalism and terrorism were spawned and are supported.

It has been 65 years, now, since the founding of the state of Israel in May, 1948! Will modern day Ephraim now become “broken,” as this prophecy suggests? So much so, that it will not be a “united people”? Already, the disunity is obvious, and disturbing. Republicans hate Democrats, modern Socialists hate Conservatives, the “race card” is being played daily, and Obama has become the most divisive president in U.S. history. The U.S. economy teeters on the brink of disaster, the country is $16 trillion dollars in debt, and the slightest hiccup could send the economy into a fatal crash-and-burn scenario. We are living on the “edge.” It is almost as if we are tempting God, or thumbing our nose in His face. And the consequences will be awesome – and catastrophic – but necessary to teach us that God rules in the kingdoms of men, and we have a responsibility to seek His way, His face, and His truth, for self-preservation as much as anything else. Woe be to those who continue to defy the living God and ignore His commandments. Governments steal from their citizens, and their citizens steal from each other, and judgment is surely coming!

“Behold, Damascus will cease from being a city, and it will be a ruinous heap . . . The fortress will also cease from Ephraim, the kingdom from Damascus, and the remnant of Syria. . . . In that day it shall come to pass that the glory of Jacob will wane, and the fatness of his flesh grow lean [economic misery, great depression]. It shall be as when the harvester gathers the grain, and reaps the heads with his arm. Yet gleaning grapes will be left in it. Like the shaking of an olive tree, two or three olives at the top of the uppermost bough, four or five in its most fruitful branches” (Isaiah 17:1-6).

“I’m a man who has gone through so much in my life thinking I’ve done everything on my own. But I have not done anything without God because He was the One who allowed me to get up out of my bed and see all of His wonderful works, and His beautiful Creation, like the trees, the grass, the blue skies, and even when I looked in the mirror – I saw myself for who I really was for the very first time in my life, and I knew right then I couldn't have done anything at all [on my own]. So I asked Him to teach me and as I looked around I saw your book Prophecy Flash. So I picked it up and began to read it. Then I asked Him was this it, was this meant for me to find. Then this voice came in my head and said, 'this is only the beginning. There's much, much more.' So I'm writing you for your help with God's plan for me."

"Thank you for all the great study material that you make available to those of us behind prison walls. This is all the Christian literature that some of us get. "I am sending you my tithe to help support God's Work that He is doing through you in Christ. If you don't teach God's Word faithfully, who will? Everyone else lacks faith to keep track of the different signs for Christ's return except in the most general sense. Most reject God's Law as to be the Law of the land. They practically prostitute themselves to the U.S. constitution like it's God's Word or something, BUT it's NOT! It might be man's best effort at righteous government but it still falls short of God's standards. As the constitution eventually gets shredded to make way for official godlessness, as this country's chosen standard (we asked for it, really), I don't want the saints to mourn over that part – but mourn when God's Word gets outlawed, mourn when Sabbath observance will get you locked up or killed, mourn when the days of Antiochus and Nero and Domitian and Hadrian and Hitler and Stalin and Mao return to oppress God's people for their sins and compromise with the world – mourn because of our nation's refusal to ever truly obey and worship God – but rejoice because our redemption draws near!"

-- North Carolina

"I was listening in on the question and answer period during this past Sabbath's Bible study. A man asked you a question about Jonathon Cahn's book "The Harbinger". I don't know what exactly he was referring to -- I haven't read this book yet, but perhaps I'll buy a copy of it sometime in the coming months -- but he indicated that, according to Cahn, one of the harbingers of the End Time occurred on a date of great significance according to the fixed Hebrew calendar. The man seemed to be confused because you have taught us that the fixed calendar normally doesn't coincide with the method God authorized for keeping track of time by observing the new moons from Jerusalem.

"With all due respect, please permit me to throw in an idea that came to me upon reflection, and to foreshadow my point on this Memorial Day, here's a quote from the movie "Sands of Iwo Jima", starring John Wayne as US Marine Sergeant Stryker. In it, battle-hardened Stryker is addressing his new replacements, most of them fresh out of basic training, and none of them with combat experience:

'Before I'm through with you, you're gonna move like one man and think like one man. If you don't, you'll be dead. Now, you guys have had a nice, easy day. I hope you enjoyed it because it's the last one you're gonna get for a long time. You joined the Marines because you wanted to fight. Well, you're gonna get your chance, and I'm here to see that you know how. If I can't teach you one way, I'll teach ya another. But I'm gonna get the job done. Any questions? That's all.'

"Like a good sergeant, I believe that God does what He has to do in order to get someone's attention, and if that means arranging for a significant event to happen on the anniversary of a famous historical event according to the fixed Jewish calendar He otherwise has nothing to do with, would He not do it? Doing so does not mean God approves of the fixed calendar, it merely means He acknowledges that Jews (and many ex-Worldwidars) follow it, just as we all acknowledge that this is the year 2013 A.D. even though many believe that system, which purports to count the time elapsed since the birth of Jesus, to be off by three years or so.

"God inspired Paul to do something very similar in his day. At the beginning of 1 Corinthians 9:20-23, New King James, we read that Paul said when spoke to the Jews he "became as a Jew, that I might win Jews." Paul then went on to say he that adapted his message to other audiences in ways they understood, too, including those who followed the whole law of Moses and those who did not. (If Paul had been a politician running for office, he, as a former tentmaker, would have spoken to businessmen as a fellow businessman, and he would have spoken to their employees and apprentices as one who had started out working under someone else, too.)

“I even read that the strange plagues that God wrought upon Egypt were actually direct attacks against their whole system of pagan worship and the deities they cherished, including a sun god and a Nile god. The true God of Israel did not say He believed in their gods; rather, He acknowledged that THEY believed in these gods and thus sent them a message they should have understood loud and clear: their gods were fakes who controlled nothing but their own imaginations.”

-- Pennsylvania

COMMENT: You make a very good point. Obviously, God would use the “Jewish” calendar to trap the unbelieving Jews, as a “sign” to them of His intervention and interaction with human events and national disasters which affect His people. The technicalities of the Calendar is another issue altogether and are dealt with in our book A New Look at God's True Calendar.

“I am blessed to be a part of your ministry. Its only by the grace of God that I found your material but I've dug deep into your studies and I can honestly say that you've helped me wake up. Not many churches talk about the Bilderberg group, Illuminati, Luciferians, Banksters or the Plutocrats of the New World Order. Which is very unfortunate because they are taking us down some very dark roads.

“After reading your last article on the Roman Pagan Catholic Church's shenanigans it only shows me that Lucifer has taken that over too. So we are being bombarded with every type of satanic force inown to the dark side. That stuff would make Anton Lavey blush (for those who don't know, Anton was the founder of the Satanic Church). I pray that God will heal the hearts of all the children that those perverts took advantage of. It is unconscionable that law enforcement hasn't gone to Rome and arrested all the conspirators in that whole cover-up. We go attack every country that the military industrial complex and big oil deems a threat, but we let a bunch of old perverts molest children on a worldwide scale and turn a blind eye.

“I guess we can't expect our government to step up because they've proven that as long as you do dirt for the Satanic cause then they are fine with that. Fast and Furious, Benghazi, IRS-gate, illegal wiretaps on AP, killing American citizens with drones, just to name a few, and the shielding of banksters is a laundry list by itself. Yes, these Luciferians live by a different set of laws that we would be put under the nail for practicing.

“That's why your work is so critical for everyone to study. As long as we've got ministers like ours, the mind controllers of the entertainment industry, the educational system, mainstream religion, mainstream media, political and pop culture, as a whole don't stand a chance. So thanks for all the knowledge and keep up the good fight and for the love of God, keep fighting. But most importantly, stay prayed up.”

“I am always deeply moved by the sincerity of both the tone and the content of the letters sent in by PF subscribers incarcerated in prison institutions. Against all odds, the heartfelt nature of the letters is a clear expression of hope from an environment that can only be described as less than desirable. The many requests for literature, in addition to the continued subscription request for the PF magazine, can be seen not only as a cry for help and but also as the heart and core for what they have discovered as being worth pursuing.

“Better days lie ahead! For now, however, we need to grow spiritually and to see each passing day as one day closer to the Kingdom. With a change of heart along with the guidance of God's spirit, one day freedom will come to all-and all will have their story to tell as we draw on our experiences to help rebuild this world according to God's plans.

“To all in this situation-hold on to the "good news" concerning your newly-found purpose of life, be encouraged that there are many praying for you and keep looking forward to the day of the last trump when we all will meet the returning Messiah on the Mount of Olives. What an awesome thought-let's not miss it!”

“I know there is a desperate sense of urgency on your part as events build and the responsibility you realize in giving a warning message. Prophecy Flash is a must read and deserves far more respect than what it is given.

“We are a society completely overwhelmed by problems because there’s no spiritual connection in how we view what is happening to the country. Answers are elusive. We are aimlessly drifting towards our destruction. We are going to collapse and we will soon be looking at the end of America in the timeframe of months. We absolutely refuse to admit how sick we are, and we will not change our daily routines until it is forced upon us.

“The Boston Marathon terrorist attack has come and gone. It is only mentioned in passing conversation. The nation’s reaction to it is an attitude of arrogance and defiance. We are delusional in our reasoning, and as soon as the people in the Boston area were able to continue routines, the shock of what happened lessened. People became philosophical, and as a country we pat ourselves on the back because we naively believe the American spirit prevails through any adversity. We love to embrace denial. Our complacency and lack of urgency is suffocating the nation because we are blinded by the coal black abyss we are nestled in.

“We constantly saw and heard the words ‘Boston strong,’ which is Boston wrong in every way after the attack. Within a short period of time Bostonians were bragging about their resilience and pointing out heroes at every turn with the assistance of the media. It was an attitude that the city is a step above all the rest. Such a view is proud and naïve. People need to realize that we’ve been created by God with an inherent desire to help when in need. What the people in Boston did was exactly what New Yorkers did on 9/11. Citizens of Miami, Houston, Topeka, Los Angeles, Seattle and every other American city or town would do the very same thing if hit by a terrorist attack. There has been an arrogance is the way the residents and officials of Boston have bragged about how people were heroes and the city’s spirit remains strong. Such reasoning lacks the humility that such a tragedy should have prompted. Instead a delusional and naive mind set of, ‘We’ll show the big, bad terrorists that they haven’t won.’ Such thing meant that people could go back to former routines as soon as they were told it was safe. The city’s insistence that daily life must be maintained at all costs is going to result in deadly consequences far beyond Boston.

“God has taken note of the fact that we have learned nothing from what happened. We do not see ourselves as a nation with a spiritually bankrupt soul. We drift aimlessly from day to day away from the God we claim to worship. His Word is hated or neglected because it’s contrary to how we want to live individually, and as a nation.

“Just as with the tragedy in Newtown, candlelight vigils, flags at half mast, funerals, and people considered heroes paraded before cameras and interviewed, has once again left Americans with many unanswered questions.

“We are a nation with a deeply wounded spirit. Our complete blindness to the dangers facing us is because we believe we are too big to fall, but fall we will as freedoms are stripped and liberties are taken away.

“As a nation we don’t believe there are consequences for our acceptance of homosexuality, the horror of abortion, increasing murder on our streets, robberies, rapes, pornography, domestic violence, divorce, drug abuse, the fragile state of our schools, our obsession with sports and idols in all forms of entertainment, trash TV and movies, tech toys that control our lives, cars, homes, bank accounts, the stock market frenzy, political corruption, and a nation led by the most corrupt and godless president in American history. We are careless and carefree. We are not even close to being the nation God wants us to be because we’ve rejected His commandments.

“We are in grave danger as a nation, and since we refuse to change, terror will strike this country in ways we can’t imagine, and it will be just one of many forms of punishment God will bring upon the nation.”

-- Ohio

“I never cease to be amazed at the utter hypocrisy of the Liberal Establishment, both here in the UK and over there in the USA. Yesterday was the anniversary of the Watergate break-in, where, as far as I understand it, nobody was killed. And yet the Liberal elite screamed "blue murder" and hounded Richard Nixon from office about 18 months later. Now of course

Nixon was a slippery politician with the nickname 'Tricky Dicky' and like all politicians, he lied most of the time his mouth was open. Compared to what is happening in the Obama White House however, maybe Nixon should be re-named 'Saint Richard'.

"I say all this in jest of course, but the facts speak for themselves. Nixon was no "liberal", he lied over Watergate and was forced to resign in disgrace. Clinton lied about Monica Lewinsky, but because he was a "liberal", he got away with it. Obama appears to be guilty of more lies than all the rest put together, but that is ok because he is 'liberal', 'black', 'pro-gay', 'pro-abortion', 'pro-Muslim' and 'anti-Christian'. This is the Orwellian world of today that we live in. Big Brother is watching us all.

"Bye for now, take care and may our Great God guide you always."

"I just finished reading the article 'A New Look at the Birth, Life, Death and Resurrection of Jesus Christ.' It was so very enlightening – beyond any thing I've read or heardince leaving Worldwide or ICG. I truly appreciate the time you spend in your Bible Studies and passing them on to your listeners.

"Thank you so very much for the tapes and articles. I pray the good Lord will continue to bless you both with good health to carry on His "Work til He comes."

"It sure seems like 2013 may be the year of trouble (the tribulation). I've lived in Oklahoma all my life. I'm used to living in 'tornado alley.' The weather this year has been terrible, with the tornadoes in Moore, Shawnee and El Reno, and Oklahoma City, they have been one of incredible strength; Moore, El Reno, both F5 tornadoes. One was over a mile and a half wide, the other 2.6 miles wide with 236 mile an hour winds. Can you just imagine that. In April the town I live in (Lawton) was hit on the west side by a tornado. It wasn't a large one but the scare was there. This last week a severe thunderstorm came through here packing 70 mph straight line winds. Seems like every storm that comes through now you have to worry about the winds, not to mention the large hail they have, anywhere from golf ball to baseball to grapefruit size – these last few weeks have been deadly with the weather. I pray to God for protection every day, and before every storm, because you never know what you are going to get out of these storms. We need the rain but it seems to come with a price. I think people need to wake up and realize what's happening, what will next year's weather bring. Its probably going to just get worse here on out. We have to stay close to God, keep His commandments, pray for repentance, study and grow. There's just not much time left. . . .

"P.S. It's a wonder the weather is the way it is, this country going down hill fast, never thought I'd see the Boy Scouts allowing gays in as troops, next they'll vote on the leaders. You know how that vote will be (sickening) – Sodom and Gomorrah."

"I remember in your article 'The Pope, Papacy and Prophecy,' and 'Coming – a Modern Roman Empire?' where you mentioned the prophecies of Malachy and how they had been with a certain level of accuracy, well, you also included comments on the 'Jesuits' that caught my eye because I'm of Spanish stock and I know that Spain has always been a Catholic country but even they had to expel the Jesuits many times. Also, even John Paul II said that Jesuits were an organization that worried him. Many heard that Malachy called this Pope 'Petrus Romanus' and because the recent new Pope Francis is out of Argentina, they automatically drop the subject, it is very well known that Pope Francis is Italian, he was just born in Argentina, which by the way is 85% of European origin. . . .

"Saint Francis of Assisi is who the new Pope is named after. It is said that Francis of Assisi had a vision that a spirit being told him to 'change the Church.' The new Pope is also changing many traditions and by doing this he makes headlines worldwide as a 'humble man.' This reminded me of Matthew 7:15 ['beware of wolves in sheep's clothing' – editor]. . . .

The new Pope went and washed the feet of some prisoners, women and some Muslims. He also called for Israel and Palestinians to 'unite for peace.' Yeshua said in Matthew 10:34-35 that He did not come to send 'peace' on earth but a sword, not 'unity' but division. He came to separate the 'real from the fake without making a mistake,' but today people have got the wrong definition of 'peace' and 'unity' and Satan took advantage of it.

"Today we see our American president, the leader of the free world, who carries a replica of the Hindu god Hanuman in his pocket. Also in August 24, 2008, Carolyn Sauvage-Mar accepted a two-foot god-plated Hanuman as a gift to Obama from India's congress party leader Brig Mohan Bhama, after it was 'sanctified' by Hindu temple priests, all this while Obama claims to be a 'Christian', wearing a ring with Islamic quotations on it. I also heard New Agers calling him 'a great master' and 'a transcendental leader overlighted by spirit.' Obama's got people like Rick Warren for a common faith and common good, he is the point of connection of many religious groups and all this is happening exactly when New Agers are expecting 'Lord Maitreya,' Christians expecting 'Christ,' Jews the 'Messiah,' the Buddhists the 'fifty Buddah,' the Hindus call it 'Krishna' and the Muslims 'the Iman Mahdi.' I believe they all would come together in the name of 'humanity.' That's the religious field, while on the political area, our president plays with Socialist policies, the new world order is coming. That's no secret. I think we are witnessing the final steps, when the Western Capitalism (thesis) and the Eastern Communism (antithesis) will meet half way into Socialism (synthesis) on a global scale . . . all this is really scary, specially on the spiritual condition our country is in right this moment, without God. Even small countries like North Korea, are a huge threat to us. This ain't conspiracy theories. All this are facts happening and moving fast, the day when we will see Jesus coming to earth with all His glory is approaching very soon.

"I might not get to know you face to face in this era, but I want to thank you for your effort, courage and dedication to bring the truth from the mountain of Ephraim for all the nations to see. This ministry has played a huge role in my walking with God. I love you so much, and I hope this ministry keeps going strong, even in the world tomorrow. I pray for you daily, so does my family, you're not alone, even if sometimes you feel like it. The Day of the Lord will be a terrible thing for many but a delightful day for us who wait on it with passion, faith and deep emotion. You always quoted often the verse that says, 'O Israel, prepare to meet your God!' That phrase always gets me emotional. I know you know what I mean.

YHVH bless you and keep you;
 YHVH lift up His countenance upon you; and give you Shalom

"I was listening in on the question and answer period during this past Sabbath's Bible study. A man asked you a question about Jonathon Cahn's book "The Harbinger". I don't know what exactly he was referring to -- I haven't read this book yet, but perhaps I'll buy a copy of it sometime in the coming months -- but he indicated that, according to Cahn, one of the harbingers of the End Time occurred on a date of great significance according to the fixed Hebrew calendar. The man seemed to be confused because you have taught us that the fixed calendar normally doesn't coincide with the method God authorized for keeping track of time by observing the new moons from Jerusalem. . .

"I believe that God does what He has to do in order to get someone's attention, and if that means arranging for a significant event to happen on the anniversary of a famous historical event according to the fixed Jewish calendar He otherwise has nothing to do with, would He not do it? Doing so does not mean God approves of the fixed calendar, it merely means He acknowledges that Jews (and many ex-Worldwidens) follow it, just as we all acknowledge that this is the year 2013 A.D. even though many believe that system, which purports to count the time elapsed since the birth of Jesus, to be off by three years or so."
