A Voice in the Wilderness

God tells His servants in His Word, “Cry aloud, spare not. Lift up your voice like a trumpet and declare to My people their transgression and to the house of Jacob their sins!” (Isa.58:1, Parallel Amplified Bible).

God also declares: “Comfort, comfort My people, says your God. Speak tenderly to the heart of Jerusalem, and cry to her that her time of service and her warfare are ended, that [her punishment is accepted and] her iniquity is pardoned, that she has received [punishment] from the Lord’s hand double for all her sins.”

We are living in a world gone berserk with anger and rage. “Why do the nations rage?” (Psalm 2:1). Answer – because they don’t know the true God, and are in rebellion against His laws and teachings and the true way of life and peace!

Isaiah wrote: “A voice of one who cries: Prepare in the wilderness the way of the Lord [clear away the obstacles]; make straight and smooth a highway for our God. . . . And the glory (majesty and splendor) of the Lord shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together; for the mouth of the Lord has spoken it” (Isaiah 40:3-5).

The Messiah is coming very SOON! Its time to prepare to MEET Him! “Surely the Lord will do nothing without revealing His secret to His servants the prophets” (Amos 3:7). The purpose of this magazine is to warn the world of what lies ahead, and to help prepare people to get ready to meet the Messiah, when He returns to restore all things (Acts 3:19-21), put an end to wars, and usher in the Kingdom of God! The prophet Amos declared, “Prepare to meet your God, O Israel” (Amos 4:12). No matter is more urgent, today!

The End-Time Prophecies of Daniel Revealed!

The world is plunging helter-skelter toward doom and catastrophe. Before our very eyes the END-TIME “ASSYRIAN EMPIRE” is being cobbled together—a world empire of great cruelty and brutality, persecution of Christians, and worldwide calamity. How soon will it happen? Who is the end-time “King of Assyria”? How will the world avert complete and total annihilation and cosmocide? The only true answers to our dilemmas are found in the pages of Bible prophecy!

Daniel's Image, the Four Beasts and the "King of Assyria"

A great deal of new insight is being revealed concerning Biblical prophecy for the "End of Days." The mysterious image of Daniel, the four beasts vision, and the book of Revelation reveal a new, startling dimension to the age-old prophecy in the light of current world events. Staggering new insight as to the enigmatic "king of Assyria" provides a new penetrating glimpse into the coming "New World Order" rapidly coming together!

William F. Dankenbring

In the parable of the fig tree in Luke 21:29-33 we read: "When you see these things come to pass, know that the kingdom of God is near. This generation will not pass away until all is fulfilled." What is meant by this generation? First, it means a generation, a generation that is living at the time of his coming. This generation referring to the fig tree is a type referring to Israel and represents the people of Israel. God says in Hosea 9:10, "I found Israel . . . as the firstfruits on the fig tree in its first season."

Israel was born as a nation on May 14, 1948. How long is a generation? We read in Psalm 90:10, "The days of our lives are seventy years." A generation then is 70 years—the life span of a man. So 1948 + 70 years brings us to 2018.

Remember, Christ said, "Assuredly I say to you, this generation shall by no means pass away till all these things take place" (Matt.24:34). "This generation" refers to the generation of the re-establishment of Israel in the Middle East which occurred in 1948!

Daniel's 70 "Weeks" Prophecy

Jesus Christ, the Messiah, said, in Luke 21: 29-33 in the Amplified Parallel Bible "Understand and know that the kingdom of God is at hand. This generation (those living at that definite period of time) shall not perish and pass away until all has taken place."

In an amazing prophecy of Daniel, he was told: "Seventy weeks have been determined upon thy people, and upon the holy city, for sin to be ended, and to seal up transgressions, and to blot out the iniquities, and to make atonement for iniquities, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal the vision and the prophet, and to anoint the Most Holy" Daniel 9:24). The word for "weeks" here is shavuot in Hebrew. Shavua means “week” or “seven” and “Shavuot” is the plural of shavua. It not only means “weeks” but also refers to the “Feast of Weeks,” called Shavuot by the Jews, which occurs once a year during the months of May-June, fifty days after Passover.

Daniel’s prophecy continues: “Seventy weeks are determined for your people and for your holy city, to finish the transgression, to make an end of sins, to make reconciliation for iniquity, to bring in everlasting righteousness, to seal up vision and prophecy, and to anoint the Most Holy. Know therefore and understand, that from the going forth of the command to restore and build Jerusalem until Messiah the Prince, there shall be seven weeks and sixty-two weeks; the streets shall be built again, and the wall, even in troublous times” (Dan.9:24-25).

If we consider these “Shavuot” or “weeks” as a reference to the Feast of Shavuot, then an interesting picture emerges: They would refer to 70 years in fulfillment – the length of a Biblical “generation”! Since the countdown is to begin from the command to restore and rebuild Jerusalem, a type of the state of “Israel,” and the United Nations issued the decree for the establishment of the state of Israel, to provide a homeland for the Jews, in November, 1947, then the countdown should begin in 1947. Now if we think carefully about this, there are to be 70 Shavuot till the coming of the Messiah to bring in everlasting righteousness! This would bring us to 2017. Or, if we count from the founding of the state of Israel, when it declared its independence, in 1948, it would bring us to 2018!

The Septuagint Greek version says: “KNOW AND UNDERSTAND from the going forth of the commandment and the answer and for the building of Jerusalem until Christ the prince there shall be seven weeks, and sixty-two weeks: and then the time shall return, and the street shall be built, and the wall, and the times shall be exhausted.”

Jerusalem was restored to the Jews in 1948 when Israel was founded, and they immediately fought the Arabs who attacked them from every side. The city of Jerusalem was fought over and the Jordanians held on to the old city, and the Jews held onto the new city. The time was exhausting for the Jews because the Arabs made unending trouble. There was war between the Jewish state of Israel and the Arab nations in 1956 and 1967. During the Six Day War of 1967 the Jews captured the Old City of Jerusalem as well as the Golan Heights and the West Bank of the Jordan River, and the Gaza Strip and Sinai.

In verse 27 we read: “Then he shall confirm a covenant [treaty] with many for one week; but in the middle of the week he shall bring an end to sacrifice and offering.” Could that mean that there is going to be a covenant (a treaty) established (pushed) at during the final “seven years” of this age, between the Palestinians and the Jews, with the whole world looking on, and “confirming” or “forcing” this treaty upon the two peoples involved? This final “week” of years, then, would be from 2011/2012 until 2017/2018!

During the middle of this last week, an end to sacrifice and offering shall occur. The Septuagint has it, “But in the midst of the year my sacrifice and drink offerings shall be taken away and on the Temple shall be the abomination of desolations.” This implies that half-way through this final seven year period that the sacrifices and drink offerings in the Temple of God will be abolished and stopped and the Abomination of Desolation will be placed in the Temple of God in Jerusalem instead-- midway through the final week after 3 ½ years. This would likely occur about 2015. When this happens, there will be 3 ½ years left till the coming of the Messiah to “seal up the vision and prophecy.”

The Beast of Revelation

Is this 3 ½ year period mentioned elsewhere in the Scriptures? We read in Revelation 13:1—“Then I stood on the sand of the sea And I saw a beast rising up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and on his horns ten crowns, and on his heads a blasphemous name.”

“Now the beast which I saw was like a leopard, his feet were like the feet of a bear, and his mouth like the mouth of a lion. The dragon gave him his power, his throne, and great authority” (v.2).

This is the New World Order Babylonian Empire – a union of nations having seven heads and ten horns. It is a united world devouring empire like the Roman Empire, but it will exist in our day today!

Let us continue: John says, ‘And I saw one of his heads as if it had been mortally wounded and his deadly wound was healed. And all the world marveled and followed after the beast” (v.3).

How long will this “Beast” power rule? John was told, “And he was given a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies, and he was given authority to continue [make war] for forty two months” (.v.5). Forty-two months equals 3 ½ years! This ties in with the half week prophecy (3 ½ years) of Daniel’s 70 weeks!

Daniel’s Great Image

But there is much more to unfold!

Perhaps the greatest, most comprehensive outline of Biblical prophecy is the one found in the second chapter of the book of Daniel. King Nebuchadnezzar "had a terrifying nightmare, and awoke trembling with fear" (Dan. 2:1). When he awoke, he couldn't remember the terrible nightmare and threatened to kill all the astrologers, soothsayers and wise men if they couldn't reveal to him both the nature of the dream and its meaning.

Finally Daniel was brought in and rescued the day. He told the king the meaning of his dream. Daniel said to the king: "No wise man, astrologer, magician, or wizard can tell the king such things, but there is a God in heaven who reveals secrets, and he has told you in your dream what will happen in the future. This was your dream:

"You dreamed of coming events. . . .

"O King, you saw a huge and powerful statue of a man, shining brilliantly, frightening and terrible. The head of the statue was made of purest gold, its chest and arms were of silver, its belly and thighs of brass, its legs of iron, its feet part iron and part clay. But as you watched, a Rock was cut from the Mountainside by supernatural means. It came hurtling toward the statue and crushed the feet of iron and clay, smashing them to bits. Then the whole statue collapsed into a heap of iron, clay, brass, silver, and gold; its pieces were crushed as small as chaff, and the wind blew them all away. But the Rock that knocked the statue down became a great mountain that covered the whole earth.

"That was the dream; now for its meaning.

"Your Majesty, you are a king over many kings, for the God of heaven has given you your kingdom, power, strength and glory. You rule the farthest provinces, and even animals and birds are under your control, as God decreed. You are that head of gold.

"But after your kingdom has come to an end, another world power will arise to take your place. This empire will be inferior to yours. And after that kingdom has fallen, yet a third great power -- represented by the bronze belly of the statue -- will rise to rule the world. Following it, the fourth kingdom will be strong as iron-smashing, bruising, and conquering" (Dan. 2:27-40).

The Prophecy Revealed

What have we here?

The head of gold was the Babylonian Empire, which ruled from 604 to 539 B.C. Nebuchadnezzar was the "head of gold" who began this powerful empire, and his successors ruled until overthrown by the Medes and the Persians in 539 B.C.

The next world empire, then, described as "silver" in the prophecy, was the Persian Empire, begun by Cyrus the Great, in 539 B.C., when he conquered Babylon. The Persian Empire lasted from 539 B.C. to 331 B.C., when it, too, was conquered by Alexander the Great, when he launched his bid for world supremacy. He was successful, and conquered the Persians at the battle of the Granicus river in 334 B.C., and the battles of Issus and Arbella, so that he replaced the Persian Empire in 331 B.C. with the Greco-Macedonian Empire. When Alexander the Great died, his empire was divided up into four regional empires, ruled over by his four generals, Cassander, Seleucid, Ptolemy and Lysimachus.

The fourth empire, depicted in the vision of Nebuchadnezzar, was the Roman Empire, which eventually conquered Greece, replacing it, and ruling the Mediterranean world until approximately 476 A.D. The Roman Empire had such a powerful influence on Europeans and succeeding generations, that following it, historically, came a succession of "revivals" and resurrections down through history. The powerful Roman Empire crushed the nations from the Middle East to North Africa, and up to the borders of Germany in Europe, and even invaded and ruled the British Isles. It was a cruel, ruthless, and savage Empire, with a veneer of culture and sophistication. Daniel was absolutely correct when he described it as like "iron" -- stronger than any of its predecessors, and brutal in rulership. This prophecy was literally fulfilled to the very letter!

But notice. Daniel continues:

"The feet and toes you saw -- part iron and part clay -- show that later on [that is, in the last days, just before the return of Christ], this kingdom will be divided." That is, the ten toes represent ten nations or kingdoms which ally themselves together as the final resurrection of this image of human empire; they will become the last and final revival of the Roman Empire of old! These ten will give their power to a supreme Tyrant or Dictator and will, at his behest, fight against Christ at his return to earth (Rev. 17:14).

Notice that these toes are part of iron and part clay. Daniel goes on, "Some parts of it will be as strong as iron, and some as weak as clay. This mixture of iron with clay also shows that these kings will try to strengthen themselves by forming alliances with each other through intermarriage of their rulers; but this will not succeed, for iron and clay don't mix."

Daniel 2 speaks of the end-time Empire as a mix of iron and clay. As Daniel says, iron and clay will not mix and hold together. It could well be that the iron is composed of Europe and America with the clay being the Muslim people who will forge an Empire, but it won't stick or cleave together before it begins to fall apart with internal strife and world war results.

Daniel describes and interprets the dream. A magnificent great image was seen by Nebuchadnezzar in his dream. A stone was cut out without hands, which smote the image upon his feet that were made of iron and clay and broke them in pieces. The iron, clay, brass, silver, and the gold was broken into pieces together and became as chaff of the summer threshing floors carried away by the wind and the stone that struck the image became a great mountain and filled the whole earth.

1. Head of gold represents King Nebuchadnezzar (Babylon). "The God of heaven has given you a kingdom, power, and strength and glory. Wherever the children of men dwell, the beasts of the field and fowls of the heaven he has given into your hand, and made you ruler over all the earth." Then, listed are the World ruling kingdoms that successively follow Nebuchadnezzar's kingdom.
2. Silver breast and arms (Medo-Persian) -- a second world ruling kingdom inferior to King Nebuchadnezzar that rises after him.
3. Brass belly and thighs (Greece under Alexander the Great) -- a third world ruling kingdom

4. Iron legs – a fourth world ruling kingdom (Rome) strong as iron that breaks and crushes all the others. It divides into two parts – the Western Roman Empire, and the Eastern Empire with Constantinople as its capital.

5. Feet and toes of mixed iron and clay (a divided kingdom) – a fifth world ruling kingdom partly strong (firmness and strength of iron) and partly brittle (fragile as broken-baked ceramic clay). They will mingle with the seed of men, but will not adhere to one another, just as iron and clay will not mix (adhere) to each other.

The ten toes represent 10 kings. In the days of these ten kings, the God of heaven will set up His kingdom which shall never be destroyed nor its sovereignty (everlasting dominion) be left to other people. But it shall break, crush and consume all these kingdoms and it shall stand forever.

The Critical, Experimental Commentary describes this prophecy and its fulfillment as follows:

"As the fourth kingdom, or Rome, was represented in a two-fold state, first strong, with legs of iron, then weak with toes part of iron part of clay . . . . The ten toes are the ten lesser kingdoms, into which the Roman empire was finally to be divided; this ten-fold division here hinted at is not specified in detail until the seventh chapter (ch.vii.7, 'a fourth beast . . . it had ten horns'). The fourth empire originally was bounded in Europe pretty nearly by the line of the Rhine and Danube; in Asia by the Euphrates. In Africa it possess Egypt and the north coasts; South Britain and Dacia were afterwards added . . . The ten kingdoms do not arise until a deterioration [by mixing clay with the iron] has taken place: they are in existence when Christ comes in glory, and then are broken in pieces. . . . It seems, therefore, that the definite ten kingdoms will be the ultimate development of the Roman empire just before the rise of Antichrist, who shall overthrow three of the kings" (p.391).

This great statue of world empires will be crushed by the "stone" which is cut out of the mountain without hands, a reference to Christ Himself – the Messiah (I Cor.10:4).

The Four Beasts

The prophet Daniel had a strange vision. He said, "I saw in my vision by night, and behold, the FOUR WINDS of heaven were stirring up the Great Sea. And four great beasts came up from the sea, each different from the other. The first was like a LION, and had EAGLE'S WINGS. I watched till its wings [air power] were plucked off; and it was lifted up from the earth and made to stand on two feet like a man, and a man's heart was given to it. And suddenly another beast, a second, like a BEAR. It was raised up on one side, and had three ribs in its mouth between its teeth. And they said, 'Arise, devour much flesh!'

"After this I looked, and there was another, like a LEOPARD, which had on its back four wings of a bird. The beast also had four heads, and dominion was given to it. After this I saw in the night visions, and behold, a FOURTH BEAST, dreadful and terrible, exceedingly strong. It had huge iron teeth; it was devouring, breaking in pieces, and trampling the RESIDUE [mankind] with its feet. It was different from all the beasts that were before it, and it had ten horns. I was considering the horns, and there was another horn, a little one, coming up among them, before whom three of the first horns were plucked out by the roots. And there, in this horn, were eyes like the eyes of a man, and a mouth speaking pompous words” (Dan.7:1-8).

Notice! These four “beasts” are connected with the FOUR WINDS of heaven (v.2). These are END-TIME KINGDOMS! Notice again! In verses 9-10 Daniel describes God’s Throne of judgment, in the last days. In verse 11, we read: “I watched then because of the sound of the pompous words which the horn was speaking [the end-time Antichrist was right then mouthing off!]; I watched till the BEAST [the fourth beast of Daniel 7] was SLAIN, and its body destroyed and given to the burning flame.”

Compare this with Rev.19:19-20: “And I saw the BEAST, the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make WAR against Him who sat on the horse [Christ the Messiah] and against His army. Then the BEAST was captured, and with him the false prophet [a charismatic end-time religious world leader] . . . These two were cast alive into the LAKE OF FIRE burning with brimstone.”

Then Daniel goes on: “As for the rest of the beasts, they had their dominion taken away, yet their lives were prolonged for a season and a time” (Dan.7:12). How plain! This shows these four “beasts” ALL EXIST IN THE END TIME!

The “rest of the beasts” described here refers to the one like a lion, a bear, and a leopard – the other three beasts described in this chapter! Since they are still in existence, even after the fourth beast is slain, this PROVES beyond question that these four beasts of Daniel 7 all co-exist DURING THE END TIME!

Notice that the four winds of heaven “strove upon the great sea” (KJV). The Adam Clarke Commentary points out, “The idea of strife is taken here from the effects that must be produced, were the east, the west, the north, and the south winds to rise tempestuously, and meet on the surface of the sea.” He goes on, “Newton well remarks, that these great beasts . . . are kingdoms. They arise out of a stormy and tempestuous sea; that is, out of the wars and commotions of the world; and they are called great in comparison of other states and kingdoms, and are denominated beasts for their cruel and tyrannical oppression.”

Can we identify them? Yes, we can! The beast like a lion, with “eagle’s wings,” refers to the United States and Great Britain. Britain’s symbol is the rampant lion, and America’s symbol is the bald eagle! We are renowned for our “air power.” Daniel beholds the image till our “wings were plucked off” (v.4). Daniel beheld it until a “man’s heart” was given to it.

Historically, as a type, this referred to the Babylonian Empire under Nebuchadnezzar the great. Babylon was compared to a lion (Jer.4:7, Isa.5:29) and was said to fly like an eagle (Jer.48:40; Ezek.17:3, 7). The lion is considered the king of beasts and the eagle the king of birds. The “wings” denotes the rapidity of conquest. The wings being plucked means the empire became weakened and no further extension of the empire took place – it ceased conquering and began losing its power.

Today, the United States has entered that phase. Its power is being squandered and “broken,” economically, militarily, and geographically. It has “over-extended” its grasp of empire, and is now facing multiple threats from other nations, the chief of which is China and Russia.

A man’s heart was given to it – Nebuchadnezzar began his conquests with great pride and arrogance, but God brought him to humility, causing him to suffer as a “beast” eating grass for seven years, at which time he developed the heart of a “man” and repented of his pride and worshiped the Lord God (Dan.4).

This indicates that the United States and Britain, the sons of Joseph, will also come to repent of their arrogance and pride, when they lose their independence and power, when the U.S. is no longer the world’s “sole superpower.” This repentance will occur during the time known as the “Great Tribulation.”

The second Beast, like a bear, refers to the end-time nation of Russia – often depicted as a stumbling, bumbling bear putting its nose into everything. Historically it was “typified” by Persia. It was like a bear, Adam Clarke says, “on account of their cruelty and thirst after blood, a bear being a most voracious and cruel animal” – an “all-devouring” animal, according to Aristotle.

This describes Russia, which slew millions of its own citizens during the Stalinist purges. The “three ribs in its mouth, between its teeth” suggests that it has just finished eating another animal (nation) that it had seized, says Adam Clarke. Ancient king Cyrus had absorbed three kingdoms – the Babylonians, Medes and Persians. Others think it refers to the east, north and south, which were subdued by the Persians. “But the ribs being between the teeth of the bear may show how Babylon, Lydia, and Egypt were ground and oppressed by the bear,” Clarke points out.

Could this refer to Russia, in the end-time, rising up again during the Tribulation period, and seizing control of three nations in Europe and Asia? Perhaps the Ukraine, Georgia, and another?

Some think these “three ribs” refers to Russia attacking America in the near future, before the Great Tribulation and the rise of end-time Babylon the Great, and nuking three American major cities or three states or causing three other major disasters. I consider this hypothesis as nonsensical and erroneous, for if Russia were to attempt such a quick strike against the United States, it would find itself in a nuclear war. Of course, this does not preclude the possibility of untraceable “suitcase nukes” being detonated in America, whether by terrorists, Muslim extremists who view America as the “Great Satan,” or other hidden enemies.

However, it is interesting to note what God says in Hosea 13, who rebukes end-time Ephraim (the United States) and Israel (the other Israelite nations, including the Jewish state of Israel). Because of our mounting, heinous sins and abominations, He thunders: “So I will be to them like a lion; like a leopard by the road I will lurk; I will meet them like a bear deprived of her cubs; I will tear open their rib cage, and there I will devour them like a lion. The wild beast shall tear them” (Hosa.3:7-8).

Historically, God used Babylon – the lion – to punish Israel. He also used the Greeks – like a fleet leopard under Alexander the Great – to conquer and rule over Israel. He also used the Persians to rule over Israel. And other wild beasts (nations) tore them.

In this END TIME, God will once again punish us for our waywardness and wanton sins by using the “wild beasts” – Gentile kingdoms and nations – to bring us down into subjection, slavery, and shame. He will do this during the Great Tribulation. Jesus Christ prophesied of it, saying, “But when you see Jerusalem surrounded by armies, then know that its desolation is near” (Luke 21:20).

God says of our people, “They have dealt treacherously with the LORD, for they have begotten pagan [literally, strange] children. Now a New Moon [a MONTH] shall devour them and their heritage” (Hos.5:7). God declares, “For I will be like a LION to Ephraim, and like a young lion to the house of Judah. I, even I, will tear them and go away; I will take them 2way, and no one shall rescue. I will return again to My place till they acknowledge their offense. Then they will seek My face; in their affliction they will earnestly seek Me” (Hos.5:14-15).

The Third Beast

The third Beast, like a “leopard,” is depicted as having four heads and four wings. The leopard is an animal of Africa. This depicts the Muslim nations. The four heads would possibly be Egypt, Libya, Saudi Arabia, and Turkey. The Muslim brotherhood is beginning to dominate these states as it attempts to create and revive an Islamic Caliphate to rule the world! The last Moslem caliphate ended in 1924, following the end of World War I, when Turkey was deprived of all its conquests and the Ottoman Empire came to its ignominious end.

In the Jewish Talmud we read of the end of this age, fraught with war. “Those years will include wars between the sea monsters [naval powers], and the wars of Gog and Magog [Russia and China], and the remaining years will be the Messianic age. Following the Messianic age [1000 years, known as the Millennium], the Holy One, blessed be He, will destroy the world, and He will not renew His world until after seven thousand years from the creation” (The Talmud, The Steinsaltz Edition, volume XXI, Tractate Sanhedrin, 97B, p.9).

Says the “Notes” on this passage, “The Gemara appears to be alluding to wars that will be waged between the great powers, some of which are compared in the Bible to sea monsters. It might be referring specifically to the wars between the great naval powers that will be fought out at sea.”

The Fourth Kingdom

But Daniel’s attention is especially riveted on the “fourth kingdom.” The fourth beast is “dreadful and terrible, exceedingly strong. It had huge iron teeth; it was devouring, breaking in pieces, and trampling the residue with its feet. It was different from all the beasts that were before it, and it had ten horns" (v.7).

Notice that this "beast" here is described as being very strong, like the fourth and final part of the image of chapter 2; it also is described as having "iron" -- that is, great iron teeth; and like the fourth kingdom of Daniel 2, which "breaketh in pieces and subdueth all things" (Dan.2:40), this kingdom also "devoured and brake in pieces, and stamped the residue" (Dan.7:7).

Daniel specifically inquired about this fourth kingdom, and was told, "The fourth beast shall be the fourth kingdom upon earth, which shall be diverse from all kingdoms, and shall devour the whole earth, and shall tread it down, and break it in pieces. And the ten horns are ten kings that shall arise: and another shall rise after them; and he shall be diverse from the first, and he shall subdue three kings And he shall speak great words against the Most High, and think to change times and laws; and they shall be given into his hand until a time and times and the dividing of time [three and one half years!]" (Dan.7:23-25).

Notice that this final kingdom will be "DIVERSE" from all the preceding kingdoms. It will be different -- unique! How is that? Not only will it be stronger, because it is made of IRON, but it will also be weaker -- having in it the miry "clay." It will be united for a time, but the prophecy indicates it will coalesce and come together for only a period of "a time and times and half a time" -- that is, 42 months, or 1260 days, or three and one half years. This is the SAME LENGTH OF TIME as the BEAST of Revelation 13!

This fourth kingdom will be destroyed by the second coming of Christ. It is pictured as an END-TIME KINGDOM! It will fight against Christ, and blaspheme His truth, and even change times and laws for a season. Daniel says of it, "But the judgment shall sit, and they shall take away his dominion, to consume and to destroy it unto the end. And the kingdom and dominion, and the greatness of the kingdom under the whole heaven, shall be given to the people of the saints of the most High, whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey him" (Dan.7:26-27).

Notice that this final fourth beast is comparable to the fourth kingdom of Daniel 2. It is iron; it is bestial, cruel, and brutal; it conquers and tears to pieces; and it has ten horns comparable to the ten toes of chapter 2; and it exists at the return of Christ, like the ten toes of chapter 2. Thus this fourth beast or kingdom is the same as the fourth and final resurrection of the Roman Empire of chapter 2 and also the same kingdom as the "Beast" of Revelation, chapter 13!

The End-Time Beast

What more can we know about this strange, mystifying kingdom, which is even now in the process of rising up in the modern world?

In our day there is to be one final resurrection of this ancient diabolical system, the “Roman Empire.” It will be comprised of ten end-time kingdoms or nations. But one great king will seize authority over all of them – “another king will arise, more brutal than the other ten, and will destroy three of them. He will defy the Most High God, and wear down the saints with persecution. . .” This diabolical dictator will “change all laws, morals and customs.” God’s people will be helpless in his hands for three and one half years (see Daniel 7:24-25, Living Bible).

Speaking of this end-time leader, Daniel says, “The ten horns are ten kings which shall arise from this kingdom. And another shall rise after them; he shall be different from the first ones, and shall subdue three kings” (Dan.7:24).

This year in the Middle East, Hosni Mubarak of Egypt has been overthrown by Obama and NATO working with the Muslim brotherhood. Qaddafi of Libya is on the ropes, about to be overthrown. He is in hiding, at last report. This will make two horns being plucked up. Fighting is also raging in Syria, whose government may topple. Prime Minister Erdogan of Turkey, an ally of Obama and the Sunni Muslims, has sent troops into northern Syria. Syria could be the third horn to be overthrown and brought into compliance with the Muslim brotherhood.

The stage is being set. The final actors are appearing in the wings, rehearsing their parts. The final curtain is about to rise, and the end-time drama about to begin, with a clashing, cacophonous overture!

The Coming of the Messiah

Daniel declares, “I kept looking until thrones were placed (for the assessors with the Judge) and the Ancient of Days (God the Father) took His seat. His garment was white as snow, the hair of his head like pure wool. His throne was like the fiery flame; its wheels a burning fire. A stream of fire issued and came forth from before Him. A thousand thousands (millions of angels) ministered to Him and ten thousand times ten thousand (billions) stood before Him. The court was seated (was in session) and the books were opened. I continued to watch because of the sound of the pompous words which that little horn was speaking. I watched until the beast was slain, and his body was destroyed – thrown into the burning flame! As for the rest of the beasts (governments), they had their power of dominion taken away (stripped of their authority), yet their lives were prolonged (for the duration of their lives was fixed) for a season and a time” (Daniel 7:9).

This pictures the throne of God the Father in heaven!

Daniel continues: “I saw before me coming on the clouds of heaven, one like the Son of Man. He approached the Ancient of Days and was presented before Him (God the Father). To Him (the Messiah) was given authority (sovereign power), dominion, glory and a kingdom that all people, nations, and languages, should serve Him: His dominion is an everlasting dominion that shall never be destroyed” (Daniel 7:13-14).

Here Christ the Messiah is given authority and kingship over all the nations of the world including the end-time empire of the “Beast” – the New World Order!

The King of Assyria

The ruler of this end-time Beast kingdom is called, in some prophecies, “the king of Assyria.” Why is that? Ancient Assyria was known for its barbaric cruelty. It impaled and slaughtered prisoners.

The old Worldwide Church of God thought that Assyria was Germany, because some of the historical research indicated that some of the Germans originated from Ancient Assyria. However, that research was very incomplete. And very misleading!

Notice what the Word of God has to say on this subject. We read in Ezra 6:22 that in the days of Ezra the Jews were keeping the Feast of Unleavened Bread seven days with joy, “for the Lord made them joyful because he turned the heart of the king of Assyria toward them to strengthen their hands in the work of the House of God, the God of Israel.” This is talking about king Darius of the Persian Empire, not ancient Assyria – here the king of the Persian Empire is called the “king of Assyria.”

Also in II Kings 23:29 we read: “In his days, Pharaoh Necho King of Egypt went out to attack the king of Assyria through the River Euphrates.” King Josiah of Judah went out against him and Pharaoh killed him at Megiddo when Josiah confronted him at the River Euphrates. Euphrates is where ancient Babylon stood. The king of Assyria at this time was Babylon, not the ancient king of Assyria of a previous age. This verse is talking about King Josiah who was a contemporary of the prophet Jeremiah of Judah (before king Nebuchadnezzar invaded the land of Judah). Ancient Assyria no longer existed, because it perished with the fall of Nineveh in 612 BC.

In II Chronicles 33:11 we also read about a contemporary “king of Assyria.” King Manasseh of Judah had seduced Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to do more evil than all the nations that the Lord had destroyed before the children of Israel (see verse 9). The Lord spoke to Manasseh and his people, but they would not listen to the prophets “Therefore the Lord brought upon them the captains of the army of the King of Assyria (the Babylonians) who took Manasseh with hooks, bound him with bronze fetters, and carried him off to Babylon.”.

The Babylonians attacked King Manasseh and bound him and carried him off to Babylon. So you see that the king of Assyria is a “nome de plume” a name given to the world empire that reigns. It was at one time Assyria, then Babylon, then Persia, then Greece and Rome, and in our day it will refer to the “Beast” – king of the “New World Order,” or the “Final Caliphate,” as the Muslims will call it!

All the “world empires,” in Biblical terms, are “Assyria.” Notice! The first “world empire” was begun by Nimrod, the son of Cush. We read in Genesis 10:8--“Cush begat Nimrod, (a black man and son of Cush). He began to be a mighty king, hunter and tyrant upon the earth before [against] the Lord. Therefore, it is said like Nimrod” – which in Hebrew is from the root marad that means “he rebelled.” Nimrod led the world into rebellion against God. We read, “the beginning of his kingdom was Babel (or Babylon) in the land of Shinar (land of Mesopotamia) and from that land he went to Assyria and built Nineveh (the capital of Assyria), Rehoboth and Calah, and Resen between Calah: the same is a great city” (Gen.10:9-12).

“Assyria” in Prophecy

Nimrod founded the original World Empire. It included Babylon and Assyria.

God’s Word thunders, “Ah, Assyrian, the rod of my anger – the club in their hands is my fury! Against a godless nation I send him, and against the people of my wrath I command him, to take spoil and to seize plunder, and to tread them down like the mire of the streets” (Isa.10:5-6, NRSV).

Today, all of Western Europe is dominated by the industrial, scientific, and financial strength of Germany. Germany effectively rules the economies of nations, especially most of those in the European Union. It is growing in power. By extension, therefore, one might say that “Assyria” today includes all of Continental Europe that is part of the European Union!

Isaiah prophesied of an end-time assault by the king of Assyria on the Middle East! We read, “so shall the king of Assyria lead away the Egyptians as captives and the Ethiopians as exiles, both the young and the old, naked and barefoot, with buttocks uncovered to the shame of Egypt” (Isaiah 20:4). Read the entire chapter.

Daniel foretold of this same calamity, saying, “At the time of the end the king of the south [Egypt and her Muslim allies] shall attack him [the king of the north – Assyria/Europe and the United States – the “Western Alliance”]. But the king of the north shall rush upon him like a whirlwind, with chariots and horsemen, and with many ships. He shall advance against countries and pass through like a flood. . . He shall stretch out his hand against the countries, and the land of Egypt shall not escape. He shall become ruler of the treasures of gold and of silver, and of all the riches of Egypt; and the Libyans and Ethiopians shall follow in his train” (Dan.11:40-43).

Notice that the military forces under this end-time “king” will possess “many ships.” This indicates that the northern alliance INCLUDES the nations of France, Great Britain, and especially the United States!

God’s Word predicts that in the days to come, Europe, and the United States – under the auspices of the United Nations – will make a league, a pact, a treaty with various nations in the Middle East which control the oil flow into western nations.

We read in prophecy: “For, lo, thine enemies make a tumult: and they that hate thee have lifted up the head. They have taken crafty counsel against thy people, and consulted against thy hidden ones. They have said, Come, and let us cut them off from being a nation; that the name of Israel may be no more in remembrance. For they have consulted together with one consent: they are confederate against thee:

“The tabernacles of Edom [Turkey, Italy, Spain], and the Ishmaelites [the Arabs]; of Moab [Jordan], and the Hagarenes; Gebal [Lebanon], and Ammon [Jordan], and Amalek; the Philistines [Palestinians] with the inhabitants of Tyre [the United States of America!]; Assur [New World Order] also is joined with them. . .” (Psalm 83:2-8).

The New World Order, or “End-Time Assyria/Babylon”, comprised of America and the European Union, the United Nations, and Arab nations in the Middle East, in order to secure their vision of “world order” and “peace,” will turn against the nation of Israel.

Bible prophecy declares that Europe, the United States, Germany, and the western world, will forsake their friendly ties with Israel and cave in to the Arab-Muslim oil-producing states – Iraq, Saudi Arabia, Kuwait, Qatar, and others. They will sell their soul for oil, the most precious commodity for the industrial modern world.

In trade for Arab oil, the West will sell out the Jews!

In the future, as in days of old, the king of Assyria will once again invade the Middle East, largely to insure their oil flow and supplies. Note that modern Europe and Russia are NORTH of the Middle East, just as in Biblical times ancient Assyria lay to the north!

The “king of the north” with his allies will invade the Middle East, with a whirlwind, many chariots, and troops (Dan. 11:40). “Many countries shall be overthrown” — “and the land of Egypt shall not escape” (vs. 41, 42).

But notice which nations WILL escape! “Even Edom, and Moab, and the chief of the children of Ammon” (v.41) – the very countries in alliance with Europe and the United States!

Daniel says, “He shall enter also into the glorious land” (Dan11:41). The glorious land is the land of Israel. He will occupy Jerusalem and establish his headquarters there (Dan. 11:45; Zech.14:2).

This “king of the north” mentioned in Daniel 11 will be the KING OF end-time “ASSYRIA” — the head of the NEW WORLD ORDER!

Isaiah 19

Egypt will not escape. Notice Isaiah 19: “The burden of Egypt. . . .And I will set the Egyptians against the Egyptians: and they shall fight everyone against his brother, and everyone against his neighbour; city against city, and kingdom against kingdom. And the spirit of Egypt shall fail in the midst thereof; and I will destroy the counsel thereof . . . And the Egyptians will I give over into the hand of a cruel lord; and a FIERCE KING shall rule over them, saith the Lord, the Lord of hosts” (Isaiah 19:1-4).

Who is this “cruel lord,” this “fierce king”? The HEAD of the New World Order! Notice: “So shall the KING OF ASSYRIA lead away the Egyptian prisoners, and the Ethiopians as captives, young and old, naked and barefoot, even with their buttocks uncovered, to the shame of Egypt. And they shall be afraid and ashamed of Ethiopia their expectation, and of Egypt their glory” (Isaiah 20:4-5).

“And the inhabitant of this isle shall say in that day, Behold, such is our expectation, whither we flee for help to be delivered from the king of ASSYRIA: and how shall we escape?” (Isaiah 20:6).

Egypt and Ethiopia shall both fall to the “King of the North” (Daniel 11 :42-43). This means the King of the North mentioned in Bible prophecy is also the “KING OF ASSYRIA” – that is, the ruler or “king” of the WESTERN ALLIANCE – the head of the European-American confederation – or the FUTURE HEAD OF THE UNITED NATIONS!

A number of church groups and Bible students, when they think of “Assyria,” think only of “Germany.” They identify the prophecies of “Assyria” with modern Germany, and so they come to the erroneous conclusion that GERMANY will attack the United States, and lead Europe to initiate a thermonuclear war with America and Great Britain. This scenario is ridiculous to the extreme – utterly foolish and absurd!

Where have they gone wrong? They think only that “Assyria” means “Germany.” What they fail to realize is that in the Scriptures, the world kingdoms of Babylon and Persia were also called “ASSYRIA”!

Thus “Assyria” is a name for the GENTILE DOMINATED WORLD EMPIRES, down through history!

Isaiah’s Warning

Notice what it says in Isaiah 30 which is a prophecy for our day and the end-time. God warns, “Do not put your trust in human allies. This is a rebellious people, children who will not hear the law of the Lord—don’t want to think about it. Because you despise the word of God and trust in oppression and perversity today, and rely on them your breaking will come suddenly like a bulge in a wall. The day of great slaughter is coming, when the towers [like twin trade towers] fall” (Verses 8-25).

God thunders, “The word of the Lord comes from afar, burning with His anger, his lips are full of indignation and His tongue like a devouring fire. His breath is like an overflowing stream which reaches the neck” when He comes.

“The Lord will cause His glorious voice to be heard and show the descent of His arm with the indignation of his anger and the flame of devouring fire. Through the voice of the Lord, Assyria, [the end-time Babylonian Empire (conglomerate of ten end-time nations)] will be beaten down”—literally, “shattered” (Isaiah 30:30-31).

Just like Daniel 2 says, the stone (Messiah) will strike the feet and toes of the image (end-time empire--N.W.O.) and shatter them. “And in every place where the staff of punishment passes, which the LORD lays on him, it will be with tambourines and harps; and in battles of brandishing [waving ] he will fight with it. For Tophet [another name for Gehenna Fire] is established of old, yes, for the king it is prepared. He has made it deep and large; its pyre is fire with much wood; the breath of the Lord, like a stream of brimstone, kindles it” (Isa.30:32-33).

Who is “the Assyrian”?

Isaiah prophesies of the end-time “king of Assyria” saying, “Woe to Assyria, the rod of My anger and the staff in whose hand is My indignation. I will send him against an ungodly nation, and against the people of My wrath I will give him charge, to seize the spoil, to take the prey [seize the money and assets and enslave the people], and to tread them down like the mire of the streets. Yet he does not mean so, nor does his heart think so; but it is in his heart to destroy, and cut off not a few nations” (Isa.10:5-7).

Isaiah continues: “Therefore it shall come to pass, when the LORD has performed all His work on Mount Zion and on Jerusalem, that He will say, ‘I will punish the fruit of the arrogant heart of the king of Assyria, and the glory of his haughty looks.’ For he says: ‘By the strength of my hand I have done it, and by my wisdom, for I am prudent; also I have removed the BOUNDARIES of the people [i.e. forced Israel to give up land to the Palestinians!], and have robbed their treasuries; so I have put down the inhabitants like a valiant man. My hand has found like a nest the riches of the people, and as one gathers eggs that are left, I have gathered all the earth; and there was no one who moved his wing, nor opened his mouth with even a peep” (vs.12-14).

Who is this end-time ruler, leader, who destroys nations, who will rule the earth with an iron cruel fist?

The Moffatt translation says, “Woe betide this Assyria! He is my club in anger, the rod I wield in wrath; I speed him against an impious nation, a people with whom I am wroth, bidding him plunder and spoil them, trample them down like mud in the street” (Isaiah 10:5-6).

Interestingly, that is precisely what Barack Hussein Obama has done to America with his devastating policies, debt accumulation, job losses, economic absurdities, and intolerance toward those who do not support him.

But his ambitions go beyond destroying America. God says, “But other plans has he, and other aims! His thought is to exterminate the nations far and wide” (v.7).

But God says “he will punish the audacious vaunting of the king of Assyria and the arrogance of his pride” (v.12).

This king will be power-mad. He says in his heart, “My strong hand did it all, my clever strategy; I shifted the boundaries of nations I plundered their treasures, I reduced them to ashes, and felled their folk like a bullock; the wealth of nations, I rifled it all, like the nest of a bird, I ransacked the wide world as a man who gathers eggs, till not a wing fluttered, none dared cheep or chirp” (vs.13-14).

Could this be a prophecy of the rising up of Barack Hussein Obama?

Not only is he the leader of the rapidly rising “New World Order,” and the head of the end-time most powerful nation on earth, but astonishing new insight tells us vividly with proof the identity of this proud, cruel man who has no regard for the people.

The Obama Factor

In a new book The Obama Error, author and attorney Stephen Pidgeon exposes Obama for what he really is. He writes:

“The enactment of an agenda is underway, and this book will close the links concerning the role in all of this by he who calls himself Obama. While this strategy has been contemplated by the shadow government for well over a century, the person placed with the responsibility of bringing forth the reality of the emergence of the neo-Ottoman empire is Obama . . .” (p.34).

Says Pidgeon:

“In short, the Caliphate could not rise without the systematic betrayal of the West within. Enter the Ikhwan, Barack Hussein Obama—stealth jihadist, Muslim Brother, Sunni agentur, and betrayer of the free world. He is the lawless one” (p.35).

An “Ikhwan” is a “brother” in the Muslim Brotherhood.’ Obama has deep ties with the Muslim Brotherhood. He is truly a “Trojan Horse” placed in America to destroy opposition to the coming New World Order/Muslim Caliphate Empire destined to arise in the ‘last days’!

Pidgeon discloses:

“Although he has claimed to be a ‘Christian’ in word, he is a Muslim jihadist in deed. Better stated, his is an Ikhwan in deed – a latent and undisclosed member of the Muslim Brotherhood whose identity has been concealed (although he revealed it in Cairo in the Arabic language). Muslims in furtherance of jihad may use taquya – lying to infidels -- to further jihad and the promotion of Islam, and Obama has done nothing but lie to the American people since well before entering the Presidency. While all politicians stretch the truth, Obama’s lying is at pathological levels” (p.76).

Obama’s biological father was a Muslim; his adoptive father was a Muslim; his mother married two Muslim men and spent her life working in Muslim Indonesia and Muslim Pakistan. Obama’s friends and roommates in college were Muslims, as well as his traveling buddies. But even more than that – he is “currently engaged in organizing communities in Egypt, Tunisia, Yemen, Libya, Syria, Lebanon, Algeria, Morocco, Sudan, Pakistan. . . and now Saudi Arabia” (p.88).

Obama is the greatest mistake in American history. He is ineligible for the office of President, yet there he is. Says Pidgeon, “The nation has been captured however, by a foreign mindset; a mindset of cronyism, backroom politics, and loyalties outside the oaths declared, where public servants give one oath publicly to support the hallowed Constitution of the United States, and then work privately to overthrow every last letter of it in favor of an international order . . .” (p.40-41).

Declares Pidgeon, “This would-be messiah has done what he was trained to do: engage in a communist overthrow of the United States” (p.41). Pidgeon concludes:

“To summarize: by 1983,[Obama] was either an Indonesian citizen, or a Commonwealth citizen. One thing is certain: nothing on the record establishes him as an American citizen.

“Barack Obama is the name Barry Soetoro took when he ran for president, but Barack Hussein Obama is the name he took to assume office, although his birth name is allegedly Barack Hussein Obama II and his legal name is Barry Soetoro.

“The president is without any lawful citizenship without a lawful birth, without a lawful ancestry, without a lawful faith, and is holding office of President under an assumed name. He is truly the lawless one” (p.65).

Is Barack Hussein Obama the “Assyrian” prophesied for the last days in the Scriptures?

Writes Stephen Pidgeon, “Barak Hussein Obama II, the biological son of the first American martyr for the Nation of Islam[there is evidence that his true biological father may have been Malcolm X], the birth son of a Muslim Kenya Communist, the adopted son of a Muslim Indonesian intelligence asset, and the grandson of a Muslim itinerant worker and his PALESTINIAN/ASSYRIA WIFE, is the foremost agent in the world for the bringing of Islam to the nations” (p.88).

Notice this amazing fact! By his own pedigree and ancestry, Obama is descended from the Assyrians! That makes him an “Assyrian” by birth as well as by his title as head of the New World Order, if he is indeed “the one”!

Notice what Revelation 13:5 says about this beast: “there was given to him a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies; and power was given to him to continue 42 months (3 ½ years). My Bible margin indicates the word continue as meaning to make war. The Amplified Bible says “given freedom to exert his authority and to exercise his will for 42 months.”

John in Revelation further reveals, “The beast who once was, and now is not, he himself is an eighth ruler (king, head), but he is of the seven and he goes to perdition [damnation or destruction]. The ten horns which you saw are ten kings who have not received any kingdom yet, but together they are to receive power and authority as rulers for a single hour as kings with the beast. They have one mind [common policy, opinion, purpose] and will give their authority and power to the beast. They will make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb will overcome them for he is Lord of lords and King of kings—and those with Him and on His side are chosen and called (elected) and loyal and faithful followers” (Revelation 17: 11-14).

And so this evil man will come to his end, and no one can save him.

Did ANGELS Marry Women Before the FLOOD?

Did fallen angels, in rebellion against God and His laws, have sexual relations with human women in Noah's time, and produce hybrid offspring, such as the Nephilim, Zamzumim, and other races of GIANTS known as "men of renown"?

Many ancient sources testify that fallen angels, under the influence of Lucifer, led a revolt against the God of heaven, and violated His laws which ordain that there must be no inter-breeding between different "kinds" or "species" among the created beings of the Universe.

The Bible itself bears witness to this fact, in Genesis 6:1-4, where we read: "The sons of God saw that the daughters of men were fair, and they took wives of all that they desired and chose. . . There were giants in the earth in those days – and also afterward – when the sons of God lived with the daughters of men, and they bore CHILDREN to them" (Amplified Parallel Bible). The Septuagint Version has this verse, "the sons of God (Alexandrian, ANGELS of God) having seen the daughters of men." Josephus, in Antiquities of the Jews, says, "for many angels of God accompanied with women, and begat sons that proved unjust, and despisers of all that was good, on account of the confidence they had in their own strength, for the tradition is that these men did what resembled the acts of those whom the Grecians called GIANTS" (Jos., Ant., Bk.1, III, 1). Says the translator William Whiston, in a footnote, "This notion, that the fallen angels were, in some sense, the fathers of the old giants, was the constant opinion in antiquity."

Angels are called the "sons of God" in the book of Job: "Now there was a day when the sons (ANGELS) of God came to present themselves before the Lord, and Satan (the adversary and accuser) also came among them" (Job 1:6). In fact, when God created the heavens and the earth, "the morning stars sang together and all the sons of God shouted for joy" (Job 38:7). Did some of these angels rebel against God and have sex with women? Find out the TRUTH! The truth is laid bare in this fascinating, amazing book!

Extremists in Our Midst

“Where is the House Committee on Un-American Activities when we need it?”

“For decades, the hate-America left pounded away with the unrelenting theme that all of our investigating committees and agencies that exposed the enemies within must be silenced, defanged or abolished.

“The Manchurian President: Barack Obama’s Ties to Communists, Socialists and Other Anti-American Extremists” lays bare all the reasons for the pathological zeal with which that ultimately (mostly) successful wrecking-crew operation was pursued: The probes kept pointing to step-by-step infiltration of constituencies that favored the Democratic Party.

“That some of the most effective congressional efforts to ferret out traitors in our midst were conducted by Democrats only added to the fury of the militant left.

“In “The Manchurian President,” we have a compendium of the result (to date) of the left’s mission - started in the 1930s, accelerated in the ‘60s and realized in the ‘70s. In the ensuing decades, those who wished our country no good forged ahead full bore, or, as one of them (a mainstream-media journalist) is quoted as saying out loud: “I’m going to bore from within.”

“There is so much information in this damning indictment of the huge influence our enemies and their dupes have inflicted on government policies (and the results thereof) that a reviewer should not be surprised at having to grasp at the basics of where to begin. But here goes.

“First of all, the title: Unlike the movie “The Manchurian Candidate” (1962 with Frank Sinatra and Angela Lansbury or 2004 with Denzel Washington and Jon Voight), this book does not claim Barack Obama was brainwashed into becoming an assassin for the Communist Party or a sleeper agent for an international weapons manufacturer. Rather, the real-life “Manchurian” story is “that of a powerful politician whose true past has been intentionally obscured, and who has become a vehicle for implementing a hidden radical agenda.” All of that is to be found in these pages, precisely and painstakingly documented.

“As of this writing, only one official in the Obama administration has fallen victim to exposure for his potential to create mischief. But unless you had watched Glenn Beck on Fox News or followed the writings of Trevor Loudon or Cliff Kincaid, you would have awakened one morning in the midst of Labor Day weekend 2009 (when many were at the beach or some other location for an end-of-summer fling) and wondered, “Van Jones? Never heard of him.”

“That is because the establishment media turned a blind eye to Mr. Jones, Mr. Obama’s “green jobs” czar, and chose to ignore information in the thick file on his past. You did not know that a self-proclaimed communist was working at the White House at a high level of policymaking. The explanation was that Mr. Jones was let go because he had signed a petition accusing President George W. Bush of “deliberately allowing 9/11 to happen.”

“From that you would not have known, and in fact may be learning for the first time, thanks to the authors, the following:

“That Mr. Jones was a leader and founder of a communist revolutionary organization, STORM, describing itself as having “a commitment to the fundamental principles of Marxism-Leninism.”

“That Mr. Jones had said he “spent the next years of my life [the ‘90s] working with a lot of those people I met in jail, trying to be a revolutionary.”

“That Mr. Jones had boasted to an interviewer that his current environmentalism was really a means to fight for a redistribution of wealth - or “class justice,” as he worded it. This would tend to legitimize the likening of the “environmental” movement (or “global-warming” hype) to a watermelon: green on the outside, red in the inside.’

“Nor would you have known that Mr. Jones “reportedly was screened by a top Obama adviser,” and (again if you relied on the establishment media) you most certainly would not have known that “crucially, Jones is just one of scores of radical White House officials with agendas that may be far different from what they are made to appear.” (The Washington Times, Book Review, The Manchurian President, by Aaron Klein and Brenda J. Elliott, June 25, 2010).

FDA Gone Berserk!

“Seen any walnuts in your medicine cabinet lately? According to the Food and Drug Administration, that is precisely where you should find them. Because Diamond Foods made truthful claims about the health benefits of consuming walnuts that the FDA didn’t approve, it sent the company a letter declaring, “Your walnut products are drugs” — and “new drugs” at that — and, therefore, “they may not legally be marketed ... in the United States without an approved new drug application.” The agency even threatened Diamond with “seizure” if it failed to comply.

“Diamond’s transgression was to make “financial investments to educate the public and supply them with walnuts,” as William Faloon of Life Extension magazine put it. On its website and packaging, the company stated that the omega-3 fatty acids found in walnuts have been shown to have certain health benefits, including reduced risk of heart disease and some types of cancer. These claims, Faloon notes, are well supported by scientific research: “Life Extension has published 57 articles that describe the health benefits of walnuts”; and “The US National Library of Medicine database contains no fewer than 35 peer-reviewed published papers supporting a claim that ingesting walnuts improves vascular health and may reduce heart attack risk.”

“This evidence was apparently not good enough for the FDA, which told Diamond that its walnuts were “misbranded” because the “product bears health claims that are not authorized by the

“The FDA’s letter continues: “We have determined that your walnut products are promoted for conditions that cause them to be drugs because these products are intended for use in the prevention, mitigation, and treatment of disease.” Furthermore, the products are also “misbranded” because they “are offered for conditions that are not amenable to self-diagnosis and treatment by individuals who are not medical practitioners; therefore, adequate directions for use cannot be written so that a layperson can use these drugs safely for their intended purposes.” Who knew you had to have directions to eat walnuts?

“The FDA’s language,” Faloon writes, “resembles that of an out-of-control police state where tyranny [reigns] over rationality.” He adds:

‘This kind of bureaucratic tyranny sends a strong signal to the food industry not to innovate in a way that informs the public about foods that protect against disease. While consumers increasingly reach for healthier dietary choices, the federal government wants to deny food companies the ability to convey findings from scientific studies about their products.’

“Walnuts aren’t the only food whose health benefits the FDA has tried to suppress. Producers of pomegranate juice and green tea, among others, have felt the bureaucrats’ wrath whenever they have suggested that their products are good for people.

“Meanwhile, Faloon points out, foods that have little to no redeeming value are advertised endlessly, often with dubious health claims attached. For example, Frito-Lay is permitted to make all kinds of claims about its fat-laden, fried products, including that Lay’s potato chips are “heart healthy.” Faloon concludes that “the FDA obviously does not want the public to discover that they can reduce their risk of age-related disease by consuming healthy foods. They prefer consumers only learn about mass-marketed garbage foods that shorten life span by increasing degenerative disease risk.”

“Faloon thinks he knows why this is the case. First, by stifling competition from makers of more healthful alternatives, junk food manufacturers, who he says “heavily lobb[y]” the federal government for favorable treatment, will rake in ever greater profits. Second, by making it less likely that Americans will consume healthful foods, big pharmaceutical companies and medical device manufacturers stand to gain by selling more “expensive cardiac drugs, stents, and coronary bypass procedures” to those made ill by their diets.

“But people are starting to fight back against the FDA’s tactics. “The makers of pomegranate juice, for example, have sued the FTC for censoring their First Amendment right to communicate scientific information to the public,” Faloon reports. Congress is also getting into the act with a bill, the Free Speech About Science Act (H.R. 1364), that, Faloon writes, “protects basic free speech rights, ends censorship of science, and enables the natural health products community to share peer-reviewed scientific findings with the public.”

“Of course, if the Constitution were being followed as intended, none of this would be necessary. The FDA would not exist; but if it did, as a creation of Congress it would have no power to censor any speech whatsoever. If companies are making false claims about their products, the market will quickly punish them for it, and genuine fraud can be handled through the courts. In the absence of a government agency supposedly guaranteeing the safety of their food and drugs and the truthfulness of producers’ claims, consumers would become more discerning, as indeed they already are becoming despite the FDA’s attempts to prevent the dissemination of scientific research. Besides, as Faloon observed, “If anyone still thinks that federal agencies like the FDA protect the public, this proclamation that healthy foods are illegal drugs exposes the government’s sordid charade.” (“Walnuts are Drugs, Says FDA,” Michael Tennant, July 21, 2011, New American).

Obama’s Social Security Number – a Fraud?

“The Plot Thickens

“An intensive investigation has revealed the identity of the man whose Social Security number (SSN) is being used by President Obama: Jean Paul Ludwig, who was born in France in 1890, emigrated to the United States in 1924, and was assigned SSN 042-68-4425 (Obama's current SSN) in or about March 1977.

“Ludwig lived most of his adult life in Connecticut . Because of that, his SSN begins with the digits 042, which are among only a select few reserved for Connecticut residents.

“Obama never lived or worked in that state! Therefore, there is no reason on earth for his SSN to start with the digits 042. None whatsoever!

“Now comes the best part! Ludwig spent the final months of his life in Hawaii, where he died.

“Conveniently, Obama's grandmother, Madelyn Payne Dunham, worked part-time in the Probate Office in the Honolulu Hawaii Courthouse, and therefore had access to the SSNs of deceased individuals.

“The Social Security Administration was never informed of Ludwig's death, and because he never received Social Security benefits there were no benefits to stop and therefore, no questions were ever raised.

“The suspicion, of course, is that Dunham, knowing her grandson was not a U.S. citizen, either because he was born in Kenya or became a citizen of Indonesia upon his adoption by Lolo Soetoro simply scoured the probate records until she found someone who died who was not receiving Social Security benefits, and selected Mr. Ludwigs Connecticut SSN for Obama.” (Americans, the time has come, “Interesting Research on Obama’s Social Security Number. True?”, July 22, 2011).

Shocking job decline shows “Great Invisible Depression” getting worse

July 12, 2011 -- America's economy seems trapped in a downward spiral of high unemployment, sinking home prices, currency decline and near-zero economic growth.

“An economy requires hope and optimism, one facet of what economist John Maynard Keynes called "Animal Spirits," to give people the optimism to invest and hire.

“Last Friday's U.S. jobs report will drive the continuing "death spiral" of the economy -- in which lack of optimism begets less hiring which begets even less optimism . . . .

“Worse yet, Americans now face a fast-approaching tidal wave of inflation that could sink our economy, and the U.S. Dollar, and plunge our world into conflict and chaos.

“Behind today's crisis is “the Inflatocracy, a new kind of government of, by and for inflation,” that has staged a quiet coup d'etat and replaced the government of America's Founders write Smith and Ponte.

“The “Inflatocracy” creates de facto New Economic Order

“The Inflatocracy, and the huge welfare state it makes possible, have brought the United States and millions of Americans to the brink of bankruptcy.

“According to classic free market economics, once an inflationary boom begins it always ends in a bust, as the malinvestments created by the inflationary boom are cleansed from the economy by the market. Exhibit A: the now-defunct housing boom.

“If you think the housing bubble bust was painful, imagine what will happen during the next crisis when the “banker's bank,” the Fed itself finds itself insolvent.

“Forbes.com reports “Prior to the bursting of the credit bubble, the public was shocked to learn that our biggest investment banks were leveraged 30-to-1. When asset values fell, those banks were quickly wiped out. But now the Fed is holding many of the same types of assets and is leveraged 51-to-1! If the value of their portfolio were to fall by just 2%, the Fed itself would be wiped out.”

“In the past two years Federal Reserve Chair Ben Bernanke has printed $2 Trillion to stimulate America's sinking economy – that's $52.5 Billion of capital backing a $2.7 Trillion balance sheet – and then the Obama Administration raised our nation's bet on John Maynard Keynesian stimulus to over $4 Trillion.

“They failed! America's economic growth has slowed to an anemic 1.9 percent that experts now describe as “stall speed,” a rate that could plunge us back into a Great Recession or even another Great Depression.

““There is no evidence that huge inflow of money into the system basically worked,” former Fed Chair Alan Greenspan told CNBC in a live interview last week. Even Ben Bernanke recently admitted that the economy is getting worse, despite all of the borrowing, printing and spending.

“In 1929 our government decided to borrow, print and spend money that we did not have in order to prompt a “recovery.” It didn't work then and it will not work now. Some experts think the U.S. could see 1930s-style bank runs ahead!” (Personal Liberty Digest, “Two More Obama Lies,” Chip Wood, July 15, 2011).

Where's the REAL Birth Certificate?

“For two years, until the latest sign went up this spring, a campaign that posted “Where's The Birth Certificate?” billboards near Washington, on the freeways of Los Angeles, along the Gulf Coast while President Obama was vacationing there and dozens of other places, demanded the documentation for a president whose eligibility to hold the office remains unproven.

“The sign is along Route 15 northbound, two miles south of Dillsburg for Harrisburg-bound traffic, some 10 miles south of the Pennsylvania Capital City beltway, Route 581, officials announced. Jump aboard the campaign that is aimed at, finally, uncovering the truth about Obama's history and eligibility, now through the WND Superstore!

“Then Barack Obama held a White House news conference to release what he said was a copy of a copy of his original documentation in Hawaii, and his staff members announced it was “proof positive” of a Hawaiian birth for Obama.

“But now that the image has been reviewed and examined by experts, a new billboard campaign is being launched, demanding ‘Where's the REAL Birth Certificate?’

“Joseph Farah, editor and chief executive officer of WND as well as the originator behind both billboard campaigns, said, ‘If Barack Obama thinks he ended the controversy of his eligibility by releasing a demonstrably fake birth certificate, he's got another think coming.'

"He continued, 'Instead, he has considerably raised the stakes. What's that old saying?' "The cover-up is worse than the crime." By releasing, in desperation, a bogus document to the American people, Obama has painted himself into a corner with an issue he can never escape.'

"That the document is fraudulent and has been manipulated has been documented by a long list of document, computer and imaging experts.

" 'This is not only a fake document, it is an obvious fake document," warned Mara Zebest, an author and contributor to literally dozens of books on computers and software.

" 'My guess is that the creator of this document was inexperienced when it comes to a multitude of concepts in using Adobe software,' she said. 'Whoever forged the Obama birth certificate might have known enough to be dangerous, but not enough to know how to cover their tracks.'

"Zebest's comments have been backed up by a long list of other experts, and, strangely, there's been only one expert who has attested to the idea that it is genuine. He later, however, told WND that he had been misquoted in the report on the issue and the Fox network had refused to correct it.

"Additionally, when the Obama document was released, WND contacted state officials in Hawaii to confirm that the image released was an accurate representation of the state's original records, and they refused to do so.

"The actual original document has yet to be seen by anyone as the state of Hawaii continues to conceal whatever the archives hold. What was released by the White House is an image of the copy that Obama had his private attorney fetch from Hawaii . . ." (WND, 7-11-11).

Why Do Christians Worship on Sunday?

"Have you ever wondered why one of the Ten Commandments seems null and void – notably the one calling on believers to observe the Sabbath?

"Ask your pastor or priest and you will probably hear it's because Jesus rose from the dead on Sunday – which is not even a certainty if you read the Bible carefully.

"And then there's the little problem of this switch of worship days not being mentioned in the Bible – and the historical fact that most Christians continued observing the Sabbath for hundreds of years after Jesus rose from the dead.

"So what happened? What caused the switch?"

"The WND Superstore has compiled a treasure trove of literature and video documentaries that trace the history.

"Some of what you will find is nothing short of shocking for Christians who take Sunday worship for granted.

"First there is the classic, scholarly work of the late Samuele Bacchiocchi in 'From Sabbath to Sunday.'

"Bacchiocchi earned his doctorate in church history at the Pontifical Gregorian University in Rome and was awarded a gold medal by Pope Paul VI for his summa cum laude class work and dissertation, 'From Sabbath to Sunday: A Historical Investigation of the Rise of Sunday Observance in Early Christianity.'

"His studies gave him unique access to Roman Catholic historical archives that shed much light on the transition from Sabbath to Sunday.

"The Church of the capital of the empire, whose authority was already felt far and wide in the second century, appears to be the most likely birthplace of Sunday observance," he concluded.

"In one of his last interviews before his death, he told WND: 'Anti-Judaism caused the abandonment of the Sabbath, and pagan sun worship influenced the adoption of Sunday.'

"He says evidence of anti-Judaism is found in the writings of Christian leaders such as Ignatius, Barnabus and Justin in the second century. He notes these three 'witnessed and participated in the process of separation from Judaism which led the majority of the Christians to abandon the Sabbath and adopt Sunday as the new day of worship.’

“Bacchiocchi also explains the influence of pagan sun worship provides a "plausible explanation for the Christian choice of Sunday" over the day of Saturn. Its effect wasn't just limited to Sunday. It apparently led to the placement of Jesus' birth in late December. ‘The adoption of the 25th of December for the celebration of Christmas is perhaps the most explicit example of sun worship's influence on the Christian liturgical calendar,’ Bacchiocchi writes. ‘It is a known fact that the pagan feast of the Dies Natalis Solis Invicti – the birthday of the Invincible Sun, was held on that date.’

“One of the Roman names for this ‘Invincible Sun’ god in the days of the apostles was Mithra. There are striking similarities between the ancient worship of Mithra and today's Christianity, leading some to think early Christians adopted Sunday worship from heathen customs” (WND, 7-24-11).

The Muslim Brotherhood

“The Muslim Brotherhood’s creed says: ‘Allah is our objective. The Prophet is our leader. The Qur’an is our law. Jihad is our way. Dying in the way of Allah is our highest hope” (source: Husain Haqqani and Hillel Fradkin, ‘Islamist Parties: Going Back to the Origins’).

The Muslim Brotherhood’s Mission in America says: ‘A kind of grand jihad in eliminating and destroying the Western civilization from within, sabotaging its miserable house with their [Americans’] hands and the hands of the believers so that it is eliminated and God’s religion is made victorious over all other religions” (source: Muslim Brotherhood’s ‘Explanatory Memorandum on the General Strategic Goals of the Group,’ entered into evidence by the Department of Justice in the 2008 Holy Land Foundation terrorism-finance trial)” (“The Jerusalem Connection Report,” July 8, 2011).

Kenyan President of USA?

“An internal bulletin from the Kenyan National Security Intelligence Service, or NSIS, states that the Kenyan government in 2011 commissioned a cultural museum in the Obama home village of Kogelo to honor the ‘birthplace of President Barack Obama’ and rededicate the tomb of his father, Barack Obama Sr.

“The 2009 NSIS bulletin report said: The ministry of national heritage this month hosted a cultural festival in Kogelo and commissioned a cultural museum on a plot donated by a member of the Kogelo community. The cultural festival was attended by the minister for national heritage, William ole Ntimama and U.S. ambassador, Michael Ranneherger. This was to honor the birthplace of President Obama and rededicate the tomb of Barack Hussein Obama, Sr., the president's late father. But the project had been delayed because of ownership wrangles surrounding the plot. According to an article in the Kenyan Daily Nation newspaper July 5, 2010, the Kenyan government's plans to build a 112 million Kenyan Schilling ($1.3 million) cultural center at Kogelo was locked in a dispute over who should donate land to the government for the project. The Daily Nation, which published an artist's sketch of the proposed Kogelo cultural center, referred to it as Obama's ‘ancestral home.’

“The NSIS memo suggests the Kenyan intelligence agency kept a close watch on the Obama family in Africa. It noted the Kenyan government provided assistance to Obama's step-grandmother, Sarah Hussein Obama, in the form of additional security and a government stipend of 50,000 Kenyan Schillings ($575) per month.

“As WND reported, Kenyan MP James Orengo, for example. asked the nation's parliament, ‘How could a young man born here in Kenya, who is not even a native American, become the president of America?’ On the day after Obama's election. MP Boni Khalwale asked fellow members, ‘Could we allow. . . a Motion for Adjournment so that we could also continue the celebrations of having a Kenyan ruling the USA?’” (WND, May 30, 2011, Jerome Corsi).

War Zones in America

“As the U.S. economy falls apart and millions of Americans descend into despair we are seeing some really shocking things start to happen all over America. The mainstream media keeps telling us that crime is under control, but they are also the ones that keep telling us that we are in the midst of an 'economic recovery'. Unfortunately, the truth is that the economy is slowly dying. Today, an all-time record 44 million Americans are on food stamps. That number is 18 million higher than it was just four years ago. When people can't get jobs and when people feel deprived they get desperate. . . Many American communities are rapidly turning into war zones. Sadly, it is mostly young people that are involved in the crimes and the violence that are now sweeping America. . . .

"Sadly, it is true that many of our young people are extremely wild. But a lot of that is our own fault. We did not believe in teaching our kids about "morality", and so now they do not have any. We did not believe in having the Ten Commandments around, and so now many of our young people feel free to steal and murder. We allowed television and movies to raise our kids, and now they are acting out what they have been watching all of their lives.

"If your community is not a war zone yet, you should consider yourself to be very fortunate. There are many communities across the United States where people simply do not go out at night anymore.

"Wherever large groups of Americans gather these days, big problems often seem to follow" ("The End of the American Dream.com").

The Housing Apocalypse

"There will be no sustainable housing recovery until the shadow inventory is cleared out. As of April with the latest data over 6 million loans are delinquent or in foreclosure. This is a massive number of homes.

"What is downright disturbing of the 2.2 million homes in foreclosure you have 675,000 homes (31 percent of the pool) that have not made a payment in over two years. That is right, two full years. Apparently one-third of the bank's strategy in dealing with foreclosures is simply to ignore missed payments. (AND IT IS GETTING WORSE WE HAVE NOT HIT BOTTOM).

"Glad it took them giant bailouts and four years to figure that one out. The housing crisis strategy is really a banking-centric one and that is why nothing has really been resolved since the crisis started. Banks are dictating the movement going forward so the idea of keeping prices inflated is simply one to protect banking interests.

"Since the market has very little desire for inflated real estate, banks just slip it under the rug for another day. Keep in mind that many Americans are seeing lower wages so lower home prices are actually good for their bottom line since it eats away less of their hard earned income.

"Plus, one-third own their home outright and another 30 percent rent. So this idea of keeping home prices high just for the sake of keeping them high is a ploy that comes out of the suspension of mark-to-market logic. Do people finally get that home prices have to fall to reflect local area incomes?

"According to CR we have the following:
 --2.24 million loans less than 90 days delinquent.
 --1.96 million loans 90+ days delinquent.
 --2.18 million loans in foreclosure process.

For a total of 6.38 million loans delinquent or in foreclosure in April. That is a large number of homes. Now keep in mind foreclosures are now starting to make their way onto the MLS since banks are actually taking full possession of the homes (although the reality that 675,000 people have not made a single payment in two years tells you where things stand). I'm curious to know how many people are living in million dollar homes rent free. (we are talking 10 years at least for all this to become normal)." (Dr. Housing Bubble, in "The Prophetic News Service," June 2011).

COMMENT: We are just beginning to enter the time known as "Jacob's Troubles," the times of "great distress" among nations, what Moffatt calls "the crisis at the close," quoting Daniel the prophet. Yeshua said, "These are the beginning of sorrows" or "travail" or "birth pangs." It is certainly time to get our spiritual houses in order!

Obama's Agenda: Overwhelm the System

"Rahm Emanuel cynically said, "You never want a crisis to go to waste." It is now becoming clear that the crisis he was referring to is Barack Obama's presidency.

Obama is no fool. He is not incompetent. To the contrary, he is brilliant. He knows exactly what he's doing. He is purposely overwhelming the U.S. economy to create systemic failure, economic crisis and social chaos -- thereby destroying capitalism and our country from within.

Barack Obama is my college classmate (Columbia University, class of '83). As Glenn Beck correctly predicted from day one, Obama is following the plan of Cloward & Piven, two professors at Columbia University. They outlined a plan to socialize America by overwhelming the system with government spending and entitlement demands. Add up the clues below. Taken individually they're alarming. Taken as a whole, it is a brilliant, Machiavellian game plan to turn the United States into a socialist/Marxist state with a permanent majority that desperately needs government for survival ... and can be counted on to always vote for bigger government. Why not? They have no responsibility to pay for it.

-- Universal health care. The health care bill had very little to do with health care. It had everything to do with unionizing millions of hospital and health care workers, as well as adding 15,000 to 20,000 new IRS agents (who will join government employee unions). Obama doesn't care that giving free health care to 30 million Americans will add trillions to the national debt. What he does care about is that it cements the dependence of those 30 million voters to Democrats and big government. Who but a socialist revolutionary would pass this reckless spending bill in the middle of a depression?

-- Cap and trade. Like health care legislation having nothing to do with health care, cap and trade has nothing to do with global warming. It has everything to do with redistribution of income, government control of the economy and a criminal payoff to Obama's biggest contributors. Those powerful and wealthy unions and contributors (like GE, which owns NBC, MSNBC and CNBC) can then be counted on to support everything Obama wants. They will kick-back hundreds of millions of dollars in contributions to Obama and the Democratic Party to keep them in power. The bonus is that all the new taxes on Americans with bigger cars, bigger homes and businesses helps Obama "spread the wealth around."

-- Make Puerto Rico a state. Why? Who's asking for a 51st state? Who's asking for millions of new welfare recipients and government entitlement addicts in the middle of a depression? Certainly not American taxpayers. But this has been Obama's plan all along. His goal is to add two new Democrat senators, five Democrat congressman and a million loyal Democratic voters who are dependent on big government.

-- Legalize 12 million illegal immigrants. Just giving these 12 million potential new citizens free health care alone could overwhelm the system and bankrupt America. But it adds 12 million reliable new Democrat voters who can be counted on to support big government. Add another few trillion dollars in welfare, aid to dependent children, food stamps, free medical, education, tax credits for the poor, and eventually Social Security.

-- Stimulus and bailouts. Where did all that money go? It went to Democrat contributors, organizations (ACORN), and unions -- including billions of dollars to save or create jobs of government employees across the country. It went to save GM and Chrysler so that their employees could keep paying union dues. It went to AIG so that Goldman Sachs could be bailed out (after giving Obama almost $1 million in contributions). A staggering $125 billion went to teachers (thereby protecting their union dues). All those public employees will vote loyally Democrat to protect their bloated salaries and pensions that are bankrupting America. The country goes broke, future generations face a bleak future, but Obama, the Democrat Party, government, and the unions grow more powerful. The ends justify the means.

-- Raise taxes on small business owners, high-income earners, and job creators. Put the entire burden on only the top 20 percent of taxpayers, redistribute the income, punish success, and reward those who did nothing to deserve it (except vote for Obama). Reagan wanted to dramatically cut taxes in order to starve the government. Obama wants to dramatically raise taxes to starve his political opposition.

With the acts outlined above, Obama and his regime have created a vast and rapidly expanding constituency of voters dependent on big government; a vast privileged class of public employees who work for big government; and a government dedicated to destroying capitalism and installing themselves as socialist rulers by overwhelming the system.

Add it up and you've got the perfect Marxist scheme -- all devised by my Columbia University college classmate Barack Obama” (Wayne Allyn Root, Las Vegas Review Journal, June 6, 2010).

Dead Men Don't Talk – SEALS Killed to Cover Up Bin Laden Execution Hoax?

“The wiping out of 30 US special forces in the Chinook helicopter crash in Afghanistan comes at a time when Washington’s official version of how it carried out the assassination of Osama bin Laden was falling apart from incredulity.

“Among the 38 dead in the helicopter disaster – the biggest single loss of American lives in the 10-year Afghanistan war of occupation – are believed to have been 17 US Navy Seals. The dead also include other members of US special forces and Afghan commandos.

“Early Western news media reports indicated that the Chinook may have been involved in a significant military operation against Afghan militants when it went down in Wardak Province, not far west from the capital, Kabul, early Saturday.

“Taliban sources are reported to have claimed that its militants shot down the Chinook with rocket fire. US military officials say they are investigating the cause of the crash.

“However, significantly, unnamed US sources have told media outlets that they believe the helicopter was shot down. This unofficial US briefing seems a bit odd. Why would US military sources want to hand enemy combatants a stunning propaganda coup?

“Perhaps, it serves US interests to divert from the real motive and cause of the helicopter crash, whether it was hit by a rocket or not.

“US officials have admitted that the dead Navy Seals were part of the Team Six unit that allegedly carried out the assassination in May of the supposed 9/11 mastermind Osama bin Laden.

From the outset, Washington’s account of how its special forces murdered Bin Laden in his residential compound in Abbottabad, northern Pakistan, has been riven with contradictions. Why was the liquidated Bin Laden buried hurriedly at sea? How could the world’s “No 1 Terrorist” have resided inconspicuously only miles from the Pakistani military headquarters in Rawalpindi?

“Most glaringly, several informed sources are convinced that Bin Laden died from natural causes years ago. Author Ralph Schoenman dismissed the alleged Navy Seal execution as “a big lie”. Schoenman cited evidence on this subject from former Pakistani Prime Minister Benazir Bhutto, among others, for their confirmation that Bin Laden had died from kidney failure years earlier.

“More recently, as Paul Craig Roberts reports , Pakistani locals have claimed that the Navy Seal operation in Abbottabad ended in disaster, with one of three US helicopters exploding as it took off from the ground near the compound. The other two choppers had not landed and, according to witnesses, they flew from the scene immediately after the explosion. As Roberts points out, that means there was no Bin Laden corpse to dispose of at sea, as Washington maintains.

“The key people who would know the truth about Washington’s incredible Bin Laden assassination are now unavailable for comment. Case sealed. (Global Researchca, August 11, 2011, by Finian Cunningham).

Department of Justice Obstructs Murder Investigation!

“The Department of Justice (DOJ) has deliberately undercut investigations into the murder of Tucson District Border Patrol Agent, Brian Terry. Apparently DOJ will do anything to avoid blame for the effects of their Gunrunner/Fast and Furious gun-smuggling operations.

“Two days after the former Marine and Border

Agent was killed, on December 14th, 2010, Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms (ATF) Phoenix supervisors confirmed AK47 rifles from the Terry murder scene were from Operation Gunrunner's "Fast and Furious" smuggling scheme to deliver nearly 2000 combat weapons to Mexican drug cartels. (Serrano, 2011)

"Emails sent by ATF supervisors two days after Terry's killing openly discuss Fast and Furious guns found at the murder scene. George Gillett, acting special agent in charge, sent his boss, William Newell, a 'narrative of incident/activity' about the Border Agent's death. The email narrative said Jaime Avila bought three AK-47s a year earlier from a Phoenix-area store and two "were recovered in the area" of Agent Terry's killing. 'In summary,' the email said, 'Avila admitted to ATF agents that he straw purchased these firearms for an unidentified Hispanic male.' (ATF emails 2011)

"Two months later, the United States Department of Justice clumsily tried to obstruct the Terry murder investigation.

"In response to Senator Grassley's question about the Terry murder gun, DOJ emailed, 'these allegations are not true', and made no acknowledgement the guns were even there. Then DOJ reversed themselves and made a specious distinction between guns 'found' at the murder scene and guns 'used' in the killing. (Serrano, 2011)

"More obstruction in a February 3rd email to ATF supervisors: 'You are in no way obligated to respond to congressional contacts or requests for information...not authorized to disclose non-public information about law enforcement matters outside of ATF or the Department of Justice to anyone, including congressional staff.' (ATF emails, 2011)

"In emails to William Hoover, ATF acting deputy director, bureau officials even discussed what steps to take to throw Grassley and congressional investigators off the murder trail. An email to Hoover actually proposed obstruction: a "watered-down" account of what was found at the site of the Terry killing. (Serrano, 2011) (ATF emails, 2011)

"Lastly, in a cynical parody of reality on July 19th, spokeswoman for Attorney General,

Holder, Tracy Schmalzer, said to Senate investigators, 'Fighting criminal activity along the southwest border - including the illegal trafficking of guns to Mexico - has been a priority of this administration and this Department of Justice.' (Seper, 2011)

"Faced with lying to Congress, suborning perjury, and poisoning a murder investigation, what should Americans do when their Justice Department obstructs justice?" (The Intercept, August 11, 2011).

Fukushima "Off Level" Radiation Spikes Infers Millions Dying

"Fukushima nuclear power plant radiation recordings of external gamma radiation have been so high this week, they went off scale said veteran nuclear expert Arnie Gunderson on Thursday after the famous physicist, Dr. Chris Busby told the Japanese people this week that radioactive air contamination there is now 300 times that of Chernobyl and 1000 times the atomic bomb peak in 1963, inferring that hundreds of millions of people are now dying from Fukushima radiation, including people in the United States.

"If noticing unusual amounts of hair falling out, confusion, nose bleeds or other odd symptoms typical of radiation sickness, it might be due to the United States record high levels of radiation, now multiple times acceptable safety limits not only on the west coast, but also in other locations around the nation.

"Because Fukushima radiation data retrieval and interpretation has been so complex or non-existent for the concerned public, citizen reporters in Japan and United States have now established easily accessible ways to view radiation levels on the internet.

"Fukushima radiation depopulation unfathomable: Possibly 100s of millions deaths

Obama's Plan to Sodomize America

Noah W. Hutchings, The Prophetic Observer

One of the first official acts of Barack Obama upon becoming president of the United States was to issue a proclamation designating June, the traditional month of brides, as LGBT (or homosexual) Month. According to Obama this was done to honor this minority segment of the U.S. population (1.7 percent) as this nation's most important citizens. The full text of the proclamation was carried in the June 27, 2009, edition of San Francisco Pride. The reason for dedicating a month to honor homosexuals was stated in the opening sentence;

“LGBT [Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender] Americans have made and continue to make great and lasting contributions that continue to strengthen the fabric of American society; LGBT Americans have mobilized the nation to respond to the domestic HIV/AIDS epidemic, and played a vital role in broadening the country's response in the HIV epidemic.”

This opening statement regarding the actual role homosexuals have played in U.S. history and the president's appraisal of their alerting other citizens to the need of solving the AIDS curse on humanity is beyond rational comprehension. Obama's narcissistic mindset aims to change the truth into a lie and a lie into the truth. It is a known fact that AIDS was first recognized as a new disease in 1981, when a number of young gay men in New York and Los Angeles were diagnosed with symptoms not usually seen in individuals with healthy immune systems. Originally named GRID5 for Gay Related Immune Deficiency Syndrome, AIDS is mainly transmitted through sexual activity and has already caused the death of hundreds of millions of people worldwide. In his book Real Change, Newt Gingrich shares that within three counties in Florida, AIDS victims hit Medicare for over $480 million in just six months. Evidence indicates that AIDS victims are bankrupting Medicare and robbing senior citizens of this insurance for which they have paid through salary deductions. The president continues in the next section of his homosexual proclamation:

“I am proud to be the first president to appoint LGBT candidates to Senate-confirmed positions in the first 100 days of an administration. These individuals embody the best qualities we seek in public service.”

The fact is that the Senate complained that Obama was appointing “czars” without confirmation. The record also indicates that he has appointed over 150 homosexuals to high government offices with administrative responsibilities. It is difficult to name anyone in the new administration who is not a homosexual and if as Obama says, these are indeed the best people, he would seem to include himself. In 2008 a Minnesota man named Larry Sinclair came forward and claimed that in 1999 he took cocaine with the then-Illinois legislator and participated in homosexual acts with him. Sinclair charges Obama smoked crack cocaine in the limo while Sinclair snorted powdered cocaine provided by the legislator. He says the two met in an upscale Chicago lounge before leaving in Sinclair's limousine where the drug use and sex took place for the first time. Sinclair, who says he is willing to submit to a polygraph test to validate his claims, stated, "My motivation for making this public is my desire for a presidential candidate to be honest," Sinclair told WND by telephone. "I didn't want the sex thing to come out. But I think it is important for the candidate to be honest about his drug use as late as 1999."

As to future plans for the homosexual segment of the population. the president continued:

"My administration has partnered with the LGBT community to advance a wide range of initiatives. At the international level, I have joined efforts at the United Nations to decriminalize homosexuality around the world. . . . These measures include supporting civil unions . . . ensuring adoption rights, and ending existing 'Don't Ask, Don't Tell' policies in a way that strengthens the armed forces and national security."

Mr. Obama admits, or professes, that he is not just a member of the Democratic Party, but he is also a member of the LGBT Party and that he will work to accomplish all homosexual goals while in office. These goals were set forth in the Gay Community News publication on February 15, 1987, in an article titled "The Gay Manifesto," written by pen name Michael Swift:

"We shall sodomize your sons, emblems of your feeble masculinity, of your shallow dreams and vulgar lies. We shall seduce them in your schools, in your dormitories, in your gymnasiums, in your locker rooms, in your sports arenas, in your seminaries, in your youth groups, in your movie theater bathrooms, in your army bunkhouses, in your truck stops, in your all male clubs, in your houses of Congress, wherever men are with men together. Your sons shall become our minions and do our bidding. They will be recast in our image. They will come to crave and adore us. . . . All laws banning homosexual activity will be revoked. Instead, legislation shall be passed which engenders love between men. All homosexuals must stand together as brothers; we must be united artistically, philosophically, socially, politically and financially. We will triumph only when we present a common face to the vicious heterosexual enemy. If you dare to cry faggot, fairy, queer, at us, we will stab you in your cowardly hearts and defile your dead, puny bodies . . . There will be no compromises. We are not middle-class weaklings. Highly intelligent, we are the natural aristocrats of the human race, and steely-minded aristocrats never settle for less. Those who oppose us will be exiled. We shall raise vast private armies, as Mishima did, to defeat you. We shall conquer the world because warriors inspired by and banded together by homosexual love and honor are invincible as were the ancient Greek soldiers. The family unit—a spawning ground of lies, betrayals, mediocrity, hypocrisy and violence—will be abolished. The family unit, which only dampens imagination and curbs free will, must be eliminated. . . All churches who condemn us will be closed. Our only gods are handsome young men.”

There has been much debate over the intent of “The Gay Manifesto.” Some in the gay community shrug it off as a sarcastic joke, claiming it was written to mock those against the homosexual agenda. However, most in the gay community embrace it as a battle hymn for the LGBT movement. To those of us standing against the sodomizing of our nation and its values, “The Gay Manifesto” is a very real, and very terrifying, threat. (For a full copy of “The Gay Manifesto,” call-800-6S2-1144)

One of the goals of the Communist Party in weakening the United States was to use homosexuality as stated in Agenda 21. One specific goal was to infiltrate the armed forces. This was started by Bill Clinton during his presidency through the “Don't Ask, Don't Tell” program under which 16,000 homosexuals enlisted. However some 12,000 had to be dismissed because they not only told, they did what homosexuals do.

President Obama got the bill passed to allow unrestricted enrollment in the military services for homosexuals by submitting a false report to a lame duck Congress. According to a June 27, 2011, report by World Net Daily, the presidential report to Congress stated that 70 percent of the military polled said it was alright with them for gays to enlist. According to the Inspector General, the White House wrote the report before any such poll was taken.

Likewise a recent poll which claims that there are no adverse effects of gays joining the military services has been labeled false by Robert Knight in a June 15, 2011, One News Now report. Knight states that this information is inaccurate because military personnel cannot voice open objection to military orders. The implementation was slated to begin at the speed and affirmation of the commanding officers, yet a federal court order for July 7, 2011, showed that implementation must begin at once, without the permission of the military. These reports indicate President Obama committed to complete the proposed programs of the homosexual organizations, even under subterfuge and lies.

Another of the stated goals of the homosexual conspiracy is the destruction of the family unit. God made Adam first and then Eve and the couple subsequently had two children, Cain and Abel. God established the family between one man and one woman. While this order may vary in some religions and cultures, all still maintain that the family begins with a man and a woman. Without family, no civilization, social order, or government can exist. Without this continuing relationship between the sexes, humanity degenerates to the level of animals. President Obama ordered that the Defense of Marriage Act not be defended by the federal government, and in a statement referenced by Yahoo! News on June 23, 2011, President Obama indicated he saw no difference between marriage of a man and a woman to the marriage of two of the same sex.

Seven states have made same-sex marriages legal, the latest being New York. Catholic Bishop Dimmarzio stated in a June 30, 2011, CNS news item that the Christian marriage has been demonized by both Democrats and Republicans, that the pillar of civilization has been destroyed, and that no senator, congressman, or government representative be allowed to enter any Catholic church in his parish.

This nation of some 300 million does not yet realize what is happening. According to the Department of Defense budget report on July 7, 2011, the spending will increase greatly due to the Defense of Marriage act being trashed and the president's acceptance of same-sex marriages because homosexual mates will now have the same rights to home expenses and support as Army wives.

A typical appointee of Obama is Chai Feldblum, a lesbian whom he selected to head the Equal Employment Commission. In fact, everyone who heads the federal employment agencies seems to be homosexual, according to the press recordings at the beginning of the president's term in 2009. According to the Traditional Values Coalition, Ms. (or whatever) Feldblum is not only a homosexual, she is polyamorous, meaning having more than one intimate relationship at a time with the knowledge and consent of everyone involved. Feldblum is a strong believer in gay-marriage rights. Chai is quoted as saying, "I'm having a hard time coming up with any case in which religious liberty should win. Gays win, Christians lose!"

A CNS news item on June 27, 2011, reports, "Secretary of State Hillary Clinton said on Monday that the U.S. State Department played an instrumental role in 'selling the deal' for pop rock musician Lady GaGa to perform at the gay pride parade in Rome, Italy." What are we doing here? Paying our secretary of state to act as an entertainment agent for homosexual affairs where participants openly commit the most vulgar acts known to the devil or mankind.

Obama's appointment of Kevin Jennings (founder of GLSEN [Gay, Lesbian, & Straight Education Network] and one of the most outspoken homosexual activists in the world) to head the Department of Education has now led to the demand that all schoolbooks include the history and lives of so-called famous homosexuals (Fox News, July 6, 2011). CNS reported a homosexual party sponsored by the Department of Education and Kathleen Sebelius, another Obama appointee, stated this party was to "insure that LGBT students' rights were protected." Now, many universities in the United States are granting LGBT degrees. A federal tax grant (your money) was given to the Gay Straight Alliance Network to teach homosexual youth to perform safer sex to keep the AIDS statistics down.

Many major government departments in Washington D.C. now have inner homosexual departments with websites. When was our Constitution amended to allow separate inner subversive units, paid for by taxpayer's dollars, whose purpose so stated is to teach our children how to "safely" sodomize each other and close our churches? The Department of Justice has a homosexual department and website headed, "DOJ PRIDE – The Official Web Presence for LGBT Employees and Their Allies" The website is composed of eight pages on the mission and purpose for the Department of Justice, but summarizes it as follows:

"Besides conducting outreach to prospective employees, DOJ Pride sponsors brown-bag lectures featuring experts in the LGBT community discussing issues of importance in DOJ members, such as marriage equality. Finally, through its yearly Pride Month Celebration and Award Ceremony, DOJ Pride has taken an active role in recognizing the work of LGBT supporters inside the Department of Justice, the Federal Government, and the Nation."

Even the CIA is jumping on the pro-LGBT bandwagon. A news item dated July 11, 2011, on DallasCaller.com is headlined, "CIA to Sponsor LGBT Advocacy Group Summit." The reason stated for this CIA diversion is "to promote diversity within CIA ranks," says CIA spokeswoman Marie Hart. Evidently promoting homosexuality takes precedent above protecting our nation against terrorists and spies. The president and his offices have been bought by the homosexual conspiracy. As Oklahoma representative Sally Kern states repeatedly in her book, The Stoning of Sally Kern, this is the greatest danger to the freedom and sovereignty of the United States in our nation today.

There are sixteen references in the books of the prophets to warn nations against committing the sins of Sodom and Gomorrah. Israel's two good kings, Asa and Josiah, began their reigns by trashing the sodomites' houses, probably bath houses, and chasing them out of town. There are six references to Sodom and Gomorrah in the Gospels and Jesus was not exactly suggesting these cities as vacation resorts.

Paul began his letter to the Christians in Rome to warn them against becoming morally and spiritually corrupted by that homosexually saturated society. Paul warned the Christians about homosexuals who sin against God's created order:

"For this cause God gave them up unto vile affections: for even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature: And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompense of their error which was meet. And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not convenient . . . Who knowing the judgment of God, that they which commit such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but have pleasure in them that do them." -- Romans 1:26- 32.

When Peter wrote his last epistle he knew that within a few days he would be crucified, and he evidently felt he had to leave the warning to Christians that they must not follow the u example of Sodom and Gomorrah (2 Peter 2:6). I did not teach from the Southern Baptist Quarterly lesson for July 3, 2011, because it indicated that the sin Peter referenced was gluttony or over-eating.

Jude, the half-brother of Jesus, was determined to write an epistle on the love of God in sending his brother Jesus to die for the sins of the world. However the Holy Spirit stopped him and told him to write to the churches warning about sodomites in the pulpit:

“For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ. . . . Even as Sodom and Gomorrha, and the cities about them in like manner, giving themselves over to fornication, and going after strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire. Likewise also these filthy dreamers defile the flesh, despise dominion, and speak evil of dignities.”

-- Jude verses 4, 7-8

The Bible says that homosexuality is a sin, and the fear of homosexuality is a concern that every Christian should have. Today sodomites are being ordained as deacons and pastors in many churches. There is only one pastor in Oklahoma City that I know of who has the courage to stand up in the pulpit and teach what God says about homosexuals and the destruction that this sin against nature brings to any nation that does not heed the example of Sodom and Gomorrah. That pastor is Paul Blair of the Fairview Baptist Church in Edmond, Oklahoma. Even Glenn Beck, O'Reilly of Fox, or Rush Limbaugh, recognized voices for conservatism, dare not mention one negative word about homosexuals.

Our president has made a commitment to fulfill the homo- sexual agenda for the sodomization of the United States. He is being paid to do it. Pastors and teachers are scared to touch the subject, hiding in fear behind their pulpits. Over and over Sodom is given in the Bible as an example for nations who act likewise. It is up to Christians like me, an 88-year-old WWII veteran who spent three years in the South Pacific, to warn our nation that God is going to give up on us unless there is an awakening in our nation and repentance in our churches.

The Bible describes the homosexual lifestyle as “unseemly,” meaning wicked beyond imagination. Yet the homosexuals among us do have the right to vote, own property, and engage in business with only ecclesiastical limitations, as should be understandable. They also have the right to live together and pursue their particular lifestyle. Yet this is not enough for our government who is now trying to force the acceptance of this unhealthy, immoral, even deadly lifestyle on all of us. I love my country, so please join me in prayer to our God who hears when no one else does.

“I believe that the next half century will determine if we will advance the cause of Christian civilization or revert to the horrors of brutal paganism. The thought of modern industry in the hands of Christian charity is a dream worth dreaming. The thought of industry in the hands of paganism is a nightmare beyond imagining. The choice between the two is upon us.”

--Theodore Roosevelt

“History fails to record a single precedent in which nations subject to moral decay have not passed into political and economic decline. There has been either a spiritual awakening to overcome the moral lapse, or a progressive deterioration leading to ultimate national disaster.”

-- General Douglas MacArthur

In “A Letter from the Pastor,” Noah Hutchings writes:

“God bless you for being a part of a ministry that has served to warn the sleeping and the misinformed that the enemies of our nation are not only near, but they are already among us. Even though the trumpet has been sounded, the majority of our churches and pastors are still asleep.

“Our founding fathers warned that our republican form of government would endure only as long as this was a Christian nation. God also warns us many times in His Word that any nation that follows Sodom's example would be destroyed like Sodom was destroyed.

“As I indicate in our current Prophetic Observer for August, the president has changed the traditional month of brides to “Gay Pride Month,” and stated that homosexuals are the best people in our country for government service. He has subsequently appointed so-called ‘gays’ to department heads. Now it would seem that the main purpose of these various departments such as the Department of Justice, Department of Education, the State Department, etc, is the promotion of the homosexual agenda. It was not an easy decision for me to present this information in the current edition, but I felt I had to do it.”

WAKE UP, AMERICA! YOUR HOUSE AND NATION ARE ON FIRE!

Come to the Feast of Tabernacles 2011 in Omak, Washington!

October 14-21, 2011

Join us and observe God's annual Feast of Tabernacles – Sukkot – with us on the true, correct, God-commanded dates, according to His divine calendar, this year in Omak, Washington!

Omak, is a picturesque, old-fashioned cowboy and western town, on the east side of the Cascade mountains sixty miles south of Canada, with the beautiful Okanogan River running through it. Omak is a spectacular site to “get away from it all” and congregate together to worship and rejoice before God!

We will keep the Feast as GOD COMMANDED – we will expound and teach what God commands – “that your generations may KNOW that I made the children of Israel to  dwell in booths, when I brought them out of the land of Egypt” (v.43). We will build lovely “sukkot” dwellings for fellowship and spiritual enjoyment as God commanded.

We will wave the “lulavs” – “the boughs of goodly trees, branches of palm trees, and willows of the brook” (verse 40), and “REJOICE before the LORD” (same verse)! There will also be messages on Christian living, overcoming, Biblical doctrine, and Bible prophecy and the coming Kingdom of God! Bring your shofars and lulavs and hearty appetites for God's Truth and good spiritual fellowship and feasting! And we will “REJOICE” with “joy unspeakable and full of glory”!

In these times of deadly peril, growing world troubles, and onrushing planetary crises, with Great Tribulation beginning to stir and blow, God's people need to get together, fellowship, and be instructed on what to do and how to prepare for coming hard times. There is a tremendous joyous spirit and feeling of camaraderie and outgoing love among those who celebrate the Feast with us in Omak! It is incredible! And the revelations from the Scriptures during the messages is awesome! “Omak” in the Indian language means “Good Medicine.” The Feast will be “good medicine” for your heart, mind, body, soul, and spirit!

The Feast will be held at:

Best Western Peppertree Omak Inn (509) 422-2088

820 Koala Drive

Omak, WA 98841

God's Holy SABBATH – Saturday or Sunday?

Is God's Sabbath abolished with the "Old Covenant"?
Was the Sabbath merely part of the rituals and abolished at the Cross? Or is the Sabbath Day an eternal command to be observed by His true people, today?

Sunday observance is NOWHERE commanded in the Bible! So why do so many "Christians" observe Sunday, which was the day of the ancient pagan Sun god, of Mithraism and Baal? Yet millions observe this day as "if" it were God's holy Sabbath! Yet the Seventh Day Sabbath, the day the Jews observe, was also observed by the EARLY CHURCH, the apostles, and JESUS CHRIST HIMSELF! It is mentioned hundreds of times in the Bible and COMMANDED TO BE OBSERVED BY GOD'S PEOPLE!

Does it make any difference WHICH day we observe? "There is a way that seems right to a man, but the END thereof are the ways of DEATH"! (Prov.14:12). It makes a BIG DIFFERENCE in the sight of Almighty GOD!

In this challenging new booklet, we dare to reveal a shocking case of religious fraud and deception. It is time you know the TRUTH about the Sabbath versus Sunday controversy. Read in this astounding new booklet the true history of the Sabbath, the shocking origins of Sunday worship, Scriptural evidence and proof the Sabbath is not abolished, where the Jews and rabbis went wrong on Sabbath worship, and how we should keep God's true Sabbath – the covenant sign between Him and His people, holy.

*A New Look at

SABBATH*

Letters from Our Readers

“You had went to the trouble of sending me some literature quite extensive (more than the jail staff ‘mail’ people were willing to deal with or for me to have apparently), so you should have had this returned to you; according to them, some 300 pages or more. . . This must have cost you plenty in postage too . . . I really needed this material, spiritual food which you’d provided so generously. Can you please resend it, possibly in two increments? I will be sure to spread it around to those starving individuals, ‘cast about with darkness’

“It irritates me no end the depths that Satan will go to mess up a good thing. This is not the first time this particular woman, the mail clerk, has returned a long awaited, such as your’s was, package or letter from a religious organization, not of the normal, Sunday-deceived, Easter egg rolling, lawless hordes. This woman is of some other sect who apparently views material such as your’s subversive or whacko, sectarian, who knows, with the visible hordes reeling because of Harold Camping’s well intended but unfortunately not so well taken prediction or assumption, and the entire world in absolute turmoil, it’s no surprise either.

“You folks at TPM are a Godsend let me assure you, there are very few people, organizations or anything else of merit for that matter, that will aid a man in my position. There simply is a void there in the body of Christ which unfortunately our Messiah and King will deal with just the way He said He would. So my appreciation and kudos to you there in Omak, Washington, Halleluyah! May our Heavenly Father bless you and watch over you, spread His tent over you and yours and send His Holy Angels to guide, protect, and nurture you and your many listeners, students and ministry, in Yahshua’s Name.

“We need you, Mr. Dankenbring, the material you send is needed and wanted, please endure this Satanic meddling and not allow it to deter our communications.

“I’ve got no idea what you sent, somebody in very low places seems to not want me to receive it. So it must be worthy.

“I am patiently enduring much persecution from the very same adversary, it seems that this one is on the proverbial ‘prowl,’ more than usual given their limited time of rulership that remains.

“I will pray for your continued financial blessing in that I am poor in pocket at this moment, but sure of Heaven’s continued support of you and yours. Many blessings, fine sir.”

“It is looking more every day that Barry Soetero ‘or whatever his name is’ is getting closer to be the end time Beast.

“It looks to me that we are no longer living under the Constitution or any law in general. This country is turning into or has turned into a lawless country where if you have the money anything goes.

“With all the immorality, theft, and lawbreaking it cannot be much longer till YAHWEH allows the US to be punished and it will not be nice.

“As far as I can see and understand YAHSHUA is our only hope.

“Be prepared for a very rough ride. Hang in there because there will be the best of times in the near future with YAHSHUA as LORD of lords and KING of kings.”

- Charles Rearick, Ohio

“God bless and perfect His will in your life and through the ministry He has called you to serve Him in..

“Thank you for the articles on various topics, they have truly been enlightening and helpful as I search the Scriptures to find what God’s will is for me and all mankind. I would very much like to continue receiving your literature and have enclosed a list of articles of request at this time.

“In keeping with God’s perfect Law, I love you in every respect and truly thank the Eternal, almighty God for people like you, who not only have a heart to know the Lord but who understand the significance in giving a portion to seven, and also to eight; for we know not what evil shall be upon the earth (paraphrased from Eccl.11:2).

“Keep your focus on the Messiah, for it is His Anointing that consecrates you.

“In one of your articles (‘How Must God’s Ministers Be Ordained?’), p.14, you mention the fruit of the Spirit of God which is Gal.5:22-23. This fruit is the PROOF of all TRUE ministers of God. This fruit is developed by the Power of God’s Holy Spirit and unlike other things, CANNOT be equaled in duplication by the enemy. Satan has deceived the whole world but only because we have been un-equipped to discern the true Spirit of God. The fruits are obvious, if one lacks them one lacks the Spirit of the Eternal. Simple as that.

“You, brother, are exhibiting true qualities that reflect this Spirit – Stay tuned to the Truth and Prove your own Work and do not allow outside influence (dark principalities, powers) steal from you what God has placed into your care.

“Teach from the Spirit always and be not conformed to the world – it’s ways always lead to separation from God. Practice Truth in all your ways. God Speed!”

“As I watch the natural disasters taking place from one end of the country to the other, the intensity and scope in which they are taking place defies description. What a person must keep in mind, however, is that what is now happening is only a foretaste of what is going to occur in the Great Tribulation.

“It’s disturbing to see how few people realize that natural disasters are the abnormal normal for the country. I can in all honesty understand if the average American is looking the other way. The vast overwhelming majority of people do not understand why. What deeply bothers me is how the ministers of many of the Churches of God are saying very little, if even anything at all, about what is taking place, at Sabbath services. This is what happens when a lukewarm attitude sets in, and a deep desire to provide answers and the return of Christ is missing. We are very close to the Great Tribulation, but a lack of urgency has become a cancerous spiritual condition.

“Denying reality is in, and facing what is taking place is out. Far too many brethren think like the group they are with. Sabbath services has become a place in which brethren escape from what is discouraging to the point that events that are affecting for more people is avoided in conversations.

“Ministers are giving one sermon after another on subjects that revolve around personal salvation, while failing to realize this is exactly what churches around the country are doing on any given Sunday. It’s become so common that it will take events to become personal in order for this sad spiritual condition to be seen for what it is – an affront to God and Christ. The tragedy in all of this is that by the time the brethren who are in a lukewarm spiritual state wake up, it will be too late. The Great Tribulation will be the nightmarish reality that will be experienced for myself and other brethren if we do not maintain the absolute dedication to God’s way of life.

“Because many brethren in the various Churches of God at one time attended Worldwide, date setting is remembered for prophetic events. Since nothing happened as many brethren thought things should, many of the splintered offshoots have gone to the opposite extreme of neglecting prophecy for the most part. This is exactly what Satan wants, and we are naively complying in taking part in such an attitude.

“Just how much longer do the churches of God believe life’s daily routines are going to continue as they are? What many brethren are failing to realize is that what is taking place in the area of natural disasters is just as much of a wake-up call for God’s Church as it is for the country, but many of God’s people do not see it.

“Throughout the past few months I have wondered how many brethren that were once members of God’s Church have been affected by the tornadoes and floods? How many brethren in the various Churches of God are presently affected by events taking place? Events are going to become far more personal than many brethren realize. How many of God’s people see the reality of what is taking place around us?

“I want to thank you for the work you are doing. You have spoken out on the sad state of God’s Church many times, but brethren are confused and far too many do not realize God’s Church is not an organization. Thank you for respecting the brethren and helping us to realize God values His people.

“I pray for God’s blessing on you, Cappy, and all who are involve in the Work you are doing.”

NEW WEBSITE UP AND RUNNING

“The website is fully functional and TPM's YouTube page has 13 Bible studies locked and loaded for viewing as of Friday, the 1st of July. I have a link to the new TPM website on TPM's YouTube page and mine. Also, please put a banner on the old TPM page that advertises your new website and that it is the new, one-stop "shopping" for all things Triumph Prophetic Ministries. This combines the best of the old triumphpro.com website and the calendar, audios and internet streaming of the Triumphpro.org website.

“Now, one can on this one website:

“Access any 2011 audio Bible study, your YouTube page and all articles and ebooks that you have put on the old website AND they can also utilize internet streaming at the bottom left of the front page of the new website IF they have Windows Media Player and/or Real Player.

At the upper right side of the website is an elongated white box with the words SEARCH SITE in it. Anyone can use this search engine to quickly find any article or 2011 audio Bible study that is on the website.

“There are FIVE major categories (excluding the Home tab): the ABOUT US tab that has TPM's official Statement of Beliefs and a personal message from you. An ARTICLES tab that has seven sub-tabs (or sub-categories) which are:

“Bible Correspondence Course
Basic Doctrine
Bible Prophecy
The Nature of God
Biblical History
End Time Apostasy of the Churches of God and E-books

“The next tab is the MEDIA tab that has two sub-tabs which are the AUDIO ARCHIVE which has every 2011 Bible Study done by you and a YOUTUBE tab that has the link to TPM's official YouTube channel, TriumphProMinistries.

“The next tab is the HOLY DAYS & CALENDAR tab which has seven sub-tabs just like the ARTICLES tab. The seven sub-tabs of the HOLY DAYS & CALENDAR tab are:

“The Sabbath
Passover - Unleavened Bread
Counting the Omer
Pentecost –Shavuot
The Fall Feasts
2011 (Current Month calendar in PDF form ... currently showing SIVAN) Calendar Articles and Booklets

“The last tab is the self-explanatory CONTACT US tab.

“Directly underneath the CONTACT US tab is a big box entitled LATEST which shows everyone that last THREE things that were posted to the website be it an article, PF, audio or message from you.

“Moving on....on the right side of the front page of the new website is a link to the current issue of the PROPHECY FLASH! magazine and underneath that link is another link to the PF archive going back to the March-April 2010 issue.

“Underneath the PF section is an extra link entitled FROM THE PASTOR which has your welcome letter to all visitors and an area that you can update whenever you wish to communicate a timely message to website visitors and members.

“Underneath the FROM THE PASTOR link are two huge boxes that are extra links to all 2011 audio Bible studies and the new YouTube page for TPM. Underneath that is an archive of everything that has been posted by month (starting June 2011) on the website.

“SABBATH BIBLE STUDIES (with the INTERNET STREAMING links for either Windows Media Player or Real Player, as explained above)

“A recap of all the major CATEGORIES in the tabs at the top of the website starting with the Bible Correspondence Course and ending with the YouTube channel.

“RESOURCES: These are links with disclaimer of four very good alternative news websites: DRUDGE REPORT, WORLD NET DAILY, TRUNews and STAN DEYO's website .

“And finally, the GET IN TOUCH section which is a recap of the CONTACT US tab.

“This is the CLIFF NOTES version that can be explained to the brethren on the new, improved and hopefully user-friendly TPM website.”

“Thu. April 6, 30AD for Christ's death is astounding. I was convinced it had to be on Wednesday.

“After coming out of the Catholic Church (error) into a church of god (error), I am amazed that you have now taught me about:

Passover Nisan 15
Counting the Omer
Pentecost Sivan 5,6,7
Ephraim & Manasseh
Christ's Death

“It may be that you are the only one on the planet who is publishing the truth, that is comforting and an awakening. God bless all of you!”

“I thank Yah continually for working through you! In the approximately five years that I have been studying TPM materials I have grown tremendously in knowledge and wisdom and have a relationship with our Father like at no other time in my life. I wish I had some monetary way of showing my appreciation, but I have had $0 since I sent my last tithe to TPM in 2/08 – a mere $15, at that. Please rest assured, though, that TPM is making a difference.

“I specifically remember writing to you several years ago, praising the attitude put forth in your Bible Study regarding John 10:16, ‘I have other sheep, which are not of this fold.’ It was one of many areas that set TPM apart from other ministries such as PCOG, and it showed me that I had ‘come home.’ You were even kind enough to print my letter in the next issue of PF!, which really uplifted me.

“I must confess that I still maintain a subscription to Good News (UCOG). I have to put up with some of the false doctrines and beliefs they put forth in the process, such as a Wednesday crucifixion or that the USA is Manasseh, but their magazine helps fill a void left by the TPM materials. They routinely offer Biblical perspectives on practical issues such as marriage skills, parenting techniques, and personal finances. It was my failure to adhere to God's Torah in areas like these that put me in prison, not that I thought the crucifixion was on ‘Good Friday.’ I need this type of spiritual knowledge and wisdom to accomplish the required healing in my life.

“I understand that Yah will use different ministries in different ways, and that TPM may be led to a different focus than marriage and family skills, etc. On occasion, the PF! has run articles in these areas, and they were very good, but they are also generally few and far between. We need more!

“I guess the point of this letter is for us not to forget that our Shepherd has sheep in other flocks. United may not be blessed with the same insight and wisdom in some areas, but they still augment the teachings of TPM in a way similar to a husband and wife augmenting each other (I Cor.12 applies).

“I’ve never attended a COG, having only heard of them after I got locked up. My only personal experiences with them have been through reading their literature. But I can confidently say that I have received blessings from all of them. After all, it was through the Trumpet (PCOG) that I first learned of the Sunday/Christmas/Easter fiasco, not United, and not TPM. They ‘held me over’ until I found TPM two years later (at which time I dropped the Trumpet like a hot potato. But Yah used them as a blessing none the less (Rom.8:28).

“TPM is still ‘my church.’ Bill is still ‘my pastor.’ And I still learn things from the Good News that I need, to complement the wonderful teaching in PF! Hallelu Yah for other flocks!”

“I WAS HANDED March-April 2009 issue [of Prophecy Flash] and found that it is the most insightful thing I’ve read in some time.

“I keep running into politically correct publications or what they now call ‘type sensitive’ and therefore the truth is being withheld.

“America the Christian nation is hiding – we’ve allowed despotic administrations to ‘creep in unawares’ and overthrow what we were founded upon. In so much that I saw in NYC, they close down city blocks – that way the Muslims in America can pray while any Christian who would attempt that would be sued because their religion is being force fed to them. What a shame that freedom of religion now means freedom from religion and Christianity.”

-- Michigan

“I just wanted to thank you for your video on fasting. After I saw it I decided to fast and today is my third day. I’m actually kind of shocked at how well it’s going and how God has opened up my heart to start giving to people who need it. It’s not much of a leap but it’s pretty huge for me.

“Thank you for sharing the word of God.”

-- Youtube response

“You said at the last Bible Study course “Give God an inch and He will blow the doors off.” Well, I took that literally and printed out over 1 inch of material from the Triumph web-site, including Pyramids, Crucifixion, Law and Grace, Obedience, Birth date, Passover, Omer Counting, and Pentecost.

“The recipient is John MacKenzie in Edmonton, Alberta, Canada with the Living Church. He is 49 years old and used to be 6 foot 4. He was a mountain climber and fell several hundred feet from 11,500. He damaged a leg and then had it amputated. Then with infection and over 100 surgeries, and he lost the other leg. So now he is only 42" tall. He wheels around on a chair, and when I saw him in the hospital without a shirt, he is in amazing upper body condition. He always has a smile for everyone, and looks quite something with a shaved head. He is extremely intelligent, and a dangerous chess player. He is loved by hundreds in the church and out, for overcoming his situation, and always staying upbeat.

“So this 1 inch of documentation was sent with a covering letter. In it he was gently and lovingly informed that missing out on Passover, Omer and Pentecost continually was lawlessness and then directed his attention to the scriptures that required death of those people practicing lawlessness. Once he reads all the articles which may take some time, he has the choice to ignore them, refute them somehow, or believe them. All 3 choices result in him being in trouble. However, the belief would then mean he would have to either cause Living to change its way, or he could start his own Church, or he could join Triumph, and bring friends with him.

“It will be interesting to see what he does and how God guides him. He is in very tight with the Minister in Edmonton, Stuart Wachowicz, who is another A-1 individual, so possibly they could work together to change Alberta (maybe 80 people), and then give guidance to the larger church.

“At any rate, let’s watch to see if God blows the doors off!! The UPS courier package will arrive in Edmonton by Wednesday July 13, end of day.

“Maybe you and Cappy could pray for an explosion of love and truth, and that some people would be saved from the fire.”

“Greetings in the name of Almighty God (Yahveh & Yeshua).

“The monitor is now off, and I have and will continue to give profuse thanks to Almighty God. Wearing the monitor for the past 14 plus months was most difficult, to say the least.

“I now realize that the monitor situation, as nightmarish as it was, was a means in which God worked to correct my character defects: fear, lack of faith, and complaining. Darkness comes before the dawn. Man’s extremity is faith’s hour and God’s opportunity. What I had considered as horrible trials were really blessings in disguise. Without a doubt God has been correcting me because of His love for me. Moreover, God used this monitor situation to slow me down considerably so that I could see Him work. He compelled me via of those trials to see in slow motion all these miracles He performed for me, and He gave me time to absorb them. He has instilled life-long lessons in me.

“So at the end of my having to wear the monitor I began to walk in faith, a more sure faith than I had at first, a faith that I will continue to exercise for the rest of my life. I am hopefully and prayerfully and faithfully expecting to receive what is unseen—the things I have asked for. I have learned to look for Miracles, to expect the impossible, to feel the intangible and to see the invisible, thanks be to Almighty God.

“I have learned that I am to expect blessings NOT in the anticipation of them arriving in a particular form, of which I had been ignorantly doing. It is as God Word says---God WILL deliver His promises, but in His own Way. His Ways are without a doubt higher than our ways. He is faithful and just to do what He has promised and, to even do exceedingly abundant than what we ask or imagine.

“Those trials that I went through for 14 plus months with the monitor were painful and unpleasant (going to the dentist is sometimes painful and unpleasant, as well), but they were needed. God uses trials and tests and sufferings as His tools to develop and correct and refine our characters. Without trials we would just coast along assuming that things were right, when in fact they aren't! Therefore, I thank God for those trials.

“I have to adhere to the monitor schedule, even though I no longer have the monitor, until this coming Tuesday (7/26/11). After that day I will be able to move around a lot easier without the monitor, I will continue to diligently search for a job and I am expecting and confident that a job will be forthcoming. I already had the job in faith with the monitor on, but God has delayed it to teach me the lessons He has taught me.

“I will be forever thankful, as well as grateful for your prayers and the prayers of the church there. I am also very grateful for your words of encouragement, as well as your words of correction

“Please continue to keep me in your prayers, in that I will always do what is pleasing to God. You and the Church there are in my prayers.”

“Started reading the articles you sent me...the 144,000 This quote was staggering in its implications:

““ ‘It is also a warning to THOSE IN GOD'S CHURCH! It is a warning that in the end-times a great APOSTASY will occur in God's Church, just as happened during the time of the first century apostles. This apostasy will be a WHOLESALE REBELLION against the precious truths of God! It will be led and orchestrated by a ‘man of sin,’ a ‘son of perdition,’ WITHIN THE CHURCH -- a modern LEADER of the Worldwide CHURCH of God!

“ ‘The Phillips Translation has, ‘That day will not come before there arises a DEFINITE REJECTION of God and the appearance of the LAWLESS MAN. He is the product of all that leads to death, and he sets himself up in opposition to every religion [but his own!].’”

“I had found out a few pieces of information over the years that suggested to me the joke " Living Catholic Church of God". Because of structure, tone, rules, some lawlessness, some pandering (you can eat out on the Sabbath, or not, you choose), etc. Now after reading your article, I believe I can see what we are up against. And here just today I was thinking how great it would be if that Church of God blended with Triumph and combined Truth and organization, nothing could stop us...well God stop us from ever blending with that or any other Church. It's really the enemy within, and it has alot of sincere people inside it. I met 4 in Winnipeg a few weeks ago and they were very nice and limp.

“So, now I understand where my letters to that Church in Feb and recently fit in context. They probably think I am an idiot or a maniac to oppose them, or suggest correction. I even suggested in a recent letter that if there was not repentance, blood would be spilt. God would spill it of course. I had no idea of your article.

“I have attached the articles for your interest. I tried to catch his attention with the letters and 20 articles. It should also be noted he is not a babe in the woods, but a mountain climber, a reformed drug dealer (he told me himself), and worst of all he played chess for money in New York city, I can't think of anything lower :). He wants to be a great guy, well liked, however, he does know how the game of life is played whether it is the underground economy, a motorcycle gang, or a church, some of which are similar. My hope is that he joins the winning side, as he has huge potential.

“Mark Twain said ignorance and confidence means success is assured. And it can at times.

“This article makes me want to fast every day and spend even more time with God. Boy, do I ever have more repentance to do.

“My latest covenant with myself is to shut up. Which seems ever so brilliant on my part.

“The other thing is that I think they have my wife hooked in. The things she says, the things she knows that only the Church should have known, leaves me to believe they have made promises to her. And there is the ever so subtle use of my son's name whenever things heat up, as though a threat is implied. I could be imagining these things, however, I questioned her on a piece of information and she blabbered away never answering the question - just as I suspected.

“These scriptures sure come into play: Luke 12:51 – ‘Do you suppose that I came to give peace on earth? I tell you, not at all, but rather division.’

“Matthew 10:36 – ‘a man's enemies will be those of his own household.’

“The exciting and comforting thing is we have El Shaddai, Yeshua, the Bible, each other and a huge reward for eternity. What more could a person want?

“Keep going man, be a loving tank!”

“I wanted to write to tell you how very much I enjoy ‘Prophecy Flash,’ and the articles I’ve read. Your publications have really made the Holy Bible much more understandable. I am an inmate and on my 16th year of a rest-of-my-life sentence. I’ve read the Holy Bible through cover to cover, but never could grasp its meanings until I was introduced to your publications a few years ago. Today, as always, I share all your publications to those on my dorm. To help cut down on your costs, since we are all indigent, your publications I receive are available to 51 other men on this one dorm. We are eternally grateful for all you do for us people behind bars. Most ministers today have given up on those of us in here. Many notices come weekly stating that the ministry no longer corresponds with inmates. I simply tell the guys that get these articles that they shouldn’t be reading any material put out by such so-called ministries to begin with. I then offer some of your publications for them to examine such as the latest ‘Prophecy Flash.’ Then later I hear replies such as ‘Wow! This is great stuff!’

“I really want to thank you on behalf of all the guys here on this geriatric/medical unit, for your time, teachings and compassion shown us through your fine ministry.”

-- Texas

I received my two back issues of the PF, and Oh my – I held them both to my chest and heart and hugged them, thanking YA for these precious treasures. Each one, I read so slowly, to savor and take in every word. I needed to ‘eat’ both magazines to catch up and quench my hunger, from not eating PF for a couple of months. (There is never any ‘junk food’ in the PF!).

“One part of your article on the IDL [International Date Line] I really got excited to read; its on page 27, where ‘God says,’ and then “GOD thunders.’ These 3 paragraphs jumped off the pages at me, and gave me a renewed hope for the future of Jerusalem. When at the end, it says: ‘For as a young man marries a virgin, so shall your sons marry you, and as the bridegroom rejoices over the bride, SO SHALL YOUR GOD REJOICE OVER YOU.’ Isaiah 62:1-5.

“I feel such joy to read those scriptures because I felt that ‘first love’ surge through me, and I took it to mean that in the future, as we have our new identity as a first fruit, that this ‘feeling’ will be reality. Like when we first fell in love. Am I wrong to interpret this to mean that we will ALWAYS feel like this? Total joy and love??

“God Bless you. You truly have that role of the Prophet. God pour more strength and power onto you both, daily.”

-- “a Michigan sheep”

COMMENT: I am sure that “first love” will last forever – the first and the last – Alpha and Omega – the beginning and the end – throughout all eternity! It will be far beyond any human comparison.

Did They Really Hear the Voice of God?

A voice spoke from heaven at Jesus' baptism, saying "This is my beloved Son." A voice spoke at the end of the Transfiguration, saying the same thing. Whose voice was this? Was it the Father? Yet Yeshua said of the Father, "You have neither heard His voice at any time, nor seen His form." What is the explanation of this puzzle, this apparent contradiction? What do you mean, "The voice of God"?

William F. Dankenbring

When Yeshua was baptized by John, and came up out of the water, the Spirit of God descended like a dove, and lit upon Him. "And suddenly a voice came from heaven, saying, 'This is My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased'" (Matt.3:16-17).

In a prayer late in His ministry, Christ's soul was troubled, as the time of His crucifixion approached. He said, "Now My soul is troubled, and what shall I say? Father, save Me from this hour? But for this purpose I came to this hour. Father, glorify Your name" (John 12:27).

We read: "Then a voice came from heaven, saying, 'I have both glorified it and will glorify it again.' Therefore the people who stood by and heard it said that it had thundered. L Others said, 'An angel has spoken to Him'. Jesus answered and said, 'This voice did not come because of Me, but for your sake. Now is the judgment of this world; now the ruler of this world will be cast out. And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all peoples to Myself'" (John 12:28-32).

At the Transfiguration, Yeshua and Peter, James and John ascended a mountain, and before their eyes He was "transfigured before them. His face shone like the sun, and His clothes became as white as the light. And behold, Moses and Elijah appeared to them, talking with Him" (Matt.17:1-3).

Peter, in awe, spoke up and said, "Lord, it is good for us to be here; if You wish, let us make here three tabernacles: one for You, one for Moses, and one for Elijah."

"While he was still speaking, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them; and suddenly a voice came out of the cloud, saying, 'This is My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased. Hear Him!'" (v.5).

They were greatly afraid until Jesus came and touched them, saying, “Arise, and do not be afraid.” They lifted up their eyes, and then saw Jesus only. As they came down the mountain, Yeshua said to them, “Tell the vision to no one until the Son of Man is risen from the dead” (vs.6-9).

A Mystery of Mysteries

These passages all seem very straightforward. It would seem that the disciples, and on at least one occasion, the people heard the voice of God the Father, speaking to Christ, speaking to Him, and calling Him His divine Son.

But we read the words of Christ Himself in John 5, saying: “And the Father Himself, who sent Me, has testified of Me. You have neither heard His voice at any time, nor seen His form” (John 5:37).

If that is the case, and “the Scripture cannot be broken” (John 10:35), then whose voice did they hear on these striking, singular occasions? Was it not the voice of the Father? Did He not call Christ, “My beloved Son”?

What gives? What is the explanation of this anomaly, this conundrum, this paradox? God cannot lie (Titus 1:2), so the problem must lie with our understanding and interpretation!

Christ clearly said that NO MAN has heard the voice of God the Father at any time – anywhere! In the case of the Transfiguration, where the disciples thought they heard the voice of God, Christ later told them it had all been a “vision” – He said to them, “Tell the VISION to no one”!

At the end of His prayer when He asked the Father to glorify His own name, and the Father replied in a strong voice, saying, “I have both glorified it and will glorify it again”, some of the people thought it was thunder; others thought an angel spoke to Him. Obviously, they did not know for sure. Yet the Scriptures say it was the voice of the Father!

How can this puzzle be explained? The Bible does not contradict itself. The whole of the Scriptures are inspired of God – “God breathed” (II Timothy 3:16). The problem is solved when we understand the role of the “herald” in ancient times.

The Herald

The office of the herald was very important in ancient times. They spoke on behalf of the king. In the days of king Nebuchadnezzar, he set up a huge statue of himself, and commanded all people to bow down to it and worship it. The image was 60 cubits high and 6 cubits wide—or about 90 feet by 9 feet. “Then a HERALD cried aloud, ‘To you it is commanded, O peoples, nations, and languages, that at the time you hear the sound of the horn, flute, harp, lyre, and psaltery, in symphony with all kinds of music, you shall fall down and worship the gold image that King Nebuchadnezzar has set up and whoever does not fall down and worship shall be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace” (Dan.3:4-6).

In the book of Genesis, Joseph is lifted out of prison by Pharaoh to become second-in-command in the land of Egypt, after he interprets Pharaoh’s strange dreams, preceding seven years of abundance followed by seven years of extreme famine. Pharaoh is astonished at Joseph’s wisdom and ability, and said to him, “Since God has shown you all these things, there is not a wiser or more prudent man than you. You shall be over my house, and all my people shall be obedient to your word; only in the throne will I excel you. . . And Pharaoh took his ring off his hand, and put it on the hand of Joseph . . . And he mounted him on the second of his chariots, and a HERALD made proclamation before him; and he set him over all the land of Egypt” (Gen.41:39-43, Septuagint).

In Matthew’s gospel, we read that an angelic herald proclaimed the birth of Christ to Joseph in a dream (Matt.1:20-21). Later an angel appeared to Joseph once again, as a herald, informing him to flee to Egypt, to save his newborn Son from Herod’s vengeance (Matt.2:19-20). Later, John the Baptist came as a herald or messenger of the coming Kingdom of God (Matt.3:1-2).

Then, when Jesus came to be baptized by John, a voice from heaven confirmed that He was the Messiah, the Son of God (Matt.3:16-17).

Angels, in the Old Testament, were often sent by God to be His messengers, or heralds, bringing special messages from Him. Such angels appeared to Lot (Gen.19:1, 12), in Sodom, to Gideon (Judges 6:11-12, 21), to the parents of Samson (Judges 13:3, 8-9, 15-16, 20-21), to Joshua (Josh.5:13-15), the angel of the Lord appeared to Moses at the burning bush (Exo.3), speaking as a herald for God – a divine messenger.

Understanding this, the office of a “herald” was a very high and important one. Ministers are God’s heralds in the New Testament. As Paul wrote, “How then shall they call upon Him in whom they have not believed? And how shall they believe in Him of whom they have not heard? And how shall they hear without a preacher? And how shall they preach unless they are sent? As it is written: ‘How beautiful are the feet of those who preach the gospel of peace, who bring glad tidings of good things’” (Rom.10:14-17).

The herald is God’s spokesman – God’s messenger – one who speaks for God! Therefore, it is a divinely unique and important and salutary office – one of incredible responsibility and trust.

As Adam Clarke in his commentary declares of the “herald”: “The office, and nearly the word itself, was in use among the ancient Babylonians as appears from Dan.3:4, where the Chaldee word charoza, is rendered by the Septuagint kerux, and by our translation, very properly, herald. His business in the above place was to call an assembly, of the people, for the purpose of public worship to describe the object and nature of that worship, and the punishment to be inflicted on those who did not join in the worship, and properly assist in the solemnities of the occasion.”

The same Greek word for “herald” is found in I Tim.2:7, translated “preacher” in the New King James. It is also used in II Tim.1:11, again translated “preacher.” Peter also used it in II Pet.2:5, speaking of Noah as a “preacher [herald] of righteousness.”

Heralds were the carriers and executors of the royal commands. They went in search of those who were summoned to appear. They were entrusted with the most important missions. They accompanied princes in the most difficult circumstances. Heralds were employed to proclaim and publish whatever was to be known by the people. They proclaimed war, and declared peace. They took part in all sacred ceremonies. They sometimes waited on princes at table, and rendered them many other personal services. They were the priests of the people in many cases.

True ministers of the gospel of Jesus Christ are HERALDS of the Kingdom of God, calling upon the world and people everywhere to REPENT, and to get ready to MEET THE LORD, and to be JUDGED ON JUDGMENT DAY! As Amos wrote, “Prepare to meet your God, O Israel!” (Amos 4:12).

Isaiah was a herald of the gospel, as well as a prophet. He declared, to God’s heralds, “Cry aloud, spare not: Lift up your voice like a trumpet; tell My people their transgression, and the house of Jacob their sins” (Isa.58:1-2).

Putting the Scriptures together, then, it becomes crystal clear that the Voice heard, proclaiming “This is My Son,” was that of an angelic herald speaking for the Father, CARRYING THE FATHER’S MESSAGE! Even so, when the voice came, proclaiming He would glorify His name, and glorify it again, it was an angelic herald booming his voice like thunder, on behalf of the Father – speaking as His “stand-in,” or His direct “representative”!

We, who are God’s end-time servants, are also heralds of the Kingdom of God – representatives of Jesus Christ – ambassadors for Christ the Messiah – bringing His message, His warnings, declaring His kingship, and His commandments, for all mankind, that now is the time to get right with God, now is the time to REPENT, now is the acceptable day of SALVATION!

As Paul wrote, “Behold, NOW is the accepted time; behold, NOW is the day of salvation” (II Cor.6:2).

The final divine warning message is going forth, today! God thunders, with booming voice, “How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him who brings good news, who proclaims peace, who brings glad tidings of good things, who proclaims salvation, who says to Zion, ‘Your God reigns!’ Your watchmen shall lift up their voices, with their voices they shall sing together for they shall see eye to eye when the LORD brings back Zion” (Isaiah 52:7-8).
