A Voice in the Wilderness

God tells His servants in His Word, “Cry aloud, spare not. Lift up your voice like a trumpet and declare to My people their transgression and to the house of Jacob their sins!” (Isa.58:1, Parallel Amplified Bible).

God also declares: “Comfort, comfort My people, says your God. Speak tenderly to the heart of Jerusalem, and cry to her that her time of service and her warfare are ended, that [her punishment is accepted and] her iniquity is pardoned, that she has received [punishment] from the Lord’s hand double for all her sins.”

We are living in a world gone berserk with anger and rage. “Why do the nations rage?” (Psalm 2:1). Answer – because they don’t know the true God, and are in rebellion against His laws and teachings and the true way of life and peace!

Isaiah wrote: “A voice of one who cries: Prepare in the wilderness the way of the Lord [clear away the obstacles]; make straight and smooth a highway for our God. . . . And the glory (majesty and splendor) of the Lord shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together; for the mouth of the Lord has spoken it” (Isaiah 40:3-5).

The Messiah is coming very SOON! Its time to prepare to MEET Him! “Surely the Lord will do nothing without revealing His secret to His servants the prophets” (Amos 3:7). The purpose of this magazine is to warn the world of what lies ahead, and to help prepare people to get ready to meet the Messiah, when He returns to restore all things (Acts 3:19-21), put an end to wars, and usher in the Kingdom of God! The prophet Amos declared, “Prepare to meet your God, O Israel” (Amos 4:12). No matter is more urgent, today!

The Growing Threat of Globalism

A great Conspiracy has beguiled the world and threatens the survival of all mankind. It is the threat of manmade, human world Government, often called “the New World Order.” It has set the world on edge and is a terrible danger for all freedom-loving men and women on planet earth. For thousands of years men have sought to rule the world in rebellion against the rule of the Most High God. Satan’s final effort is well underway. The war is raging behind the scenes, in the secret corridors of government, the CIA, NSA, Congress, Europe and the United Nations. Barack Obama and his minions versus Donald Trump and those who want to make America free and great once again! What does Bible prophecy say will happen? How will it all end? Has the real fight just begun? The year 2017 is the Hebrew year 5777 and is a pivotal year introducing the last seven years of this age, with global war, great tribulation, and human travail!

Are you prepared?

The Globalist End-Time Conspiracy!

The history of the world has been one of conspiracies, one right after another. Conspiracies have existed from age to age and nation to nation, and end-time worldwide conspiracies boggle the mind. Here is shocking, mind-blowing knowledge you need to know, lest you should be deceived by the greatest end-time Conspiracy ever!

William F. Dankenbring

Abraham Lincoln saw the existence of conspiracies and threats to America. He declared, “America will never be destroyed from the outside. If we falter and lose our freedoms, it will be because we destroyed ourselves.”

President Theodore Roosevelt understood the nature of governmental and business conspiracies. He declared, “Behind the ostensible government sits enthroned an invisible government owing no allegiance and acknowledging no responsibility to the people.”

Franklin Delano Roosevelt went so far as to say, “In politics, nothing happens by accident. If it happens, you can bet it was planned that way.”

But perhaps the most telling comments were made by President Woodrow Wilson. He declared, in The New Freedom, “Since I entered politics, I have chiefly had men's views confided to me privately. Some of the biggest men in the United States, in the field of commerce and manufacture, are afraid of something. They know that there is a power somewhere so organized, so subtle, so watchful, so interlocked, so complete, so pervasive, that they better not speak above their breath when they speak in condemnation of it.”

President Wilson also opined, “The government, which was designed for the people, has got into the hands of the bosses and their employers, the special interests. An invisible empire has been set up above the forms of democracy.”

Perhaps his most salient remark on conspiracies was when he declared: “I am a most unhappy man. I have unwittingly ruined my country. A great industrial nation is controlled by its system of credit. Our system of credit is concentrated. The growth of the nation, therefore, and all our activities are in the hands of a few men. We have come to be one of the worst ruled, one of the most completely controlled and dominated Governments in the civilized world - no longer a Government by free opinion, no longer a Government by conviction and the vote of the majority, but a Government by the opinion and duress of a small group of dominant men.”

Most people are just blind to the invisible government behind the scenes, where the “puppet-masters” lurk, pulling the strings of elected officials – the hidden, secret forces behind governments – the arcane and mysterious movers and shakers who mastermind events from the invisible darkness.

Conspirators, of course, hide their machinations under a cloak of respectability. They are very clever at orchestrating events and forming and controlling public opinion.

The Nimrod Conspiracy

Following the Noachian deluge, which drowned the world and destroyed the pre-Flood world, we read a most interesting and intriguing story in the book of Genesis .

Nimrod was “a mighty hunter before [or “against”] the LORD” (Gen.10:9). We read: “Cush became the father of Nimrod; he was the first on earth to become a mighty warrior. He was a mighty hunter before the LORD; therefore it is said, ‘Like Nimrod a mighty hunter before the LORD.’ The beginning of his kingdom was Babel, Erech, and Accad, all of them in the land of Shinar” (Gen.10:8-10, NRSV).

The Jewish Chumash says of this biblical personage: “Before Nimrod there was neither wars nor reigning monarchs. He subjugated the Babylonians until they crowned him (v.10), after which he went to Assyria and built great cities. . . The Torah calls him a mighty hunter, which Rashi and most commentators interpret figuratively: Nimrod ensnared men with his words and incited them to rebel against God. He was the forerunner of the hypocrite who drapes himself in robes of piety in order to deceive the masses” (Chumash, page 47, comment on Gen.10:8-10).

The ancient Jewish historian Josephus wrote that after the Flood of Noah, God commanded mankind to send out colonies to cultivate the earth, but they refused to do so. The arch rebel and conspirator was Nimrod. “Now it was Nimrod who excited them to such an affront and contempt of God. He was the grandson of Ham, the son of Noah—a bold man, and of great strength of hand. Her persuaded them not to ascribe to God, as if it was through his means they were happy, but to believe that it was their own courage which procured that happiness. He also gradually changed the government into tyranny—seeing no other way of turning men from the fear of God, but to bring them into a constant dependence upon his power.” (Antiquities of the Jews, bk.1, 4:1-2).

Nimrod, who led the world into rebellion and apostasy after the Flood, was himself a black man – a Negro – by birth. Says Alexander Hislop of this early emancipator of mankind from the government of God, “The amazing extent of the worship of this man indicates something very extraordinary in his character; and there is ample reason to believe, that in his own day he was an object of high popularity. Though by setting up as king, Nimrod invaded the patriarchal system, and abridged the liberties of mankind, yet he was held by many to have conferred benefits upon them, that amply indemnified them for the loss of their liberties, and covered him with glory and renown” (The Two Babylons, p.50).

Nimrod was known as the great “Emancipator.” Says Hislop, “And according to the principles of depraved human nature, this too, no doubt, was one grand element in his fame; for men will readily rally around anyone who can give the least appearance of plausibility to any doctrine which will teach that they can be assured of happiness and heaven at last, though their hearts and natures are unchanged, and though they live without God in the world” (p.52).

It is clear, Hislop declared, that Nimrod led men “to believe that a real spiritual change of heart was unnecessary, and that so far as change was needful, they could be regenerated by mere external means. Looking at the subject in the light of the Bacchanalian orgies . . . it is evident that he led mankind to seek their chief good in sensual enjoyment, and showed them how they might enjoy the pleasures of sin, without any fear of the wrath of a holy God” (p.55).

During the time of Abraham, we read: “And king Nimrod reigned securely, and all the earth was under his control, and all the earth was of one tongue and words of union. And all the princes of Nimrod and his great men took counsel together . . . and they said to each other, Come let us build ourselves a city and in it a strong tower, and its top reaching heaven, and we will make ourselves famed, so that we may reign upon the whole world, in order that the evil of our enemies may cease from us, that we may reign mightily over them, and that we may not become scattered over the earth on account of their wars” (Jasher 9:20-21).

The tower of Babel was a symbol of “world unity” in the days shortly after the Flood of Noah’s time – a symbol of the world becoming UNITED, or “at one” – under one world ruling government. The ruler of that ancient world empire was a man named “Nimrod.”

This was the first great conspiracy after the Flood of Noah’s time.

God Almighty intervened to destroy their magnificent tower. He confused their languages and scattered them. They could not communicate with each other, so stopped the building program and dispersed throughout the earth. “And the building of the tower was unto them a transgression and a sin, and they began to build it, and whilst they were building against the Lord God of heaven, they imagined in their hearts to war against him and to ascend into heaven” (Jasher 9:25).

God smote them, according to their works and designs. “And they ceased building the city and the tower; therefore he called that place Babel, for there the Lord confounded the language of the whole earth; behold it was at the east of the land of Shinar.”

What happened to the tower? Jasher relates, “And as to the tower which the sons of men built, the earth opened its mouth and swallowed up one third part thereof, and a fire also descended from heaven and burned another third, and the other third is left to this day, and it is of that part which was aloft, and it’s circumference is three day’s walk” (Jasher 9:37-38). This occurred while Abraham was secreted away, studying under Noah and Shem.

Conspiracies in the Day of Ezekiel

The prophet Ezekiel declares, “The word of the Lord came to me saying, ‘Son of man, the house of Israel has become dross (worthless metals) to Me; they are all bronze, tin, iron, and lead, in the midst of a furnace; they have become dross from silver. Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Because you have all become dross, therefore, behold, I will gather you . . . as men gather silver, bronze, iron, lead, and tin into the midst of a furnace, to blow fire on it, to melt it; so I will gather you in My anger and in My fury, and I will leave you there and melt you” Ezek.22:17-20).

In other words, the people were compared to the worthless mixture of copper, tin, iron, and lead.” Therefore, God said of them, “Yes, I will gather you and blow on you with the fire of My wrath, and you shall be melted in its midst. As silver is melted in the midst of a furnace, so shall you be melted in its midst; then you shall know that I, the LORD, have poured out My fury on you” (vs.21-22).

God says further, “Son of man, say to her: ‘You are a land that is not cleansed or rained on in the day of indignation” (Ezek.22:24).

God goes on, “The conspiracy of her prophets in her midst is like a roaring lion tearing the prey; they have devoured people [“princes” in the Septuagint; Targum says “scribes”]; they have taken treasure and precious things; they have made many widows in her midst. Her priests [that is ministers, teachers] have VIOLATED MY LAW and profaned My holy things; they have not distinguished between the holy and unholy, nor have they made known the difference between the unclean and the clean; and they have hidden their eyes from My Sabbaths, so that I am profaned among them” (Ezek.22:25-26).

“Her princes in her midst are like wolves tearing the prey, to shed blood, to destroy people [literally, “souls”], and to get dishonest gain” (v.27). “Her prophets plastered them with untempered mortar, seeing false visions, and divining lies for them, saying, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD,’ when the LORD has not spoken. The people of the land have used oppressions, committed robbery, and mistreated the poor and needy; and they wrongfully oppress the stranger” (Ezek.22:27-29).

Says the New Revised Standard Version:

“Your princes (leaders) are like wolves that tear apart their prey. They shed blood (destroy people’s lives) for dishonest gain (profit). Her prophets (ministers) whitewash these deeds for them by seeing FALSE visions and divining LIES saying, “thus says the Lord God, WHEN THE LORD HAS NOT SPOKEN (NRSV)”.

They repair cracked walls with whitewash and no cement. The people of the land practice oppressions (extortions), commit robbery, mistreat the poor and needy, and wrongfully oppress the alien (stranger) denying them justice.”

God declares, “I looked for someone who might rebuild the wall of righteousness that guards the land. I searched for someone to stand in the gap in the wall so I would not have to destroy the land, but I found no one (NIV)”. So, God says, “I will pour out my wrath on them and consume them with my fiery anger, bringing down on their own heads the full penalty for all the sins they have committed” (NIV, Ezek.22:30-31).

These prophecies were written down and PRESERVED for us, today, upon whom the LAST DAYS have come – the END-TIME generation! Today, conspiracies abound!

Early American Conspiracies

It is not surprising that since the founding of America, there have been conspiracies afoot. During the Revolutionary War General Benedict Arnold attempted to betray the colonials to the British for selfish gain and British interests.

In an act that has made his name synonymous with treason in American history, General Benedict Arnold conspired to turn his command of West Point over to the British. In return, he was to receive money and become a general in the British army. His treason was discovered when Major Andre, his British contact, was captured. Andre was reluctantly hung as a spy.

There are many conspiracy theories involving Freemasonry in the early United States. Hundreds of such conspiracy theories have been described since the late 18th century. Generally, these theories are political (usually involving allegations of control of government, particularly in the United States and the United Kingdom), religious (usually involving allegations of anti-Christian or Satanic beliefs or practices), and cultural.

George Washington wrote letters warning about the dangerous doctrines and influence of the Illuminati and Freemasons in his time. In 1798 he wrote, “I have heard much of the nefarious, and dangerous plan, and doctrines of the Illuminati.”

Aaron Burr in the beginning of the 19th century was suspected of leading a treasonous cabal of planters, politicians, and army officers allegedly led by former U.S. Vice President Aaron Burr whose goal was to create an independent nation in the center of North America and/or present-day Southwest and parts of present-day Mexico. U.S. President Thomas Jefferson and others had Burr arrested and indicted for treason. Some historians claim he intended to take parts of Texas and some or all of the Louisiana Purchase for himself.

Although Burr was acquitted of treason, the trial destroyed his already faltering political career.

In the Days of Abraham Lincoln

In his book 50 Years in the Church of Rome, Charles Chiniquy declares how the Vatican attempted to destroy the fledgling United States and subvert it to Catholicism in the days of Abraham Lincoln. Chiniquy was a Catholic priest at the time and greatly persecuted by his own church and superiors he did not follow along in their trough of corruption and wickedness and oppression.

Says Chiniquy, "The Jesuits are a military organization, not a religious order. Their chief is a general of an army, not a mere father abbot of a monastery. And the aim of this organization is power. Power in the most despotic exercise. Absolute power, universal power, power to control the world by the volition (will) of a single man. Jesuitism is the most absolute of despotisms (dictatorship); and at the same time, the greatest and the most enormous of abuses" (The most monstrous hurt, injury and damage).

"The general of the Jesuits insists on being master, sovereign, over the sovereign. Wherever the Jesuits are admitted they will be masters, cost what it may. Their society is by nature dictatorial, and therefore it is the irreconcilable enemy of all constituted authority. Every act, every crime, however atrocious, is a meritorious work, if committed for the interest of the society of the Jesuits, or by the order of its general."

During the time of Abraham Lincoln, the master plan of the Vatican for the fall of the United States was under way. The Jesuits and Pope Pius IX were preparing to send French troops into Mexico under Maximilian to back the South when the Civil War began. At that time Chiniquy was part of Rome's land-grab attempt to establish a colony to control the breadbasket of Illinois and the Mississippi Valley. He attended a seminar in which the Roman pontiff's plans were laid bare to take possession of the United States using the utmost secrecy and wisdom, to bring poor Catholics from every corner of the world to America and put them in the major cities, and multiply their votes silently and patiently, while Americans slept on, till all elected officials would be Roman Catholic.

By the 1980s their plot was progressing greatly, to the point where 80% of Congressmen were pro-Roman Catholic.

In Lincoln's own time, the Papacy backed the Southern states under Jefferson Davis. History books neglect or omit these details, but they are fact. After Lincoln was elected President, on his way to Washington, hit-men were waiting to ambush him in Baltimore, but the conspiracy was discovered in time and he was secreted away on a midnight train.

In the Civil War, 600,000 Americans would die, brother fighting brother. Chiniquy warned Lincoln repeatedly that the Jesuits were trying to kill him. Lincoln told Chiniquy that Samuel Morse, inventor of the Morse code and the telegraph, had been in Rome and had heard of a plot to destroy the U.S.

Lincoln also told Chiniquy that something puzzled him: A great number of newspapers written by Roman Catholics were reporting that Lincoln was born a Roman Catholic, and they called him a “renegade” and an “apostate.” At the time he laughed it off, but its persistence troubled him. Chiniquy replied that it was obvious the Vatican was setting him up. The articles, he said, were Lincoln’s death sentence. Rome was attempting to brand Lincoln with the mark of apostasy, to inspire fanatical Catholics to plot to murder him as an object of apostasy and evil.

The Roman Catholic hierarchy was on the side of the South and wanted to destroy the Protestant North. Lincoln told Chiniquy, “It is more against the pope of Rome, his perfidious Jesuits and their blind and blood-thirsty slaves, than against the real American Protestants that we have to defend ourselves.”

In retrospect, setting up the assassination of Lincoln, Pope Pius IX wrote a letter to Jefferson Davis of the Confederacy calling him “the illustrious and honorable President of the Confederate States.” The letter meant that Lincoln would have to give an account to God for fighting against a man and government approved by the pontiff, the “vicar of Christ” on earth. This meant Lincoln was anathema, ex-communicated, because he was fighting against a government endorsed by the “infallible and holy pope of Rome.”

Subsequently, knowing of the growing plot against him, Lincoln went to the Ford theater with his wife, April 14, 1865, and was gunned down by John Wilkes Booth, an actor and devout Roman Catholic who cried out “Sic semper tyrannis” – “Thus always to tyrants,” and fled the scene. He was later caught and killed, along with other collaborators and fellow Catholic conspirators involved in the plot.

Chiniquy spent twenty years researching the assassination, later, and told the American people that “the President Abraham Lincoln was assassinated by the Jesuits of Rome.”

Now, today, the Jesuits are completely enthroned at the Vatican in the person of Pope Francis, the first Jesuit pope in history.

Kennedy and the CIA

Eisenhower had authorized the assassination of Fidel Castro. When that didn't work out, he authorized an invasion of Cuba that came to fruition right after Kennedy became president, the Bay of Pigs. As the plot fell apart in the first minutes of the invasion, the CIA and some elements of the military tried to get Kennedy to commit U.S. Air Force, Naval and Army resources. He thought they were all out of their minds and realized he had made a terrible mistake by keeping Dulles – who was completely senile by then – in office.

At White House meetings the next day, Kennedy fended off more pleas that he send U.S. forces to support the Bay of Pigs invaders. The strongest came from his chief of naval operations, Admiral Arleigh Burke, who came into the Oval Office late in the evening with an equally agitated [CIA official Richard] Bissell.

"Let me take two jets and shoot down this enemy aircraft," Burke pleaded.

"No," Kennedy replied. "I don't want to get the United States involved with this."

"Can I not send in an airstrike?"

"No."

"Can we send in a few planes?"

"No, because they could be identified as United States."

"Can we paint out their numbers?"

"No."

Grasping for options, Burke asked if Kennedy would authorize artillery attacks on Cuban forces from American destroyers. The answer was the same: "No."

Later that day Kennedy told an aide, "I probably made a mistake keeping Allen Dulles."

More than one hundred of the invaders had died. Most of the rest were rounded up and imprisoned. For Castro it was a supreme, ecstatic triumph. Kennedy was staggered. "How can I have been so stupid?" he wondered aloud.

Others were equally stunned. Criticism of the CIA, in both the press and Congress, rose to unprecedented intensity. Allen was not spared. The cover story in Time, headlined "The Cuba Disaster," questioned his very concept of intelligence.

If Allen had not yet confronted the implications of the Bay of Pigs disaster, Kennedy had. In private he cursed "CIA bastards" for luring him into it, and wished he could "splinter the CIA into a thousand pieces and scatter it into the winds."

He should have. America would have been much better off. But all he did was fire Dulles, too late to prevent the horrors the Dulles brothers committed in our names in Guatemala, Iran, Indonesia, Vietnam, not to mention the Congo and Cuba. Yesterday another CIA chief – and another failed Republican scumbag who was foolishly held over by a Democratic president.

John F. Kennedy famously described his desire to “splinter the CIA into a thousand pieces and scatter it into the winds” after the disastrous Bay of Pigs invasion of Cuba. Peter Kornbluh points out in his book Bay of Pigs Declassified that the State Department at that same time proposed the CIA be stripped of its covert action capacity and renamed. However, the CIA escaped any serious repercussions – partly because, as Kornbluh explains, the CIA’s then-director, John McCone, made sure that most of the copies of a damning report on the Bay of Pigs by the agency’s own inspector general were literally burned.

The Assassination of John F. Kennedy

In America many believe there was a conspiracy to kill President J.F. Kennedy in 1963. He was not assassinated by Oswald, as the politicians claim, but by shots fired from a grassy knoll much closer to the president.

Much has been written about this subject in many books and many point the finger at a cabal consisting of Mafia figures, J. Edgar Hoover (who Kennedy intended to replace), the CIA, and Pentagon. Vice President Lyndon Johnson stood the most to gain, and some believe he was also involved in the plot.

It is well known that there was no love lost between Johnson and Kennedy, and he was not going to be on the ticket when Kennedy ran for re-election. The assassination in Dallas, Texas, Johnson’s home state, was a day of great mourning in America and throughout the world. Controversy still rages over the Kennedy assassination. Even George H.W. Bush seems to be implicated in the plot to kill Kennedy, as there is evidence he was working for the CIA at that time and was in Dallas when the assassination occurred. Author and long-time political consultant Roger Stone in his book Jeb! goes into this matter.

Ronald Reagan and Gorbachev

Back in 1985, when Mikhail Gorbachev took over as general secretary of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union, the United States faced a really big dilemma. Gorbachev professed to be a reformer. Should the United States work with him to reduce nuclear weapons, ease the U.S.-Soviet proxy battles that were at that point directly responsible for a number of deadly conflicts around the world and, just maybe, try to end the Cold War? This wasn’t just a major, difficult question: It would turn out to be one of the most important U.S. foreign policy decisions in decades.

President Ronald Reagan eventually came around to the idea that, yes, he could and should work with Gorbachev. He was persuaded by, among others, British Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher, who famously said that Gorbachev was a man the West could do business with.

But Reagan had to overcome the fierce opposition of a top CIA Kremlinologist and eventual CIA director named Robert M. Gates, who maintained for years that Gorbachev was no reformer, that he was not to be trusted and that Reagan would be walking into a Soviet ploy.

Quite simply, Gates was wrong, overruled by Reagan, and the world was better off for it.

Historically, the United States would have been better off to use CIA Directors as negative indicators of action. They are always wrong, always wrong about everything. From day one, they missed everything important and disastrously misinterpreted everything they touched. The U.S. and the whole world would have been a lot better off had Kennedy – or Truman, who had similar ideas – splintered them into a thousand pieces and scattered them into the winds.

Close Call

John Hinckley Jr. attempted to assassinate President Reagan, in March of 1981, soon after he became president. It was a very close call. Was this just a “lone wolf” attempt on the life of the president, or was it part of a conspiracy to get rid of the arch-conservative Ronald Reagan by political enemies, even in his own party?

The bullet was found within an inch of the president’s heart. It was a specially designed bullet for use in big game hunting, called a “Devastator,” because it was made to flatten out and cause maximum damage as it ripped through a body. Its tip was filled with lead azide, a chemical designed to explode on secondary contact with something hard. The chemical is a toxic poison. Amazingly, the bullet did not explode when it hit Reagan’s chest.

Writes Mary Beth Brown, “Many ‘miraculous factors,’ as the president called them, added up to the saving of his life. And if any one of them had occurred differently, he most certainly would have died that day in March 1981. President Reagan points out in his autobiography that most of the doctors that practiced at the hospital had been attending a special meeting that afternoon: ‘Within a few minutes after I arrived, the room was full of specialists in virtually every medical field.’ He had turned to the reporter at just the right time when he was shot; otherwise, the bullet might have hit directly into his heart. Reagan biographer Edward Morris points out that the limousine miraculously reached the hospital, although driving in uncontrolled traffic, in just three-and-a-half minutes. And the bullet didn’t explode while Dr. Aaron was exploring for it – or at any other time since it had entered Reagan’s body. ‘Jerry’s decision [Jerry Parr, the lead of the security detail with the president that day] to go directly to the hospital was the difference between my dad living or dying,’ Michael Reagan says in his autobiography, On the Outside Looking In. Michael also says his father told him ‘that it was only divine intervention that kept him alive’” (p.14).

Says Brown, after this close call, “Recovering in the White House, President Reagan recommitted his life to God, writing in his diary, ‘Whatever happens now, I owe my life to God and will try to serve him in every way I can’” (p.15).

Michael Deaver, a presidential aid, later told Peggy Noonan, “I know from conversations he and I had after the assassination attempt that there was no question in his mind that his life had been spared. He absolutely believed it. He felt the Lord had spared him to fulfill whatever mission it was that he was supposed to fulfill. And he was gonna make sure that he lived his life to the fullest and did whatever he considered to be the right thing for the rest of his life.”

George Bush followed Ronald Reagan as president. The Bush family had ties with Nazi Germany during the 30’s and 40’s and did business with them even as Hitler rose to power and during World War II. Some would call that “trading with the enemy,” but the Bushes were too powerful and well entrenched to be brought to account.

Bush and Clinton

Writes Ben Barrack for the Shoebat Foundation website, “If ever there was a political ‘odd couple’, George H.W. ‘Felix’ Bush and Bill ‘Oscar’ Clinton fit the bill. Sure, living U.S. presidents share things in common no one else on earth shares but the relationship between the 41st and 42nd Presidents respectively, always seemed to smack of being suspiciously close. In 2006, I saw Bush 41 speak at the University of Mary Hardin-Baylor and he referred to this relationship as such; he acknowledged it without explaining it.”

How were these two presidents connected?

Says Barrack, “The catalyst for this relationship being so close may have nothing to do with America’s Islamic problem but the consequences of the desire to keep the details of it secret is another matter.

Writes Barrack , “In the 1994 book COMPROMISED: Clinton, Bush and the CIA – which is still doing very well on Amazon – former Air Force Intelligence operative and CIA Agent Terry Reed chronicles nefarious dealings between then-Arkansas Governor Clinton and former CIA Director Bush, who was Vice President at the time. According to Reed, Clinton allowed the CIA to set up shop in his state, manufacturing untraceable weapons for the Contras in Nicaragua and much more.

Says Compromised:

“The Arkansas-CIA connection became Clinton’s darkest secret – a secret shared by then Vice-President Bush, who himself was compromised by his involvement in the Iran-Contra scandal. Their shared guilt kept them silent and tied their hands as they faced off in the 1992 Presidential election with neither mentioning Iran-Contra... Reed puts Clinton directly in the “Iran-Contra Loop”. Both attended a secret meeting where CIA arms arrangements, illegal Contra training and money laundering were discussed... reveals the details and names of all who were involved, including those faceless power brokers now in positions of public prominence in Washington, D.C. More than $9 million a week in cash was secretly air dropped into Arkansas, which became the CIA's domestic "banana republic". These clandestine funds were laundered for the Agency and then used for the development of Arkansas industry... Bush's sons were involved in a criminal conspiracy with the Medellin drug cartel in Colombia, a conspiracy that was being contained by the CIA."

Declares Ben Barrack, "That part about Clinton and Bush remaining silent with tied hands can logically be extended to their families (Hillary, George W. and Jeb), advisers (Karl Rove), leaders in the political establishment of both parties, and Party leadership groups like the DNC and the RNC. The administration of George W. Bush protected the Clintons as well. Perhaps no case better exemplifies this than the Oklahoma City bombing. When J.D. Cash uncovered the truth about Clinton administration involvement, the Bush Justice Department stonewalled like it was protecting Bush himself."

Republicans and Democrats – both involved – both guilty – both covering up the truth.

Interesting that George H.W. Bush, and George Bush, his son, were both members of the Skull and Bones secret society of Yale University. The ongoing conspiracy is so vast that it is international in scope. As William Shakespeare wrote, "All the world's a stage, and all the men and women merely players: They have their exits and their entrances; and one man in his time plays many parts."

Iran-Contra Scandal

Says Ben Barrack, "The Iran-Contra scandal broke open when an American cargo plane carrying weapons was shot down over Nicaragua in 1986. Pilots William Cooper and Wallace Sawyer, Jr. were killed. Damage control predictably ensued. The scandal, as it has become known, involved the CIA – which is not to be operating on U.S. soil – selling weapons to Iran in exchange for the release of hostages. An added benefit was that the funds were diverted to aid the Contras in their war with the Communist Nicaraguan Sandinistas.

"That official narrative is at near complete variance with Reed's claims."

Barack continues, "The Reagan administration circumvented Congress to support the Contras but if it were to be revealed that the CIA was operating on U.S. soil, involved in manufacturing untraceable weapons in Governor Bill Clinton's state, and then shipping them outside the country, it would become a scandal that would disgrace, neuter, and criminalize some powerful families.

“Fast forward to 2010. Operation ‘Fast and Furious’ was exposed when Border Patrol Agent Brian Terry was gunned down near the Mexican-U.S. border. Guns found at the scene were traced back to an operation run out of the Department of Justice, in which ATF Agents instructed gun store owners to sell guns to straw purchasers who would be permitted to traffic those guns unimpeded into Mexico and delivered to drug cartels.

“Frustrated Americans couldn’t understand why House Republican leadership (Speaker John Boehner) seemed disinterested in pursuing the scandal despite overwhelming evidence that implicated the Obama administration in a federal agent’s death. Based on the accepted version of events about Iran-Contra, awkward comparisons were being made between the two scandals by Democrats.

“However, based on Reed’s claims, the comparisons were not awkward at all. They were spot-on. If Reed’s account is right, Boehner’s stonewalling would make sense if it meant keeping the truth about Iran-Contra in the closet. Ditto the Benghazi investigation. Boehner began his tenure in the U.S. Congress in 1991 and has long ago demonstrated his loyalty to the Republican Party establishment.”

And so the conspiracies continue, mount up, spread out, and the powers behind the scenes continue on their merry way.

“Just another every day conspiracy!

The Bush Dynasty and Hitler’s Third Reich

Brandon Smith of Personal Liberty also writes about ongoing conspiracies in the United States – even multigenerational conspiracies. He declares, “When one studies history, all events seem to revolve around the applications and degenerations of war. Great feats of human understanding, realization and enlightenment barely register in the mental footnotes of the average person. War is what we remember, idealize and aggrandize, which is why war is the tool most often exploited by oligarchy to distract the masses while it centralizes power.

“With the exception of a few revolutions, most wars are instigated and controlled by financial elites, manipulating governments on both sides of the game to produce a preconceived result. The rise of National Socialism in Germany, for instance, was largely funded by corporate entities based in the U.S., including Rockefeller giant Standard Oil, JPMorgan and even IBM, which built the collating machines used to organize Nazi extermination camps, the same machines IBM representatives serviced on site at places like Auschwitz. As a public figure, Adolf Hitler was considered a joke by most people in German society, until, of course, the Nazi Party received incredible levels of corporate investment. This aid was most evident in what came to be known as the Keppler Fund created through the Keppler Circle, a group of interests with contacts largely based in the U.S.”

Interestingly, the Bush family was instrumental in dealing with Hitler's Germany before and during World War II, because of their vast international trade operations.

Says Brandon Smith, "George W. Bush's grandfather, Prescott Bush, used his position as director of the New York-based Union Banking Corporation to launder money for the Third Reich throughout the war. After being exposed and charged for trading with the enemy, the case against Bush magically disappeared in a puff of smoke, and the Bush family went on to become one of the most powerful political forces in America.

"Without the aid of international conglomerates and banks, the Third Reich would have never risen to power."

"When I discuss the concept of the false left/right paradigm with people, especially those in the liberty movement, I often see a light turn on, a moment of awareness in their faces. Many of us understand the con game because we live it day to day. We see past the superficial rhetoric of Republican and Democratic party leadership and take note of their numerous similarities, including foreign policy, domestic defense policy and economic policy. The voting records of the major players in both parties are almost identical. One is hard-pressed to find much difference in ideology between Bush and Barack Obama, for example; or Obama and John McCain; or Obama and Mitt Romney, for that matter.

"When I suggest, however, that similar false paradigms are used between two apparently opposed nations, the light fades, and people are left dumbstruck. Despite the fact that globalist financiers shoveled capital into the U.S., British, German and Soviet military complexes all at the same time during World War II, many Americans do not want to believe that such a thing could be happening today."

The globalist manipulators are still active today.

The War in Syria

It seems as though much of the public has already forgotten that at the end of 2013, the U.S. came within a razor's edge of economic disaster – not to mention the possibility of World War III. The war drums in Washington were thundering for "intervention" in Syria and the overthrow of Bashar Assad. The only thing that saved us from war was the efforts of the independent media in exposing the darker motives behind the Syrian insurgency, the terrorist involvement.

The revolution in Syria was also primarily driven by Western funds and arms transferred through training grounds like Benghazi, Libya. There is much evidence to suggest that the attack on the U.S. consulate in Benghazi was designed to possibly cover up the arming of Syrian rebels by the CIA, who had agents on the ground who still have not been allowed to testify in front of Congress.

After this conspiracy was exposed in the mainstream, globalist-controlled governments decided to openly supply money and weapons to the Syrian insurgency, instead of ending the subterfuge.

The Rebels and al-Qaeda

Some conspiracy-led revolutions are quite real in their intent and motivations. But many others become co-opted by elites through massive financing, or they are created wholesale from thin air from the very beginning.

Says Smith, “The Syrian insurgency is rife with, if not entirely dominated by, men associated with al-Qaeda. Governments in the U.S. and Israel continue to support the insurgency despite their open affiliation with a group that is supposedly our greatest enemy. Syrian insurgents have been recorded committing numerous atrocities, including mass execution, the torture of civilians and even the cannibalism of human organs.

The revolution in Ukraine, however, is run primarily by a National Socialist (fascist) organization headed by Oleh Tyahnybok, called the Svoboda Party,

Republicans and Democrats

Modern “conspiracies” are often very complex. One might look at the Republicans and the Democrats in the United States. The two dominant political parties virtually control the political spectrum in America. Their differences are only a matter of degree, cosmetic, and not of real substance.

Declares Brandon Smith, “I am now thoroughly convinced that John McCain is a ghoul of the highest order. He claims to be conservative yet supports almost every action of the Obama Administration. He is constantly defending anti-Constitutional actions by the Federal government, including the Enemy Belligerents Act, which was eventually melded into the National Defense Authorization Act; NSA surveillance of U.S. citizens; and even gun control.

“And for some reason, the guy keeps showing up before or during major overthrows of existing governments. McCain was in Libya during the coup against Moammar Gadhafi. McCain showed up to essentially buy off the rebels in Tunisia. McCain hung out with al-Qaeda in Syria.

“And, what a surprise, McCain met with the Ukrainian opposition movement just before the overthrow of Viktor Yanukovich. Why McCain? I have no idea. All I know is, if this guy shows up in your country, take cover.”

It would appear that the global elite use both opposition sides to manufacture crises, and precipitate revolutions and wars, for their goals of a New United World Order.

And so the story continues. Conspiracies, revolutions, and new conspiracies. And yet, as one explosive book was titled years ago, None Dare Call It Treason.

The 9-11 Terrorist Attack

What about the Muslim attack on the Twin Trade Towers and the Pentagon on September 11, 2001?

Many 9/11 conspiracy theories surfaced shortly after the September 11th attacks. Theorists believe that the World Trade Center buildings were demolished by bombs, phone calls from the planes were made up, and the former President George W. Bush secretly profited from the attacks.

Right before the September 11th attacks, some fishy business happened within the stock market and insurance firms. An “extraordinary” amount of put options were placed on United Airlines and American Airlines stocks, the same airlines that were hijacked during the attacks. Many speculate that traders were tipped off about the attacks and profited from the tragedy. The Securities and Exchange Commission launched an insider trading investigation in which Osama Bin Laden was a suspect after receiving information from at least one Wall Street Firm.

Furthermore, in the event that a airplane were to be hijacked, the North American Aerospace Defense Command (NORAD) is prepared to send out fighter jets which can debilitate or shoot down an airplane. On 9/11/01, NORAD generals said they learned of the hijackings in time to scramble fighter jets. Some skeptics believe NORAD commanded defense systems to “stand down” because of their lack of presence during the attacks. This fact also is a puzzle.

The World Trade Center collapse appeared similar to a controlled demolition. Many conspiracy theorists think that the towers were in fact blown down with explosives placed in selected locations. Some witnesses mentioned hearing explosions inside the building as they attempted to escape. Many architects and scientists even maintain that a plane’s fuel cannot produce enough heat to melt the steel frame of the two buildings that collapsed. These facts certainly add to the conclusion that there was more involved than just the airliners crashing into the Twin Trade Towers.

Also, the claim is made that the Pentagon attack simply does not scientifically hold up to close scrutiny. The Pentagon crash may be the most-puzzling event of the day. Theorists maintain that the impact holes in the pentagon were much smaller than a commercial American Airlines plane. They also question why the plane was not shot down prior to impact as well as why the plane impacted in to a section of the Pentagon that was vacant due to renovations.

Even the fourth hijacked plane, Flight 93, which crashed in Shanksville, Pennsylvania, faces skepticism. It is generally believed that the passengers fought back and crashed the plane in to a field. But is this what really happened? A movie was even made about it. But stop and consider. Skeptics believe that Flight 93 landed safely, while a substitute plane was shot out of the sky. Other theorists believe that the passengers were murdered or relocated and will never be found. We may never know the truth until Christ returns!

In flight calls were made from cell phones in hi-jacked airplanes. Scientists and skeptics maintain that cell phones could not receive reception from the altitude the planes typically fly at. Other skeptics questioned a phone call from a son to his mother, in which he referred to himself by his own first and last name.

During the ensuing weeks after the attacks, the black boxes were one of the most-important items to find. They were the only evidence in to what happened inside the cockpits of the plane. Three of 4 black boxes were found and only one was in good enough condition to listen to. The tape was not initially released but was shared with the families in 2002. Skeptics believe the tapes were not disclosed in order to support the secret scheme.

Still other conspiracy theorists point out that commercial airplanes' frames are constructed with a very light aluminum material in order to make it easier to fly. They maintain that there is no possible way an airplane can do as much damage as was done to the Twin Towers. Theorists believe that missiles or explosives were used to ensure the buildings collapsed.

Twelve years after the attack, we still don't know with certainty the entire story of what really happened on that fateful day. But there's an old saying, "Where there's smoke, there's fire." Or, to put it another way, where there is much smoke there are many fires.

According to some analysts, "The complete lack of evidence is the surest sign that the conspiracy is working."

There are certainly many unanswered questions about the 9-11 disaster. Was it a vast behind-the-scenes conspiracy? The final truth will probably not be known until the return of Christ, when the hidden truth of all things will be revealed!

It is time we wake up to the totally CONSPIRATORIAL NATURE OF HUMAN GOVERNMENTS! It is a story as old as mankind, ever since Cain slew Abel, his brother.

The Great END TIME Conspiracy

The nations today are still conspiring against God and His prophets, people, and true godly men and women.

God thunders, “Why do the nations rage, and the people PLOT a vain thing? The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the LORD and against His Anointed” (Psalm 2:1-2).

In this end-time generation, the nations are once again conspiring together, seeking to destroy God’s people Israel. It was prophesied long ago. Asaph wrote in the Psalms, “Do not keep silent, O God! Do not hold Your peace, and do not be still, O God! For behold, Your enemies make a tumult; and those who hate You have lifted up their head. They have taken crafty counsel against Your people, and consulted together against Your sheltered ones. They have said, ‘Come, let us cut them off from being a nation, that the name of Israel may be remembered no more. For they have consulted together with one consent; they form a CONFEDERACY against You” (Psa.83:1-5).

Satan is also the architect of the great END-TIME global conspiracy to unite the nations to fight against God when Christ the Messiah returns from heaven! John tells us, in the book of Revelation, “So the great dragon was cast out [of heaven], that serpent of old, called the Devil and Satan, WHO DECEIVES THE WHOLE WORLD” (Rev.12:9).

Satan has always hated God, since he was cast down the first time from heaven in the primordial times (Isa.14:12-14; Ezek.28:14-18).

The Globalist Plot

Donald Trump has been inaugurated and is now the 45th president of the United States. But never in 240 years of US history has a candidate for President or a President-elect come under such vicious attack by the political left and globalist Establishment in the media and in both political parties – in an attempt to destroy him and his credibility – as Donald Trump has.

The globalists, communists, and political left, aided and abetted by disinformation from the CIA and the Obama Administration, the Democrat (aka communist) Party, and their allies abroad have fabricated the false narrative that the Russians manipulated and stole the US election for Trump.

There is absolutely no valid or substantive evidence or intelligence to substantiate these accusations.

They have also released in recent weeks a false dossier (originating from the CIA) alleging that Trump is a sexual/moral pervert. These accusations are being reported non-stop as if they were proven fact in the New York Times, Washington Post, on CNN (called by some the “Communist News Network”), on NBC, CBS, ABC and throughout most of the Establishment media worldwide. If they could not derail Trump’s inauguration, they hoped to discredit his legitimacy as president and thwart his actions once in office. The Establishment’s ongoing theme is that “Trump is an illegitimate President.”

This totally transparent, unprecedented, savage attack against a President-elect proved beyond the shadow of a doubt the incredible power, influence, and reach of the globalist Establishment (especially in their wholly owned media) – as well as their desperation in losing influence and power via Brexit, the potential breakup of the European Union, the Trump upset, and the grassroots awakening and pushback in Europe and America.

America has for decades (at least five or six) been ruled from behind the scenes by a Deep State (invisible) government of the globalist elite – who have worked relentlessly to establish their world socialist government (called “The New World Order” by George Herbert Walker Bush, one of its primary leaders). The European Union, the North American Union, NAFTA, WTO, TPP, the US economic/financial buildup of China over the past 40 years, the war on terrorism, the non-stop wars in the Middle East, numerous US sponsored coups and assassinations, and a plethora of false flag attacks have all been part of this globalist one-world government strategy.

The Deep State has used its people in both major US political parties, in the US Congress, and in the US intelligence agencies such as the CIA, FBI, NSA and other intelligence agencies – including British intelligence – to implement their globalist strategy. The CIA is their major hit team and political (“regime change”) facilitator – having staged many political coups and government overthrows since the 1960s, and assassinating numerous heads of state around the world.

The CIA was utilized by the Deep State to assassinate John F. Kennedy in 1963, his brother Robert Kennedy when he was about to become president in 1968, and very nearly Ronald Reagan in 1980 when he (like Trump) was unexpectedly elected and threatened their agenda. (He survived the attempt – barely – but V.P. Bush Sr. – one of the leading and very powerful globalists and champions of the New World Order – thereafter heavily influenced his administration for the next seven years.)

In just the past few weeks, Rodrigo Duterte, (the anti-establishment president of the Philippines who has been blocking the US military expansion/ war preparations in that country preparatory for war with China) announced publicly that the CIA was planning to assassinate him and stage a coup in the Philippines.

Will the Deep State use the CIA or other assets to try to assassinate Trump (à la Ronald Reagan in 1980) – since their draconian efforts to discredit him have failed? Trump and his people know that they will probably try at some point. If Trump is wise, he will have the greatest personal protection of any President in US history, and he will dismantle the evil, Establishment-controlled CIA. BUT, shortly after JFK vowed to do the same, he was brutally murdered. President Trump now faces three main challenges, according to Don McAlvany of the McAlvany Intelligence Advisor. They are:

1. Establishment infiltration of his administration via key appointments – which sadly is already occurring. Trump has been conferring closely with Henry Kissinger (one of the top globalist leaders over the past 40 years), Dick Cheney – the neocon/globalist Vice President and controller of Bush Jr. during his two terms, and has appointed a number of Goldman Sachs officials to top positions, including Secretary of the Treasury – something he said he would never do during his campaign.

2. Sabotage of his agenda by top globalist establishment Congressional Republicans – such as Senators John McCain, Lindsey Graham, Marco Rubio, House Speaker Paul Ryan, Mitch McConnell, and many more who are total lackeys for the Bush family and the globalists.

3. If all else fails, the establishment will try to kill Trump. They have been assassinating opponents who were a threat to their agenda as far back as Abraham Lincoln. (The McAlvany Intelligence Advisor, February 2017).

World War III Being Plotted Now!

The rising hysteria about Russia today is best understood as fulfilling two needs for Official Washington: the Military Industrial Complex's transitioning from the "war on terror" to a more lucrative "new cold war"– and blunting the threat that a President Trump poses to the neo-conservative-liberal-interventionist foreign-policy establishment.

By hyping the Russian "threat," the neocons and their liberal-hawk sidekicks, who include most of the mainstream US news media, can guarantee bigger military budgets from Congress. The hype also sets in motion a blocking maneuver to impinge on any significant change in direction for US foreign policy under Trump.

The Fourth Turning

Recently, Michael Krieger wrote: After spending some time watching the recently concluded intelligence briefing to the US Senate, one of the most disturbing and ominous conclusions one comes to is that the Establishment seriously wants war. One of the most discomfiting aspects of Neil Howe and William Strauss' seminal work on generational cycles, "The Fourth Turning" (1997), is the fact that as far as American history is concerned, they all climax and end with massive wars.

To be more specific, the first "fourth turning" in American history culminated with the Revolutionary War (1775-1783), the second culminated with the Civil War (1861-1865), while the third ended with the bloodiest war in world history, World War II (1939-1945). The number of years between the end of the Revolutionary War and the start of the Civil War was 78 years, and the number of years between the end of the Civil War and the start of World War II was 74 years (76 years if you use America's entry into the war as your starting date).

Therefore, if Howe & Strauss' theory has any validity, we're due for a major conflict somewhere around 75 years from the end of World War II. That brings us to 2020. Will World War III erupt in all its frenzied horror with thermonuclear worldwide devastation because of the miscalculations and ambitions of mad men in high political offices?

Is the world on the verge of Armageddon?

There are a growing number of signs that the world is headed into another major conflict. From an unnecessary resurgence of a Cold War with Russia to increased tensions in the South China Sea, and complete chaos and destruction in the Middle East, the world is teetering on the edge of the greatest cataclysm it has ever experienced. It has become a gigantic tinderbox. All it will take to transform already existing conflict zones into the greatest holocaust of all time is one more severe global economic downturn. This could well happen within the next 1-2 years.

This puts us on a perfect collision course with the 2020 timeframe.

Conspiracy of the Ages

This vast conspiracy has been enduring through the ages, from one generation to another. It was prophesied! The apostle Paul wrote of it, "For the mystery of lawlessness is ALREADY at work; only he who now restrains will do so until he is taken out of the way. And THEN the LAWLESS ONE will be revealed, whom the Lord will consume with the breath of His mouth and destroy with the brightness of His coming. The coming of the Lawless one is according to the working of Satan, with all power, signs, and lying wonders, and with all unrighteous DECEPTION among those who perish, because they did not receive the love of the truth, that they might be saved" (II Thess.2:7-10).

We know from history that a grand conspiracy called the Illuminati does exist, and it is not hard to find it. Satan does conspire, and so do all evil men who develop a scheme-in-common. The organized Illuminati has existed since May 1st, 1776, and it was planned and organized by the evil genius Dr. Adam Weishaupt at the behest of the House of Rothschild banking dynasty. In those days and in subsequent recent history, their only hope for survival was secrecy.

They hid themselves within the highest esoteric ranks of Freemasonry, the Grand Orient, the Jesuits, and many other clandestine groups who masqueraded themselves as benevolent and philanthropic organizations.

Every evil and sinister plan in history, including world wars, was planned and launched from the restricted temple rooms and gathering places of highly respected organizations with the vast majority of its own members not even knowing what was happening! Thus, with a perfect front and cover and the element of secrecy, they were able to continue their scheme of Luciferian one-world globalism to this very day.

They also had the added benefit that most people are basically mentally lazy and apathetic. The vast majority of people just do not think and do not seem to care!

One of the ways that we can know that we are at the very end of the world is that the conspirators are no longer depending on secrecy. They are now operating openly, and what they are doing is clearly visible. Why then do most people not see what is happening?

We have reached that unique and peculiar time that Jesus spoke about when people would look directly at something and not see it. The motto of today's society is: How am I supposed to see the woods when there are so many trees in the way? Treachery is no longer hidden solely in the secret chambers of the rich and powerful manipulators of the world. Now, treachery has been hidden in plain sight and in full public view. The situation is not just political or geo-political, in nature, but it is spiritual.

Behind the treachery and conspiracies in the world and modern society lies that old arch-enemy of mankind, Satan the devil.

Lucifer, the Original Conspirator

Conspiracies exist all around us. They proliferate like dandelion seeds blowing in the wind!

The first Great Conspiracy in history occurred under the leadership of that great conspirator, Satan the devil himself. He rebelled and conspired against God ages ago taking one-third of the angels who followed him in this rebellion.

A fascinating account of the story is provided by the prophet Isaiah. Notice what the prophet was inspired to record: “How art thou fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning! How art thou cut down to the ground, which didst weaken the nations!

“For thou has said in thine heart, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God: I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north: I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will be like the most High. Yet thou shalt be brought down to hell, to the sides of the pit” (Isaiah 14:12-15).

The term “son of the morning” here is the Hebrew word shakar and means “dawn, early, light, morning.” The name “Lucifer” is the Hebrew word heylel and means “the morning star,” in the sense of “brightness,” from the word halal, meaning “to be clear, to shine; hence, to boast, to make a show,” thus to be “foolish,” “rage, rave, feign self mad.” Lucifer was a “morning star” who perverted his original wisdom and became “mad,” raging, perverting his brightness. Interestingly, Jesus Himself is also referred to as “the bright and morning star” (Rev.22:16). He is the true “day star” (II Pet.1:19).

Here the prophet Isaiah describes what happened eons ago! A mighty angel by the name of Lucifer, which means “Day star,” or “Shining star of the dawn,” rebelled against the Almighty God. He attempted to ascend to heaven, to exalt his own throne or seat of authority above the other angels, called “stars of God.” He attempted to ascend above the clouds (clouds are in the earth's atmosphere), to rise up and conquer space – to remove God from His Throne – to become “like the Most High.” But his abortive attempt failed. He was cast back down to earth in a massive struggle.

Just how big was this cosmic battle for control of the Universe? Why did Lucifer want to be “like the most High”? Lucifer was a very powerful personality, a mighty angel of God. But his angelic nature, consumed with greed and lust, became a loathsome thing, detestable, unclean, filthy, vile, putrid, ugly, distorted, misshapen, foul. He became characterized as a slithering serpent, a vile snake, a detestable dragon.

In the book of Revelation, John tells us: “And there appeared another wonder in heaven; and behold a great red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns, and seven crowns upon his heads. And his tail drew the third part of the stars of heaven, and did cast them to the earth . . .” (Revelation 12: 3-4). Notice! It appears that ONE THIRD OF THE ANGELS followed Lucifer in his campaign to fight against God! During this cosmic conflict it is probable that tens of thousands of meteorites in the solar system were also cast down upon the earth, and that the solar system itself sustained massive damage, as we see attested to by modern astronomy. For this story, read our articles “Beyond Star Wars” and “Life Before Adam?”

Peter speaks of the cataclysmic fall of Lucifer and his renegade angels this way: “For if God spared not the angels that sinned, but cast them down to hell (Greek, tartaroo, a “place of restraint”), and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be reserved unto judgment” (II Peter 2:4). These angels had “sinned.” But what is “sin?” The Bible defines it as rebellion, lawlessness. “Sin is the transgression of the law,” John wrote (1 John 3:4).

One third of the angelic hosts sinned – violated the laws of God – and acted wantonly. They attempted to overthrow the Government of the Creator God. They precipitated violence on a cosmic scale never before heard of or seen! They went astray from the paths of peace, goodness, faith, righteousness.

They looked upon God as a tyrant, a malevolent dictator, not fit for His office, not capable of running the Universe. They wanted their way. They wanted their ambitions – right now! They wanted to seize God's Throne and take over – He wasn't running things right, in their eyes. So they CONSPIRED against Him! They plotted to overthrow His divine Government and seize control of the Universe!

Ezekiel says of this arch rebel: “Thou hast been in Eden the garden of God; every precious stone was thy covering, the sardius, topaz, and the diamond, the beryl, the onyx, and the jasper, the sapphire, the emerald, and the carbuncle, and gold: the workmanship of thy tabrets and of thy pipes was prepared in thee in the day that thou wast created. Thou art the anointed cherub that covereth; and I have set thee so: thou wast upon the holy mountain of God; thou has walked up and down in the midst of the stones of fire. Thou wast perfect in thy ways from the day that thou was created, TILL INQUITY was found in thee” (Ezek. 28:13-15).

The God of This World

Satan is the God of this world, the Prince of the Power of the Air (Eph.2:2; 2 Cor.4:4) that has DECEIVED ALL NATIONS – he is “that serpent of old, called the Devil and Satan, who deceives the whole world” (Rev.12:9) suppressing the truth of God in unrighteousness (Rom.1:18). He is the greatest Conspirator of all, and he is still very active and alive, today, seeking to lead the whole world in a final Rebellion against God!

The apostle Paul wrote, “For we do not wrestle against [mere] flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this age, against spiritual hosts of wickedness in the heavenly places” (Eph.6:12).

Carnal, unbelieving men are always conspiring for power, wealth, and honor and glory in the human sphere. Behind them, deceiving the whole world, is Satan the devil. He is a real being, and the master of deception and delusion.

If you don’t see the evidence of conspiracies, in the world around us, in political struggles and international affairs, then perhaps you have been brainwashed and blinded by the deceptive powers that exist, as they strive to make mincemeat of you and lead you into slavery to do their will.

So what does God Almighty say we should do about it? Notice what the apostle John says in the book of Revelation about this end-time globalist empire:

“And I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet BEAST which was full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns. The woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet . . . having in her hand a golden cup full of abominations and the filthiness of her fornication. And on her forehead a name was written:

“MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND OF THE ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH. I saw the woman, drunk with the blood of the saints and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus” (Rev.17:4-5).

God thunders to His people, ““COME OUT OF HER, MY PEOPLE, LEST YOU SHARE IN HER SINS, and lest you receive of her plagues. For her sins have reached to heaven, and God has remembered her iniquities” (Rev.18:4-5). ““COME OUT FROM AMONG THEM, and be separate,’ says the Lord. ‘Do not touch what is unclean, And I will receive you.’ ‘I will be a Father to you. And you shall be My sons and daughters,’ says the Lord Almighty”” (II Cor.6:14-18).

The time to wake up, and come to our senses, and repent of our sins and waywardness, and to return to God and His laws has come. Seek God urgently in your life. Don’t put it off. Now is the time to prepare for the coming of the Lord Jesus Christ, the Messiah, who will replace this globalist satanic empire with the Kingdom of God!

The Globalist Empire Strikes Back

Donald Trump has been inaugurated and is now the 45th president of the United States. But never in 240 years of US history has a candidate for President or a President-elect come under such vicious attack by the political left and globalist Establishment in the media and in both political parties – in an attempt to destroy him and his credibility – as Donald Trump has.

The Establishment’s ongoing theme is that “Trump is an illegitimate President.”

This totally transparent, unprecedented, savage attack against a President-elect beyond the shadow of a doubt the incredible power, influence, and reach of the globalist Establishment (especially in their wholly owned media) – as well as their desperation in losing influence and power via Brexit, the potential breakup of the European Union, the Trump upset, and the grassroots awakening and pushback in Europe and America.

America has for decades (at least five or six) been ruled from behind the scenes by a Deep State (invisible) government of the globalist elite – who have worked relentlessly to establish their world socialist government (called “The New World Order” by George Herbert Walker Bush, one of its primary leaders). The European Union, the North American Union, NAFTA, WTO, TPP, the US economic/financial buildup of China over the past 40 years, the war on terrorism, the non-stop wars in the Middle East, numerous US sponsored coups and assassinations, and a plethora of false flag attacks have all been part of this globalist one-world government strategy.

The Deep State has used its people in both major US political parties, in the US Congress, and in the US intelligence agencies such as the CIA, FBI, NSA and other intelligence agencies – including British intelligence – to implement their globalist strategy. The CIA is their major hit team and political (“regime change”) facilitator – having staged many political coups and government overthrows since the 1960s, and assassinating numerous heads of state around the world.

The CIA was utilized by the Deep State to assassinate John F. Kennedy in 1963, his brother Robert Kennedy when he was about to become president in 1968, and very nearly Ronald Reagan in 1980 when he (like Trump) was unexpectedly elected and threatened their agenda. (He survived the attempt – barely – but V.P. Bush Sr. – one of the leading and very powerful globalists and champions of the New World Order – thereafter heavily influenced his administration for the next seven years.)

In just the past few weeks, Rodrigo Duterte, (the anti-establishment president of the Philippines who has been blocking the US military expansion/ war preparations in that country preparatory for war with China) announced publicly that the CIA was planning to assassinate him and stage a coup in the Philippines.

Will the Deep State use the CIA or other assets to try to assassinate Trump (à la Ronald Reagan in 1980) – since their draconian efforts to discredit him have failed? Trump and his people know that they will probably try at some point. If Trump is wise, he will have the greatest personal protection of any President in US history, and he will dismantle the evil, Establishment-controlled CIA. BUT, shortly after JFK vowed to do the same, he was brutally murdered. President Trump now faces three main challenges:

1. Establishment infiltration of his administration via key appointments – which sadly is already occurring. Trump has been conferring closely with Henry Kissinger (one of the top globalist leaders over the past 40 years), Dick Cheney – the neocon/globalist Vice President and controller of Bush Jr. during his two terms, and has appointed a number of Goldman Sachs officials to top positions, including Secretary of the Treasury – something he said he would never do during his campaign.
2. Sabotage of his agenda by top globalist establishment Congressional Republicans – such as Senators John McCain, Lindsey Graham, Marco Rubio, House Speaker Paul Ryan, Mitch McConnell, and many more who are total lackeys for the Bush family and the globalists.

3. If all else fails, the establishment will try to kill Trump. They have been assassinating opponents who were a threat to their agenda as far back as Abraham Lincoln. (The McAlvany Intelligence Advisor, February 2017).

World War III Being Plotted Now!

The rising hysteria about Russia is best understood as fulfilling two needs for Official Washington: the Military Industrial Complex's transitioning from the "war on terror" to a more lucrative "new cold war" – and blunting the threat that a President Trump poses to the neo-conservative-liberal-interventionist foreign policy establishment.

By hyping the Russian "threat," the neocons and their liberal-hawk sidekicks, who include most of the mainstream US news media, can guarantee bigger military budgets from Congress. The hype also sets in motion a blocking maneuver to impinge on any significant change in direction for US foreign policy under Trump.

A. THE FOURTH TURNING AND THE CYCLES OF WAR –

Recently, Michael Krieger wrote: After spending some time watching the recently concluded intelligence briefing to the US Senate, one of the most disturbing and ominous conclusions one comes to is that the Establishment seriously wants war. One of the most discomfiting aspects of Neil Howe and William Strauss' seminal work on generational cycles, "The Fourth Turning"(1997), is the fact that as far as American history is concerned, they all climax and end with massive wars.

To be more specific, the first "fourth turning" in American history culminated with the Revolutionary War (1775-1783), the second culminated with the Civil War (1861-1865), while the third ended with the bloodiest war in world history, World War II (1939-1945). The number of years between the end of the Revolutionary War and the start of the Civil War was 78 years, and the number of years between the end of the Civil War and the start of World War II was 74 years (76 years if you use America's entry into the war as your starting date).

Therefore, if Howe & Strauss' theory has any validity, we're due for a major conflict somewhere around 75 years from the end of World War II. That brings us to 2020.

And now there are a growing number of signs that the world is headed into another major conflict. From an unnecessary resurgence of a Cold War with Russia to increased tensions in the South China Sea and complete chaos and destruction in the Middle East, the world is a gigantic tinderbox. All it will take to transform these already existing conflict zones into a major conflagration is another severe global economic downturn which can be expected to happen within the next 1-2 years. This puts us on a perfect collision course with the 2020 timeframe.

B. WHO BENEFITS FROM WAR WITH RUSSIA? – One of the biggest dangers had Hillary Clinton been elected was that she embodied the neocon, neoliberal, military-intelligence-industrial complex's burning desire for a global confrontation with Russia, as well as continued disastrous imperial adventures all over the world.

Many conservatives hoped that, with her loss, cooler heads would prevail and the American public might receive a much-needed respite from never-ending war. This has not happened.

If anything, those in the Hillary-Obama-Establishment camp have become even more aggressive and unhinged in their bloodlust, and appear willing to do “whatever it takes” to start a fight that will result in unimaginable devastation for the American public.

First, we need to understand the motivation of those driving us in this disastrous direction. Their primary motivation is pretty simple, a desire to retain power and status.

They can see the handwriting on the wall when it comes to the disintegration of status quo and their authority and credibility, and they fundamentally understand the need to focus on an outside enemy in order to distract attention away from internal failures.

Second, we need to understand where we are in the war-creating process. We must understand that very powerful interests have already decided they want this war. To them, this isn’t about weighing facts and being reasonable, they’ve already made up their minds. And so they are in the process of psychologically preparing the American people for war – just as George Bush Jr. and the Establishment media prepared the public for war with Saddam Hussein in Iraq in 2003 with the blatantly false story that he had dangerous weapons of mass destruction” – which he did not – and that we were seriously threatened by these WMDs!

C. PREPARING THE PUBLIC PSYCHOLOGICALLY FOR WAR – Right at this very moment, we are being sold on this war by the media, politicians, intelligence agencies, as well as various other vested interests who will benefit from war and America’s continuing imperial dominance abroad. Just consider what globalist Republican Senators Lindsey Graham and John McCain, GOP House Speaker Paul Ryan, and Obama’s Director of National Intelligence James Clapper have been saying. They are labeling Russia as our dangerous enemy that must be punished. Why? Because, they say, Russia provided information to WikiLeaks, which was embarrassing to the Democratic Party, causing Hillary Clinton to lose the election.

This “manipulation of the US election by Russia” is now the Establishment’s major propaganda line and justification to vilify and punish Russia. (It also gives them a face-saving excuse as to why Hillary lost and Trump won, and a rallying cry for their leftist cadres.) But before Hillary lost the election, the propaganda line was “Russia’s aggression against the Ukraine.” That was their justification. Then their propaganda line changed after November 8, but the target remained the same, as did their ultimate goal of war.

Wholly unsubstantiated (indeed false) claims that Russia helped rig the election in favor of Trump are now the new justification for the coming conflict with Russia. It would all be absurd and laughable except that the entire Establishment and their US (and global) media have jumped on the bandwagon and are now pushing this line non-stop. (Just read the disinformation articles in the New York Times and the Washington Post, or watch the CNN propaganda.) The irony is that the election theft they are accusing Trump and the Russians of – and the “fake news” is what they were massively guilty of doing themselves – stealing 3-5 million votes (but not quite enough) and total distortion of the facts regarding Trump and cover-up of Hillary’s criminal and treasonous activities.

CONCLUSION

What is not laughable is the new round of sanctions against Russia that Obama imposed, the kicking of 35 Russian diplomats out of the US, and the US moving more troops and weapons up to the Russian border – all in the weeks following the election. Nobody ever said the Establishment and the political left would give up easily. We need to understand that those who want this war will be absolutely relentless. Their propaganda will not end until they get exactly what they want. They want to totally discredit Trump, and they want war.

And one more thing to watch closely: The Establishment has been working feverishly to get their people into key foreign policy positions in the Trump Administration (i.e., State Department, Defense Department, CIA, and other intelligence agencies). Disturbingly, this “join them if you can’t defeat them” Establishment strategy seems to be working – judging by many of Trump’s appointments. He has even appointed eight or nine Goldman Sachs people to high positions in the financial area – including Secretary of Treasury. Ominous! (MIA, ibid.)

Praying for President Trump

Americans who understand the times should be praying for Donald Trump and his incoming administration like never before.

Never has there been a more powerful coalition of forces, including globalists, communists, leftists of all shades, homosexuals, Muslims, and Christian/Jewish/Israel-haters – all aided and abetted by the controlled US and global media, than are arrayed against Donald Trump today. Indeed, all the forces of evil (i.e., satanic forces) are arrayed against one man.

In 50 years of watching (and writing about) the communists, globalists, and political leftists advance their cause, this writer has never seen these combined forces of evil unite against one man to the extent which they have against Trump. They see their entire globalist/one world agenda (or dictatorship) at risk. Indeed, in the past three months, they have dramatically sped up that agenda – as described above. They are frightened, angry, and incredibly motivated to advance their agenda and stop their hated enemy, Donald Trump, at all costs. Having failed to stop his election and inauguration via the most vile smear/vilification/character assassination campaign in US history in their controlled media (a campaign which WILL continue) and via allies in the US Congress (in both parties) they WILL try to kill him, à la JFK, RFK, and Ronald Reagan. All Americans who understand the times (including the millions of shortsighted Christians who DID NOT vote for him), should be praying for his continued protection.

The same supernatural power of God that (against all odds) miraculously caused Trump to be elected (in answer to the prayers of millions of Christians all over the world, this writer believes) needs to be sought through prayer in one united voice for Trump's protection. (This writer actually knows Christians in the Philippines, Singapore, Nepal, and India who are seriously praying at this time for his protection.)

As this writer has written in recent months, Trump was an unlikely person to be suddenly thrust into the Presidency of the United States. But he is tough, he is independent, he is very smart, and he is not afraid to take on the combined and evil forces of the globalists, the political left, and Islam. His election, in this writer's strong opinion, was because the God of the Bible, in His mercy, decided to give America another chance – or at least more time to get its act together. And if America gets another chance at freedom, then so do the freedom-loving peoples all over the world who are also threatened by the globalist agenda. Trump is pro-Christian, pro-freedom, pro-Israel, and loves America – the direct opposite of our recent communist/Muslim president.

Early on, this writer would have chosen a more doctrinaire conservative candidate like Rand Paul or Ben Carson (neither of which ever had a chance).

But this writer believes that the God of the Bible had more to do with raising up Trump for just such a time as this – as He did Joseph, Gideon, David, and Esther in times of crisis in the Old Testament – than most people would suppose. At least America now has a chance to turn back from the brink of destruction we had arrived at under Obama, and the total collapse of freedom that was virtually guaranteed under Hillary Clinton.

We need to be praying by the millions not only for his protection, but also for his success in fighting back against the forces of evil – for his wisdom, for God's guidance and discernment, for good and tough people to be surrounding him, for success in fighting back against the globalist establishment, against their prostitute media, and the forces that have systematically been destroying our freedom over the past 60 years.

Throughout the campaign, since the election and from this point forward, all the forces of hell have been and will be fighting back against him – some even from within his own administration and the Republican Party.

This writer has long felt that America is as much (or more) in a spiritual battle as in a political battle. Lovers of freedom, of traditional American values, of the Constitution, of America's now largely abandoned Christian heritage and foundation – need to fight back on both levels, spiritual and political. As JFK said: "If not now, then when? If not us, then who?"

We can (and should) all be praying for Trump's protection and success in rolling back the forces of evil in our country – who were very close to total control.

As II Chronicles 7: 14 says: “If my people, who are called by my name, will humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways, then will I hear from heaven and will forgive their sin and will heal their land.”

How does this apply to America's present political situation and spiritual condition? It is worth pondering! (McAlvany Intelligence Advisor, February 2017).

The ‘Arch Of Baal’ Was Displayed For The Third Time In Honor Of ‘The World Government Summit’

Did you know that 4,000 world leaders from 130 different countries gathered in Dubai this week for the World Government Summit? It was held from February 12th to February 14th, and it featured more than 100 internationally-known speakers including UN Secretary General Antonio Guterres, Christine Lagarde and Elon Musk. The first World Government Summit was held back in 2013, and that one was actually attended by Barack Obama. Unfortunately the mainstream media in the United States was almost entirely silent about this summit, so most of us in the western world didn't even hear about it.

To honor the spirit of this summit, a reconstructed version of Palmyra's Arch Of Triumph (also known as the Monumental Arch) was erected in Dubai. Previously it had been put up in London and New York City for brief periods of time, and so this marked only the third time that it has been displayed. The following comes from Breaking Israel News...

“A replica of a Roman arch that once stood in front of the pagan Temple of Ba'al was erected for the World Government Summit in Dubai this week, creating a scene that one rabbi claims symbolizes the dangerous fusion of Ishmael and Edom against Israel.

“The original Roman Victory Arch stood for 1,800 years in Palmyra, Syria, until it was destroyed by ISIS in October 2015. A full-size

28-meter tall replica of the arch was created last year by the Institute for Digital Archeology, a joint project of Oxford and Harvard universities, and has been displayed twice before.

“The replica was erected for the opening of the World Government Summit that opened on Sunday in Dubai.”

In ancient Palmyra, the Arch of Triumph connected the main street of the Colonnade with the Temple of Bel. If ordinary people of the time wanted to visit the Temple of Bel, they would pass through this arch. And once they were done, they would pass through this arch again on their way out.

And of course “Bel” and “Baal” are synonymous, and both titles can be traced all the way back to ancient Babylon and a very evil ruler named Nimrod.

The title of “Bel” or “Baal” seems to have originally been used primarily for the Babylonian god Marduk. According to Wikipedia:

“Bel became especially used of the Babylonian god Marduk and when found in Assyrian and neo-Babylonian personal names or mentioned in inscriptions in a Mesopotamian context it can usually be taken as referring to Marduk and no other god. Similarly Belit without some disambiguation mostly refers to Bel Marduk's spouse Sarpanit. However Marduk's mother, the Sumerian goddess called Ninhursag, Damkina, Ninmah and other names in Sumerian, was often known as Belit-ili ‘Lady of the Gods’ in Akkadian.”

So where did “Marduk” come from? Well, many scholars have traced the worship of Marduk all the way back to the historical figure of Nimrod...

Traditionally the Tower of Babel event has been associated with Nimrod, and Jewish commentaries as well as the Jewish historian Josephus both seem very emphatic on this point. Regarding the Sumerian name Enmer-kar, the suffix “kar” means “hunter,” and so “Enmer-kar” is in fact “Enmer the Hunter,” just as Nimrod is referred to as the “Mighty Hunter” in Genesis 10. Furthermore, Enmerkar is named on the Sumerian King List as “the one who built Uruk,” just as Nimrod is described in Genesis 10:10 as having a kingdom that began in “Babel (Eridu) and Erech (Uruk)... in the land of Shinar.” After Enmerkar’s death he became honored in Sumerian myth as the semi-divine hero Ninurta, and eventually this cult evolved into the great cult of Marduk, which became the state religion of Babylon after the conquests and religious innovations of Hammurabi.

Are you starting to see how everything fits together?

And Nimrod was the great king of the very first “world government” in the post-flood world. The following is what Genesis 10:8-12 says in the Modern English Version...

“Cush was the father of Nimrod. He became a mighty one on the earth.<sup>9</sup> He was a mighty hunter before the Lord. Therefore it is said, “Even like Nimrod the mighty hunter before the Lord. The beginning of his kingdom was Babel, Uruk, Akkad, and Kalneh in the land of Shinar. From that land he went to Assyria and built Nineveh, the city Rehoboth Ir, and Calah, and Resen between Nineveh and Calah (that is the principal city).”

So it seems more than a little bit strange that an arch with links to Nimrod has been erected to honor a summit devoted to the promotion of “world government” in our day.

It has been said that if we do not understand history we are doomed to repeat it. Nimrod’s world government in ancient times attempted to push God out of the picture, and the same thing is true with the globalists of today.

The globalists dream of a utopia where humanity has been united under a one world government, a one world economy and a one world religion. Donald Trump stands opposed to this twisted dream, and that is why the globalists hate him so much.” And the globalists understand the power of symbols very well. The erecting of this arch in Dubai at the exact same time the “World Government Summit” was being held sends a very powerful message.

Even though Donald Trump is now the president of the United States, the globalists are far from defeated, and if they have their way all of humanity will soon be within their ruthless grip (Michael Snyder, endoftheamerican-dream, Feb.16, 2017).

Did 2.1 Million Hispanics Vote Illegally?

An analysis of a little-known study concluded there may have been more than 2 million non-citizen Hispanics who illegally voted last year.

The Washington Times cites the 2013 study, which was conducted by McLaughlin and Associates. A separate, and more recent, analysis by research nonprofit Just Facts found there was potentially a large number of non-citizens who managed to cast a vote in last fall’s presidential election.

Donald Trump won the election but lost the popular vote to Democrat Hillary Clinton. He has said several times he believes voter fraud was rampant. In the 2013 study, 13 percent of the non-citizen Hispanics said they were registered to vote.

According to the Times, James Agresti of Just Facts examined the results, applied it to 2013 U.S. Census data, and concluded that as many as 2.1 million Hispanics could have been illegally registered to vote.

It is against the law for non-citizens to register to vote in U.S. elections (Newsmax, Feb.19, 2017).

CIA Plots Against President Trump

Leading up to the resignation of President Donald Trump’s national security advisor, retired Lt. Gen. Michael Flynn, there have been increasingly dire warnings being sounded by political insiders. After Flynn’s downfall Monday night, experts again raised the alarm: This wasn’t just a leak.

This was the result of a behind-the-scenes power grab by the intelligence community, and their target is simple: They’re aiming to take Trump down.

While the mainstream media gleefully celebrates Flynn's resignation, they're ignoring the alarming reality at the heart of these leaks.

It's a threat against democracy itself.

Folks, that's not hyperbole. It is increasingly clear that high ranking officials at the CIA, NSA, and others within the intelligence community have ignored the results of the presidential election and have gone rogue.

Critics say these officials have remained loyal to former President Barack Obama, and have been working to undermine Trump as revenge for his promises to "drain the swamp."

"It's undeniable that the campaign to discredit Flynn was well underway before Inauguration Day, with a very troublesome and politicized series of leaks designed to undermine him," The Washington Free Beacon reported a veteran national security adviser told them. "This pattern reminds me of the lead up to the Iran deal, and probably features the same cast of characters."

Simply put, this is a danger to the integrity of our country.

In a sense, this is the beginning of an intelligence community coup d'etat. Bureaucrats that operate in the shadows — who do not answer to the American people — are fighting a shadow war against our elected representatives.

Even more disturbing, the mainstream media is happy to whitewash the intelligence communities efforts because it suits their objective (The Horn News, Feb.15, 2017).

White House Fears Sabotage by Intelligence-Industrial Complex

Administration sources have expressed concerns that elements of the "intelligence-industrial complex" are trying to discredit Donald Trump to forcibly remove him from office.

"I think there's a point there, and there are a number of different people on Capitol Hill and in the administration who I've talked about who are concerned that there is, in fact, this intelligence-industrial complex that is trying to take out Donald Trump or somehow discredit him, or get under and disqualify him or some of his officials that are working for him," said Fox News host Bret Baier during an interview with Melissa Francis.

"It's a real issue, and it is something that Sean Spicer got to right there in that answer."

Iowa Congressman Steven King argued that the "political assassination" of Michael Flynn was the result of actions by elements of the intelligence community who do not want Donald Trump to succeed.

"It's clear that there are people within the intelligence community who disagree with President Trump, who don't want to see his administration succeed — that's part of the configuration of these timed leaks that have come out," he said on CNN.

He said Flynn "has been subject to a political assassination, [regardless] of what he did or didn't say to President Trump or Vice President Pence."

California Congressman Devin Nunes, chairman of the House Committee on Intelligence, suggested the nine intelligence officials who leaked the contents of Flynn's phone call to the Washington Post belong in jail.

"That's nine leakers that all belong in jail," he said. "Those nine people broke the law, clearly, by leaking classified information to anybody" (Infowars, Clifford Cunningham, Feb.15, 2017).

Coup Against General Flynn

WASHINGTON, D.C. – The purge of Army Lt. Gen. Michael Flynn engineered by White House Chief of Staff Reince Priebus, formally the head of the Republican National Committee in Washington, is the "Pearl Harbor" for Trump loyalists – a devastating attack that determines for Trump supporters that Priebus, an elite GOP Washington insider, must go.

The concern among Trump loyalists is that now that Priebus has succeeded in getting rid of Flynn, his next targets will be Trump top advisors Steve Miller, Steve Bannon, and Kellyanne Conway – all of whom D.C. insiders are planning must go if Priebus is to succeed in sabotaging Trump's revolutionary agenda.

Infowars has established that Priebus is the Chief Leaker in the White House, responsible for feeding the Trump-hating mainstream media that daily dominate the White House news room with "red meat," including the demeaning leak to the Washington Post that Trump is "isolated," a "clueless child," wandering about in a bathrobe (that Trump does not own), who's presiding over a "White House in disarray."

Priebus, after ensconcing himself in the seat of power as White House Chief of Staff by promising Trump that he alone could manage renegade GOP leaders in Congress – including House Speaker Ryan and Senate Majority Leader McConnell – must be made to bear the full responsibility for mismanaging the failed rollout of Trump's temporary immigration ban and for not containing the controversy over Flynn and the Russians.

But for Trump loyalists, who are sick of Priebus packing the White House with GOP establishment toadies and appointing as "acting head" agency chiefs still loyal to President Obama and Hillary Clinton, Flynn's resignation was the last straw.

Determined to sweep house in a Priebus-created White House virtually devoid of Trump supporters, Trump loyalists have declared war and are demanding Priebus' scalp.

Priebus has planted his own downfall, ignoring a commitment President-elect Trump made to former ExxonMobil CEO Rex Tillerson that Tillerson would have the final say in reviewing the finalists for the top ten ambassador nominations.

Yet, two weeks ago, Priebus violated that agreement by taking to Trump directly a list of 15 names of top GOP donors who coveted the top ambassador appointments as prizes for their contributions to Priebus and the GOP.

Priebus' downfall may well be his ill-advised attempt to advance the name of Duke Buchan on the list of losers Priebus has pushed Trump to nominate as ambassadors without so much as consulting with Secretary of State Tillerson.

According to the White House insiders, Tillerson was furious when he learned that Trump had approved Priebus' recommendations, not aware Priebus had bypassed Tillerson in the nomination process. Even worse, without Tillerson's approval, Priebus has switched on the final vetting process for the top GOP donors on his ambassador list – going so far as to assure Buchan he has Priebus' personal assurance that Buchan will be nominated as U.S. ambassador to Spain.

Once again, Priebus is setting Trump up for a fall. Just wait until Trump's numerous mainstream media enemies – who are still dominating the White House press room – and congressional Democrats realize Buchan is a failed hedge fund manager and serial tax evader who owned a company that was part of a lending syndicate Trump sued (Infowars, Jerome R. Corsi, Feb.15, 2017).

"Deep State" Wages War on Trump Presidency

It was inevitable that Trump would run up against some of those elements of the deep state firmly entrenched in government. When he reached out to shut down government employees from tweeting against him, they had a fit. When he instructed them to stop promoting the Climate Change agenda, they threatened to quit, and ran to the media to complain.

About 100 statist employees and ambassadors within the State Department refused to serve under Trump or Tillerson, his choice for Secretary of State. Administration bureaucrats announced to the media that Trump would honor Obama's last minute promise to Australia to bring thousands of Muslim refugees from an Australian island to the USA. Apparently no one consulted Trump who balked.

But the biggest threat has come from those within the Defense department and CIA that are still supplying Syrian terrorists with weapons, hoping that Trump won't stop them.

The federal government is a massive operation and the dark side of government is counting on the fact that Trump can't possibly find out about or inhibit even a portion of their secret operations. They are right, especially since

Trump doesn't know the extent of how deeply the globalist conspiracy controls the dark side of virtually all government agencies-what is now commonly referred to as the "Deep State."

I'm not saying that Trump has successfully countered much yet, but the fact that he held his ground against several major attacks from within government over his refugee order this week gives me hope that as he finds things out, he may act to stop them. Remember, this is the big reason the PTB [Powers That Be] didn't want Romney in the White House, even though he bent over backward to accept almost every CFR-globalist position his advisors gave him. They knew that a President would see a lot of secret operations and policies at work and might interfere, object or (horrors) ask for an explanation about who authorized it (Joel M. Skousen's World Affairs Brief, Feb.3, 2017).

Obama Scheming to Sabotage Trump's Presidency

When former President Barack Obama said he was "heartened" by anti-Trump protests, he was sending a message of approval to his troops. Troops? Yes, Obama has an army of agitators — numbering more than 30,000 — who will fight his Republican successor at every turn of his historic presidency. And Obama will command them from a bunker less than two miles from the White House.

In what's shaping up to be a highly unusual post-presidency, Obama isn't just staying behind in Washington. He's working behind the scenes to set up what will effectively be a shadow government to not only protect his threatened legacy, but to sabotage the incoming administration and its popular "America First" agenda.

He's doing it through a network of leftist nonprofits led by Organizing for Action [OFA]. Normally you'd expect an organization set up to support a politician and his agenda to close up shop after that candidate leaves office, but not Obama's OFA. Rather, it's gearing up for battle, with a growing war chest and more than 250 offices across the country.

Since Donald Trump's election, this little-known but well-funded protesting arm has beefed up staff and ramped up recruitment of young liberal activists, declaring on its website, "We're not backing down." Determined to salvage Obama's legacy, it's drawing battle lines on immigration, ObamaCare, race relations and climate change.

Obama is intimately involved in OFA operations and even tweets from the group's account. In fact, he gave marching orders to OFA foot soldiers following Trump's upset victory.

"It is fine for everybody to feel stressed, sad, discouraged," he said in a conference call from the White House. "But get over it." He demanded they "move forward to protect what we've accomplished."

"Now is the time for some organizing," he said. "So don't mope."

Far from sulking, OFA activists helped organize anti-Trump marches across US cities, some of which turned into riots. After Trump issued a temporary ban on immigration from seven terror-prone Muslim nations, the demonstrators jammed airports, chanting: "No ban, no wall, sanctuary for all!"

Run by old Obama aides and campaign workers, federal tax records show "nonpartisan" OFA marshals 32,525 volunteers nationwide. Registered as a 501©(4), it doesn't have to disclose its donors, but they've been generous. OFA has raised more than $40 million in contributions and grants since evolving from Obama's campaign organization Obama for America in 2013.

OFA, in IRS filings, says it trains young activists to develop "organizing skills." Armed with Obama's 2012 campaign database, OFA plans to get out the vote for Democratic candidates it's grooming to win back Congress and erect a wall of resistance to Trump at the other end of Pennsylvania Avenue.

It will be aided in that effort by the Obama Foundation, run by Obama's former political director, and the National Democratic Redistricting Committee, launched last month by Obama pal Eric Holder to end what he and Obama call GOP "gerrymandering" of congressional districts.

Obama will be overseeing it all from a shadow White House located within two miles of Trump. It features a mansion, which he's fortifying with construction of a tall brick perimeter, and a nearby taxpayer-funded office with his own chief of staff and press secretary. Michelle Obama will also open an office there, along with the Obama Foundation.

The 55-year-old Obama is not content to go quietly into the night like other ex-presidents (Paul Sperry, New York Post, Feb.11, 2017).

Trump and the Third Temple

The Jewish Temple Mount movement are excited over the recent election of Donald Trump. They know very well that rebuilding the Jewish temple in today's world would be a dangerous and politically incorrect task.

In their view, if there is any modern political leader with the guts and determination to stand behind such a project, it could be President Trump.

Biblically, many Christians affirm that the Jewish temple will be rebuilt at some point in the End Times.

Could President Trump's strong pro-Israel stand be the game changer which could help lay the groundwork? What role would President Putin play in the mix?

The Cyrus Mandate

A number of Christian leaders have been comparing Trump to the Biblical King Cyrus. They point out that King Cyrus was a leader called and appointed by God.

Despite the fact that this Persian King did not know the God of Israel, God appointed him by name with the mandate to fulfil God's divine purposes concerning the nation of Israel.

President Trump, like King Cyrus, appears an unlikely champion for God's purposes. Despite the controversies swirling around him, Trump has though already taken action to re-align America with important Biblical values (such as pro-life) as well as making an unusually firm stand alongside the nation of Israel.

While several Christian bible teachers have pointed out similarities with Cyrus, few have raised the point that a primary part of Cyrus' divine calling was to order the rebuilding of the Temple in Jerusalem (Isaiah 44:28, Ezra 1:2).

If President Trump really has a similar calling to King Cyrus, could it be that God would use this real estate developer turned President to facilitate the greatest property development of modern time – the rebuilding of the Temple?

A Letter from the Sanhedrin

Key figures in Israel's Temple Mount movement certainly are optimistic that Trump's victory could be the catalyst needed to bring their dream to reality.

Within days of the election victory, long time Temple Mount advocate and now prominent member of the Israeli Knesset Rabbi Yehudah Glick, issued a public call inviting Trump to visit the Temple Mount.

This call was followed days later by an open letter from the re-convened Jewish Sanhedrin. The open letter addressed BOTH Russian President Putin and the new US President Trump – asking them both to fulfill the Cyrus mandate of enabling the rebuilding of the Temple.

Rabbi Hillel Weiss, who serves as spokesman for the Sanhedrin, explained that Donald Trump's rise to power had 'made the eternal Jewish dream a very real possibility.'

Trump's strong stand in support of the Jewish claim to Jerusalem and the West Bank (Biblically known as Judea and Samaria) has led to the Sanhedrin to the belief that he could also support full Israeli rights to the Temple Mount.

Compared to President Trump, Russian President Vladimir Putin might seem like an even more unlikely Cyrus. Many would instead view him as a potential 'Gog' – one of Israel's great End Time enemies.

The Sanhedrin however are basing their letter to Putin on unverified positive reports concerning Putin's attitude to the Temple Mount. Visiting the Western Wall in 2012, Putin allegedly disclosed that he was personally praying for the rebuilding of the Temple.

On this basis, the Sanhedrin decided to write to both Putin and Trump – inviting them both to fulfil the Cyrus mandate.

The optimism of the Sanhedrin is palpable. Rabbi Weiss explains: "We are poised to rebuild the Temple.

The political conditions today, in which the two most important national leaders in the world support the Jewish right to Jerusalem as their spiritual inheritance, is historically unprecedented".

Cyrus or the Anti-Christ

While the Sanhedrin is looking for a Cyrus type figure to arise to help support the building of the Third Temple, many Christians tend to link the rebuilding of the Temple not with a Cyrus but rather with the anti-Christ himself.

The Scriptures appear clear that the coming anti-Christ will defile the temple, but we shouldn't necessarily equate foreign leaders who facilitate the rebuilding with the coming anti-Christ.

In his day, King Cyrus helped build a temple in Jerusalem at divine instruction, which was later defiled by Antiochus and then frequented by Jesus the Messiah.

Could it be that God will likewise in the End Times raise up a new Cyrus figure that will help facilitate the rebuilding of the temple – which will later be defiled before the Messiah finally returns to take His rightful place in the Temple?

Trump's got the numbers

Jewish leaders have pointed out that the gematria (numerical value) of Donald Trump's name equals that of the phrase 'Meshiach Ben David' (Messiah, Son of David). These same rabbis are quick to point out that they do not believe that Trump is the Messiah (just as well!).

They view the gematria of Trump's name as an indication of him playing a role in the 'redemptive process' – a role in preparing the conditions for the Messiah's arrival. What could prepare the way for the Messiah more than the rebuilding of the Temple?

It is interesting in this context to also consider Michael Snyder's calculations that Trump was born 700 days before Israel became a nation, won the election on Prime Minister Netanyahu's 7th year, 7th month and 7th day in office, and served his first full day in the White House at the age of 70 years, 7 months and 7 days old.

While we should be careful of reading too much into these numbers, it would seem that God Himself has had His hand on the unusual rise of Donald Trump and if so would have a particular purpose for his presidency.

Could these Jewish leaders be right that Trump could have a Cyrus call on his life?

Summary

There is great excitement within the Temple Movement in Israel that the time might be drawing near for the long desired rebuilding of the House of God.

While the Sanhedrin is obviously excited about the rise of Trump and rumours of Putin being supportive, it is still early days, and we have no definite statements from either leader to support these assumptions.

As believers we should none-the-less be watching these developments, praying for God's prophesied purposes to be accomplished, and checking our own spiritual lives to make sure that we are ready to meet the soon coming King (Enoch Lavendar, Prophecy News Watch, Feb.13, 2017).

We Must Start Building Third Temple Today, Say Temple Experts

Using rabbinic methodology, Rabbi Richman said that it is a Biblical commandment to build a Temple, as clearly stated in the Bible.

"Thus saith Hashem of hosts: Let your hands be strong ye that hear in these days these words from the mouth of the Neviim that were in the day that the foundation of the house of Hashem of hosts was laid even the temple that it might be built." Zechariah 8:9 (The Israel Bible)

A recent video from the Temple Institute concluded unequivocally that the Third Temple will not simply descend from Heaven, begging the question ‘Why don’t Jews begin building today?’ The man in charge of organizing the Third Temple construction thinks he knows what it will take to jump-start the process.

Last week, the Temple Institute released the second video in their “Holy Temple Mythbusters” series, titled “Falling from Heaven”. Rabbi Chaim Richman, the institute’s international director, opened the video with the question, “The Bet Hamikdash (Temple) is supposed to come down from heaven: true or false?”

Using rabbinic methodology, Rabbi Richman said that it is a Biblical commandment to build a Temple, as clearly stated in the Bible: “And let them make Me a sanctuary, that I may dwell among them.” (Exodus 25:8).

Like any other commandment, it is incumbent upon the Jews to perform it themselves, and not to wait for God to perform it for them.

Rabbi Richman’s conclusion is a challenge to those who maintain that the Third Temple will descend from Heaven, but it is a strong vote of confidence for those who advocate Jews move forward in this endeavor. As the chairman of the Temple Movement, Yaakov Hayman, is organizing the controversial effort towards building the Third Temple.

By profession, Hayman manages building projects. This is the practical way he perceives the Third Temple: a construction project accomplished in stages. He described the conflict between the two opinions, the Temple coming down from heaven versus man-initiated construction, as evolution versus revolution. “I don’t believe the Temple will suddenly appear,” Hayman told Breaking Israel News. “It needs to be a steady evolutionary process.”

Hayman believes the first stage in that process is within reach. “What we need now is for more Jews to go up to the Temple Mount,” Hayman urged. “When that happens, when thousands of Jews start going up to the Mount every day like what happens at the Kotel (Western Wall), prayer will just naturally happen. No one can stop that. It is a natural evolution from where we are now to where we need to be to build the Temple.”

Both Rabbi Richman and Hayman believe in man-initiated construction, but with God playing an integral part in the process. Rabbi Richman cited the Prophet Zechariah, who stated that God himself will remedy the destruction of the Second Temple by building the Temple with fire.

“For I saith Hashem will be unto her a wall of fire round about and I will be the glory in the midst of her.” (Zechariah 2:9).

Rabbi Richman understands this to mean that God will be a part of the process, but it in no way exempts man from taking a proactive role. To illustrate his point, Rabbi Richman gave a powerful example of man’s action bringing about the divine will. In 1967, Israel faced a vastly superior collection of enemy forces bent on destroying the Jewish State – and defeated them. Rabbi Richman described this miraculous victory as analogous to God sending down fire to light the wood on the altar in the Temple.

“Just as the fire of destruction was man-made but divinely sanctioned, so too the fire of rebuilding could be manifest in the very human but divinely sanctioned ‘fire’ of the artillery of the 1967 Six-Day War.” Rabbi Richman cited this as a major principle of the Torah. “Hashem’s blessings come about when first we do our part.”

When applied to the Third Temple, Rabbi Richman sees it as any other Torah commandment incumbent upon the Jews. “First Israel must fulfill God’s commandment and build it themselves, and only afterward, God brings about the final spiritual touches onto the structure that they have created with their own hands, with the resting of the shechina (God’s presence),” Rabbi Richman concluded. (Breaking Israel News, Adam Eliyahu Berkowitz, February 13, 2017).

COMMENT: Suddenly, with the election of Donald Trump as president of the United States, and his excellent relationship with the state of Israel, it appears that the way has been blazed, by the working of Almighty God, for the Jewish Temple to once again to rebuilt. Truly we are living in exciting, nerve-tingling, mind-boggling times! This is one of the final cornerstones which must be accomplished before the coming of the Messiah!

5777, the Hallelujah Psalms and the Seven Last Years

What is the real significance of the present year 2017, which is the Hebrew year 5777? Does it have a unique, spiritual meaning in terms of Biblical prophecy and the end of this age? How does it tie in with the Trump presidency, and the changes coming in the world? What does it mean to your life? And to God's people and their witness and work as God's watchmen?

William F. Dankenbring

This year is the Jewish New Year 5777 and began at sunset on October 2 of 2016. It is unique and quite rare for there to be three sevens in the same year, as these three sevens will not be repeated for a thousand years from now (6,777).

The Biblical number 7 is linked to “completion” and is considered the highest sacred number in the Scripture. In Hebrew, each letter of the alphabet has a specific numerical value. The Hebrew alphabetical letter represented by the number seven, is called Zayin. It is noted by rabbinical sources, that this Hebrew letter Zayin, in both meaning and in its form, has three possible meanings concealed in the year 5,777.

First, the letter alludes to the “return of light” or exposing in the light what is concealed in the darkness. For example, a U.S. Senator from Utah said on Fox News, “We are going to shine the light on this corruption in Washington.” This is the allusion to one meaning of this letter.

A second interpretation related with Zayin [ז] is that the letter is in the form of a “sword,” implying that a battle or a war of some type may loom over this year, 5,777, which is parallel to the Gregorian year 2017. Oddly, the letter Zayin is one of the final Hebrew letters that when used as a final form in a sentence has a decorative crown that scribes create on the top of the letter, forming a crown on the head of the letter. The rabbinical interpretation is that it can represent the “crowning of a man.”

Does this pattern reveal that there is a strange Providence behind the rise of Donald Trump, perhaps in the same manner of Nebuchadnezzar and Cyrus the King of Persia, who both fulfilled specific prophecies for their time that was linked with Israel and the Jews?

Donald Trump is the first Presidential candidate that said he will "officially" recognize Jerusalem as the capital of Israel. It is amazing to see someone that is not afraid to be politically incorrect, and buck a totally corrupt system. Is his rise to this point prophetic?

Is Donald Trump a Cyrus or Nebuchadnezzar?

Here are some interesting facts. President-elect Donald John Trump was 70 years, 7 months, and 7 days old on his first day of office. What are the chances of that happening on the Hebraic year of 5777?

Curt Landry, a Messianic rabbi who works to reconcile Jew and Gentile, recently shared some facts related to the 2016 presidential election that defy random chance.

For instance, 2017 is the Hebraic Year 5777—a year he says correlates to grace and perfection. And on Jan. 20, 2017, the first day Donald Trump takes office as the 45th President of the United States, he will be 70 years, 7 months and 7 days old.

Trump will also be the 45th president of the United States. And in the Bible, Isaiah 45 tells about Cyrus, who was instrumental in rebuilding the temple in Jerusalem.

Evangelical writer Lance Wallnau declared in a blog on his website, “Something struck me about the significance of this new year, 5777. There are three ‘7’s in this Jewish new year. Interestingly, the number ‘7’ in Hebrew is the letter ‘zayin’ which represents both the number ‘7’ and the word ‘sword.’”

“What we are looking at in 5777 is, ‘The year of supernatural grace (5) to engage the clashing of swords (7).’

“The clashing of heaven and hell will show up in the conflict of ideologies. This collision of kingdoms has already started.”

In other words, the world is entering a devastating period of WAR and clashing of swords! Ideologies are warring, and millions of people are being manipulated through media mind control: sound bites, talking heads, and an onslaught of progressive liberal ideologies baked into our entertainment.

5777 is the year of the clashing of swords! However, “Zayin” means more than just “sword” or “weapon.” It also connects with a modern Hebrew word “mazon,” meaning “food” or “sustenance,” and “nourishment,” both coming from the same root as Zayin.

Today, God’s people are taking on giants just like the children of Israel did when they entered the Promised Land around 1332 B.C., in the days of Moses and Joshua.

As God’s people, we should remember what Caleb said in Numbers 14:9, “Do not rebel against the Lord, nor fear the people of the land, for they are our bread; their protection has departed from them, and the Lord is with us. Do not fear them.”

Caleb saw the giants in the land not as obstacles but as bread. Similarly, the world is full of evil “giants,” today – left-wing enemies of the people, including Communists, Fascists, Republicans and Democrats. But God tell His people they shall be as “bread” for us – He will lead us to spiritual victory over them!

In this new year, 5777, God will open up His word to you and reveal a “sword” in the scripture! As Christians, we must prepare for spiritual warfare!

5777 is the year of spiritual warfare. Jesus Christ declared to His disciples in words meant for all of us, “From the days of John the Baptist until now, they are pressing into the Realm of heaven – these eager souls are storming it!” (Matt.11:12, Moffat Translation).

We are in a spiritual war. The apostle John warns us, “Do not love the world or the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world – the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life – is not of the Father, but is of the world. And the world is passing away, and the lust of it; but he who does the will of God abides forever” (I John 2:15-17).

Adam and Eve were ignorant of Satan’s tactics. They were blindsided in his relentless attack. He deceived Eve and persuaded her to go contrary to God’s commands. She ate the forbidden fruit, and gave also it Adam, and “then the eyes of both of them were opened, and they knew that they were naked” (Gen.3:7). They knew they had transgressed God’s commandment – and felt deep shame and fear. And then, as if it were immediately, “They heard the sound of the LORD God walking in the garden in the cool of the day, and Adam and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the LORD God among the trees of the garden” (verse 8).

They “knew” they had sinned. They knew they were guilty. They had failed the “test.” They had been tricked, and defeated by the devil. Now they had new ‘INSIGHT’ as to their spiritual condition, and were afraid, hiding themselves, from fear of punishment – even death (Gen.2:17).

Even so, the year 5777 is a year of testing and trial. It is a year of spiritual warfare. Are you ready to do spiritual battle?

Conquering the Enemy

To conquer sin, and its impulses and drives, we must stay focused on the Word and Commandments of God. That is why God commands us to keep His law and says they would be “as a sign on your hand, and they shall be as frontlets between your eyes” (Deut.6:8).

Or as David said, ‘My eyes are ever toward the LORD’ (Psalm 25:15). And as the Psalmist also said, “Behold, as the eye of servants look to the hand of their masters, as the eyes of a maid to the hand of her mistress, so our eyes look to the LORD our God, until He has mercy on us!” (Psalm 123:2). And David said, “But my eyes are upon You, O GOD the Lord; in You I take refuge” (Psalm 141:8).

The mitzvah of wearing fringes in our garments, as God commanded, teaches His great love for us, His people, for they constitute a safeguard against outer temptation by making the eye a vehicle through which we can constantly be reminded of His commandments and statutes, “that you may look upon it, and remember all the commandments of the LORD and do them, and that you may not follow the harlotry to which your own heart and own eyes are inclined, and that you may remember and do all My commandments, and be holy for your God” (Numbers 15:39-40).

When problems in the future surround us, and seem to be overwhelming, then we need to do what King Jehoshaphat did. He “feared, and set himself to seek the LORD, and proclaimed a fast throughout all Judah.” And he laid the problem before God, and prayed earnestly, saying, “O our God, will You not judge them? For we have no power against this great multitude that is coming against us; nor do we know what to do, but our eyes are upon You” (II Chron.20:12).

And God’s Word came to them, through the voice of Jahaziel the son of Zechariah, “Thus says the LORD to you: Do not be afraid nor dismayed because of this great multitude, for the battle is not yours, but God’s” (verse 15).

God says, “Keep my commands and live, and my law as the apple of your eye. Bind them on your fingers, write them on the tablet of your heart” (Prov.7:2-3).

Lamech and the Flood

As we look at the first 10 generations we see a prophetic pattern being laid out. The pre-Flood genealogy consisted of the generations of Adam, Seth, Enosh, Kenan, Mahalalel, Jared, Enoch, Methuselah, Lamech, and finally Noah.

But let us take a look at Lamech, the father of Noah.

The Bible tells us Lamech lived to be 777 years old (Genesis 5:31). Historians tell us that 5 years later came the flood (7 7 7 5).

The name Lamech means to be low, to be humiliated.

Since this is the year 5777, does this suggest that 5 years after 5777 the world will once again experience another Judgment, like the Flood? Will the wrath of God be poured out on mankind beginning in 2022?

If so, then the present year 5777 is a turning point – a year of great prophetic significance!

The Shemitah Command

In Leviticus chapter 25 we read: “And the LORD spoke to Moses on Mount Sinai, saying, ‘Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them: ‘When you come into the land which I give you, then the land shall keep a sabbath to the LORD. Six years you shall sow your field, and six years you shall prune your vineyard, and gather its fruit; but in the seventh year there shall be a sabbath of solemn rest for the land, a sabbath to the LORD. You shall neither sow your field nor prune your vineyard. What grows of its own accord of your harvest you shall not reap, nor gather the grapes of your untended vine, for it is a year of rest for the land. And the Sabbath produce of the land shall be food for you: for you, your male and female servants, your hired man, and the stranger who dwells with you, for your livestock and the beasts that are in your land—all its produce shall be for food” (Lev.25:1-7).

Jonathan Cahn in his sequel to the book, The Harbinger, points out in The Mystery of the Shemitah, a shocking discovery that the five great economic crashes of the last 40 years—1973, 1980, 1987, 2001 and 2008 – have all occurred in Shemitah years (every seventh year) –those God set apart as Sabbath years (years of rest for the land).

Cahn pointed out in The Harbinger, in 2001 (Twin Towers/economic crash) and 2008 (Wall Street crash) both coincided precisely with the exact end of the Shemitah year on the Hebrew calendar day of Elul 29). This is the day before Tishri 1 which is the beginning of the calendar of the new Hebrew year (the fall to fall reckoning). What did all this mean?

Cahn summed up his message by saying, “America is progressing toward God’s judgment.” According to the Bible, the Shemitah year was set aside as a blessing for the nation of Israel. It was to be set aside as a rest for the land with no sowing or reaping. Instead, God would provide food miraculously for the people, as he did during the Exodus from Egypt.

“However, Cahn points out, if the Shemitah was not observed by the people, it would become a curse, as described later in Leviticus chapter 25.

The Shemitah Warnings

It is interesting that in 1993-94 – a Shemitah year – the Oslo Peace Accords signed by Yitzhak Rabin of Israel and Yasser Arafat of the Palestinians on the White House lawn. This could be referred to as the “Beginning of Jacob’s Trouble.”

The Oslo Agreement, also known as the Oslo Accords, is an agreement signed between the State of Israel’s Prime Minister Yitzhak Rabin and PLO Chairman Yasser Arafat representing both sides and US President Bill Clinton serving as their witness. The accords, representing a milestone in Israeli-Palestinian relations, were finalized in Oslo, Norway, on August 20, 1993. The official signing ceremony was held in Washington the following September, with then-Israeli Prime Minister Yitzak Rabin and PLO Chairman Arafat. This occurred on a Shemitah year.

In 2000-2001—another Shemitah year – America’s economy collapsed, following the attack on the Twin Trade Towers, Sept.11, 2001. This was another year of horror and infamy, with the greatest attack on America since Pearl Harbor in 1941.

Then in 2007-2008 – another Shemitah year – a second financial, Stock Market collapse occurred, which was much worse.

The financial crisis of 2007–2008, also known as the Global Financial Crisis and 2008 financial crisis, is considered by many economists to have been the worst financial crisis since the Great Depression of the 1930s. It resulted in the threat of total collapse of large financial institutions, the bailout of banks by national governments, and downturns in stock markets around the world.

In the year 2014-2015 another Shemitah cycle concluded in September of 2015. The year 2016 would have been a Jubilee year, from September 2015 to September 2016. The year 2017 is 50 years after the miraculous Six Day War of 1967 when the nation of Israel defeated the surrounding Arab nations and regained the West Bank from Jordan, the Golan Heights from Syria, and the Old City of Jerusalem.

The fact that such a Biblically significant Year (5777) is following not just a Shemitah, but a year that could be considered a Jubilee year, and itself was 50 years after 1967, a very auspicious year, the year the Jews annexed Jerusalem and the Temple Mount to Israel, could be considered as very meaningful prophetically.

5777 is the 50th Anniversary of Israel’s reunification of the Jewish State of Israel with its true capital city of Jerusalem, which occurred in 1967. But that’s not all!

The year 5777 also fulfills an astonishing 800 year old rabbinical prophecy!

Judah Ben Samuel

Judah Ben Samuel was a legendary and prolific German rabbi of the 12th century who made some astonishing and specific predictions about the future of Jerusalem and Israel that came true.

Judah Ben Samuel, also known as Judah he-Hasid (Judah the Pious), lived and worked from the end of the 12th century until the beginning of the 13th century in Regensburg, authoring a number of books in the German language.

Ludwig Schneider of Israel Today magazine has translated some of his work into English over the last few years, including "The Book of the Pious – Sefer Hasidim" and the "Book of Calculations – Sefer Gematriyot."

Following the Christian crusades to the Holy Land, between 1096-1270, a regular correspondence developed between the Jews in the Holy Land and the Christian West. Thus, for example, the rabbis in Worms and Regensburg in Germany knew that Saladin's Ayyubids had been ruling in the Holy Land since 1187.

At this time, Judah Ben Samuel published the results of his biblical calculations (Gematria) and astrological observations and summarized as follows: "When the Ottomans (Turks) – who were already a power to be reckoned with on the Bosphorus in the time of Judah Ben Samuel – conquer Jerusalem they will rule over Jerusalem for eight jubilees. Afterwards Jerusalem will become no-man's land for one jubilee, and then in the ninth jubilee it will once again come back into the possession of the Jewish nation – which would signify the beginning of the Messianic end time."

One jubilee is 50 years (Leviticus 25). It is the 50th year after seven times seven years, the year in which each person should regain ownership of his or her land. Ben Samuel's calculations were purely theoretical; there was absolutely no sign at that time of their being fulfilled. He himself was not able to experience their fulfillment, for it was only 300 years after his death that the first of his predictions were to come true.

The Mamluks, who had been reigning in Jerusalem since 1250, were conquered in 1517 by the Ottoman Turks. They remained for eight jubilees ( $8 \times 50 = 400$  years), that is to say they were in Jerusalem for 400 years. Exactly 400 years later, in 1917, the Ottoman Turks were conquered by the British. The League of Nations conferred the Mandate for the Holy Land and Jerusalem to the British. Thus, from 1917, under international law, Jerusalem was no-man's land. Then, when Israel captured Jerusalem in the Six Day War of 1967, exactly one jubilee (50 years) after 1917, Jerusalem reverted to Jewish-Israeli ownership once again. Thereby, according to the prophecies of Judah Ben Samuel, the Messianic End Times began.

Ben Samuel was often called "Light of Israel." Even bishops came to him for advice. If anyone asked him where his wisdom came from he would answer, "The prophet Elijah, who will precede the Messiah, appeared to me and revealed many things to me and emphasized that the precondition for answered prayer is that it is fueled by enthusiasm and joy for the greatness and holiness of God."

But to recap the astonishing predictions: In AD 1217 this scholarly and pious rabbi prophesied that the Ottoman Turks would rule over the holy city of Jerusalem for eight Jubilees. Now, keep in mind, he made this prediction 300 years before the Ottoman Turks seized control of Jerusalem in 1517. If indeed 1217 and 1517 were jubilee years as Judah Ben Samuel believed, then his prophecy was exactly right, because exactly 400 years after the Turks took control of Jerusalem they were driven out of the city and the holy land in 1917 by the Allied forces under the command of General Edmund Allenby – on Hanukkah, by the way.

The rabbi also prophesied that during the ninth Jubilee Jerusalem would be a "no-man's land." This is exactly what happened from 1917 to 1967, due to the fact that the Holy Land was placed under British Mandate in 1917 by the League of Nations and literally “belonged” to no nation.

Even after Israel's war of independence in 1948-49, Jerusalem was still divided by a strip of land running right through the heart of the city, with Jordan controlling the eastern part of the city and Israel controlling the western part of the city. That strip of land was considered and even called “no-man's land” by both the Israelis and the Jordanians.

It was not until the Six Day War in 1967 when the entire West Bank of the Holy Land was conquered by the Israeli army that the whole city of Jerusalem passed back into the possession of Israel. So once again the prophecy made by the rabbi 750 years previously was fulfilled to the letter.

It certainly would be significant if both 1917 and 1967 were Jubilee years, considering the significance of what happened in Jerusalem on those years. But it gets even more interesting, because Judah Ben Samuel also prophesied that during the 10th Jubilee Jerusalem would be under the control of the Jews and the Messianic “end times” would begin. If he's right, the 10th Jubilee began in 1967 and will be concluded in 2017. 2017, or 5777, would be the beginning of the “Messianic end times”!

The Number 777

The number 777 is attributed to our God and Father. It is also attributed to our Lord Jesus Christ, Israel's Messiah and our Saviour. Written in Hebrew, “YHVH in the YESHUA Messiah”, gives the number 777. It is spelled:

Yod, He, Vaw, He, beth, yod, shin, vaw, ayin, he, mem, shin, yod, heth $(10+ 5+ 6+ 5+ 2+ 10+ 300+ 6+ 70+ 5+ 40+ 300+ 10+ 8 = 777)$ .

that in itself is awesome enough, but in Hebrew, “YESHUA saves”, gives 777 as well:

Yod, shin,vaw, ayin, he, vav, shin, yod, ayin
 $10+ 300+ 6+ 70+ 5+ 6+ 300+ 10+ 70 = 777$

Throughout the Bible, we see the significance of the number 7 to God. It is, by far, used by The LORD more than any other number. For instance, God rested on the 7th Day and blessed it. The Shemitah Year comes every 7 years. The Jubilee Year comes after 7 Shemitah years..

In the Book of Revelation, the Judgments all come in 3 sets of 7: Seven Seals, Seven Trumpets, Seven Vials or 7-7-7 judgments. These are just a few of the many examples.

This generation, which has already witnessed an abundance of “Last Days” Biblical signs, will only live through ONE Biblical Year which bears God’s Holy number, and that will be 5777. What a season to be alive!

Seeing the Holy “777” in this present Year, and the nearly 1,000 year old Prophecy of Rabbi Samuel of the Messiah’s Coming connected to this year, should make us be more watchful than ever before.

We are now poised for our entrance into the Kingdom of God. As it was in the days of Joshua and Caleb, as they prepared to go into the Promised Land and take the land that was their inheritance, we also are standing on the brink of the Messianic Kingdom.

Almighty God declares, “For thus says the Lord of hosts, ‘Once more in a little while, I am going to shake the heavens and the earth, the sea also and the dry land. I will shake all the nations; and they will come with the wealth of all nations, and I will fill this house with glory,’ says the Lord of hosts. ‘The silver is Mine and the gold is Mine,’ declares the Lord of hosts. ‘The latter glory of this house will be greater than the former,’ says the Lord of hosts, ‘and in this place I will give peace,’ declares the Lord of hosts” (Hag. 2:6-9).

God declares to our generation, “And it shall come to pass afterward that I will pour out My Spirit on all flesh; your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions. And also on My menservants and on My maidservants I will pour out My Spirit in those days. And I will show wonders in the heavens and in the earth: blood and fire and pillars of smoke. The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the coming of the great and awesome day of the LORD. And it shall come to pass that whoever calls on the name of the LORD shall be saved” (Joel 2:28-32).

God also says, “Arise, shine; for your light has come, and the glory of the Lord has risen upon you. For behold, darkness will cover the earth and deep darkness the peoples; But the Lord will rise upon you and His glory will appear upon you. Nations will come to your light, and kings to the brightness of your rising” (Isa.60:1-3).

The Crisis at the Close

Year 5777 then is the beginning of the “end of days of the Messianic times.” This final period of time corresponds to the “crisis at the close” spoken of by Daniel – a “time of trouble” such as has never been upon the earth in all its gory, bloody, sanguinary, cruel history (Daniel 12:1). Daniel was told, “And now, O Daniel, keep all this a closed secret and keep the book shut as a secret, till the crisis at the END; err then many shall give way and trouble shall be multiplied on earth” (Dan.12:4, Moffatt).

The revelation was to be hidden away; its meaning concealed, till the end times. Daniel, fascinated, was told, “Ask no more, Daniel, for the revelation is to be kept secret and closed, TILL THE CRISIS AT THE CLOSE. Many shall purify themselves and make themselves white and be refined, but the evil shall do evilly; none of the evil shall understand things, it is the pious who understand” (Dan.12:10, Moffatt).

5777. Five (He in Hebrew) is the number of grace and the number of government.

Seven (Zayin in Hebrew) is the number of rest; it can symbolize a sword, and it represents the finished work. I believe this year we will begin to exercise God’s authority and power in a way like we’ve never experienced before, as we enter into a closeness in Him like we have never known.

We will see the sword of the Lord go forth into all the earth, bringing down the enemy's plans just as Haman's plans came to naught and the tables were turned upon Him as Queen Esther received the favor of her king!

We are on the cusp of the greatest awakening in human history, since the time of Christ! We are on the eve of the greatest outpouring of God’s Spirit and glory that will outshine any move of God in history as we approach the coming of the Messiah Himself! We are also on the brink of worldwide conflict and war on a scale never before imagined or experienced by mankind.

Daniel’s 70 Weeks

In the book of Daniel is a fascinating prophecy for the last days. It says:

“SEVENTY WEEKS are determined upon thy people and upon thy holy city, to finish [margin, to restrain] the transgression, and to make an end [margin, to seal up] of sins, and to make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up the vision and prophecy, and to anoint the most Holy.

“Know therefore and understand, that from the going forth of the commandment to restore and rebuild Jerusalem [margin, to build again Jerusalem] unto Messiah the Prince shall be seven weeks, and threescore and two weeks: the street shall be built again, and the wall [margin, breach, or ditch], in troublous times. . . .” (Dan.9:24).

How does this apply to our time?

After the Six Day War of Israel against the Arab nations in 1967, when Israel conquered the Old City of Jerusalem, Prime Minister Menachem Begin of Israel sent a letter to President Jimmy Carter of the United States, at Camp David, Thurmont, Maryland, , saying:

17 September 1978

Dear Mr. President,

I have the honor to inform you, Mr. President, that on 28 June, 1967—Israel’s Parliament (The Knesset) promulgated and adopted a law to the effect: ‘the Government is empowered by a decree to apply the law, the jurisdiction and administration of the State to any part of Eretz Israel (land of Israel—Palestine as stated in that decree.

“On the basis of this law, the Government of Israel decreed in July 1967 that Jerusalem is one city indivisible, the Capital of the State of Israel. Sincerely, (signed) Menachem Begin.”

The decree went forth in July 1967. What does the prophecy say? “From the decree going forth to rebuild Jerusalem, shall be seven weeks . . .”

Seven weeks, of seven days each, equals 49 days all together. With a “day” equaling a year being fulfilled (see Numbers 14:34; Ezek.4:6), 49 days would equal 49 years being fulfilled.

$$\begin{array}{r} 1967 \text{ A.D.} \\ \underline{49 \text{ years}} \\ 2016 \text{ A.D.} \end{array}$$

The next year would be 2017, this very year – the year 5777 in the Hebrew calendar!

But there is yet a final “week” of years of Daniel’s prophecy.

“And he shall confirm the covenant with many for ONE WEEK: and in the midst of the WEEK he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease, and for the overspreading of abominations [margin, and upon the battlements shall be the idols of the desolater], he shall make it desolate, even until the consumation, and that determined shall be poured upon the desolate [margin, desolater]” (Dan.9:27).

The last seven days or final week of Daniel’s 70 weeks prophecy refer to the final seven years of this present age, which culminate in the return of the Messiah. This final week could begin with 2017 and extend another seven years or one prophetic “week” – counting from 2018 to 2024.

In the end of this amazing prophecy of Daniel, we read that a wicked leader arises, and he will “confirm the covenant with many for one week; and in the MIDST of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease” (v.27).

What is this strange-sounding “covenant”? The Hebrew word berith literally means “a cutting,” or a “compact, league, confederacy, treaty.” Could that refer to the notorious Iran nuclear agreement between the United States, the European Union, Russia and the United Nations with the rogue nation of Iran?

Notice carefully! The word “confirm” in this passage is Strong’s #1396, the Hebrew word gabar, a primitive root meaning “to be strong,” that is, “by implication, to prevail, act insolently: -- exceed, confirm, be great, be mighty, prevail, put to more (strength), strengthen, be stronger, be valiant.”

“And in the MIDST of the Week”

Daniel goes on to say, “And in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease, and for the overspreading of abominations he shall make it desolate . . .” The “midst” of the final week would evidently be the year 2020-2021.

In the passage just quoted, the subject of the entire passage, from Daniel 9:24 to verse 27, is the whole period of 70 WEEKS. The final week, then, must refer to the seven years (last week of days) leading up to the climax of the SECOND coming of the Messiah to inaugurate the Millennial rule of God upon the earth!

Therefore, when the passage states, “In the MIDST OF THE WEEK he shall cause sacrifice and oblation to cease,” this would be a clear reference to the FINAL WEEK OF THE PROPHECY!

Is this final week of prophecy, before the coming of the Messiah, alluded to in the prophetic Psalms?

The Hallelujah Psalms

Interestingly, Psalms 111-113 and Psalms 115-117 are called the “Hallelujah Psalms.” In the middle of the group is Psalm 114, which tells about the amazing miracles which accompanied the Exodus of ancient Israel out of Egyptian slavery. There is a great mystery, here. What is the reason for this seemingly parenthetical insertion of Psalm 114, which speaks of the Exodus in the days of ancient Egypt?

Furthermore, Psalm 118 was included with Psalms 114-117 as the Egyptian Hallel, which was used during the Feasts of Passover, Pentecost, Tabernacles, and Dedication. At Passover, the first portion was sung before the feast and the Egyptian Hallel was sung after the last cup. In Scofield’s note on Psalm 110, the Psalm of the King-Priest, he refers to Psalm 118 also as the last Messianic Psalm.

Let’s notice carefully these Psalms.

1. Psalm 110, which affirms the Deity of Christ and looks forward to the conversion of Israel and judgment on the Gentile powers, states: “He shall fill the places with dead bodies” (v. 6). This Psalm introduces the Messiah, and His return to rule the world. It is like an introductory Psalm to the following seven. Perhaps it pictures the Hebrew year 5777, or 2017 – this very year, setting the stage for Daniel’s seventieth week, which follows!

2. Next comes a group of seven Psalms (111-117) picturing the next seven years of Daniel’s prophecy, leading up to the coming of the Messiah! The Psalm in the middle, Psalm 114, is about the Jews fleeing, waters parting, and the earth trembling, in the days of the Exodus. Could it also refer not just to the Exodus from Egypt, but also to a future time when Jews will flee after the abomination of desolation?

3. After these seven chapters, we come to Psalm 118, which is the culmination of the Egyptian Hallel, which is sung after the last cup of the Passover Feast every year in Jewish households. Psalm 118 is the last Messianic Psalm: It says, “The nations compassed me about” (v. 10). It pictures Israel surrounded by the nations of the world and being attacked, but when all appears lost the Lord intervenes. The Psalmist declares, “The Lord has become my salvation” (v. 14). “The stone which the builders refused is become the head of the corner” (v. 22). “This is the Lord’s doing” (v. 23). “This is the day which the Lord hath made” (v. 24). “Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord” (v. 26). Clearly this Psalm pictures the returning Christ, the Messiah, intervening and delivering His people from their attacking enemies!

Interestingly, Psalms 111, 112, begin with “Hallelujah,” Psalm 113 both begins and ends with “Hallelujah,” while Psalms 115, 116, and 117 close with “Hallelujah.” This makes SEVEN “Hallelujahs”! This reflects the mirror design of the Temple lampstand called the “Menorah” – the seven branch golden lampstand built at Mount Sinai. In the Menorah, the three eastern lamps were turned toward the center lamp, while the three western lamps (in a mirror design) were also turned toward the center lamp.

Psalms 111-113

Psalm 111 opens with the Jews praising God in the “assembly of the upright and the congregation.” Could this be a reference to a place on the Temple Mount and the Jews restoring Temple worship in a new Temple of God? Could this refer to the year 2018 and worship being allowed to the Jews on the Temple Mount in Jerusalem? The Psalm goes on to show the glory and works of God, His grace and compassion. Could this picture the signature events of the year 2018?

Psalm 112 opens with the people of God being blessed who delight in His commandments (v.1-5). They will never be shaken or afraid of evil tidings or bad news (v.6-8). Could this depict a time of blessing and prosperity for God’s people, with the Temple worship being restored on the Temple Mount? Could this picture the major events of the year 2019?

Psalm 113 opens with praises for the Lord’s kindness toward Israel. “Who is like the LORD our God who dwells on high?” (v.5). “He grants the barren woman a home, like a joyful mother of children” (v. 9). Rabbis have said that the “barren woman” represents the whole house of Israel, finally being blessed abundantly with “children,” with many returning to Israel to rebuild the nation and worship at the Temple. Could this picture the year 2020? This Psalm both begins and ends with “Hallelujah”!

But then Psalm 114 opens with Israel's Exodus out of Egypt. It speaks of God's people fleeing to safety amidst great havoc and chaos and destruction in the world, with volcanic episodes and great cataclysm. Mountains flowing down, seas fleeing, great earthquakes. Could this also picture the time when everything begins to go seriously wrong, with signs in the earth and heavens, and great calamity among the nations, and the beginning of the Great Tribulation?

This would be the next year, year 2021. Could it be the year when God's people flee to a place of safety, when the Antichrist at the head of the New World Order attacks Israel, invades the Temple of God, and commits the “abomination of desolation” by rearing up an “idol” in the new Temple of God, a statue of himself, just an Antiochus Epiphanes did in 167 B.C.! This would be in the middle of the final seven weeks, the time Daniel referred to as “in the midst of the week.”

This point would be the very beginning of the Great Tribulation that Christ warned about in the Mount Olivet prophecy. The Jews in Israel who take warning will flee to the wilderness again to escape calamity and invasion (see the sequence of events spelled out in Matt.24:18-22).

Psalms 115-117

Psalm 115 then opens with the whole Gentile world gloating, saying, “So where is their God?” (v.2). Great Tribulation will reign. Global suffering will be at an all time high. Israel will be crushed. But God is still alive, and His people will trust in Him (vs.9-13), and He will bless those who fear Him, both small and great. This would picture the year 2022.

It seems that the world rejoices over the calamity that has befallen the Jews. The Islamic world is delighted to get the Jews off their mountain. The Antichrist by this time has taken over the Jewish Temple for himself. He sits in the Temple claiming to be a god (II Thess.2:4-12). Verses 4-8 of the Psalm seem to be a lament over the image of the beast or idol that has been set up by the Antichrist – it has no power, cannot hear, speak, or even walk!. It has a mouth but cannot speak (v. 5); eyes but cannot see (v. 5); ears but cannot hear (v. 6).

Psalm 116 pictures the profound depth of the Great Tribulation, when all seems hopeless and trouble and sorrow are everywhere (vs.3-4). The Psalmist declares that God's people are suffering “the sorrows of death” and the “pains of hell” (v. 3). Israel will cry out, “I am greatly afflicted”(v.10). But yet Israel will not lose hope. The Psalmist declares, “For You have delivered my soul from death, my eyes from tears, and my feet from falling” (v.8). “I will take up the cup of salvation, and call upon the name of the LORD” (v.13). This would picture, perhaps, year 2023 and the dire extremity of the Great Tribulation!

Psalm 117 has only two verses. It is the shortest chapter as well as the middle chapter of the Bible.

Does this picture “time” being “cut short” – the days being “shortened” – before and hastening the coming of the Lord? It pictures the final year – year “seven” of the final seven years of Daniel’s 70 weeks prophecy, leading up to the return of the Messiah! This short Psalm signifies that God will indeed “cut short” the time of the end, before all human life is obliterated from the face of the planet earth! Christ declared, “And unless those days were shortened, no flesh would be saved; but for the elect’s sake, those days will be shortened” (Matt.24:22).

Psalms 118 is the last Messianic psalm. This psalm paints a picture of the coming of the Messiah, Jesus Christ, to fight against the nations who attack Jerusalem and surround God’s people and whose armies strike from the north. They gather in a place called “Armageddon” and rush toward Jerusalem, gathering in the valley of Jehoshaphat, on the eastern flank of the holy city, marshalling together with fury and raging with hatred for the Jews. But God will intervene, and halt their folly, and Christ will return from heaven with millions of angels to destroy the gathering armies. Their blood will flow down the valley all the way to the Red Sea, through the desert to Aqaba, a distance of 140 miles, as deep as a horse’s bridles.

Notice Matthew 23:39 and Luke 13:35 where Jesus told the Pharisees that He would not return until He heard them say, “Blessed is He that cometh in the name of the Lord.” That very statement is found in Psalm 118 and nowhere else in the Old Testament!

Interestingly, Psalm 118 is right in the middle of the Bible. Psalm 118:8 is the middle verse in the entire Bible. Psalm 118:8 says, “It is better to trust in the LORD than to put confidence in man,” which is the central theme of God’s Word.

Notice also, Psalm 118 is located between the shortest chapter in the Bible (Psalm 117) and the longest chapter in the Bible (Psalm 119). Psalm 117 is actually the middle chapter of the Bible, with Psalm 118:8 being the middle verse. Together, they seem to point to the events of the seventh year of the Tribulation Period, which concludes with the glorious appearing of Christ!

Psalm 117 has 594 chapters before it and 594 chapters after it. There are 1,189 chapters in the Bible, making a total of 1,188 chapters apart from the middle chapter. It is remarkable that the middle verse should be Psalm 118:8, thus alluding to those 1,188 chapters. This must be the result of Divine inspiration!

The events that seem to allude to the future Tribulation Period stand out quite clearly in Psalms 111-117. Could these “Hallelujah Psalms” picture the Biblical seven-lamped Menorah, as well as the Seven Last Years of this Age, prophetically, leading to the coming of the Messiah? Do they picture the final COUNTDOWN in YEARS to Armageddon and the Day of the Lord? We will soon see!

Where Is the United States of America in Bible Prophecy?

Is the United States really mentioned in the Bible? If so, under what name? What is the real evidence of our national heraldic emblems and symbols? Where do we really come from? Could we be totally ignored?

Millions have been mystified, and perplexed about our ancient pedigree. Believe it or not, the ancestors of the English speaking peoples of the world are found throughout the pages of Scripture. But our true IDENTITY has been SEALED – hidden from view for thousands of years!

Who are we – really? How has this knowledge been lost through the centuries? What is the astounding evidence of our true national identity? Where do we fit in the pages of Holy Writ?

The world has been in TOTAL ignorance of the amazing prophecies in the Bible about America! The whole book of Hosea the prophet FOCUSES on this people! America now stands IDENTIFIED in the world today as largely the birthright tribe of ancient Israel known as Ephraim, son of Joseph! Great Britain stands identified as the people of Manasseh, Ephraim's older brother! Here is the astounding Biblical PROOF!

The Secrets of God's Amazing Holy Days

The annual Festivals and Holy Days of God are revealed in the Scriptures – yet few Christians observe them and follow pagan holidays like Christmas and Easter and Halloween instead! Isn't this preposterous and nonsensical? Why do most Christians observe Christmas and Easter? Why did the church stop observing the Biblical holidays and replace them with PAGAN days which come out of Babylon and ancient Egypt? What is the real MEANING behind the Holy Days of God? What significance do they have for both Christians and Jews?

Does it really matter when we observe God's annual Holy Days? Does it matter if we are just a few days off? There is an old saying, "Close only counts in horseshoes and hand grenades." But does it really matter if we get God's days right? The Word of God does tell we should observe His annual Feast Days as "holy days to the Lord" (see Leviticus 23). The Biblical holy days are obviously based on the Biblical calendar – the original calendar God gave to Moses and Israel.

What is God's REAL Name?

God revealed His Name to Moses at the burning bush, but over the centuries its correct pronunciation has been hidden from view, lost, and today it is considered "unknown" by many and controversial by others. What is God's TRUE revealed Name? Can we really know His Name?

Letters from Our Readers

“Bill, Cappy, and all our brothers and sisters in the faith once delivered.

“Just to let you all know that we are still in the land of the living. We in South Africa are now 21 years into the rule of the ANC. And things have not got better. The country has completely fallen apart. The roads are in a pathetic state, potholes everywhere. And nothing gets fixed. Corruption is rife, and again nothing gets done about it. Apartheid is now worse than when the Nationalist Government was in power.

“Service delivery is non existent , again nothing gets done to rectify the problems. Jobs for whites are hard to come by, but if you are black ‘no problem’. Beki Seli chief of police was taken out of his position, and given the job of minister of Agriculture!!!

“Crime is rampant, again nothing gets done about it. South African Airways get bailed out every year to the tune of R4.7 billion Yes R4.7 billion, for salaries for 11,044 people. so each employee earns R35.464.20 per month. And fuel and maintenance not in the R4.7 billion figure !!!!

“I do not believe the cleaning crew do not get R35.464.20 per month, so heaven alone knows what the top salary is the CEO gets.

“I can go on and on telling you what is going on in this country, but there is no answer to fix the problem, and the ANC have said they will be in power till Yeshua returns. I believe that there is still a while to go, till He returns as the true message has not gone out to the world as the word states ‘this message (the true message) shall go out to the whole world, and then the end will come). To my knowledge, the world is still living in ‘the dark ages’.

“Passover is coming up this year. Exodus 12:48 states ‘no uncircumcised person may partake of the Passover.’ I have not heard any minister in the Churches of God mention this. I cannot see anywhere in the scriptures where this done away with. Can you give me your insight into this requirement??? Abraham was 99 when he was circumcised, and Paul had Timothy Circumcised immediately he heard that his mother was Jewish.

“I must thank you for the Prophecy Flashes that you send us. Many, many thanks. We learn so much from your input!!

“Regards to both you and Cappy and all of our brothers and sisters in the one and only TRUE faith, Love you all.”

-- Brian and Ann Slabbert and
Anthony Abrahams, South Africa

COMMENT: Circumcision of the flesh is not necessary to be a Christian. Paul makes it very plain, the New Covenant requires circumcision of the heart, not the flesh. See my article on “Is Circumcision Necessary for Salvation?”

“Attached you will find a list of the potential New Moons and Holy Days for 2017. It is interesting that the New Moons of both ‘ABIB’ and ‘TISHRI’ are certain in 2017 which means that all the Holy Days are certain also.

“As I was checking through the document earlier, I realized that once again we can see very clearly that the ‘Calculated/Fixed’ Jewish calendar is in error for the month of “ABIB”. You can easily check this out for yourselves and don’t just take my word for it.

“All you do is find out the time of Astronomical New Moon (Conjunction) in March 2017. You can get this from the internet (simply google it) or even a Roman calendar or a diary. The time given will usually be in GMT or Universal time. Then add 2 hours to this to bring you to Jerusalem time for the conjunction.

“Astronomical New Moon (Conjunction) = Tuesday 28th March 02 Hours 57 Minutes GMT plus 02 Hours Equals Jerusalem time Tuesday 28th March 04 Hours 57 Minutes = Conjunction

But wait a minute! The 'Fixed' Jewish calendar has the 1st day of 'ABIB' beginning Monday evening 27th March around 1900 Hours (700pm -Sunset). This is about 10 hours before the actual conjunction which is a logical and scientific impossibility, thus PROVING the inaccuracy and unreliability of the 'Fixed' calendar even though it is very close, within 2 days. I asked myself the question about 16 or 17 years ago, 'Is this good enough?' and came back with the answer to myself almost immediately, 'NO!'

"I truly believe that it won't be too much longer to wait until the Rabbinic Jews get their act together and begin observing New Moons once again as their forefathers did during Temple times."

- Nick Wood, England

"How are you and Cappy getting on? Hope everything is fine.

"We are living in dangerous times. In fact we are at the edge of the ten toes. Christ is coming soon. I never thought that it would happen in our time. Praise the Lord. Anyway there is nothing to fear as our God is the One who is in control in heaven and earth."

-- Edmund Chin, New Zealand

"I have never seen this country so divided after a presidential election. It seems like the losers in this presidential election will not admit defeat. I wonder if Matthew 12:25 could apply to this country now and in the near future.

"I was well pleased with this presidential election because it was the first time the man I voted for won. I guess I started voting wrong when I voted for Barry Goldwater.

"It seems like the impostor is or was doing every thing possible to start a war with Russia. In my whole life I have seen how the lame stream news has slanted the news to lead the masses in the wrong direction.

"The first I realized how the news was slanted was that Germany was really defeated in 1943 by the Russian army at Stalingrad but World War II was prolonged till 1945 with Germany so that much money could be made by a few people. I know that most people are shocked by such a statement but when all the facts are presented most history is written for the benefit of a few. It seems like the Bible lays out the true way to find out the real truth by stating – here a little, there a little, line upon line, precept upon precept, or something of that order (Isaiah 28:10, 13).

"I think Mr. Trump will be a great president if given the opportunity and time. He also needs the support of the country and the idiots in Hollywood and their blind followers could make a disaster of a great opportunity.

"It has been said that we are to consider our trials as blessings but sometimes I would prefer to not be so blessed.

"It seems that as time goes by, life gets more hectic. I have to appreciate all that you and Cappy do for God's people. Your Bible Studies have to take much time and concentration for what you present in your teaching. It is very much appreciated by me.

"I have been hearing people say that there are many years before the end of this age. But my question is – I think it is said in the Bible that things will get so bad that our Creator will have to cut time short so that we do not destroy ourselves and this whole earth.

"The way things are going that time cannot be too far off. Have you given this any consideration? If so, what are your thoughts on that.

"I heard that the mad scientists have created a human and animal cross. I know I have read in Greek mythology that there were human and animal crosses and thought it was crazy but now I am thinking maybe there was more truth in Greek mythology than I thought.

"I think that we are at the point that God said man would be able to do anything he thought."

"What's the story with/about the "web page" ...Official Creed of Triumph Prophetic Ministries ... I ran across this the other day and it is somewhat confusing... is this one of your web pages? It seems contrary to the web page ...Triumph Prophetic Ministries...I was just on which [a video] shows you preaching. And also I can't really see you going in the direction that, that web site seems to project. Thanks."

-- Jerry

COMMENT: That is a totally bogus website--- utterly fraudulent. It clearly indicates that I teach the seventh day Sabbath is abolished, and this is an utter blasphemy. The concoctors of this website are clearly serving their god, Satan the devil, and lying about my teachings and the true message of Triumph Prophetic Ministries. See our literature, "A New Look at the Sabbath," "Sabbath Versus Sunday," and "The Christian Sabbath." It is unconscionable how some people will pervert the truth and falsely accuse those who are serving God and brazenly claim they teach Sunday observance when nothing could be further from the truth. We have always upheld the Biblical seventh day Sabbath and keep the same day Jesus Christ and the apostles kept, the same day God ordained we observe in the Ten Commandments – the seventh day of the week!

"I would like to have a few books to start with helping me understand more about the way of this misleading world. It's a shame to find out that this world is built on lies after lies, so I'm getting more understanding now because I read the Bible."

-- Ohio

"Wow, what the power of prayer does is limitless. Why can't the left wing just take a loss. America is tired of all the ungodliness that comes with the left wing liberals. All they ever want is to kill unborn babies, take all the laws from the Bible and flush them. I can tell you that America WILL NOT BE GREAT until we bring God back into our daily lives, schools, courts, and anything that has to do with government! I PRAYED for Donald Trump to win and he did. I don't think we could deal with another round of Obama-nism. It would not be good. Thank you for all your ministry does for us prisoners."

-- Michigan

"I first came across one of your booklets when I was in the dayroom and it was on the floor! It read 'Prophecy Flash. The Mystery of Pentecost!' So I picked it up! I didn't know a lot about Pentecost, or Easter, but now have learned a lot! And I have found them to be facts! Because I looked it up in the Bible where it points to! I would like to thank you for opening a door I must look into! And this happened by accident! Or not? Thank you!!"

-- Texas

"I would like to thank you for continuing to put in all the hard work. May God bless you all! I would also like to thank you for keeping me on your mailing list. The only thing wrong as far as I can tell is that it does not come often enough!

"I anticipate the arrival of a new magazine every other month and enjoy every word of it, front to back. I can not seem to get enough of your knowledge so to help fulfill my spirit a little more I am requesting some more material and hopefully a copy of your newest book, The Mystery of God's Name, please. . . .

"I hope its not too much to ask and as soon as I get some money in I will send a tithe. Thank you so much and God bless all of you!"

-- Michigan

"I want to sincerely thank you for continuing to send me your Prophecy Flash magazine. Although I love the Bible lessons that are given in each issue, I also love the wealth of information you provide in your Prophecy Briefs and other articles. Please don't think that just because I am incarcerated, this information is without effect. I share your news with other inmates as they make excellent topics for conversation, knowledge and growth. Where do you get all of this valuable and useful information? It is awesome. Why is so much of it hidden from the general population by the media? These are 'need to know' facts! Hopefully, those of us here that read your news will be able to apply it in their lives when we get out of here and serve Christ in our communities and social affairs. So I thank you immensely for providing Prophecy Flash to me at no cost, as I have no family at all, and no funds to tithe to you. I hope you will accept my sincere prayers instead, as I pray your ministry and staff thrive in God's blessings in the coming year. Thanks “Thank you and Cappy for all you do in helping to spread God’s Word amongst His flock. For the Word says that knowledge will increase in the end of times, and you are most definitely helping to fulfill that prophecy. Praise YHVH!

“One of these days I hope to be freed from these prison walls, even though I’ve already been set free spiritually, I hope that physically I can wake up and see God’s Creation – not concrete and steel bars and walls – for I’m doing my 23rd year of a life sentence and it’s only by YHVH’s provision that I’ve been able to endure and maintain the faith.

“I hope that the day comes when I can help support your ministry (God’s ministry) and to help support and take care of my mother who is pushing towards 80 . . . .

“I’ve been with you since you started Prophecy Flash after you were excommunicated from the Worldwide Church of God [1987]. And now I can look back and honestly say that it was a good thing when they kicked you out, for without that you and God would never have been able to touch so many more lives through this ministry. This enforces the scripture that says that in all things God works for the glory to those who love Him.”

-- Texas

“For some time I have seen the Prophecy Flash magazine around, and have even read a few. I recently found out I can request a free subscription of my own. My parents are pastors and I share with them the things I learn from Prophecy Flash which they share with the entire church. It is a great blessing to us all.”

-- Texas

“You are a real and true Godsend and a wonderful ministry tool. I thank you for your ministry. From what I have seen, on average, 2 out of every 3 people that I encounter in here very badly want to change, want to live a changed life, and want desperately to fill that void that was built into all of us. The one that only the Ruach Ha Kodesh can fill properly by design. So many organizations offer a lip service ministry that many have been soured and turned off to anything to do with God. So many, even those who have been turned off, seem to respect a ministry that out-right tells it like it is, instead of offering them a bunch of feel-good baby food. Thank you again for your ministry.”

-- Florida

“I am thanking God continually for the good work of Triumph Prophetic Ministries. I feel that you are shining a light in the darkness, and helping to spread an understanding of truth that is desperately needed in this wicked and failing world. As I continue to study and grow in the word, I find your articles to be a great inspiration and comfort to me. . . .

“You have been a great inspiration to me, and I thank you from the bottom of my heart. May Jehovah bless you and grant you peace. And if you’re ever feeling down, just remember: We’ve just made it through eight years of the Obama-nation, and now it is the time of the last Trump.”
